

Homecoming To Offer Large And Varied Program

Resolution Voted By Potter Exes At Barbecue

More than 500 Potter county ex-students voted a resolution presented by Charles H. Keffer urging that degree requirements of the college be changed to allow basic work in the college by students desiring to go in professions other than teaching. They also voted a resolution offered by Luther Roberts condemning the recent bill asking a twenty-five per cent cut in the appropriation for state institutions of higher learning.

The resolutions were presented at a barbecue at Jack Hall's ranch. Mr. Keffer asked the board of regents and the administration of the college to alter its degree requirements from the present major in teaching subjects to a minor in those subjects which would enable medicine, law, journalism and other professional students to attend the college three years without loss of credit when they transfer to a specialized course in a university.

"It is important that Texas take care of her needy and destitute, but it is more necessary that they keep the educational institutions from becoming destitute. Today there is actually less than half as much money for each student enrolled," R. A. Stuart of the board of regents said of the recent proposal to slash the state appropriation to state supported colleges.

Talks were made at the meeting by President J. A. Hill, J. Lee Gilmore, Mrs. Earl Wyatt, John E. Hill of the board of regents, J. Fremont Mead, president of Amarillo College, John McCarty, editor and associate publisher of the Amarillo News and a former student, presided at the meeting.

Buffalo band under the direction of Prof. C. E. Strain, played at the meeting.

The resolution presented by Keffer follows:

"WHEREAS, West Texas State College was established by the State of Texas at Canyon in the year 1910 to serve a large area through the education of its youth and the training of teachers; and,

"WHEREAS, Through the help of this section its attractive physical equipment has grown greatly but not adequately; and,

"WHEREAS, under competent direction and through the efforts of a loyal and resourceful faculty it has kept pace with or led the educational world in its appointed sphere, augmenting and changing its curriculum to meet the needs of its students; and,

"WHEREAS, its ex-students look to West Texas State for graduate instruction and to the institution for the education of their children, based on the requirements of our changing world; and,

"WHEREAS, the section it serves has through the years and under the impetus of vast development in its oil, agricultural and civic resources, grown enormously in population, number of professions and specialized needs of its leaders and citizens which it cannot well serve unless its curriculum is broadened so as to permit its students to prepare themselves for professions other than the teaching profession;

"NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

- (1) That the president and board of regents of West Texas State College be and hereby are petitioned to broaden the course of study of West Texas State College to the end that degrees will be granted upon courses of study that require only a minor in education; and

- (2) That the president and board of regents of West Texas State College be and hereby are petitioned that the graduate department of West Texas State College offer courses of study that will lead to the masters degree in subjects other than education; and

- (3) That a copy of these resolutions be delivered to the president of West Texas State College and to each member of the board of regents."

TEACHERS COLLEGE PRESIDENTS UNABLE TO MEET HERE

Presidents of the seven state teachers colleges did not meet here Friday and Saturday as was scheduled because they were called to Austin on account of the proposed slice in the appropriation to state operated schools.

Their visit has been indefinitely postponed. Workings of the 10-year building program were to have been discussed at the meeting.

Don't be disappointed. Let us make your picture. Britain Studio.

Nine Candidates Are Entered for Ex Queen

Nine candidates for queen of the Homecoming festival Friday and Saturday have been certified, with others expected daily.

County candidates include: Wheeler—Miss Ruth Cantrell, teacher at Pampa.

Randall—Miss Cleo Brown, employed in county agent's office, Canyon.

Gray—Miss Yvonne Thomas, teacher at Pampa.

Hale—Miss Rowena Ewing, teacher at Plainview.

Swisher—Miss Frances Smith, teacher at Happy.

Parmer—Miss Christine Warren, teacher at Friona.

Hall—Miss Helen Boswell, teacher at Estelina.

Potter—Miss Bonnie Fay Bennett, teacher at Amarillo.

Carson—Miss Mary Beth Campbell, teacher at Skellytown.

The coronation, scheduled for Friday night at Cousins hall at the conclusion of a carnival-night club program, will be in charge of the Pi Omegas, campus social club, which also directs the crowning of the football queen. The Pi Omegas have elaborate equipment for the coronation. They also will be in charge of the grand entry of the queens at the football game Saturday afternoon.

