

BUFFALOES WIN FIFTH T. I. A. A. TITLE

TWELVE WEEKS SUMMER TERM NOW CERTAIN

HILL REPORTS APPROPRIATIONS MADE FOR BIENNIAL

Announcing that a full twelve-weeks' summer term is assured, President J. A. Hill returned Thursday night from Austin, where he appeared before the senate finance committee and the house appropriations committee in the interest of an appropriation for W. T. for the biennium beginning September 1, 1931.

Dr. Hill left Saturday night by train. He appeared before the senate committee Monday and the house committee Tuesday.

According to President Hill, both committees were sympathetic and seemed anxious to make the appropriation as large as possible under the existing circumstances. It is understood, however, that it will not be large enough to permit any great improvements in the various college plants. The bill will not be passed until all of the college presidents have been consulted.

This was Dr. Hill's second trip to the capitol in the interest of the budget, and he will make another in March to appear before the board of education.

ELLENOR COOK WILL BE HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

AMERICAN GIRL IS FAMOUS FOR REPRODUCTION OF SLAVIC DANCES

The folk song recital which Ellenor Cook will give here next Friday night at 8:15 o'clock in the college auditorium promises to be the most unusual of the season. She will present her latest program of the folk songs and dances of the Slavic peoples of Eastern Europe. This program has been received with the utmost enthusiasm wherever it has been given and Miss Cook is generally acknowledged to be the most popular interpreter of Slavic folk songs in this country.

Ellenor Cook has specialized in the folk music of the picturesque countries of Eastern Europe ever since she first listened to a Czech peasant woman singing the songs of her native land. She was so delighted that she determined to learn and bring them back to America that her countrymen might enjoy them as well. She has been content to take only genuine folk songs, brought directly from the villages themselves, and much of the music is still in manuscript.

She has also procured the loveliest and most authentic costumes which she wears in all her presentations. She wears, for example, a Slovene costume obtained from a peasant woman who, a half century ago, danced in that very dress before Emperor Franz Joseph. Miss Cook, herself, has given a command performance for Her Majesty Queen Marie of Rumania. She has not only visited the nobility but she has lived in the small towns of Eastern Europe in order to acquaint herself with the daily lives of the peasant.

Miss Cook has a pleasing personality, a most attractive voice, and a fine command of the various languages she uses. In perfection of accent and gesture, she has woven together the songs and dances of many old nations in a finely conceived unity.

Mr. Hastings has lived in this country for many years. He is survived by his family and many friends. Three of his children, Ila Mae, Birda Anne, and Wallace Jr., have been students in W. T., the two latter being in school here now.

TWO-OUT OF THREE GAMES GO TO W. T. BASKETEERS IN GRAND SERIES WITH COMMERCE LIONS

For the fifth time in nine years of conference competition, the West Texas Buffaloes won the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship title when they nosed out the East Texas Lions at Commerce Saturday night in the final conference game, by the narrow margin of 31 to 29.

Handicapped early in the game by a seven-point lead won by the Lions, the Buffaloes, led by Fortenberry, six and a half foot star of the '31 quintet, and Burke, sensational forward, rallied immediately, forced the East Texans to adopt the defensive, and flashed to a one-point lead by the half, the score standing 20 to 19 there.

COLLINS AND MALIN TALK TO TYPE-HI CLUB

SOCIETY AND SPORTS EDITORS ON AMARILLO GLOBE DISCUSS WORK

Last Tuesday afternoon the Type-Hi Press Club was especially entertained and instructed when the society editor of the Amarillo News-Globe, Miss Anna Belle Collins, and sports editor, Mr. Jerry E. Milan, were special speakers at the bi-weekly meeting, each giving a very worth-while lecture on newspaper make-up, illustrating with cuts, mats, and various other impedimenta known to the make-up man.

