Delphian Club of Memphis Gives $1700 for W. T. Loan Fund

To Be Supervised By Gregg-Cousins Loan Committee

The Delphian Club of Memphis has established a loan fund of $1700, one of the largest of the kind ever provided for students of W. T., it was announced yesterday by Prof. S. H. Condon.

While the loan fund has been set up primarily to assist students from Hall county, it will be open to other worthy students as well. It will be administered by the Gregg-Cousins loan fund committee, headed by Prof. S. H. Condon. There will be an annual audit and reports to the Delphian club. Directors of the Gregg-Cousins fund also administer the Fronbarger fund, and the two have been responsible for assisting 143 students to go to college. Many others will be aided by the new sum.

Could Best Serve Students

West Texas State was selected to receive the loan fund when it was decided that this college could best serve more worthy students from Hall and other counties. The Delphian club, long active in civic movements and many others, began accumulating its loan fund as early as 1919, and made some loans from it from time to time. Mrs. R. A. Cole is the current president of the group, which is one of the best known study clubs in the Panhandle.

Correspondence between the club and Dr. J. A. Hill began some time ago, and Prof. Condon met with the group to complete the contract and explain how the fund would be administered. The loan basis was chosen instead of that of offering scholarships, because the revolving fund would help more students.

The Delphian Club has about twenty-five members and has been functioning for about twenty years.

Invaluable Aid

"The Delphian club has placed in the hands of West Texas State College an invaluable aid in opening the doors of education and opportunity to the young men and women of Hall county," said Prof. Condon in accepting for his committee the responsibility of administering the fund. "This fund will enable forty or fifty young men and women to come to or remain in college who otherwise would be barred by financial limitations. The College is delighted by this statesmanlike act and pledges itself to the most careful selection of candidates for loans. No finer thing could have been done by a study club."

Dr. Hill, in Austin on a business trip, could not be reached for a statement.

Students May Use Books in Randall County Library

Students of West Texas State may use the Randall County Library by paying a $1 deposit to the librarian, Mrs. S. D. Burton. Students whose homes are in Randall County have access to the library without making the deposit.

Many books and magazines are included in the county library which are not in the college library. Numerous periodicals are also available. Books may be checked out there for a longer period than can be permitted by the college reserve library.

Among the new books recently received are "Political Guide," by Dorothy Thompson; "City Editor," by Stanley Walker; "Red Star Over China," by Snow; "I Knew Hitler," by Ludecke; and "Let's Review a Book," by Averitte.

GUESTS AT COUSINS

Mrs. J. A. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shanklin were guests at Cousins Hall Sunday. Other guests of the week were: Misses Mildred Walker, Ruth Roberts, Dorothy Morgan, Vivian Clay, Dickie Ricks, Ruth Hill, and Royce Park.

A card from Supt. Frank B. Hill, 32, of Rule, tells that Mildred Hogland and Lula Fay Oren, 38, and Edd McMin, 35, are doing splendid work in school there.

Blanks for News Service Should Be Filled Out

Students who have not filled out the information blank for the College News Service are asked to fill them out immediately. Blanks may be secured in the office of college publications.

Blanks were given out at the first class meetings which were held Oct. 4. This information is needed by the News Service in providing stories for Panhandle newspapers regarding the activities of W. T. students.

Thornton and Hill Nominated to Head W. T. Ex-Students

Two prominent graduates of West Texas State College have been nominated for the presidency of the Ex-Students Association. They are Clay Thornton, Amarillo business man and head of the Potter county ex-students, and J. Davis Hill, principal of the high school at White Deer.

The names have been certified to County Supt. Carl Clift of Amarillo, president of the Ex-Students Association, by a nomination committee which included Vincent Lockhart, Ray C. Daniels, and Felix Phillips of Amarillo.

Other nominations include: For first vice-president, Mary Alice Quattlebaum of Canadian, and Ray Robbins of Clarendon; second vice-president, Dr. Paul Stewart of Tulsa, and J. Odus Mitchell of Pampa; director for district 1, J. C. Baker of Adrian, and Vera Tops Gilreath of Memphis; director for district 2, W. B. Weathered of Pampa and Mrs. O. J. Laas of Plainview.