The program Friday evening will include festivities in a western room, a Little Mexico, and a fine arts room. Features will include costume dances, fortune telling, games, magic by Bob Clark of Erick, Okla., oldtime dance numbers by a Pampa dance club, and a display of ex-student art. The program will be free to the public. Sandwiches and soft drinks may be purchased.

The homecoming program includes public speaking at 11 a. m. Saturday, a John Snider barbecue at noon, the game, and a homecoming ball in the evening.

Plans Made For Swimming Meet

Tentative plans for a swim meet with Lubbock were made by the W. T. Ducklings, women's swimming club, at their meeting last Monday. A date for the meet has not been set.

The following officers also were elected: Ivey Howard, captain; Jacqueline Tabor, first mate; Marjorie Merchant, second mate; and Lynette Harter, pilot and keeper of the log.

In order to avoid conflict with the fencing class, the club meeting hour has been changed to 7:15 until 8 o'clock each Monday night.

Eloise Poole spent the week end in Canadian at the home of Permenetta Sawyer.

Bars Down Instead of Up For Exes at Homecoming Clubs

"Mamma don't 'low no drinkin' here," but Chief Bar-Tender Irbay Carruth and Seymour Rusk, aided by their efficient staff, will hold forth with gusto at the homecoming night-club bar. With a teasing variety of Four Roses, White Horse and Hill and Hill (labels), the "whiskey-jerkers" will masquerade their harmless soda pops like real, grown-up, wild and western eye-openers.

Festively costumed cabaret girls will move about the crowd, selling a variety of sandwiches and candies.

Beautifully carved Buffalo collar pins, designed especially for the occasion by Ex-Student Durward Brown, will also be marketed as souvenirs by the cabaret girls.

Even Klondyke Lou and Artful Annie (alias Novella Goodman and Helen White Moore) from the Yukon will be there to "josh" the visiting greybeards with all their wit and wiles.

And! Furthermore! So renowned has become the fame of the Frontier Night Club that even Dead-eye Pete, Smoky Joe, and two or three of their hair-raising companions have announced their intentions of being on hand at "The Western."

The syncopation of "Mountain Music" will be furnished to blend the many and colorful western features into a typical pioneer rendezvous.

The event of the evening comes when a dance club from Pampa will lead the crowd in old-fashioned square dancing.

Ruth Cantrell, above, Wheeler County candidate for Ex-student queen, was the first entrant.

I. R. C. Will Discuss President's Foreign Policy Tomorrow

"The Administration's Foreign Policy and Its Implications" will be the subject of a series of discussions at a meeting of the International Relations Club tomorrow night. Dr. Howard E. Golden, who joined the business administration department faculty this fall, will speak on "Possibilities of Action."

Student speakers and their subjects for tomorrow night's program are: Frederick Forrester, "The Nine-Power Pact;" Mary Lena Huff, "What Other Countries Think of the President's Policy;" and O. J. Richardson, "Reaction of the American People."

All students are invited to hear these discussions. The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock in the demonstration room of the Education Building.

Tentative programs arranged for the remainder of the semester are: November 3, a talk on "The Japanese-Chinese Conflict," by Dr. C. A. Pierle; November 17, Dr. A. M. Meyer will discuss "International Aspects of Education;" December 1, Dr. Hattie M. Anderson and Miss Jennie C. Ritchie will talk on observations made in Hawaii, Australia and New Zealand on their trip during the last summer; December 15, a program dealing with Christmas in foreign lands will be given.

Odessa Winkler and Ruth Williams spent the week end in Lubbock visiting Miss Winkler's brother who is attending Tech.

Students Elect King and Spann To Council

Quixie Bea King, senior from Lamesa, and Ed Spann, sophomore, of Amarillo, were elected by the student body at large to fill the two remaining places on the Student Council in a called election at assembly Tuesday morning.

Six hundred and eighty-five ballots were polled. Six names appeared on the ballots.

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

Welcome, Exes, to a greater and forward moving W. T. I We are looking with anticipation to your coming and making every arrangement for a great occasion. Those of you who have not been on the campus for two or three years will find much to surprise and entertain you. Those who keep in close touch with their Alma Mater through frequent visits will not miss this great homecoming day.

