Council Plans Student Recreational Dances

Plans for holding Student Recreational Dances every Monday night from 7:30 until 9:30 were formulated at Student Council meeting Wednesday afternoon. The plan, which includes the acquisition of the women's gymnasium, awaits the approval of the Welfare Committee before it goes into effect.

Pierle Discusses Chinese Problems At IRC Meeting

"China will win the war if she can get the arms and ammunition to do it," Dr. C. A. Pierle, head of the department of chemistry, told members of the International Relations Club Wednesday night in an address on the subject of the war in the far east. "China is stronger now financially than Japan," Pierle emphasized.

Dr. Pierle, who has spent nine years in China as a teacher, returning to this country in 1917, is well acquainted with the Sino-Japanese situation, and is recognized as an authority on the subject.

Charges International Greed

"The Peace Conference at Brussels will accomplish nothing," Pierle states, pointing out that England, as the leading world power in the conference, is afraid to engage in any controversy in the East because of her position at home, with both Germany and Italy threatening.

Pierle, admitting that his sympathies were entirely with his Chinese friends, branded the situation as "the greatest attempt at international banditry since the conquest of Ethiopia."

International greed," he charged, is back of the entire conflict. "Japan must have raw materials cheap to realize their ambition of becoming the 'greatest industrial country in the world.' Japan wants to get things for nothing to be able to compete in the open markets of the world. Japan does not need any territory for its ninety million people if it would make use of its own land," Pierle said, refuting the excuses offered by the Japanese for conquest of new territory.

Branding the Japanese as "the greatest imitators on the face of earth, and with as little ingenuity," Pierle reviewed the events in Japan's imperial policy leading up to the present crisis.

Predicts Alliance

To the question of whether or not the United States will enter the war, Pierle answered, "I do not know," pointing out that this country is now maintaining a force of marines and several warships in the region of Shanghai.

"It is expected that Germany and Italy will form an alliance with Japan 'against communism'," he added, pointing out that these are the three great Fascist countries of the world, although Japan is theoretically monarchial.

Pierle was introduced before members of the IRC at the Education Building Wednesday night by Ross Wilson, program chairman. Clarence Hamilton, IRC president, was in charge of the meeting.

Netmen End Fall Season Against N. M. M. I. Cadets

A late tennis schedule change pits the West Texas State netters against the New Mexico Military Institute of Roswell, N. M. on the Buffalo tennis courts Friday afternoon in the final of the fall season for both clubs.

The Cadet quartet will be led by Cadet Station, recent winner of the Militarymen's tourney. Station will exchange strokes with Norton Curry in the cream match of the day. Curry, a victor by 6-0, 6-3 scores two weeks ago, will be the favorite to repeat. Brummett McClendon faces Cadet Sloan; F. Kelly meets Cadet Robbins and L. Riley collides with Cadet Robbins.

WRANGLERS TO MEET TONIGHT AT 7:30

Wranglers will meet in room 118 of the Administration Building tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Lassers will have charge of the program. Plans for the year's work will be discussed.

W. T. Represented In Sul Ross State Teachers Faculty

Former students seen at the Buff-Lobo game Saturday at Pecos would indicate that W. T. is well represented on the staff of Sul Ross State Teachers College.

Horace W. Morelock, president of the Alpine school, is a former member of the English Department staff here. B. C. Graves, Lobo coach, is a former W. T. student and athlete, and William Lockhart, son of Professor W. E. Lockhart and a former student here, is the physician for Sul Ross State Teachers.

Asked why his team did not win, President Morelock replied in his crisp manner:

"Well, I can't do everything."

He also predicted that his section would be able to get the proposed Big Bend park.

Faculty Members Return Wednesday From Visits

President J. A. Hill and Miss Anna I. Hibbets returned Thursday night from a visiting tour of the Floyd and Motley County schools.

President Hill and Miss Hibbets spent Monday and part of Tuesday at the Lockney schools, where President Hill addressed the high school students and the P. T. A., while Miss Hibbets visited the primary and elementary grade classes.