Holdover directors are Neville Wren of Hereford and Rual D. Ford of Amarillo.

Ballots for the mail vote are being prepared by Mrs. Lee Johnson, executive secretary of the Association. These must be signed by members of the Association who are in good standing, and returned to Mrs. Johnson not later than noon of November 3.

Freshman Tests Are Thursday

Teachers who are instructing students of English 101 are requested by Dean R. P. Jarrett to dismiss them at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning to enable them to complete the uniform freshman test by noon.

These students will assemble in the auditorium as soon as possible after being dismissed. Each student taking the test should provide himself with something to write upon, since the test will be given in the auditorium where there are no desks or tables.

The test will cover grammar, diction, capitalization, sentence structure, vocabulary, and spelling. The same test is given to freshmen students in most Texas colleges and in many Colorado schools.

W. T. and Museum Represented at State Fair

West Texas State and the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society are represented at the State Fair in Dallas by an exhibit prepared at the local museum.

Prof. C. Stuart Johnston went to Dallas Sunday to supervise arrangement of the exhibit. He will remain a few days, then will be relieved by Col. R. P. Smith of Plainview, former president of the Society.

The centerpiece of the exhibit is a model of the Panhandle Culture ruins on Antelope Creek. The restoration is similar to but smaller than the model now at the museum. A description of the model appears on page 2 of The Prairie today.

Other exhibits on display are paleontological specimens and Indian relics. Indian basketry and craft-work as well as head dresses will be shown in Dallas to represent the museum.

A four-page booklet describing the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum and its work has been prepared by the publicity department. This pamphlet will be distributed from the museum booth.

Homecoming Events To Be More Varied Than Last Year

A Homecoming similar to last year's successful event but more varied in details has been worked out by officers of the Ex-Students Association to include another crowning of an ex-student queen, an outdoor basket dinner, an assembly program run exclusively by former students, and a carnival on a night club theme at Cousins Hall.

County Supt. Carl Clift of Amarillo, ex-student president, has announced appointment of Mrs. Tommie Montfort of Canyon as general

Miss McMurtry to Speak for IRC

Miss Florence McMurtry will give her impression of the European common man's view toward international difficulties Wednesday night at the second meeting of the International Relations Club at 7:30 o'clock in Room 202 of the Education Building.

Her informal discussion will be a sequel to a talk made at the first meeting of Prof. S. H. Condon, head of the government department, who spoke on the "Impending War Crisis."

Miss McMurtry gained her impressions from a three-month tour in Europe this summer. She visited twelve different nations, and observed carefully the people of all classes.

The entire student body as well as members of the club are invited to hear Miss McMurtry's discussion. T. S. Stevenson, president, has announced.

Membership in the International Relations Club is open to all students who are interested. Meetings are held twice each week. Prof. S. H. Condon is sponsor of the local club.

Teacher Placement Committee Helps 265 Find Jobs

Of 290 persons enrolled at the teacher placement committee at W. T. since Jan. 1, 1938, 206 have been assisted in finding jobs and only twenty-five are still on the rolls as employables not yet having positions, or unreported.

Some of the applicants are almost unemployable because of defects or by reason of having small children which must receive their care. Thirteen are doing graduate work at West Texas State or elsewhere.

There is such a demand for graduates of the College that most of those who receive degrees find employment readily. Many take jobs other than teaching positions, and this trend is expected to be broadened because teacher-training courses no longer are required for degrees.

Faculty members assist Mrs. T. V. Reeves, head of the Bureau of Public Service, in studying the aptitudes of graduates and trying to place them in positions they are best qualified to fill.

Lawrence McBee Is Elected Dramatic Club President

Lawrence McBee, senior speech student from Pampa, was elected president of the College Dramatics Club at a meeting Wednesday afternoon. McBee is also president of the local chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic fraternity.