One of your own number, Hon. R. A. Stuart of Fort Worth of the class of 1912, will be the speaker of the day at 10:30 in the morning. Mr. Stuart has earned a large place for himself in the affairs of state, having served as District Attorney at Fort Worth, member of the State Senate, member of the Board of Regents of Texas Technological College, and is now president of the Board of Regents of the Teachers Colleges of Texas, and a member of the Advisory Council of the State Board of Education. A great throng of Exes will no doubt want to greet and hear this distinguished son of W. T.

The college is proud of the place which its Exes are making for it in the educational, social, and business life of the state and nation, and takes this occasion to express its appreciation through a program that it believes each and all of you will approve. We are launching a developmental program that will mean much to you as well as to the college if we can succeed with it, and we confidently count on your cooperation and active assistance toward its realization. Please join your own Ex-student organization and thereby become, automatically, a member of the Federated Ex-students Association of the Teachers Colleges of Texas. This federated organization is going to give the Teachers Colleges a larger place in the affairs of Texas, if only the Exes here and there do their part. Membership gives, also, half-price admission to games on the campus and subscription to the Prairie.

Again, Exes, welcome home!

Cordially yours,

J. A. HILL.

Ferne Fry Chosen Football Queen For Homcoming

Ferne Fry, sophomore and Pi Omega pledge, was chosen Football Queen for the Homecoming Football game Saturday. Rachel Kidd and Virginia Hohlaus will attend Miss Fry.

Ferne is a graduate of Floydada High School; last year she was a Gamma Phi Pledge; and was a member of the Freshman Fellowship Organization. She has one brother, Forest Fry, also attending W. T.

Rachel Kidd, is a senior and president of Delta Zeta Chi; Virginia Hohlaus, senior, is a member of Pi Omega and Editor-in-chief of Le Mirage.

When asked how she felt about the new position, Ferne said "I never was so thrilled in my life, Mrs. Meyer called to tell me, and I can't even remember what I said, I was so excited."

Ex-student Queen and her attendants will be chosen Friday night at the ex-student celebration at Cousins Hall.

The Football Queen will be crowned before the Homecoming game Saturday. She will be accompanied by the ex-student queen. The Queens and their attendants will sit in reserve seats in the stadium during the game.

"Josephine" is claiming more student nickels than any other recording on the music vendor at one of the popular campus hangouts. According to fountain clerks in the establishment, this selection has been the most popular since long before the close of the summer session. The man who collects the nickels says that it is one of the best popular selections his firm has ever had. Buffalo band might well look into the price of some sheet music of "Josephine." It might prove interesting to see how "Humoresque" would go on a nickel-odians.

"Freshman pick up my books." Thus a W. T. high school senior addressed a college freshman last week. A college and high school on the same campus gives rise to a real problem—should high school seniors or college freshman be boss. Though the problem still remains, freshman at least have precedent in their favor for the collegiate young man completely ignored the majestic senior.

It seems a little unjust that the largest member of the faculty should be forced to walk up the most steps to get to his work. This may not be as bad as it seems; however, for the teacher still is and long has been the largest faculty member. Perhaps, having an assembly seat right across the hall from one's office should be compensation for climbing three flights of stairs.

No, you're wrong. We don't even pretend that this column is worth four bits, but it is four more bits to help fill up the paper.

Expect Record Festive Crowd Home Coming

Homecoming will offer one of the largest and most varied programs in the history of the event. Early indications are that a record crowd will be on hand for the festivities Friday and Saturday.

Members of the homecoming planning committee of the Ex-students Association are collaborating with the faculty alumni committee in arranging the program.

Stuart to Speak

Making the celebration predominantly ex-student, R. A. Stuart of Fort Worth, a member of the board of state teachers college regents, will speak at 10:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the Administration Building Saturday morning.

Band delegations from Hereford, Tulia, and Canyon have accepted invitations to be here. Junior colleges in the neighboring territory have been invited to attend. Ex-student delegations from Hale, Lubbock, Swisher, Deaf Smith, Crosby, and Scurry counties have announced plans for sending delegations here together. The entire east section of seats at Buffalo Stadium have been reserved for visiting bands, the football and ex-student queens and their attendants at the football game.

Numerous affairs have been announced by the clubs for former members. Saturday morning will give the exes time to visit about the campus without missing any of the scheduled events.