"The Lockney school system is an excellent one," President Hill said. "It is interesting to note that nine out of the sixteen teachers are exes of W. T. Those teachers are: J. W. Jones, superintendent; Mrs. Clyde Applewhite, primary teacher; Mrs. Herschel Clawson, reading and music; Mrs. Jesse Green Henson, intermediate teacher; Herschel Clawson, history and business administration; E. O. Cooper, coach; Miss Mattea Wane Grammer, spelling and business administration; Miss Eunice Coleman, English; and Mrs. Willie Merle Trapp Haithcock, English."

They spent Tuesday and Wednesday at Floydada. President Hill spoke in assembly, at the Chamber of Commerce meeting, to the Rotary and Lions Clubs in joint session, and to the exes of Floyd County.

A reception was given by the federated club women for Mrs. Hill, who accompanied President Hill and Miss Hibbets, Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. James Willson.

Other towns they visited were Motley, Aiken, Matador, Roaring Springs, Whiteflat, and Flomot.

Herschel Jennings of the business administration department and Miss Edna Graham of the mathematics department began visits to schools in the northwest Panhandle yesterday.

They will visit in Channing, Hartley, Dalhart, Texline, Stratford, and Dumas.

Cross Asks For Examiner's Course

Ruth Cross, head of the women's physical education department, announced yesterday that a request had been made to the national headquarters of the American Red Cross for an examiner's course to be held some time in March. Russell Plaisted will be in charge of the course, and it will probably be conducted on the same lines as former ones have been with the exception stress placed on swimming and new procedure in the technique of life saving.

Although the exact dates have not yet been set, the course will continue for a week and will have as its majority of students the class in life saving offered by the physical education department.

Unemployment Census to Be Taken Here

The College will be included in an unemployment census which will start throughout the nation on Nov. 16. The census will be taken by the Post Office Department.

Prof. C. A. Murray and Prof. R. A. Terrill will be in charge of the distribution of blanks to be filled out by all persons unemployed, partly employed, or receiving NYA or other emergency government employment.

The bill for the unemployment census was signed by President Roosevelt at the last session of Congress.

Supt. L. A. Woods Gives Assembly Talk Saturday

Dr. L. A. Woods, state superintendent of public instruction, stressed that the amount of money spent for education should be increased rather than reduced in an assembly address here Saturday morning.

Education is the most important and expensive item in state government, Dr. Woods said. Taxpayers are continually asking for lower taxes and more services, but the only way to reduce the budget is to decrease the wants of the people of the state, he said.

Government Service Increased

"Many people like to hark back to the days when Jim Hogg was governor of Texas, and the expense of the state government was 15 million dollars per year. Today the annual expenditure of the state government is a 130 million per year, but we are doing a lot of things today we didn't do when Jim Hogg was governor," Dr. Woods said.

He directed attention to the fact that the expenditure per scholastic was $3 during the Hogg administration while today it is $22.

More than 13 billion dollars is spent each year in this country for crime and only two billion is spent for education, Dr. Woods pointed out. "If the people act wisely, they will spend more money for education with the coming of each generation," he said.

Demand for Music Teachers

Dr. Woods asked for a show of hands on how many students plan to teach, and said that dropping of the "Teachers" from the title of the school could be justified since a majority of students do not plan to teach, but added that many students who do not plan to enter the teaching profession likely would.

"Students who plan to enter the teaching profession should prepare themselves to direct public school music," Dr. Woods said in an interview. "There is a great demand for teachers who have majored in music who can supervise athletic activities," he said.

"The schools of the Panhandle compare favorably with others throughout the state," Dr. Woods commented in the interview.

Dr. Woods spoke at a meeting of the Panhandle-Plains Superintendents meeting in Amarillo Saturday.

Red Cross Drive Opens Here

College students are urged to co-operate in the Red Cross membership drive which starts Friday. Two hundred memberships have been set as Randall County's quota, according to Guy J. Harp, local Red Cross chairman.