Other officers elected are: Vice-president, Gaynelle Douglas; secretary-treasurer, Lillian Chambers; Prairie reporter, Ed Line; and social chairman, James Vaughan.

The Dramatics Club is under the sponsorship of Miss Helen Anglin, assistant professor in the speech department. It is open to speech students who are interested in dramatics.

It Has Been Done Before

It has been done. The Buffs have defeated the Cowboys of Hardin-Simmons, and at Abilene, too. Local victories were in 1920, 1923, and 1924.

In other games, the Cowboys held a slight edge and mighty battles resulted—until last year. This year the men of West Texas State are underdogs in the dope but their memories of last year's 40-0 score is expected to put them in fine mental condition for next Saturday's encounter.

Seniors Present Five Proposals To Students

Members of the Senior Class voted to support five proposals to the student body which were presented by Robert Orton, president, at a meeting of the Senior Class Thursday.

The proposals follow:

1. All persons and committees of the Administration possessing authority over the student body shall formally present to this organization an expression of the exact scope of such authority.

2. The entrance physical examination conducted through the Health Center shall include the Wassermann Reaction Test.

3. The Alma Mater should be sung more frequently at student gatherings.

4. All student body organization elections, including the election of the Student Council representatives, the president of the student council, and all class officers, shall be conducted in a manner identical to the Texas Democratic primary; to be included in a student body constitution on its adoption.

5. All freshmen having less than fifteen semester hours credit from this institution or one of equal rank, shall be ineligible for pledgeship in any campus social organization, beginning in the school year, 1939-1940.

In a statement last week, Orton said regarding the first proposal: "Seniors realize that it is not only best, but also necessary that students be subject to the authority of certain persons and committees that compose the student supervision of the Administration, but the class also feels that the students should know what body possesses what authority. Much time could be saved by the students presenting their problems to the right authority the first time rather than the third or fourth."

More Officers Are Elected by Kappa Omicron Phi

Kappa Omicron Phi, national honorary home economics organization, elected additional officers Tuesday when they met in the home economics dining room.

New officers elected include: corresponding secretary, Carolyn Dixon; treasurer, Cleavel Layman; Prairie and yearbook representative, Mrs. Gordon Beck; and archives manager, Blanche Speer.

A program dealing with the Kappa Omicron Phi Conclave held in Santa Barbara, Calif., in June was presented. Representatives to the conclave from the local chapter were Cleavel Layman, Carolyn Dixon, Marjorie Brown, Ann Mohler, Edith Berry, and Miss Elizabeth Cox.

West Texans Are Out to Avenge Loss Last Year

With a circle drawn around this date on their calendar for weeks the West Texas Buffaloes are digging their cleats into the turf of Buffalo field grimly determined to avenge the loss suffered last year at the hands of the rollicking Cowboys.

By winning over the capable Southeastern eleven of Durant the Buffs jumped back into the win column after last week's hectic 21-20 loss to East Texas State at Commerce. The game last Friday night x-rayed the alarming weakness of the line and Coach Al Baggett has announced two changes in the starting line-up. Rugged "Tiger" Lee McLaurie has been firmly entrenched in the left tackle position and a huge sophomore named Childers is being tried at the right tackle post. Childers has been developing wonderfully as the season progressed and is expected to bolster that side of the line considerably.

Virtually Same Team

Frank Kimbrough, wily Cowboy coach, has nearly the same team this year that gave so many teams a bad case of nerves last year. His backfield is the same with the exception of big, red-headed Ed Cherry. Most of the team followed Kimbrough from Amarillo Junior College, where they played on the State Junior College championship team, and this will make their fifth year together.

The Cowboys' offense functions around dazzling ground plays, but in co-captain Luke Raley they have a passer as excellent as any. In their game against Centenary Raley passed consistently for frequent gains, accounting for a number of the first down the Cowboys registered. Centenary also had trouble with the Cowboys' husky line and had to resort to passes to penetrate the Cowboy defense.

Buff's Stress Defense

The Buffaloes, in drills this week, stressed defense against the Raley, Reeves, Marcum passing combination.

