Ten-Day Music Recreation Session Will Bring Bandsters to Campus

Three Experts on School Faculty

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Nutt and James Gross of Vandercook School Are Instructors

A fourth annual session of the band school on the West Texas State campus will get underway Monday when H. E. Nutt of the Vandercook School of Music returns with a larger faculty.

This ten-day school is being called the Music Recreation Session this summer, and as is implied all the recreational facilities of the College will be available to the musicians.

Mr. Nutt will be accompanied here by Mrs. Nutt; teacher of directing, orchestral instruments, and twirling; and Mr. James Cross, teacher of the oboe and English horn and flag swinging. Mr. Nutt is the director for the session.

Prof. C. E. Strain of the College band department with Oscar Wise of Amarillo as manager is helping with the plans. The price for tuition has been announced as $5.50, payable at the College business office. Board and room if furnished by the College will be $14.

The offering for the summer course will be similar to that of last year with perhaps an enlargement of instructions in several phases. Always popular for the directors attending is the special meeting Mr. Nutt schedules with band directors on the morning of each day of the school. Twirling, directing, orchestra, flag swinging, and mass band concerts have been popular during recent sessions.

Mr. Nutt's return here year after year is the result of popular demand from directors and students who attended the schools from summer to summer. Mr. Cross, who is new to this college campus was one of a faculty of five who taught at the drum major's school at Vandercook during this month.

Further details may be had from Mr. Strain or Mr. Wise.

Fall Term Opens September 16

Dr. Floyd Smith Is Addition To College Faculty—Breakfast For Teachers Scheduled

Opening of the 32nd fall session for West Texas State College will be on Tuesday, September 16 with registration for freshmen followed by sophomores, juniors and seniors on Wednesday and Thursday.

Breakfast for the faculty members at 8:30 Monday morning will officially open the fall session activities. Following this the faculty will go to Room 202 for a business meeting in the Education Building.

One of the important announcements concerning the new semester will be the rejection of a plan for split fees which has been permitted in the last few years.

President J. A. Hill has announced the addition to the faculty of Dr. Lloyd Smith of Missouri as professor of elementary education. He received the doctor's degree from the University of Missouri. Dr. Hill also explained that Mrs. Houston Bright, formerly Miss Frances Usery, has resigned, but the vacancy has not been filled.

Prof. W. E. Lockhart, who is on leave of absence with the National Guard, will not return this year. He has been transferred to Mineral Wells where he is auditor of property at that camp. His work will be continued by Mr. Tom Langston and Miss Louise Holgate.

President Hill pointed to evidences of a good year. He said that prospects were good with Randall Hall filled and Cousins Hall vacancies numbering less than this time last year. He suggested that if there were enrollment losses it would be in the number of men. He does not anticipate this however.

WPA Project For Roads and Walks Delayed

Work on the recently approved WPA campus project for sidewalk and road improvement will be delayed for two or three weeks it has been announced.

A. R. Randolph, supervisor in charge of this project, and George Linder, district director of operations for WPA, were in Canyon yesterday for a meeting with President J. A. Hill.

On account of scarcity of relief labor, the project must wait until the city of Canyon completes certain road improvements. This will require about three weeks. The Museum project is taking precedent over certain other WPA programs because it is listed as an unfinished building.

About twenty men are being brought here for the Museum unit's construction. Joe Angier will supervise the Museum work in addition to the Randall Hall annex now under construction. Most of the concrete has been poured on this annex; the work has been done by NYA labor.

West Texas State--in Neon

A new $1,000 two-way neon sign will be placed atop the Education Building under the sponsorship of the 1941 summer senior class. The group anticipates having the new mammoth neon on the building by the night of August 14.

With the cooperation of the local chamber of commerce and the college, the seniors are pushing the project to completion. G. L. Stanley of Shamrock, vice-president of the class, said yesterday that the work would start this morning on the construction.

It will be sixty feet long and approximately fifteen feet high with five feet letters. Present plans call for the sign to be placed in a V-shape so as to be read by drivers from Lubbock, Amarillo and Clovis.

The ambitious plan to complete the sign in order that the graduating seniors may see it lighted for the first time at the outdoor commencement exercises at Buffalo Field will require a stepped up movement. The NYA will begin work immediately on the steel and tin covers. Hoarcl Sign Co. of Amarillo will prepare the tubing for the neon. The red or maroon colored light will be used with a white background. It will be a day sign as well as night light.