Cousins to be Night Club

Cousins Hall will be transferred into a night club Friday night, and exes will gather with their friends to be entertained and to see the coronation of the ex-student queen. Nine candidates for queen have been announced yesterday, and more are expected daily. The club will be divided into three units, the western room, little Mexico, and the fine arts room. A variety of entertainment will be offered at the club including square dancing, an exhibit of the work of some ex-student artists in the fine arts room, and singing.

Students will start the Homecoming ball to rolling with a pep rally and bonfire Friday night.

At noon a barbecue luncheon will be served at Buffalo Field. Prof. T. M. Moore and the T-Anchor Farm boys will be in charge of the barbecue.

Parade Scheduled

A parade under the direction of Tri-Tau, boys' social organization, will form near the home of President J. A. Hill and march down town and back to the college. Floats are being decorated this week by each of the college dormitories. Clubs who plan floats in the parade are Tri-Tau, the Baptist Student Council, Spanish Club, women physical education majors, the T-Anchor Farm boys, and the Methodist Young People. Three high school bands, Buffalo Band, and the newly organized pep squad will also be included in the parade.

The football queen, Ferne Fry, who was elected by members of the football squad at noon yesterday will be given a seat of honor at the football game.

Dance Saturday Night

Ex-students will be honored at a homecoming dance given by the members of the six campus social organizations. Logan Largent and his orchestra of Plainview will provide the music.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB TO CONTINUE WEEKLY TEAS

The custom of having weekly teas for home economics students and their friends each Wednesday afternoon from 2:30 until 4 o'clock was decided to be continued at the Home Economics Club meeting Thursday. Semester dues were set at 50 cents, to be paid on or before October 28, the date of the next meeting.

Following a business session, the members were divided into five groups and song-writing contests were held, with Misses Elizabeth Cox and Margaret Barrett as the judges.

College Pep Squad Organized By Mrs. Anthony Dougal

An official W. T. Pep Squad of sixty charter members was organized last week by Mrs. Anthony Dougal and the six cheer leaders, with Jack Pate of Amarillo as president.

Seventy maroon sweaters with white W. T. letters have been ordered by the organization. Rental fees for the sweaters will be $1 per year, and they will be retained permanently for use of the pep squad. The cheer leaders, Rachel Kidd, Norton Curry, Sarah Virginia McGowan, Durwood Knowles, Doris Bomar, and Wilbur Wofford, will wear white sweaters with maroon letters.

Organized only last Wednesday evening, the squad made letter formations before the game Friday night. The sweaters will arrive in time to be worn Homecoming. Complete uniforms will be sweaters, white skirts and trousers. Full uniforms will be worn all Homecoming Day.

The Pep Squad will sell tickets to one of the Buffalo games and sponsor a movie later in the semester. Booster ribbons will be sold Saturday.

At the regular meeting last night, plans were made for yells at the bonfire Thursday night. It was decided to cooperate with the band in presenting a stunt during the intermission at Saturday's game.

Other officers besides the president are: Vice-president, Odessa Winkler, Pampa; secretary, Doris Billingsley, Lamesa; business manager, Jerry Manzer from Wellington.

All applicants for membership must be voted in by the organization.

Harold Butler, sophomore, died of peritonitis Tuesday afternoon in the Tulia hospital where he was taken last week following an appendicitis attack. He became ill at the home of President J. A. Hill where he and his wife had lived since the opening of this semester.

Funeral services were conducted at the Tulia Baptist Church Wednesday with the Rev. A. C. Huff, pastor, officiating. Besides his widow, Mrs. Rudene Butler, a junior, he is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mamie R. Butler of Canyon, two sisters and five brothers, all of Canyon. Burial was at Rose Hill cemetery at Tulia.

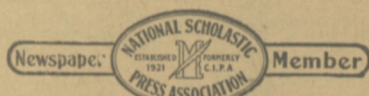

Mr. Butler was an agriculture major, and lived at the T-Anchor Farm part of last term. He was a member of the freshman football squad last year. He was graduated from Tulia High School where he was a star football player.

STAFFORD NOT HOLD OPEN HOUSE THIS WEEK

HOMECOMING DAY

On Saturday W. T. will celebrate another Homecoming Day. Hundreds of ex-students will be returning to the campus for the gala occasion, and plans are being completed to make it the greatest in the history of the college.