Probable starting lineups:

| Buffaloes | Hardin-Simmons |
|------------|----------------|
| Stephenson | ee Reeves |
| McLaurie | it Reeves |
| Woods | lg Cunningham |
| Fields | c Bigelow |
| Horton | rg Raborn |
| Childers | rt Treadway |
| Kendrick | re Davis |
| Watkins | q Raley |
| Strain | h Ford |
| Lyde | rh Headstream |
| Thomas | f Hinrichs |

Art Club Elects Margaret Esther Hill President

In a meeting last week of the Phidias Art Club, Margaret Esther Hill, junior from Amarillo, was elected president. Other officers elected were: Vice-president, Laura Mae Slaughter; secretary-treasurer, Mary Alice Manzer; Prairie reporter, Ruth Clay; sponsor, Miss Isabel Robinson, head of the art department; and co-sponsor, Mrs. Nichols.

Creative Crafts were discussed as projects to be worked on at the club meetings. Each member is to make a new craft each month. Plans are being made to have monthly exhibits of the different crafts to be held in the art room. At the end of the semester, there will be a large exhibit of the crafts made, and prizes will be awarded for the best work.

PLAN ANTHOLOGY OF POETRY

Plans are being made for the publication of an anthology of poetry written by one hundred students and ex-students of West Texas State. The book, to be edited by Mary Beth Miesse, graduate student, and Alice M. Vaughn, senior, will be a limited edition. Persons interested in having poems printed in the book should communicate with the editors immediately.

Senior Class Proposals Merit Consideration of Students

THE PRAIRIE

Five proposals which should gain the careful consideration of every student and member of the faculty were presented by Robert Orton at a meeting of the Senior Class Thursday. These proposals, which are printed in this edition of The Prairie, should be carefully read by every student.

The first of these directs attention to the need for a clear statement of the exact scope of authority of "all persons and committees of the Administration possessing authority over the student body." Though this lack of understanding among students of the duties and authority of the various committees has not caused as much confusion as many students seem to think, a formal statement would serve to eliminate any confusion which may exist now and, would further prevent misunderstanding in the future.

The second proposal suggests that the Wassermann Reaction test should be given with the physical examination. Though there seems to be no objection to a Wassermann test for all students, the real problem would be paying for such an enterprise. School officials have so far found that it would be utterly impossible to pay for the Wassermann Reaction test out of the present $2 health fee. Next week a survey will be taken to get student opinion regarding a raise in the health fee in order to secure Wassermann tests.

Another resolution recommends that all student elections should be conducted in a manner identical with that of the Texas Democratic primaries. Such a procedure would obviously present to the students an opportunity to become acquainted with the Texas method of voting, giving them experience in this procedure. It also would likely serve to improve the quality of W. T. politics.

The last proposal recommends that freshmen having less than fifteen semester hours should not be permitted to pledge a social organization. The scholastic rating of many social club members has been deplorably low during the last few years. This was particularly true of some of the first year students who pledged social clubs last term. If such a ruling were adopted, it would likely help to improve the quality of work done by many first year students, and would at the same time raise the standards of the six campus social clubs.

Editor, The Prairie:

In admiration of the fine work being accomplished by the Y. W. C. A., I wish to express appreciation for such a fine organization on the campus of W. T. My only regret is that we do not have a similar organization of the Y. M. C. A. for the young men of the student body.

The leadership of this group of young women is being displayed constantly in the Freshman Fellowship Club as well as in numerous other projects it sponsors. This club for freshmen is, in my estimation, the most worthwhile organization on the campus, and is accomplishing the most good of any similar organization that I have ever known. It is the duty of the entire student body to encourage and support this project.

The vesper service last Tuesday evening is another example of the fine, inspirational work being done by this progressive group. Personally, I think these services, open to the entire student body, should be held at regular intervals throughout the term of school.