Dr. Cook and Family Plan Mississippi Trip

Dr. Harris M. Cook, dean of men and professor of education, will visit Mississippi after the second semester of the summer term ends.

Dr. and Mrs. Cook and Joe will visit Hattiesburg, Gulfport, Crosby, and other Mississippi cities. They will leave on August 15.

Commencement Speakers Named

Mrs. J. W. Walker And Dr. Melvin C. Eidson Selected by Dr. Hill

President J. A. Hill has announced the speakers for the 31st annual summer commencement programs which will terminate the current session.

Dr. Melvin C. Eidson, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Luling, will give the Baccalaureate sermon on August 10 at 11 o'clock in the auditorium of the Administration Building. Dr. Eidson is a recently appointed member of the Texas teachers colleges Board of Regents.

Mrs. J. W. Walker of Plainview, president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, is the speaker for the commencement exercises on Thursday, August 14, at 8:30 p. m.

Mrs. Walker has been prominent in state club work for 10 years, and has been identified with Plainview music clubs as long as she has lived there. She recently returned from New York and Washington, her visit being related to her interest in national affairs. Mrs. Walker is a sister of Miltia Hill, a former member of the W. T. art department.

The College president also has scheduled a reception for summer graduating seniors, but the place has not been announced.

Negro Quartet Sings Wednesday Night

The popular Deep River Singers will make a personal appearance on the campus Wednesday night under the sponsorship of the College Lyceum committee. The program starts at 8:15, and student activity tickets are good for admittance.

Deep River Singers Promise Musically Different Program

Dummy Likeness of Homemakers Used To Drape Creations

A scene of much activity is presented by the eight girls enrolled in the advanced clothing 312 class taught by Miss Elizabeth Cox this summer.

They have been busy—a fact which is evidenced when one views the dummies that they have constructed. These models are the form of the individual and they are used to drape the garment on. The girls take only a picture of a dress and proceed from there to drape a dress made of unbleached muslin on the form; then when it is fitted they begin the actual work of constructing the garment which can be worn in public.

They are going to make a tailored silk dress and an evening gown or Sunday dress. Last semester the advanced clothing class made wool coats and suits.

Their primary aim of the course is to teach the girls how to drape their own pattern and fit it to themselves.

SECRETARY IN COLLEGE OFFICE WORKS ON THESIS

Roberta Addington, secretary for Dr. Lee Johnson, has selected a lengthy title for her Master's thesis which she expects to complete next fall.

The Boise City, Okla., graduate student will write on "A Comparative Study of the Salary Cost Per Unit of Certain Subjects in Four-Year High Schools of Supervisory District One."

Lyceum Committee Sponsors Negro Quartet's Appearance—Activity Tickets Are Good

The famous all-star Negro quartet, The Deep River Singers, will present a concert here Wednesday night at 8:15, in the auditorium of the Administration Building.

All the members of this company were in the Chicago run of the original production of "The Swing Mikado" which was successful and ran for two years in Chicago and later in New York, finally touring the country. It is often termed a musically different program.

John Burdette, famous bass baritone soloist of The Deep River Singers, also appeared in the stage production "Run Little Chillum" in New York, and "O Say Can You Sing?" in Chicago. Winner of the first prize in 1930 in the Chicago-Land Music Festivals contest. Mr. Burdette has been the only winner to have the honor to appear at Soldiers Field in Chicago every year at this great event sponsored by the Chicago Tribune. The Chicago critics said, "John Burdette thrilled the Festival audience into a volcano of enthusiasm with his performance of "Old Man River," "Wagon Wheels," and "Sylvia." Mr. Burdette was also presented daily through the events department at A Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago for two years.

The Deep River Singers have concertized over America for the past two years, and during the past year have broken every precedent by having special floor show productions built around them at the expense of the Lyceum.

Senior Class Plans Watermelon Feast for Members, Faculty

A Senior Class watermelon feast will be held Thursday evening on the Football Field. This is one of a series of Senior social events that are scheduled for the next two weeks. The event is free to all members of the Senior Class and members of the faculty.

A special arrangements committee, headed by Lou Brock, promises an evening of fun, frolic and entertainment for all.

G. L. Stanley, social chairman, emphasized the fact that faculty members as well as seniors are cordially invited. The event will begin at seven o'clock.