Miss Collins began her talk by saying that the men had an idea that the society page had no material value and that this department of the daily paper was, from the masculine viewpoint, a waste of time and effort. She then very ably proved that this idea is mistaken, that the society page or as it is called by most newspapers, "the woman's page," is of equal importance with the front, sports or market pages. After proving the importance of her job and justifying the value of her position, Miss Collins turned to the make-up of the society page and how it is accomplished on the average daily, displaying the various devices used to make up a woman's page or section which will be both valuable and interesting.

Mr. Milan went further into the science of make-up by showing to his listeners following Miss Collins talk, numerous examples of front page styles of newspaper assembly or make-up. His examples, ranging from the largest metropolitan papers to the smallest dailies in the west, pointing out the individual characteristics of each. He then discussed and explained the latest methods used in actual printing of the daily. A display was made of mats, cuts, type, type metal, news services of different kinds, and the making of the mats (Continued on last page.)

Delmer Ashworth Doing Interesting Journalism Work

A recent communication from Delmer Ashworth, a former W. T. student and Prairie editor who is this year doing work in the University of Missouri School of Journalism, mentions the fact that he has lately enrolled in a special advanced course in editorial writing, and immediately got himself into an editorial controversy with an opposition paper, which kept him "living between his classes, his typewriter, and the courthouse for ten days."

In addition to this editorial course, Ashworth is doing full time reporting, and taking several other courses, one of which is a class in Russian. According to information received he is taking this latter in order "to remember that there is something else in life besides journalism," and to satisfy a certain cosmopolitan curiosity.

Two other W. T. ex-students who are now at the Missouri University are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gerald. Mrs. Gerald was before her marriage Opal Dutton of Panhandle. Edward Gerald was also at one time editor of The Prairie. He is now teaching in the journalism school at the University of Missouri.

Vance Swineburn, now superintendent at Daddsboro, Texas, recently visited friends in Canyon. Mr. Swineburn was a student here last summer.

Mrs. Corrah Lee Brandt, '28, has recently accepted a position as teacher of commercial subjects in the Shamrock high school.

Batchelder Holds Rehearsal of Cast Of 'The First Year'

Holding the first rehearsal of "The First Year," the play which will be the last production of the season for the Little Theater of Amarillo, C. W. Batchelder was in Amarillo Friday night. "The First Year," which was given in August of last summer by members of the W. T. faculty with Mr. Batchelder playing the lead, will be given by the Little Theater some time in April.

This play, which is a drama of young married life, when given by the faculty last summer played two nights to capacity houses in the Education building auditorium. The production at that time was directed by Novella Goodman of the demonstration school faculty, and was substituted for the last lyceum number of that season which was cancelled.

"The First Year" is a comic tragedy written by Frank Craven, a well-known playwright. It is being produced in Amarillo by special arrangement with Samuel French of New York.

Trombone Quartet Gives Program At Tulia High School

On Tuesday of last week the College Trombone Quartet went to Tulia to play in the high school chapel at the invitation of the school. While there they also played for the Kiwanis luncheon.

The quartet, composed of Winston Savage, Joe Hill Jr., Charlie Kiker and William Strain, has as its regular accompanist, Jessie Louder, who also is piano soloist for the group. The organization played a varied program which included trombone solos, trombone duets, trombone quartet numbers, piano solos, and stunt numbers consisting of whistling pieces by Joe Hill, and other specials.

At the Kiwanis luncheon several popular numbers were played by Miss Louder, the quartet playing three numbers, Hill whistling four, Kiker playing three trombone solos, and Savage and Kiker playing two trombone duets. A splendid luncheon was served at the meeting.

GROUP MAKES TRIP TO HALE COUNTY MON.

EX-STUDENT ASSOCIATION PARTY VISITS SEVERAL HIGH SCHOOLS

Leaving here Monday morning, February 23, at 7 o'clock, a party composed of Mrs. J. A. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. George and the College Quartet, Noel Gollehon, Emmett Smith, Alvis Yarborough, and Alfred Jameson, made a trip through Hale county in the interest of the ex-Student Association. They visited all the high schools in the county, and attended the ex-student banquet held at Plainview that evening.