As stated before, I regret the fact that there is not a Y. M. C. A. on this campus to fit the needs of young men. It is too much for the Y. W. C. A. to have to shoulder all the responsibility of work of this type in a school of this size. I feel certain that there is a sufficient number of young men interested in work of this kind to carry on a Y. M. C. A., if only given the opportunity to organize. In a few years it would be comparable to the splendid Y. W. C. A. we are privileged to have on our campus.

Kenneth Walters.

STUDENTS INVITED TO SUBMIT HOMECOMING POETRY

Campus poetry is being collected for use during the 1938 Homecoming. Students and ex-students are invited to submit poetry to a committee who will select the best for use as CAMPUS BROADSIDES. Poems should be short and should, preferably, treat subjects characteristic of the experiences of students, ex-students, and their friends. Poems should be sent to Miss Margaret Lee Wiley, English Department, West Texas State College.

Then there was the boy who made his way through college at T. C. U. by tramping through the United States in the summer, disguised as a blind beggar. Usually he averaged about $6 a day.

THE PAUSE THAT REFRESHES

We've heard so much about "rushing" these past weeks that the word has begun to bother us. It seems symbolical of much of college life in these hectic days. There was a day when a scholar was a person who, in the popular imagination, sat for hours pondering over his thoughts, dreaming his own dreams. Today, however, we have a new conception of the student.

The collegian of today is always in a hurry. He has a class to which he must rush, a date to keep, a conference to attend, organizations with which he must meet. His life is a constant round of duties and appointments; he is always rushing somewhere at something.

The modern student has become accustomed to this mad rush of activity. In fact, he seems to have become dependent upon it. As a result, whenever his duties allow him any free time he is lost until he can find something to do. He must play bridge, or find some other amusement to keep his mind away from himself. The helter-skelter system of existence in which he finds himself has made boredom synonymous with activity.

The purpose of education, as we see it, is to make the existence of the individual more pleasant. It is a pity if the very system necessary to acquire such an education has outmoded the greatest pleasure of an educated man; if to sit awhile alone with one's thoughts and dreams has become a pain and a bore.

The college years are usually happy years, but it might be worth our while occasionally to relax—to simply take it easy.

This is not an apology for the lazy student; it is rather a suggestion to the average rush-weary student to pause for a moment and "let your mind alone." As soon as we can find the time we're going to try it ourselves.—Cincinnati News Record.

ECONOMY AT EXPENSE OF EDUCATION

Since the time King Gus first blamed the upkeep of Alley Opp's Ax-throwing school for soldiers of Moo for excessive tax rates, kings and democratic statesmen alike have attempted governmental economy by reducing the cost of education, and at the same time short measuring the true value of education.

Even a casual study of the history of great nations show that they rose and fell as their educational system advanced or retarded. Egypt was great, Assyria was great, Greece was even greater, and Rome greatest of them all, fell when education became too inconsequential for governmental consideration.

Advancement of these United States can be directly traced to the democratic system of education which has prevailed since early in the Nineteenth Century. Prior to that time vote was based on land holdings, because the common horde was believed to be too ignorant to vote intelligently. As the common education has improved, democracy has moved forward.

And now the idea, old as man himself, that too many people are becoming educated, is again being voiced. Instead of cutting the income of far less important departments, some are advocating raising the tuition of state colleges, thus depriving hundreds of Texas students of the education they rightly deserve. This year more than 600 prospective students were unable to attend W. T. because of lack of funds.

If the tuition is advanced, we the commoners, may prepare to become Middle Age peasants, for the rich man's sons will be the only educated persons.—F. H.

W. T.'s OVER-CROWDED LABORATORIES

Though much credit is due W. T. science teachers and their assistants for the manner in which all laboratory space is utilized, the need of a new science building is plainly evidenced by the crowded condition of the W. T. laboratories. It is likely that more students are being served by the small amount of space in the W. T. chemistry laboratory than any similar space in any college in the state.

With three times as much space as is now available, the students would still be crowded, since each desk is now shared by three persons.

Actually the laboratory is well equipped, but the lack of space to make the best use of it serves to defeat this advantage.

Laboratories in biology 101 are now held six days each week, making three more laboratory periods than were necessary last year. This is a result of the overcrowded condition in that department.