Mr. Harp suggests that college clubs might buy one membership in the name of the group. Randall County has always been generous in its support of the Red Cross. Last year $500 in addition to regular subscriptions, was raised here for the relief of flood sufferers, Mr. Harp said.

Mrs. J. M. Daugherty is chairman of the drive in Canyon, and Miss Frances Wilroy is directing the campaign in the rural districts. Miss Ruth Cross represents the organization on the W. T. Campus.

W. T. Professor Constructs Official Fish Love Fence

Few faculty members have shown enough interest in the affairs-of-the-heart of W. T. Eds and Co-eds to build a fence for them to court upon, but with the completion of the Freshman Courting Fence in front of Miss Mary Moss Richardson's home on November 4, one faculty member, at least, has provided a stone and mortar symbol of past, present, and future (conjugating) freshmen.

The fence is 18 inches in height, and was measured by a chair to insure that it would be an ideal height for sitting. The post at the right end is five feet and ten inches high, the height of Miss Richardson. At its top is a small plate bearing the name, Mary Moss Richardson, and somewhat lower encircled with a framework of petrified wood, a copper plate inscribed with the poem, "A Garden" by Thomas Edward Brown.

The stones in the fence are shaded with gray or mauve. One was brought from Stone Mountain by Dick Smith, son of Mrs. Agnes Smith. Another was picked up by Miss Richardson where Caesar crossed the Rubicon in Italy.

Bus No. 131 Proves Jinx To Bufs for Second Time

Number 131, the Leeway Greyhound bus that carried the football team to Pecos, bit the dirt again.

On the return trip, a knock in the engine was audible three miles out of Odessa and an investigation revealed that a rod had been burned out. The disconcerted squad groaned while the bus taxied into Odessa.

To add to the complications a bus was ordered out of Amarillo, and the impatient team, 36 in all, waited in Odessa from 11 a. m. until 7 p. m.

This same 131 bogged down on the trip to El Paso earlier in the year. The bus company has purchased and sent for a new bus for such trips.

Ex-students Attend Home Economics Meet In Amarillo

Eighteen graduates of the W. T. home economics department, representing fifteen Panhandle high schools, were present at the district home economics meeting held at the Herring Hotel in Amarillo Friday.

The meeting was conducted by Miss Esther Sorenson, district supervisor from Lubbock. She was assisted by Miss Gladys Armstrong, local home economics supervisor.

Miss Orpa Dennis, Miss Margaret Barrett, and Miss Elizabeth Cox, College home economics staff, attended.

Among the fifty-eight home economics instructors and supervisors of this district who attended the meeting were the following ex-students: Gwen McFarland, Turkey; Nell Freeman, Canyon; Marie Carol Smith, Booker; Mae Love, Dodson; Lois Waggoner, Dimmitt; Beryl Hixon, Hedley; Mrs. Sue Donald, Amarillo; Miss Georgia Short, Amarillo; Jane Williams, Allison; Mrs. Rex Lovelady, Kelton; Helen Edwards, Petersburg; Elizabeth Deal, White Deer; Fannie Mae Reese, Floydada; Sybil Gidden, Stratford; and Harriet Dickinson, Littlefield.

The final gun ended the last advance of the Bufs, paced by the drives of Big Lwood Dow, who carried for gains of 8, 9, and 15 yards. The game ended on the Sul Ross 22 yard line.

Starting lineups: Bufs: pos. Sul Ross: Walling LE-RE Luna Stephenson LE-RT Carrick Hinger LG-RG Fowler Horton RG-LG Carraway Edmondson center Riggs Harp RT-LT Birchum Kendrick RE-LE Hawkins Watkins QB Craig Lyde LH Tipps Thomas RH Archer Slack FB Graham

Officials: Referee, Parcells, Northwestern; umpire, Day, T. C. U.; field judge, Gough, Army; headlinesman, Taylor, West Point.