The party made its appearance at the Plainview High School at 9 o'clock a. m., in Hale Center at 11 o'clock where dinner was served them by the P. T. A. of that place, and in Abernathy at 1:30, where the high school senior class gave the group a tea. Arriving in Petersburg at 3 o'clock the party concluded their trip and work with the addresses given there. At each place Mrs. Hill was the main speaker, telling the assembled students at the various schools of the many advantages to be had at Canyon W. T. Entertaining numbers were sung by the quartet at each stop.

In the evening the party returned to Plainview where they attended the Hale County ex-Student Banquet at 8 o'clock. Forty-seven ex-students were present. Mrs. Hill again made the address of the occasion, with her speech entitled "Salamagundi," chosen because it included so many of the interesting, important, and significant things dealing with the difficulties, accomplishments, and achievements of the students who have gone out from W. T. The quartet sang at the banquet also.

Before the banquet in Plainview the touring group were met by D. A. Shirley and L. F. Sheffy, who also attended the banquet and talked on the program.

LAST PLAY OF SEASON GIVEN HERE THURSDAY

MORE THAN 100 VISITORS SEE CHILDREN'S THEATER PRODUCTION

Climaxing the season's work in Children's Theater, the dramatization of "Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp" was presented in the auditorium of the Education building Thursday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock.

The production was given by members of the dramatic club under the direction of Robert Hunt, a senior in W. T., and a major in the speech arts department, and C. W. Batchelder, a member of the department faculty. The play was one of the most enthusiastically received of the season. Over one hundred visitors from out of town were present, and these, combined with the usual Children's Theater-going people made a full house for the presentation.

The players in the cast did exceedingly good work, according to all critics. The costumes were very effective and, considered from a dramatic technique standpoint the play was outstanding. Those taking part were Wendell Cain, Georgia Whittenburg, Frances Lester, Peggy Page, Farris Sears, Fancher Archer, L. B. Penick, Charles Donnell, Bill Skelton, Howard Ratchelder, Lawrence Cook, Mervin Cooper and Winston Wofford.

The Children's Theater has sponsored eight open productions during the past season. For the eight plays there has been an average attendance during the season of approximately 3000. People who bought Children's Theater season tickets averaged paying only a little over 15 cents per production.

So far as is known the Children's Theater sponsored in W. T. is only the second of its type in Texas.

The play given Thursday, which is the last of the productions for the season, was dramatized by Mrs. C. W. Batchelder and Mr. Batchelder from the old Arabian Nights tale by the same name. Mr. Batchelder, assisted by Charles Donnell, Fancher Archer and Winston Wofford, set the scenery for the production.

CHILDREN FIRST

In the face of danger or disaster on a sinking ship we would strike down anyone who attempted to save himself at the expense of a child. Children come first not only on sinking ships but in our hearts, our homes, our schools, and our churches. They are first. The race can save itself—can lift itself higher—only as children are limited up. In this unique period of depression with its extreme want on the one side and its extreme fortunes on the other, many schools are carried down to disaster—their doors closed—their funds cut off. Boards of education and other public officials are often hard pressed financially but they cannot afford to give up the idea of children first. To do justice by the child it is necessary to do justice by the child's teacher. Teachers have never had full justice. Their salaries have always been low when compared with their training and their heavy responsibilities. They have never been able to maintain the standard of living which the character of their work calls for. We have never given to our American rural communities the leadership of a stable, well-paid, well-trained teaching profession. To reduce teachers' salaries now would be to weaken our first and last line of defense and to cripple the very institution—the common school—to which we must look for the training in skill and in character to enable us to rise above present conditions. Teachers know this but they do not always make it plain to other citizens of the community. This is the time when the schools need to keep close to the homes; when every teacher needs to realize that he must interpret his service in terms of human significance and values if he is to save the school and protect the rights of the children. Copy this editorial and take it to members of the school board, the editor, and other leading citizens. Tell them about your own work—the fascinating story of what you are doing to help young people to become masters of themselves. Let's keep the children first.—J. E. M. —(Editorial in the Journal for March, 1931).