Editor's note: This is a new column started for the benefit of the freshmen to enable them to know more about the outstanding personalities of the campus.)

All-College Vesper Services Are Held

An all-college vesper service, held Tuesday, was attended by eighty students and members of the faculty.

Following the prelude by Naomi Slay and Mattie Lee Clay, Elizabeth Wood of Borger, the leader, opened the service with a short talk on Autumn. The group was led in a song selection, "America the Beautiful," by George Stokes.

Miss Wood then spoke briefly on "Fellowship Through Understanding" followed by a musical selection sung by a quartet composed of Bill Roberson, George Stokes, John Hill, and Ernest Scheihagen.

"Living up to Expectations" was the next topic chosen by the leader, and the program was concluded with the group singing "I Would Be True" and the Alma Mater.

DON'T LET YOUR NERVES GET TIRED, UPSET!

IRISH SETTER—Native of Ireland. Believed to be a cross of English setter, spaniel and pointer. Originally red and white in coloring. Today's standards call for solid mahogany red or rich golden chestnut. Essentially a gun dog. Bold, hardy, yet remarkably gentle nature.

He's giving his nerves a rest...and so is he

THE DOG pictured above has a nervous system amazingly similar to yours, with this difference: It is the nature of the dog to rest when he needs rest. It is the nature of mankind to drive on...until nerves jerk and twitch...until you are cross and irritable...tired out without knowing it. No matter which of the common forms of tenseness you feel, try this experiment: Ease up and enjoy a Camel. Camels are made from costlier tobaccos. Smokers find that "Let up—light up a Camel" puts more zest into life, and that Camel's costlier tobaccos soothe their nerves.

"LET UP—LIGHT UP A CAMEL" PUTS MORE JOY INTO LIVING

TERRELL JACOBS, lion trainer, and "Tony" Concello, circus aerialist (left), both testify to the value of "Let up—light up a Camel." "Animals can spring into instant action—then relax," says Jacobs. "We are apt to get our nerves all wound up with our tense way of living—can't let go. I find that Camels soothe my nerves." "Terrell's right," Miss Concello says. "When my nerves are tired, a Camel helps them to rest."

FRED L. McDANIEL, cowboy (right), says: "When I feel nervous I let up, and light up a soothing Camel. Camels are mild—I smoke 'em steadily. They are so comforting, and never tire my taste."

Aerial Attack Gives Buffs Win Over Oklahomans

Locals Hopelessly Out-Classed on Ground Plays

Unable to gain on the ground and registering only three first downs to 18 for the invaders, the West Texas Buffaloes took to the air to subdue a hard-riding bunch of Savages from Southeastern Oklahoma 19-14, Friday night at Buffalo Stadium.

Hopelessly outclassed on ground plays, the Buffaloes released an aerial bombardment in the second frame that netted 13 points. "Flipping" Foster Watkins had a perfect day on the mound on his first three flips completing all three for two touchdowns. Big Lother Stephenson took a 15-yard pass on the dead run and outstripped three lanky Savages in a sprint for the goal line. Co-captain Blake Lyde carried the second Watkins pass to the 3-yard line a few minutes later. Thomas, standing in the end zone with not a Savage in miles, gathered in the third toss and stepped over the goal line for the second score of the second quarter.

The Buffs' line sagged badly at times during the game and the alert Savage forwards spent a large part of their time in the Buffalo backfield forcing the Buffs into several misplays.

FIRST QUARTER

Buff kicked off to Savages. Savages opened up with a neat forward-lateral pass play that netted 25 yards. Buffs stiffened and Savages punted. The granite wall of Southeastern's was too hard for the Buffaloes ground plays and they were forced to punt, Thomas getting off a 44-yard spiral. Southeastern's forward-lateral showed up again, Gentry to Battles to J. Small, this time good for 27 yards. The Savages picked up two first downs as the quarter ended.