Seven teams have indicated that they will play in the intramural volleyball tourney to be played beginning tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. Cousins Hall, Randall Hall, Paul House, Y. W. C. A., Out-in-town Girls, Cactus Lodge, and Mesquite Lodge will have teams. Any other organizations which wish to enter teams may do so, according to Miss Hazel Evans, and any individuals that would like to play but do not belong to any definite team may come and be placed in independent teams.

First prize will be a pass to the Olympic Theater for each member of the team, and a surprise award for the entire team. Each member of the team winning second place will receive a pass to the Paramount Theater in Amarillo, and each member of the team placing third will receive a pass to the Olympic.

Miss Evans stated that these awards should not be confused with the merit awards to be given in the spring to the out-standing member of each of the athletic clubs, as they are not the same.

Miss Allie Coon, the former Allie Whittenburg, ex-student of W. T. is proprietor of a flower shop in Pecos. A former student of Prof. L. G. Allen, she asked the W. T. delegation to the Buff-Lobo game many questions regarding Mr. Allen and other members of the faculty here.

Locals Score Twice To Earn 10-0 Win

Revenge was sweet as the West Texas State Buffaloes battered the Sul Ross Lobos all over Pecos field with a crisp offensive and punched across counters in second and fourth quarters to earn a 10-0 decision.

Four thousand persons looked on as the Bufs carried their gridiron campaign west of the Pecos River in the first college football game played in that community.

Throughout the encounter, the Bufs ripped the Lobo line for gain after gain, but the Alpine wall buckled down to business in the shadow of their own goal posts.

A blocked punt in the early moments of the second quarter materialized in the first Bison chalk mark. Taking the ball on the 29, Fullback Dow rammed his way to the Lobo 12. Thomas and Dow collaborated to carry to the five where the drive was bottled for three downs. On the fourth, Foster Watkins stepped back to his 15 and booted a field goal between the uprights.

In the dying minutes of the fourth quarter, the Bufs punctured the Lobo wall again on runs by Murry, Thomas and Dow. The drive started on the 40 and halted on the one. The Buff cause seemed doomed until Matney lateraled to Quarterback Floyd Murry who scored around end. Dow was sent in to convert from placement.

The outstanding Alpine threat came in the third quarter when Right End Luna caught the kickoff on the 30 and raced 50 yards to the Buff 20. The Bufs stiffened and staved off the assault.

A freak play, equalled only by Matney's theft of a ball for a touchdown in the Raven-Buffalo game at Canyon, occurred when Bo Graham, Lobo back, seized the ball from Dow's hands and ran it from the 11 to the Lobo 35 yard line. The Bufs had marched the ball on an 80 yard drive when it appeared certain that they would score.

In the second quarter, a pass completion, Archer to Luna for 25 yards, scared the Buffaloes when the Alpine men invaded their territory. Tomas put an end to the march when he intercepted one of Archer's passes.

The final gun ended the last advance of the Bufs, paced by the drives of Big Lwood Dow, who carried for gains of 8, 9, and 15 yards. The game ended on the Sul Ross 22 yard line.

W. T. Band Inspires Bufs at Sul Ross Game Saturday

The Buffaloes were inspired by the presence of the W. T. Band in their game with Sul Ross Saturday. The band arrived in Pecos Saturday at noon on its tour of West Texas towns.

A broadcast was given over Station KIUN, Pecos station, from 4:30 to 5 p. m. by the W. T. organization, which then led a football parade in which the Pecos high school band and the Lobo band participated. Between halves at the game, the band, stepping with military precision, played and marched, and were followed by the Lobo band and pep squad.

Students on the band trip, which was in charge of Prof. C. E. Strain, director, and Mrs. Anthony Dougal, chaperone, included the following: Gonda Biggers, Houston Bright, Weldon Bright, J. T. Carroll, E. C. Carver, Loretta Cole, Elwyn Dysart, Bill Fields, Judson Forbes, Frederick Forrester, Sarah Frazier, Hugh Harman, Dan Hemphill, Kenneth Hohlhaus, Lawrence McBee, Joe McNeill, Wayne Marsh, Bob Orton, Raymond Raillard, Harold Rickard, Bill Roberson, Ernest Scheihagen, LaNell Scheihagen, M. D. Shepherd, Dean Storey, L. E. Thomas, Jack Veazey, Meredith Warren, Howard Williamson and Lorenzo Wirt.