A recent speech by President Butler of Columbia was broadcast to the alumni over 55 stations throughout the nation, and via short wave to many foreign countries. A notable undertaking, and a good method of retaining alumni loyalty.

KAMPUS KNICK

KNACKS

BY COL. GOWDY

The Buffs caused a riot at the Olympic Saturday night when Mr. Wooten announced them the T. I. A. A. champs. Everyone relaxed that old tensed feeling they had felt for days.

From all reports the Bisons acquired new pets names while the last two games were in session. It seems that in all institutions where friendly rivalry has existed this year there has been a tendency for nicknames. Even our little Tech neighbors have termed us the "Highly Touted Moon Sweepers." O. K. by us, we're proud of it.

Congratulations to the Colonel on his last three games, and we're certainly proud of our '31 T. I. A. A. champs.

If your favorite professor looks kinda wild eyed and fidgets, if he measures distances around the room and seems cross and worried, don't take it to heart. Spring is here and has just another victim of the little old golf bug. Almost a steady pour of men with clubs, bags and what not come from alleys and by-paths and head for the course. And you know MOST of the profs are only human.

This Hereford Band gets the prize for startin' 'em young. One little trumpet soloist was so small that we couldn't see him, but we heard him and he was pretty fair.

Well, we finally got another dance off and for a while we were afraid it wouldn't get off. The band couldn't get together for a while but after the intermission we were able to dance to it.

Anyone who missed chapel Tuesday missed one of the best U. S. tours in the history of our chapel. Mr. Terrill in all his glory told us about the old U. S. A. and its splendors. It was like traveling through space on the magic carpet until he got to that shingle story. After that I couldn't believe a word he said. It topped Barto Johnson's "Story of the Bull."

And speaking of shingles—Miss Graham passed out enough shingles to the scholarship society Saturday to shingle a house.

Folks, this minstrel show will take your money (if you have any). Dean Cook will reproduce the only original copy of St. Vitus' dance and Bob Jarrett will attempt a number on the saxophone. Let's don't miss it.

We found out that Mr. Dyer is an official for girls basketball. We'd been wondering about his profession.

HALE CO. EXES HOLD FIRST ANNUAL BANQUET MONDAY

Monday night, February 23, forty-seven ex-students of W. T. their wives and husbands, and guests, met at the high school for the first banquet of Hale county W. T. ex-students. It was voted to make the banquet an annual affair and Frank Day was made president of the Hale County Association, and Mrs. Cecil Bell, secretary.

The table was laid with a snowy cloth, and the college colors of maroon and white predominated in the decorations. Tiny Buffaloes were given as favors. Members of the home economics classes of the high school served the banquet.

Mrs. Julia Kelly ably presided as toastmaster, and Mrs. J. A. Hill made the principal address of the evening. In her talk Mrs. Hill briefly reviewed some of the outstanding things which have been accomplished by the college, mentioning foremost among the achievements the steps that the college is taking in preparing teachers throughout the United States.

Short talks were made by L. F. Sherry, head of the history department; D. A. Shirley, registrar; L. N. George, head of the ex-student association, all of Canyon; and H. S. Hilburn, Grady Shipp, E. F. Baker, S. W. Reeves, O. J. Laas, W. P. Evans, Billy McClure, Mrs. Ola Legge, all of Plainview, and L. W. Sloneker of Hale Center. The College Quartet, Smith, Golehon, Yarborough and Jameson sang several numbers on the program, and Mrs. L. N. George sang a solo.

SCHOLARSHIP BANQUET IS CLEVERLY PLANNED AFFAIR

Beautifully decorated in green and blue dirigible balloons, and multi-colored sweet peas, the crystal ballroom of the Herring hotel of Amarillo was the scene of the sixth "annual landing" banquet of the Lloyd Green Allen Scholarship Society, held Saturday night, February 28. The aviation motif was effectively carried out in the skillfully planned programs, favors, and menu.