Home Economics Work Continues As Scheduled

Work in the home economics department is continuing as scheduled this summer with only one of the regular teachers, Miss Elizabeth Cox, and a visiting teacher, Miss Ruth Ford of Kingsville.

Miss Ford is supervisor of the Foods classes there. She is the supervisor of the Phebe K. Warner House this summer and is also teaching a meal planning course. Miss Cox is acting head.

Miss Margaret Barrett, the head of the home economics department, is spending the summer in Spearville, Kansas, with her father. Her mother died this summer following a long period of illness.

Miss Mary Katherine Fleming is teaching this summer in the Iowa State College at Ames, Iowa. She is the director of the home management house there.

Miss Lilla Clark is staying with her parents in Austin this summer. Miss Angie Nall who directed the nursery school this first semester has returned to her home for the remainder of the summer.

Goodman's Continue Study At U. S. C.

Mrs. Arthur K. Goodman, '36, is studying at the University of Southern California this summer, and reports that both she and Mr. Goodman are enjoying their work very much.

Mr. Goodman is working toward a doctorate. Recently they and their two children have enjoyed a day at Catalina Island.

Viola Jones, secretary in the office of the dean of women, was in the hospital last week.

Thousands on Campus Sunday

Brick and Cash Totals Increase—Program Gives Praise to Supporters

That V campaigns do get results was proved Sunday when the Panhandle-Plains Museum's brick-cash drive was climaxed by a Victory festival on the campus.

Several anti-climaxes are predicted because more of the brick and cash promised will be brought in later. It was like the ladies' silver tea with many coming in, giving brick and donations, and leaving that others might have room to trample the campus lawns.

Wednesday morning work will start on the main unit to top the annex. Brick and money donated by the Panhandle will be used. Added will be a $10,000 appropriation by the legislature and an appropriation by the WPA.

Three thousand and five hundred persons registered at the Museum desk. Many attended the program and the Museum, and did not register. Cash for the Museum donated Sunday totaled $438.70, and there were 9,629 brick delivered to the Museum on that day. This brings the cash total to $12,086.48 and the common brick sum is 271,682. All of the sand needed for the project has been donated by the Western Sand and Gravel Co., and the City of Canyon. The original drive was started in May, 1940. The current survey has brought in more than $3,000 and 23,000 brick.

John McCarty of the Amarillo Globe-News was a master of ceremonies for the Sunday program and has been behind the drive all the way to complete the Museum unit. Senator Grady Hazlewood was given credit for the fine state support given the Museum and the W. T. science building. He passed the toast to the Panhandle delegation in the legislature. He praised Reps. Jack Little of Amarillo, Dick Craig of Miami, Hop Halsey of Lubbock, Tom Dee of Floydada, Ennis Favors of Pampa, Paul Eubank of Matador, and Senator Marshall Fornby. Representative Little introduced Senator Fornby nad Representative Craig.

One of the popular parts of the program was the tapping out of the British V on the old Morse telegraph by Hubert Cole, Potter County clerk. The College band and the Amarillo Municipal band gave 25-minute concerts. Ralph Dykeman directed the Maverick.

"Words are things . . ."—Byron.

"And oft the pangs
Of absence to remove
By Letters,
Soft interpreters of love."
—Matthews.

(What is the greatest number of love letters you ever wrote in a day? We know a girl on the campus who received six a day for a long time. We know a fellow on the campus who sent 14 on one day to 14 different girls.)

"The tongue is prone to lose the way;

Not so the pen, for in a letter
We have not better things to say

Mr. Howe also said, "Who ever saw a man and wife who were both redheaded?" I never have. Have you?"

"That poem you quoted about women wearing slacks," says a friend, "should go this way."

But—have you seen yourself re-

Hitler is a greater fool than I took him for, or he's gone completely mad." Still Hitler isn't a 100 per cent vegetarian. He is fond of munching chocolate cream puffs. Mussolini eats mostly fruit, having the same for every meal. Now and then Il Duce goes for a little fish. . . . Nazis and Soviets are stretched out on a 2,000 mile front. That's a long front. Consider it is nearly as far as from Chicago to San Francisco. . . . Did you read about the man who was allergic to the brand of face powder his wife was using? He was losing weight, was in pain and depressed. Doctor suggested he might be allergic to his wife's face powder; so the wife changed her brand and her husband recovered his health. How are you feeling, mister?