Make your plans now to be on hand and do your part in making this year's Homecoming Day a great one. Be on the campus to tell everyone you see "hello" and make our returning exes feel really at home. You may be an "ex" yourself someday.

W. T. has established a reputation as being a friendly college. Let's do our part to make that reputation stick.

Make this a real Homecoming!

THE STUDENT SIDE OF HOMECOMING

Homecoming Day, though usually looked upon as a celebration solely of the exes, should prove equally enjoyable and profitable to students. Saturday's celebration will bring to the campus scores of leading citizens representing every town in this section. To meet these people and to realize that they too were once students here, should strengthen student's confidence in the belief that time spent in this college is time well spent. It should bring about a better appreciation of the service that the school has rendered to this part of the state.

A who's who in education of this territory might easily be compiled at this meeting. But ex-students who have become prominent in an unlimited number of other fields will also be on hand. Many of these exes who will return to the campus Saturday attended school here before the present generation of students was born. They, along with students who came later, helped to bring the school to its present status in the college world. Cooperation of students was needed for virtually every advancement the school has made. The Student Council, the annual, band, the football team, the college newspaper as well as every other campus institution, owe their founding to students of the past who had ambition and initiative. These people will be back to the campus this week-end, and every student should be here at his post doing all in his power to make the occasion a success.—B. C.

USE THE MAIN ENTRANCE

Laying of a new sidewalk which will connect the walks leading from the west entrance with those of the south entrance, should encourage greater use of the main door.

The south door is the main entrance to the Administration Building despite the fact that the west entrance is used a great deal more. New drives leading to the front door of the college have done a great deal to make the south entrance appear that it really is the main entrance.

Students should use the main entrance when it is convenient. A better and more beautiful view of the college buildings is to be had by approaching from the south than from any other point on the campus.

LULLABY

O lips that are red with passion,
O eyes that are glowing with love,
O voice full of husky madness,
What are you dreaming of?

O throat that is pulsing so madly,
O hands so deliciously warm,
O heart that is beating so wildly,
Lie quiet in the bend of my arm.

O lips that are bruised with kisses,
O mouth strangely dry and athirst,
O eyes that are heavy with longing,
Go to sleep, ere your little heart bursts!

PRELUDE FOR WINTER

The roses that droop in the garden,
The clouds that weep from the sky,
The willows that hang o'er the river,
Are no more despondent than I.

The Northwind that moans in the treetops,
The sparrow that shivers near by,
The last little leaf, dry and withered,
Can be no more lonely than I.

Gone is the fragrance of flowers,
Gone is the summer for aye,
Gone up to the great arch of Heaven—
At here, ever here, remain I.
—Houston Bright.

Its touch he does not comprehend; nor why
Later, he turns in vague dissatisfaction—
His hungry glance searching the empty sky.

WHERE TO GO AND WHAT TO DO
BY GAD

Homecoming this week brings a galaxy of entertainment to the social whirl of the campus along with top-notch billings at the local theatre to fascinate the movie-goers.

R. A. Stuart, a former student, is scheduled to address the West Texas ex-students next Saturday morning in the auditorium at 10:30 o'clock.

Showing tonight only, "Forty Naughty Girls," starring James Gleason and Zazu Pitts portraying modern detectives. A hilarious comedy, but don't be too expectant as to the quality of the production.

If you fail to attend the annual bonfire Thursday night there will be much for you to regret. More things can happen at one of these overheated pep rallies than occur at the Buffalo Drug after a ball game.

Rhythmically speaking Don Ameche, supported by Alice Faye and those swingational Ritz Brothers, score a tremendous musical hit in "You Can't Have Everything" to be shown at the Olympic tomorrow and Thursday. You will enjoy this extravaganza to the utmost. Rubin-off and his violin are also featured. Seven new songs you will soon be humming are introduced.

Around noon-time Saturday, barbecue a la de-luxe will be the major attraction. Buffalo field is where the bread line will form and for dining superbly do not fail to be on hand.

Nina Martina, opera star, plays in his third picture, "Music For Madame," with the able assistance of lovely Joan Fontaine. This is to be shown here Friday and Saturday matinee. All those who are classically minded should not miss the opportunity of seeing this movie.

Following the Buffaloes' victory over the boys from Oklahoma—we predict and hope—Burton Gymnasium will be the scene for the ex-students dance. A good orchestra has been secured so there will be bountiful fun for young and old.