The cleverly arranged program was piloted by Ruth Watson, president of the society. Features of the program were Hum of Motor, Marie Stalcup; Radio Operator, Ira Clark; Flying Low, Georgia Whittenburg; Altimeter, Ferman Sawyer; Flying Through Storms, Margaret Camp; Music Wire, Virginia King; Propeller, D. A. Shirley. Miss Edna Graham read letters from different W. T. exes who were former members of the society: Marjorie Walters Bain of Bula, Texas; Montie Draper, Childress; Corinne Nash, Waco; Hassie David, Dallas; Mae Simmons, Kalamazoo, Mich.; Mae Slack Coffee, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. Grady Banks, formerly Edith Kropff, North Pomona, Calif.; Mrs. Clementine Johnson, Austin; Viola Jones, Wheeler; Bertha Lee Parker, Austin; Delmer Ashworth, Columbia, Mo.

The menu consisted of contact cocktail, baked stabilizer, whirlwind dressing, red berries, stow-away, looped sugar corn, baked salad, shock absorbers, oiled wheels, air cooled cream, and aromatic anti-freeze.

In spite of bad flying weather, a large number were present. The invited list included Messrs. and Mesdames D. A. Shirley, Leroy Landers, Leo J. Peterson, Albert Sone, Ray S. Daniel, E. L. RECEPTION FOR SENIORS GIVEN BY A. A. U. W.

Girls of the senior class were delightfully entertained Thursday night, February 26, with a reception at Cousins Hall by the local A. A. U. W.

Pot plants skillfully arranged gave an atmosphere of loveliness to the reception rooms. An enjoyable program consisting of music by the college orchestra, piano solo by Robert H. Berryhill, a vocal solo by Mrs. L. F. Sherry, a reading by Miss Mary Morgan Brown, and a dance by Miss Jessie Louder, was presented during the course of the evening.

Refreshments of tea, sandwiches, baked torte with whipped cream, and mints were served.

MISS HOLLYCE SELLERS AND OLIN HINKLE WED SATURDAY
A wedding of great special interest to people of W. T. and Canyon took place Saturday evening at the home of the Rev. C. E. Lancaster, pastor of the First Baptist church of Pampa, when Miss Hollyce Sellers and Olin E. Hinkle, both of that city, were united in marriage.

The bride, elder daughter of Mrs. M. L. Sellers of Abilene, is society editor of the Pampa News-Post, of which her husband, Mr. Hinkle, is managing editor.

Mrs. Hinkle was graduated from Simmons University in 1929. She spent one summer studying at the University of California, Berkeley. Her newspaper career began with the Abilene Daily Reporter, for which she gathered news of the colleges. She later was society editor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal before becoming society editor on the Pampa paper. She was the first president of the junior unit of the Woman's Forum in Abilene. At present she is a member of the American Association of University Women and College Club and of the Pampa Business and Professional Women's Club.

Mr. Hinkle, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hinkle of this city, began his journalistic career as editor of The Prairie here at W. T., where he graduated with the class of 1925. He later studied at the University of Missouri School of Journalism.

Mr. Hinkle worked on newspapers in Missouri, Oklahoma, and Central Texas before coming to Pampa to become managing editor of the Pampa Daily News when it was founded March 10, 1927. He is a member of the Lions Club, city planning commissions, and other organizations. He is president this year of the Panhandle Press Association, and was last year president of the W. T. ex-Student Association.

ART CLUB BECOMES MEMBER AMERICAN ART FEDERATION

Phidias Art Club was delightfully entertained Wednesday evening, February 25, by Miss Isobel Robinson at her apartment-studio. The members voted unanimously to become a member of the American Federation of Art. In becoming a member the club gains many advantages, among them the fact that the local organization will be allowed a voting delegate to the national convention, and as a chapter it will receive a 10 per cent discount on all exhibits that the club obtains from the American Federation of Art.