BRIEFLY

Due to war conditions the shortage of Egyptian henna is becoming acute. It may be that soon the only redheads able to stay that way will be natural redheads. So, lady, if you are thinking of switching from a brunette to a strawberry blonde, maybe you had better postpone it until the war is over.

A Letter From Prexy

President J. A. Hill recently prepared a letter for 1941 graduates. We feel others are interested in the "news."

Graduates of West Texas State—
Dear Friends:

Now that you are gone from the campus a few weeks, it occurred to me you might enjoy a line from W. T. I am especially happy that we have good news for you—or, it may be that you already know about it; but anyway I enjoy telling folks and am choosing you as one I should like to tell about the many good things for 1941-42. So here goes.

Work on the addition to the museum will start Wednesday, July 30. We may not be able to finish it inside, but we'll occupy it anyway and house the fine art collection of Judge J. D. Hamlin and many other valuable objects. John McCarty and the Board of Directors of the Historical Society are staging a drive for funds and brick so that we may carry the new unit to completion, if possible. This drive culminated in a mammoth celebration here Sunday afternoon when we had a huge crowd and a splendid program. John thinks he will get a story and pictures in Life or Time and thus give us a lot of publicity. As an "Ex" John is doing a swell job, and all of us W. T. folks should give him a big hand. In this museum development is untold value to the college—much that is not yet realized by most of us. Personally, I feel a deep sense of pride in the fact that W. T. has set the pace in museum building in the Southwest, and we are not going to allow anybody anywhere to take from us the leadership in this field.

As to the Science building, the architect is at work on the plans, which we hope to have adopted by the Board of Regents at the August meeting. As soon as possible after that we shall let the contract. Dirt should fly by Homecoming, if not sooner. The building will not be large enough to house adequately all the departments we had intended to take care of there, but I think we can certainly move biology, chemistry, physics, and agriculture into the new structure. We should finish this building in the early summer of 1942, so we have just one more year in our crowded condition. With the completion of this building our sciences will be in excellent shape, our office and classroom situation greatly improved, and our library expanded.

Also, in the next few months a new well will more than double our water supply, thus enabling us to pursue with vigor our purpose to make this campus the most beautiful college campus in West Texas.

Last week President Roosevelt signed a long pending WPA application for a number of small campus improvements—paving, sidewalks, garages, incinerators, stadium improvements, etc. Because of labor shortage and the use of WPA labor on the museum this work may be delayed for a while. However, we are hoping to do some of it before cold weather.

You see there is going to be plenty of activity on the campus this fall, and when you return at Homecoming I hope that you will see the beginning of it.

Another thing. Boone McClure, a highly respected and very successful "Ex," took up his job with the college this week. He will be going into many communities of this area in the next few weeks, representing the college and the museum. He is a splendid young fellow and very capable. While he is paid a very good salary, he pays his own traveling expenses. Hence any courtesy you may be able to extend him I am sure will be greatly appreciated. Kindly give him every possible help in getting before the public, meeting "Exes" and prominent citizens, and holding conferences with school superintendents, teachers, and prospective students for W. T. Also he will be looking for memberships for the historical society and contributions of materials and money for the museum.

So much for this time. Hope you are located in a good position for the coming year, but if you are not we want to help you. Don't ever forget our permanent interest in you and our very great desire to see you successfully launched on a happy career.

Cordially yours,

J. A. Hill.

P. S. By the way, don't neglect to direct two or three or a half dozen good new students this way. Let the sorry ones go somewhere else, but be sure to see that all the others head for Canyon in September.

HELP THE MUSEUM

Construction will start Monday on the second unit of the Museum building. So far as Canyon is concerned, this is one of the most important institutions in the country. The Museum brings more people to Canyon during the course of the year than any institution aside from West Texas State College.

Many Randall county people have made contributions to the Museum during the past years. Many have contributed brick or money to the present campaign. Now is the opportunity for every citizen of Randall county to make some kind of a contribution to the completion of this great institution.

In the first place, every Randall county citizen should be at the Museum next Sunday afternoon to assist in entertaining the thousands of people who will be here for the celebration. Canyon and Randall county people will be hosts to the Panhandle upon this occasion.

In the second place, every citizen should gather up every brick that they can find and take these bricks down to the celebration Sunday. Be sure that your contribution of brick is added to the list of contributors.