The Buffaloes were accompanied on their trip by Dr. R. P. Parcells of Amarillo, Prof. W. E. Lockhart, and Olin E. Hinkle, head of the College news service. The physician for the Lobos is William Lockhart, son of the W. T. professor, and a former student.

En route home Sunday, the football party was delayed at Odessa half a day when a connecting rod in the bus engine went out. A bus was sent from Amarillo and the group arrived about midnight Sunday.

The band was slated to arrive back home late yesterday afternoon.

four bits by bill

The Los Angeles Collegian has announced the opening of a date bureau conducted by engineering students. Some people just don't seem able to do anything for themselves, and incidentally this is one field in which the federal government hasn't offered a helping hand. Plans for a dating bureau were discussed last summer, but it seems that the only original idea now is a bureau to furnish people to fill student's dates for them.

Delta Zeta Chi introduced something new in initiation ideas when they required all pledges to spend an hour studying in the library. This is worth more than any number of the usual foolish initiation stunts usually required of pledges here. The idea might be extended to include club members as well as pledges.

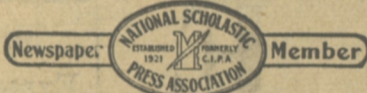

Another progressive step made last week when the cabinet of the Freshman Fellowship club directed members of the club through the library. Though some of the upper-classmen members of the cabinet were obliged to remain at home rather than exhibit their ignorance, the freshman received valuable instruction in where to find reference material.

The freshman courting fence built by Miss Mary Moss Richardson will likely become one of the traditions of the school and be fondly remembered by students. Though an automobile for freshman to use for courting would likely prove more popular, it would not be half so lasting.

HOME EC. CLUB TO MEET Home Economics Club will meet in the home economics dining room at 11 o'clock Thursday morning.

NATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

This is American Education Week.

The nationwide observance of American Education Week affords the opportunity to focus the attention of parents, teachers, and all citizens upon the importance of education upon American democracy and American living.

This week, in which Armistice Day falls each year, is set aside for enlisting the cooperation of the public in support of education and in formulating the objectives and evaluating the results of education. It was in 1931 that American Education Week was established at a conference between officers of the National Education Association, the United States Office of Education, and the American Legion. It was in recognition of the work of the American Legion that Armistice week was chosen for the annual observance.

American Education Week is observed in nearly every community in America. It was estimated that last year, six million people visited schools during the week, and millions of others were reached through the newspapers, radio, and community service clubs.

The program theme this year is "Education and Our National Life." Particular attention will be paid to "Can We Educate for Peace?"

Responsibility for the success of American Education Week rests entirely upon local leaders of each community. College students are potential leaders in educational movements. The responsibility for the future of educational movement rests upon them, and should be recognized during their years of training.

SLINGING THE BULL

By Gonda Biggers

How do you like the way the band won the ball game? According to one of the clarinet players, that's what happened! Because the Buffalo Band went to Pecos, this column is not written in the inimitable style of "that there Biggers Gal." We don't care how it was won, we've been too busy celebrating cause we did win! (Now it's "We won the game instead of the band!") Whether WE won it, the BAND won it, or YOU won it—we're sure glad we won, and are we proud of those Buffaloes of ours!

This doesn't make sense to BULL-LET, but somebody evidently thought it worthy for libelous purposes:

"Just picture the expression on Goob Hoover's face when he was helping Helen Gilmore do something or other in the Campus Co-Ed Shoppe the other day, and picked up what he supposed to be a sun-bonnet."

Seen on an Amarillo theater: "Girls Must Eat—Jack Haley." A cute indignation, I betcha.