"Between Two Women" with Franchot Tone, Maureen O'Sullivan, and Virginia Bruce in a stirring drama of hospital life, appears on the screen Saturday night only. There is a good plot, but the show is suggestive of "Men In White."

When Cousins Hall takes off its cloak of conventionalism, and assumes night club attire Friday night, there really should be something to demand attention of all students if they can just demand enough attention for admittance.

Tears will run plentifully when you see Barbara Stanwyck turn in her impressive performance in the talking-picture version of "Stella Dallas." Lest you gather, however, that the film is one long wall of pathos, let me also add that it is highly dramatic and intriguing.

Juniors Mix Pleasure With Business In Class Meeting

"A good time was had by all," and believe it or not it was a class meeting. Members of the Junior Class threw precedent to the winds again Thursday and served refreshments along with musical entertainment at class meeting.

Miss Florence McMurtry, class sponsor, was introduced. She is the first woman to serve a class as sponsor in the history of the school.

Plans to hold a dance at the Amarillo Country Club sometime during the next three weeks, if approved by the student welfare committee were discussed.

The class was entertained by popular music selections by O. T. Craig, accompanied by Arthur Chase, following the business session.

Element: Woman.

Occurrence: Found wherever man is. Seldom in the free state. With few exceptions the combined state is preferable.

Physical properties: All colors and sizes; usually found in semi-disguised condition; face covered with film of composite material. Stops at nothing and may freeze up at any time. Very bitter when left alone or not treated well.

Chemical properties: Very active, possessing great affinity for gold, silver, platinum, and precious stones. Violent reaction when encountered after being left alone. Able to absorb vast quantities of expensive foods or vitamins at any time. Inclined to turn green when placed beside a better looking specimen. Ages very rapidly. Possesses a great magnetic attraction for men. Caution: Highly explosive in inexperienced hands.—Campus Chat.

Freshmen Confirm Upperclassmen's Suspicions

Upperclassmen of W. T. have suspected that they have a stiff English department. Now they have proof, says Dr. Fronabarger, head of the department, after tabulating the grades of the freshman English tests.

This year's tests, unlike former standardized examinations, were prepared by members of the W. T. English department. The faculty's only misgiving was that they might have made the questions too easy. The 268 freshmen who took the test, however, put their fears to rest, for their grades ranged as low as 15. The highest was 97, and only 18 were above 90.

Students who graded the papers say that the freshmen lack in knowledge of spelling, points of grammar, and punctuation, they make up for in originality. One assistant said that practically every "similar" was misspelled, and "familiar" ranged from "femalar" to "fumlular"—with wide variations.

One sleepy genius slept through from the first question until time was called for only a few minutes, then waked up and answered enough of the test to make a passing grade.

On a basis of 50 as passing, 231 freshmen passed, but of this group, only 167 made above 60, and 68 above 80.

Oldtime Dancing To Be Given By Pampa Exes at Night Club

Pampa ex-students and their friends will contribute oldtime dancing numbers at the homecoming night club program in Cousins Hall Friday evening, October 22.

They will direct the oldtime and Colonial dances and one of their number is expected to lead a period of oldtime singing.

The party is being made up by Judge and Mrs. Ivy E. Duncan, Mrs. Duncan, the former Mattie Kirk, was a student here in 1917-18 and several other members of her family have been here.

The oldtime dancing will be a part of the entertainment in the "western room," where several comic acts and solos also are scheduled. Prof. L. F. Sheffy, head of the history department, will be host and Dr. B. F. Fronabarger, head of the English department, will be head waiter.

The night club theme also will be carried out in a Little Mexico, and there will be a fine arts room. The program will be free to students, ex-students, faculty members and friends of the college. An ex-student queen will be crowned at the conclusion of the program.

Fourth Estate To Entertain Former Staff Members

Plans to entertain former members of The Prairie staff Homecoming day and for a bonfire Friday night were made by members of the Fourth Estate, recently organized club for The Prairie staff and journalism students, at a meeting Tuesday.

All other campus organizations will be asked to aid in building the bonfire Ben Ezzell, Fourth Estate president, said.

Open house for all former staff members will be held in the publications office all day Saturday. Old editions of The Prairie will be on display in the office for the exes.