In the third place, hundreds of Randall county citizens are able to contribute some money to the building fund. If you are able to give only a dime, keep in mind the fact that a dime will do something toward the erection of the building. There are some who can give dollars, or $25, or $50, or $100, and perhaps some who can afford to invest $1,000 in this great historical and educational institution.

There never has been started an institution in which so many Panhandle people have been interested, and to which so many folks have made a contribution. The state and federal governments have recognized this institution as one of the most worthwhile in the state, and have made liberal contributions. The people of this section have donated liberally. This drive is being made in order that the second unit may be finished. When it is completed, the Hamlin collection, valued at $100,000 or more, will be housed in the Museum.

The celebration next Sunday, and the completion of the Museum is a challenge to the citizens of Randall county. It is a challenge for the completion of an institution which means so much for the future welfare of Canyon and Randall county.

Hundreds of people outside of Canyon are working this week to make this a great event. Let all citizens of Randall county do their part in making next Sunday a great day, and seeing to it that their names are enrolled as builders of this great Museum.—Canyon News.

A DAY: From a breakfast of melon, toast, jelly, and coffee, I attended an education class where the professor is a real teacher, a person that can enjoy a smart retort as well as make one, and has a real sense of humor. Then to a class where a kitten visited the room, lying contentedly on a woman's purse purring and sharpening its claws. Men and women in the class were making beards of every hue and description. Of course they were modeled. I, a feminine woman—I hope, modeled an old gentleman's gray beard and mustache. Very sedate and aristocratic looking if I do say so. On returning from the Education building, a cosmopolite group on the east steps caught my eye. There were two professors, three janitors, men students of every class, and a dog lounging there—most of them were smoking. No, the dog had no pipe, but he looked just as happy as the others. Inside the building I found a sedate faculty member munching a carrot. I asked her if she were on a diet. She said it was to fill up that 10:30 empty spot.

Pray tell me what kind of birds those are that put in their appearance about dusk, settle in the trees behind the main building, and talk in whispers until bedtime.

On the day that Evelyn Taylor, a freshman, had been taking type-writing seven weeks, she wrote at the rate of 50 words per minute for 10 minutes without an error. Looks like she won't have any trouble passing that civil service test.

The grads seem to be happy using their reading room. Recently they decided that there were three or four words in the English language that they did not know, so one of the number appealed to a librarian for a dictionary and proto, they got it. Now the problem is to find which are those words.

Superlatives: Friendliest student on the campus—Byron Gentry. Most accommodating people—the librarians. Most courteous employees in the registrar's office. Busiest—President Hill. One of the outstanding faculty members—Dr.

Meyer. Most adorable—Mazie Coleman (the little red-headed freshman). Best acquainted (she knows every person here, and all that have attended here in the last twenty years)—Mrs. T. V. Reeves.

Orchids to Prof. Wallace R. Clark for the orchestral and choral clubs' performance!

TO TEACH AT TATUM

Alma Smith, '39, who has taught in the Bovina school for the past two years, has been elected to teach primary work in the Tatum, New Mexico, school.

Mrs. Vivian M. Doherty, a summer student from Amarillo, has been elected to teach in the primary grades at Wildorado.

Platter Patter

Sammy Kaye is one of the nation's most popular orchestra leaders and if his current Victor release may be employed as a barometer, then this department can understand why Sammy is on top. Taking two commonplace tunes, "A Rose and a Prayer" and "Harbor of Dreams," Kaye has endowed them with a rich, moving arrangement. The former song has been studded with a melodic simplicity which will find much favor with some of the married folks. The other side features Tommy Ryan with his rich, Irish tenor voice. By all means, add this to your collection.

Sammy Kaye—A Rose and a Prayer—Harbor of Dreams (Victor)

Xavier Cugat, who is a summer heat wave all his own, melts the wax with "Rhumba Rhapsody," a andaluz, that spotlights a smach vocal by young Miguelito Valdes and a sharp piano solo by Raoul Solar. This side is in flemenco style and Cugat's fiery interpretation should place this platter in the best seller class. On the reverse is "Is It Taboo," an effective, sharply accented bolero. If you like Latin Music, you'll like this record.

Xavier Cugat—Rhumbba Rhapsody—Is It Taboo (Columbia)

The music of Frankie Masters is distinguished with outstanding arrangements. Some bands rise to the heights with various artifices but the Masters' band has come up the musical ladder by means of music and if the present Masters' pace is sustained, he'll be at the top for many, many years. Masters is on display with "Blue Champagne" which literally bubbles in harmony with the reeds and trumpets well blended. "Harbor of Dreams" is on the reverse.