SECOND QUARTER

Savages opened the second quarter with another first down. Gentry picked up two yards around right end. On the next play Hopkins broke through left tackle, eluded the West Texan's secondary and raced 37 yards for the first score of the evening. Small converted. Score: Savages 7; Buffs 0.

Thomas, W. T., returned the kick-off to the 31. Two line plays failed to materialize and Thomas booted a beauty over the head of the Savage safety. Paolucci and Gentry picked up eight yards between them, Hopkins failed to gain at the line and Paolucci kicked 31 yards to the buff on their 23-yard line.

An exchange of punts followed which featured Thomas and Paolucci with Thomas getting much the better in the exchange. Watkins passed 15 yards to end Lother Stephenson who carried it down the sidelines for the score. Watkins converted. Score: Buffs 7; Savages 7.

Williams kicked to Gentry on the 11-yard line. Savages drew a 5-yard penalty. Hopkins fumbled and Sterling recovered on the Savages' own 4-yard line. Hopkins punted to Watkins on the 44. Watkins passed to Lyde who took it and carried it to the 3-yard line. Watkins fumbled and recovered for a 7-yard loss. Watkins passed 8 yards to Thomas out in the clear who stepped over the goal line. Watkins failed to convert. Score: Buffs 13; Savages 7.

THIRD QUARTER

Buff kicked to Gentry on the five who returned it to the 29. The Savages made two first downs in a row through the sheer power of their line. Stephenson stopped Hopkins on the line and Gentry punted to the Buff 25. After three plays the Buffs were forced to punt, Thomas kicking out on the Savage's nine. Three plays netted the Savages 5 yards and they punted a weakly 14 yards. Watkins passed to Stephenson for 5. Another was incomplete. Watkins passed again to

Frosh Will Meet Altus Crew

Stephenson this time for 12 and a first down. Another to Stephenson for 8 yards but then three successive passes were incomplete. An exchange of punts followed and then Watkins' pass was intercepted by Carey on the Savages' 30.

FOURTH QUARTER

In the last period after the ball had exchanged hands twice Lyde intercepted a Savage pass on the 44 and carried it to the Savage 15-yard stripe. Watkins slipped a neat pass through a whole mass of Savage defenders to Lyde on the 4-yard line. Three plays netted a yard each and Thomas on the fourth play carried it over with only inches to spare. Watkins' try for point failed. Score: Buffs 19; Savages 7.

The kickoff bounded out on the Savages 23. Paolucci passed to A. Small for 12. Gentry passed about 15 yards to Battles, who lateraled to J. Small to put the ball on the Buffs 26. The same play again netted 13 more yards. Gentry took it to the nine off right tackle and Paolucci spun through center for 8 more. Sivals made it through center by just a hair, and J. Small converted.

Yearlings Eager To Average Last Year's Defeat

West Texas State's Frosh, at their dazzling best in many years, are scheduled to meet the powerful Altus Junior College club here Saturday, Oct. 15. Play will be in Buffalo Stadium with the opening kickoff slated for 8:30 p. m.

The frosh, still jubilant over their 38-7 victory over the Portales Junior College Greyhounds, are pointing for this game. The teams of the past have usually taken it on the chin from the Altus bunch, and the game last year was no exception. Altus won handily 32-6 and the '38 frosh are out to avenge the defeat of their predecessors.

Altus Strong

Possessing an unusual amount of strength of a junior college, the Oklahoma school does include a number of senior colleges on its schedule. However, the West Texas coach, Jack Curtice, remains in high spirits over prospects for winning Saturday. Of his team he says, "The cooperation and machine efficiency of the boys is phenomenal. I have never seen a freshman squad develop so well with as little training as these boys have."

The line plunging of "Burl" Ira Brock is still a feature of the practice sessions.

Drill on Fundamentals

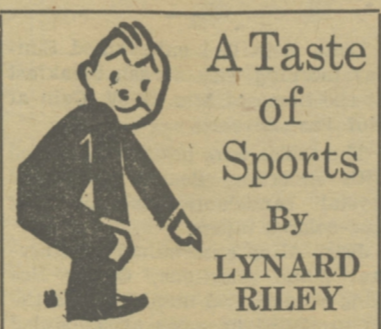

Practice the past week has centered about the fundamentals of football. Emphasis is being placed upon the elements necessary for the protection of the player.