Plans are being formulated to invite Panhandle newspaper men here as guest speakers of the club later in the term.

Other officers besides the president are: Vice-president, Gonda Biggers, secretary-treasurer, Dids Meek; Le Mirage representative, Glyndon Riley, and faculty adviser, Prof. Olin E. Hinkle, journalism instructor.

Home Ec Supervisor Assumes Duties

Miss Armstrong is under the direct supervision of the district supervisor in this field, Miss Esther Sorenson, whose offices are in Lubbock.

"I shall be away," said Miss Armstrong, "for the greater part of the time, helping new and inexperienced teachers in my field."

Miss Armstrong will have her office in the Administration building of West Texas State Teachers College for the duration of the next ten months.

Camera Club Is Organized

The Camera Club, an organization to elevate the standard of photography in Le Mirage, was organized Thursday with Sam D. Burton president.

Interest in photography is the only requirement made for membership in the club.

"The program for this year will include a general study of photography with occasional contests between members," Burton said.

Other officers elected are: Vice-president, Doris Bomar; secretary and treasurer, Odell Reynolds; and faculty adviser, Prof. Olin E. Hinkle.

Weekly meetings will be held on Thursday afternoons at 3:30 o'clock, and a longer program will be held once each month.

Cowboy Runs and Laterals Paralyze Buffaloes 40-0

By GLYN RILEY
Prairie Sports Editor

Hardin-Simmons' Cowboys exterminated the West Texas Buffaloes on Buffalo Field's slow turf Friday night in a 40-0 rout. The visitors packed a style of running and lateral assault that literally befuddled the Buffs for two scores in each of the first three quarters.

After the third running play of the first canto the outcome of the feud was never in doubt. The Kimbrough men swished through the line for 304 yards from scrimmage, and tabulated six pass completions for 105 yards. One aerial connection, Mahuron to Davis in the first quarter, set matters ablaze when he made a remarkable catch over the line and loped ahead 45 additional paces for the second score.

Knocked around at random for three quarters, substitute back Odell Washington of the Buffs raised his name for recognition as a ball carrier when he launched the only important scoring threat. Catching Hinrich's kickoff on his own three midway in the third quarter, Washington angled to right of the field, found the opening of his teammate's perfect blocking, and thundered down the middle untouched until he was brought down from behind by Neal Davis, vigilant Puncher wing-man, who is rated as the best opposing end the Buffs have opposed since St. Benedict's "Little All-American" Leo Deutsch. The bid was halted on the five yard stripe after four running plays accounted only nine yards.

Laterals, as employed by the Cowboys, were executed with consummate skill on numerous occasions when the ball-carrier was considered to be downed only to release an underhand pass that caught the locals off their guard. Early in the game Headstream, Cowboy back, slipped into the secondary and on being tackled handed off to guard Vestal Newberry who carried on to the 34 for a 36 yard pickup.

The Bison cause was led by blocking back Matney and tackles William Harp and Lotter Stephenson. Repeatedly, Stephenson broke into the enemy backfield, and would have dropped Cherry and Company for many losses had he not been handicapped by a broken hand sustained in the T. W. C. game two weeks ago.

The loss of Co-Captain Lwood Dow early in the game was a severe blow to the Buffs' running attack. His broken hand may keep him on the sidelines for two weeks. William Harp, mountain-like Buff tackle, received side injuries and possibly two broken ribs, but finished the game, turning in a brilliant defensive performance.

Frosh Entertain Portales Hounds Friday in Opener

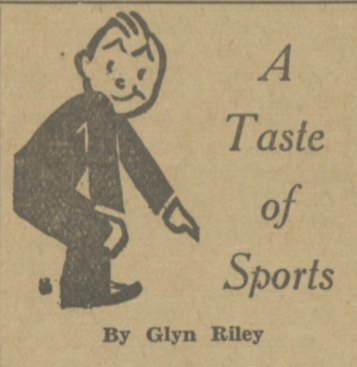

Eastern New Mexico Junior College's Greyhounds will invade the home pasture of the West Texas Yearlings Friday, Oct. 22 at 2:30 and fans will get their first glimpse of the greenhorns of Skippers Bob Cox and Vernon Johnson.

Breasting the tide of an unblemished record so far this season, the invading Greyhounds will enter this tussle boasting wins over New Mexico State Frosh, Trinidad, Colorado Junior College and a 0-0 deadlock with Panhandle A. & M.