After the business meeting, a short program consisting of talks on "Post-Impressionism," by Martha Strain, and "Noe-Impressionism" by Ethel Bourland was enjoyed. The program was followed by a round table discussion of these and other related subjects. Bridge tables appeared and the rest of the evening was soon spent.

The hostess served mints, sandwiches, whipped cream, and hot chocolate to Mr. Kenneth Hunt, art teacher in the Amarillo Schools; Miss Miltia Hill, Miss Inez Allen, Miss Ruth Wiseman, Miss Ethel Bourland, Miss Ethel Ruth Collins, Miss Estella Bourland, Miss Ruth Watson, Miss Martha Strain, Miss Alleith Elliston, Miss Allie Mae Young and Wayne Griffiths.

from which a whole page is made up and printed, explaining each step, from the "dummy sheet" to the finished paper.

Mr. Milan, one of the foremost sport writers in the west, has grown up in the newspaper game and in addition to being able to write on sports convincingly, has also the ability and training necessary to be a success as a rewrite or a make-up man. Mr. Milan is a graduate of the West Texas State Teachers College and was the first president of the local Type High Club. Miss Collins is a graduate of Texas Tech and is wonderfully equipped to handle her job. One of the points that she stressed in her talk was, that a society editor's job not only required an ability to write society items well, but also an expert knowledge along many other lines such as art, cooking, menu-making, nutrition, designing, gardening, child welfare, and infant care.

The Type High Club is indeed fortunate in being able to secure these two talented people for this instruction. As a further effort to better acquaint the members of the club as well as all the members of the Prairie staff with actual working conditions on a daily newspaper, a special trip will be made to Amarillo for the purpose of visiting the News-Globe plant and seeing the actual operations incident to the publishing of an edition of the News-Globe. This trip will be made on March 10.

second on Friday night at Commerce, Comer was again high with 11 points; in the third and deciding game, Burke registered high with 10 points.

Mainly because of the two giants, Fortenberry and Comer, the margin of the defensive stack-up also went to the Buffaloes, although the defensive play of the two teams averaged about even for the three games. Fortenberry proved to be a real basketball player in addition to his height, scoring systematically in each game.

Captain Brown and Clark, breaking guards, played a highly important part in the champions' victory with their swift and accurate placement and passing.

Fitzgerald, Monroe and Richards, substitutes called on in the Tuesday night game here played ball with a vim fully worthy of their responsibility. Richards, substitute guard, was called on in all three games, and delivered like a veteran.

Band Concert Is Given at Canyon High School Thurs.

Making its third annual visit to the Canyon Public High School, the Buffalo Band played an informal concert there at the chapel period from 11 to 12 a. m., Thursday.

The program consisted of the following numbers: "Napoleon's Last Charge," by Ellis-Paull; "Stradella Overture," by Plotow; "Attention," a march written by Director Strain himself, and played here for the first time before an audience; "Mill in the Forest," by R. Eilenberg; "The Vision," by E. Brooks, a trombone solo by Charlie Kiker; "Southern Melodies," a group of old Southern songs compiled by Al Hayes; and "Marche Militaire," by F. Schubert, played as an encore number.

"Clarence" may not be a swearing man, but he surely is attracting attention. If he is as good as reported the whole school ought to turn out to see him and his colleagues tonight.

Two Books Poetry Given W. T. Library

Two books of poems, "A Book-fellow Anthology," and "Wings Against the Wind," have recently been presented to the W. T. Library by Mrs. Mary S. Fitzgerald, wife of one of the regents of the Texas Teachers Colleges, and by Virginia Spates of Sherman, Texas.

Mrs. Fitzgerald has nine of her own poems in "A Book-fellow Anthology," two of which are written in the negro dialect. "Wings Against the Wind" is a collection of Miss Spates' poems. All of these, and a part of Mrs. Fitzgerald's poems are of a spiritual nature.