A tentative schedule for the Frosh team in the remainder of the season include two games with Wayland Baptist College and a game with Trinidad Junior College.

SPEAKS AT LUBBOCK

Avocational aspects of music teaching in colleges were discussed by Prof. Wallace R. Clark, Saturday in Lubbock at a meeting of the South Plains Music Teachers Association.

Prof. Clark also directed community singing at a luncheon of the group at the Hilton hotel.

DO YOU KNOW . . . that during the summer months many Southern California football players work on football pictures at the various studios in Hollywood . . . that JOE HAYES never played football in high school. His home town high school concentrated on basketball and they turned out some NIPTIES . . . that the high score made by a WOMAN in the 35 years or so, the GRAND AMERICAN HANDICAP for trapshooting has been held, is MRS. LENA HALL'S score of 97. Mrs. Hall was only an ordinary 27 year old housewife from East Lynne, Mo. . . . that MELVIN CULLEN-DER, Buffalo, center, pulls down A's with regularity, which goes a long way in proving something or other . . . that "VIC" KELLEY, former Carlisle player who did the quarterbacking for JIM THORPE, coached in a small school in Texas after leaving the Indian Institution—when the going got tough—he substituted himself! . . . that DEWEY VAUGHN, who lost in the finals of the AAU boxing tournament at Dallas last year to our own J. E. Pietzsch is enrolled in school here this year and is a promising member of the Frosh football squad . . . that JAMES CROOM, W. T. golfer has already broken two course records since the start of school—his latest being the stiff COLLEGE course.

For a real football treat journey over to Buffalo stadium Saturday night and see the spirited West Texas Frosh tangle with the Altus Junior College. You'll see a powerful freshman machine in action

Netters Make Fine Showing Against Tech Matadors

West Texas State netmen made a surprisingly good showing against the Texas Tech Matadors Saturday afternoon on the Tech courts, but they lost a heart-breaking match 4-3.

With only five days of practice behind them, the stubborn Buffaloes pushed the Matadors in every set. Several times the match hinged on a single point, but Tech's more experienced club was quick to take advantage of every break and pull out the match. Kelley and Ferrell, playing Number 1 doubles, were leading Tech's doubles team of More and Chapman 6-5 in the opening match of the afternoon, but a temporary let-down combined with three straight double faults enabled More and Chapman to pull ahead going on to take the match in straight sets 9-7, 6-1.

Hill and Riley Win

Hill and Riley pulled one out of the bag staging an uphill battle to finally overcome the hard driving team of J. Beane and Bateman, 2-6, 6-3, 8-6.

Kelley pushed Wilson Chapman, Tri-State and Border conference champ all over the court, but didn't have the necessary finish and lost and I believe you'll agree that Coach Curtice "has got something there."

Those who passed up the pep rally in Burton Gymnasium Thursday night missed the best pep rally held in many a moon. Dynamic Jack Curtice gave a brief and forceful talk, but it was Varsity Coach Al Baggett, that stole the show. Carried away by his enthusiasm, he gave an ovation that really brought the house down.

in two overtime sets 8-6, 8-6.

Riley playing Number 2 position fell before the brilliant placements of Tech's mighty atom, wee Sidney More 6-2, 6-1.

J. Beane, doubles finalist in the Lubbock City Tournament, had too much on the ball for Hill and breezed through 6-2, 7-5.

Ferrell Crushes Bateman

Bill Ferrell, newcomer to the West Texas squad, took only 25 minutes to crush Bateman, last year's freshman star 6-1, 6-0.

Bobby Childers, southpaw Buffalo netman whipped W. Beane 6-0, 6-3.

The Buffaloes are scheduled next week to go to N. M. M. I. for a meet with the cadets. Last year the Buffaloes eked out a bare margin of victory over the soldiers on the Roswell courts.