Frankie Masters—Blue Champagne—Harbor of Dreams (Okeh)

Columbia has released another pair of tunes that Eddy Duchin and his band recorded before going on their South American junket. The record is made up of "Wasn't It You" and "Be Fair." The former has an intimate quality perfectly suited to the Duchin style and the master, as usual, gets off a swell piano solo. June Robbins handles the vocal end. The flip-over is a nicely done job as are all of Duchin's recordings.

Eddy Duchin—Wasn't It You—Be Fair (Columbia)

Gene Krupa drives "After You've Gone" in two speeds—faster and faster, up to a trick, slow finish. Roy Eldridge, Negro trumpet star is really the ace of this record despite Krupa's torrid drum beat. Gene slows down a bit for "Kick It" a shimmering hot dance tune, with Anita O'Day going along with the sharp beat in a hepped-up vocal. Eldridge is again the topper here. "THERE AIN'T NO
FLIES ON ME . . ."

HERE AND THERE

If the St. Louis Cardinals win the National League pennant this year, Branch Rickey will insist that one of the world series games be played at night. Maybe he thinks that Joe DeMaggio won't be able to hit as well at night . . . many of the big league baseball hitters who have batted against Satchel Page, negro star, say he is much faster than Bob Feller of the Indians. . . . Bob Pastor, who has fought Louis enough to know what he is talking about, avows as how the old champion will be his old self against handsome Lou Nova. . . . Paul Brown, successor to Francis Schmidt as head coach at Ohio State University, states that he plans no changes in the style of offense that he used at Massillon High School last year . . . his attack is based upon a single wing back from a box formation, which is much the same system that is used at Columbia University. . . . Fritzie Zivic is driving the seventh automobile he has bought since becoming welterweight champion last October . . . he must be using them for his road work if he can wear them out that fast. . . . Billy Conn boasts an assortment of some 300 neckties. One of his ambitions is to catch up with Joe Louis in the matter of belts and socks.

POOR CLEVELAND

Says Jerry Mitchell of the New York Post: "So far as the Yanks are concerned when a Feller needs a friend the Indians are looking the other way—or at that third strike."

WHAT A MAN

Eddie Brietz writes: Cy Slapnicka, general manager of the Cleveland Indians, gets a headache whenever he is reminded of the time he said, "I wouldn't trade Roy Weatherly for two Joe DeMaggio's."

Randall County Boys Making Good Record at Camp Bowie

The following letter has been received from a soldier at Camp Bowie, which should be of interest to the friends of every man who is serving in Selective Service. The names of the writer and the receivers of the letter are eliminated:

Camp Bowie, Texas, July 8, 1941.

Dear _____

I am enclosing a list of the boys names from your town that were sent to Brownwood with the National Guard and along with his name you will find listed the Church of his choice.

I hope that all of the good people of each Church will work toward making life a little more pleasant for the boys. People don't seem to realize how many good boys were sent from that town. One can never realize how good they are until a person can see how far ahead of the others they stand out. Out of the seventy-three boys first sent from Canyon not one of them has yet contracted a social disease and very few have turned to the use of liquor in their life. Not one of them has fallen out from a long hard march and above all things they encouraged the Selected Service men so much that they went a lot straighter than the most of them. Today the Colonel of our Regiment told the boys that they were the only Company in the Regiment and as far as he could find out in the whole camp that hadn't lost a man on a long march for twelve years. He asked how could the boys encourage the draftees enough to keep them from falling out. I can tell you how they did it, by kindness and careful consideration of each and every one of them. Some day a lot of mothers would be very glad to have her son placed under the care of such a group of boys. Why not help them keep up the good work? They will have to help train a lot of other mothers' boys in the troubled years ahead as well as some of your own. I realize they are not perfect, but after watching so many boys I realize they are a lot better than any from any section of the state.