Stolen: The five essentials of a good date:

1. She doesn't eat much.
2. She's good looking.
3. She doesn't eat much.
4. She's a good dancer.
5. She doesn't eat much.

Why men identify women with angels: They are always up in the air; they are always harping on something; and they never have an earthly thing to wear.

Drinks on the house for the young Einstein who solves this one. We didn't:

In a small rural settlement in Kentucky there is a general merchandise store operated by two men. These two men have the same mother and same father. The parents claim them to be their sons. The two brothers acknowledge the mother and father as their own parents. Yet, according to the sign on the establishment, they are not related as brothers.

Speaking of the Band Trip, BULL-LET has a funny feeling that all of the rooming arrangements did not materialize as they were expected to. What about that, Sarah Frazier?

There was some consolation for the "Band Widows" in the old adage, "When the cat's away the mice will play," until some smart-alec added, "but maybe the CAT is not having such a bad time himself."

The University of Texas seems to be having a controversy over the question of the band's playing "swing music." Director George Hurt is emphatic in saying, "I wish to say that the day will not come when I, as director, will lead a 'swing band' on the University campus." Bullet kinda wonders if, after all, there isn't some difference in a show-off and a concert band?

Bushels of bouquets to the JUNIORS for the party at the Amarillo Country Club. Fine talk, folks, fine talk.

Nomination for the cutest ED and CO-ED: Bob Orton and Roberta Turner.

Uh huh! And then had you heard about the President of the Sophomore class and the President of the Senior class being in jail in Lamesa?

Showers of blessings on the head of Trent Davis who has such a big heart that he would invite his girl friend's OTHER date to go riding with him too. Blushes for Odessa.

Here's admiration for one of the best-looking and best-dressed women on the campus, Dr. Wiley.

Famous last words: "Pop, guess who just got kicked out of college?"

In the absence of that Biggers gal: If you want to start a feud with Gonda, call her Daisy May and ask how Abner is since the goat started the fire in the barn.

Betcha didn't know this was in our library:
Definitions:
Cat's nest: A dormitory for girls.
Cup cake: An effeminate man.
D. A. R.: Damned Average Raiser.
Bag: An unattractive girl. She is also called a Sack.

Garden on the stomach: Dead and buried.
Five-H Man: Hell, how he hates himself.

P. S. The answer to the riddle is KNOTT BROTHERS! Did you guess it?

TREES

As I look out o'er the country side,
I see the stately trees;
Both large and small I see them all,
Elaborately dressed in leaves.

The frocks they wear are now of green,
Wherein birds light and sing;
And praise in song this beautiful throng
With joyous odes of Spring.

The trees are always dressed in style
For every season—yes,
For when at last the Spring has passed
They don their Autumn dress.

Their leaves of green will change in hue
When Autumn calls its roll
To colors bright, ah! beautiful sight
Of red and tarnished gold.

But even trees must have their woe,
And as the Autumn dies,
The winter begins with chilling winds
To clothe the trees in ice.

And now forsaken of leaves they stand
Alone—awaiting Spring,
So they can hear the songs of cheer
And wear their leaves again.
—Lanny Line.

WE DIFFER

So you think love is a game to play?
A game without rules, with few signals,
And with an uncertain break?
Well, our theories differ;
So it's best, I think,
That you should play your game
With some one else,
And that I should write a little poem about you.
—Beth Miesse.

TAOS TRYST

I found a portion
Of perfection
On a mountain night
Or still moonlight—
Rhythm of rippling waters,
Sweet savage lilt of

Indian song,
Echoes of the past
Pulsating, lifting my soul
To ecstasy's summit
In this exciting hour.
—M. T.

NIGHT

Night comes softly on the wings of unremembered
Melodies, and steps upon the stones
of old,
Forgotten gardens, pausing long enough to taste
The dew of wasted, faded roses.
—Beth Miesse.