But the young West Texas coaches are preparing for anything and everything in putting their charges through daily scrimmages in an effort to improve tackling and ball-handling finesse. Coach Cox has announced a tentative starting line-up for the game Friday, to be captained by Jim Foust, young husky from Littlefield and a fixture at the fullback post. The remainder of the team and positions are: le. Barron; lt. Crowell; lg. Bratton; c. McLellan; rg. George; rt. Kelly; re. Stagner; q. Blackshear; lh. Chesshir; rh. Davis. Those pushing for regular positions are backs Loter, Sargee and Jones, and linemen, Hudson, Kuhn and Houlette.

They still haven't declared war in the Far East because the Japanese, with their usual politeness, realize that might cause hard feelings.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who thought that the wife was the mistreated party in every divorce suit?

Those Punchers sure did have the punch. They had the most venomous recipe this department has quinted at since Larry Mullins brought his sparkling St. Benedict's Ravens down in the Buffs' backyard some two or three years back, and it wouldn't appear too anomalous to say that the Cowboys could ride herd on the Ravens.

Some fellow who claims to be an authority on football in the east described the lateral as a passing fad—something on the order of miniature golf and donkey softball. The way those Kimbrough lads heaved laterals around all night assured me that the guy is sorta outa' date.

Hats off to Odell Washington for reeling off the run that materialized into the closest scare that the Cowboys have had all year in shutting out all opposition from their treasured goal line. In four games thus far, the Punchers have rolled up 117 points.

West Texas has another on their coaching staff now. This time it's Mrs. Tony Dougal who has set out to principle our pep leaders in some of the finer points of prancing around in front of the student body

Two Fencing Clubs Are Planned at Meeting Thursday

Plans for two fencing clubs were made Thursday with the object of entering the Southwest Conference tournament this spring. "This is the best way in which to enter a team, since it is possible for the club members to meet more conveniently and practice more assiduously," Howard Saunders who with Prof. Leon Lassers is instructing students in fencing, said.

A match in slow motion between Lassers and Saunders was a feature of Thursday's meeting. The tilt was given in slow motion in order to better enable students to discern the various parries. Formal matches with members of the class acting as seconds and judges have become regular occurrences.

A practice session was held during the remainder of the meeting with short talks by the instructors.

A meeting of the organization was scheduled for yesterday, since the first order of foils is expected here before the end of next week, and the clubs are expected to be organized before this equipment arrives.

with a little more grace. The product of her efforts are already noticeable. Now, we need somebody to coach the student body to stay in the grandstand until the final gun. Anyone can strut their stuff when their cause is on top, but the test of a real sport comes when his escutcheon begins to decline. The student body should certainly extend this gesture to their team, who stayed in the buggy until it was all over.

Just heard about Ferne Fry and her colleagues, Rachel Kidd and Virginia Hohlaus, cashing in on their pulchritude to land the slot as homecoming queens. With such an inspiration to stimulate the Buffaloes, I feel that the first homecoming program in the past five years will not be spoiled because of the loss of a football game. Long live our queens!

Coaches Drill on Offense for N. O. T. C. Game Homecoming

An offense that bogged down against Hardin-Simmons will be re-conditioned in practice sessions this week before the Buffaloes step into their harness against Jinx Simmons' Northwestern Oklahoma Teachers College of Alva in Buffalo Stadium Saturday afternoon.

This game will be one of the highlights of the annual homecoming for ex-students. The Buffs will be gunning for their first homecoming victory for the last five years. Last season an undefeated and untied club took the field as heavy favorites against Sul Ross Lobes, and battered the Big Bend team all over the field but could only muster a scoreless tie.

Three straight losses have put the Buffs back on their heels, and what dope sheets did favor them have been blotted. The Rangers will take the field as an even bet.

The question mark on the Buffalo roster hinges around injured Lwood Dow, fullback, and William Harp, tackle. Dow, co-captain of the Simmons game was taken out of the game early because of a broken hand, and Harp was handicapped by side injuries most of the time. Both are expected to recuperate in time so as to strengthen the offensive campaign that Coaches Baggett and Dougal will work on this week.

On the other side of the fence, Jinx Simmons will bring a young but ambitious team. At the two wing posts will be two lightweights,