Now, life is getting very black for them. Their mothers and sisters think they are over their first stages of army life and should be getting along fine. Their sweethearts are finding new associates and are forgetting the little words of encouragement that are held very dear to those boys. If I possessed it I would give a thousand dollars for those mothers, sisters and sweethearts to hear the words spoken by the heart of some boy that has been neglected. Every little letter, a box of candy or just a post card is watched for as if it were gold. Every word of encouragement is read and how much brighter a fellow will look after receiving such words can never be imagined without seeing them in person. They spend many days in the field and you think that they don't keep up their share of the writing should realize it is impossible to write in the field and a lot of the time stamps are scarce in camp. When they go home it takes a lot of money to make such a trip and as far as I know there has been only three mothers from that section of the country that has come to visit her boy. There is very few boxes of cookies and little things to eat sent here. Those that do receive such rare treats will share it with everyone as long as it will last. Why couldn't the people send them little homemade treats? Nothing could be enjoyed by the boys any more than a box of cookies made at home.

They have pledged their life so that you people can enjoy life that is not known anywhere else in the world. To receive the proper training for this pledge thirty thousand boys are placed in this camp at Brownwood. A very small wage is paid to most of them. Decent entertainment is brought at a very dear price and a decent girl for them to associate with is hard indeed to find.

You must realize that any human, whether male or female, must have encouragement, hope, respect and a decent hopeful future at all times placed before them. You would be surprised at the number of boys that are simply placed here and forgotten. It is only by letters, boxes and short visits that they can receive this encouragement. Can you blame any one of them that are denied this encouragement for doing wrong? Life was never meant to exist without some sort of hope and some find it hard to find just what they are living for. I hope every time you people ride in a car you will realize this is denied most of them. Every time you enjoy the many hundreds of luxuries that we all are blessed with that you will realize they are denied those things. Instead they live in days of endless marches and suffer many hardships too numerous to mention. I am not speaking for myself. I have nothing hard to endure and

FRESHMAN IS OUTSTANDING TYPEWRITING STUDENT

Miss Evelyn Taylor, freshman from Vega, is an outstanding typing student at W. T. this summer. At the beginning of the first five weeks term, Mrs. Taylor was a beginner in typing, and at the end of seven weeks she made fifty words per minute for ten minutes with no errors on a typing speed test.

Mrs. H. H. Jackson, commercial teacher in Dalhart High School and member of the summer faculty at W. T. is her instructor.

My work is not hard. My pay is large enough to allow me anything within reason. I realize that unless people do get behind those boys they are going to suffer a lot in the years to come. For God's sake, let us all work together and do something right away. Something must be done for a lot of the boys before life becomes a total misery to them.

You can count on me for full co-operation in anything you people undertake. I hope you can see this is just a message to all the people of Canyon, not just to you alone. I just felt this way and wrote what I would tell them if I had the chance. I wouldn't want anyone to know who wrote it except you people though.

Sincerely, your friend.

Carlsbad Caverns Display Brilliant Works of Nature

New Mexico's greatest tourist attraction, the Carlsbad Caverns, are visited annually by 250,000 tourists. Here nature has spent millions of years in carving its brilliant masterpieces.

BY WINIFRED CLARK

WEIRD and wondrous Carlsbad Caverns National Park, nestled in the rugged foothills of the Guadalupe Mountains, in New Mexico, have thrilled as many as 250,000 visitors each year.

Ethereal in their beauty, the caves are believed to be the largest in the world. Carlsbad Caverns is a series of connected caves. Three main levels have been discovered and several haven't yet been penetrated.

First level of the caverns is 750 feet below the surface. Below, at 900 feet, is the second level. The third dips 1320 feet into the earth. Of the 32 miles of caves that have been explored, only seven are open to travelers.

Each tour is guided by National Park Service rangers over well-lighted, well-laid trails and stairs. Natural scientists estimate it required 200,000,000 years to carve out the huge underground cathedral.

Stalactite and stalagmite formations which range in height from a few inches to 100 feet—some of them 200 feet across the base—glitter and glisten like diamonds. It's an immense, dazzling, beautiful display.

The varied program of The Deep River Singers includes the well-loved spirituals and work-songs and ballads in the Plantation Scene, followed by a group of classical songs and arias in formal attire, and closes with excerpts from "The Swing Mikado" in costume. The musical arrangement for this was arranged for The Deep River Singers by the original arranger for the original "Swing Mikado." The brilliant, colorful and amusing costumes which they wear in this part of the program were also designed and made by the designer and costumer who costumed the original "Swing Mikado" company.—John Pratt.

This is the only concert company in America giving such a diversified program and featuring a costumed production of "The Swing Mikado." The program was arranged by the summer lyceum committee, and activity tickets are good for admission.