SHADOWS

Shadows linger near an old well
Where I have sat at dusk
And waited for a rider
To cross the mist
And come to me.
Why should I wait as shadows wait?
Because a vow was one time made
Above an old well,
Crumbling now,
And time should be, we thought,
When he should come
Out of the dusk
To keep the tryst
Of long ago.
Shadows . . . Shadows . . .
Shadows linger near an old well
Where I have sat at dusk,
Waiting for that rider
From out the mist of years.
Beth Miesse.

Bettina: Am I the only woman
you ever loved?
Percival: Oh, no, you are the sixth.
Bettina (pulling away from his arms): The sixth!
Percival: Yes, there were five before you—my mother, my aunt and three sisters.

WHERE

TO DO
BY GAD

Well, looking over the list of scheduled socials and movies for the week, it seems that the books are going to have some competition. Merely glance at these items of amusement for confirmation of the foregoing statement.

Comes Friday night, and we find the Alpha Sigma Xi playing hosts at Cousins ballroom. The social will be an informal dance beginning at 8 o'clock. So my advice to you guys and gals would be to accept graciously if you "rate a bid," because you dance-lovers don't have the opportunity to shake a leg every night.

Tonight at the Olympic, Pat O'Brien occupies the seat of conspicuous prominence in "Back In Circulation." Sharing O'Brien's throne, Joan Blondell and Margaret Lindsey, two capable bits of femininity, divide honors. Another newspaper production, sans the drinking element which inevitably crept into every other story of newspaper life. However, the show is the "you can guess the ending" type. Little Patrick turns in his usually expected hard-boiled role.

Warner Baxter fans may see him on the screen Wednesday and Thursday, as he plays the leading role in "Wife, Doctor and Nurse." If it were not for Baxter's splendid performance, this show would drag in spots, but his acting is superb. Loretta Young and Virginia Bruce play opposite him as wife and nurse respectively.

Randall Hall entertains Saturday evening, although the particulars of the party is rather vague just now. Perhaps it is a surprise and we shouldn't tell everything, but just between us girls I bet it will be a snazzy get-together. Randall has a reputation of being a center of lively amusement where fun may be had for all.

Unless we are badly mistaken, Friday and Saturday matinee will find a large representation from the freshman group presenting a dime for admittance at the local theatre. This is because Joe E. Brown holds the limelight, and since we class the unlearned Fish with such mediocre films, there will be ample excuse for witnessing said production. Yours truly thinks there is too many Ritz Brothers offering a newer and more likeable type of humor for Brown to compete with. I think Joe is playing second fiddle already and is due for another slump, if he continues his old style of laugh-making.

The pick of the week: "Prisoner of Zenda," beginning Saturday preview, Sunday and Monday.

This picture, with Ronald Colman, debonair, dashing, and more glamorously romantic than ever before in his dual role as King and Rudolph, and Madeline Carroll, beautiful as Princess Flavia, is one of the most colorful old-castle stories ever filmed. Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., who stages his comeback, is a most charming scoundrel and dare-

Brock To Teach Art Here Next Summer

Gene H. Brock, youthful San Antonio artist who won wide acclaim as pottery instructor at the Palo Duro School of Art last summer, will be a member of the art school faculty next summer, Miss Isabel Robinson has announced.

Mr. Brock reconstructed the college kiln here last summer and carried on experiments with the various types of clay found in Palo Duro Canyon. Several of the clays found in the canyon were pronounced excellent for pottery making by Mr. Brock.

Brock taught pottery classes in both the art school and on the campus last year. He has studied under A. Hart of Houston, at Sul Ross State Teachers College, Texas Tech, and California.

Ruth Cross and W. L. Vaughn Visit Schools

Miss Ruth Cross, head of the women's physical education department, and W. L. Vaughn, instructor in the demonstration school high school, visited schools over the Panhandle district during the last week.

Miss Cross said that all superintendents with whom she talked stressed the need for teachers who can direct playground activities no matter what they teach.

In Pampa, White Deer, Clarendon, and Claude, interscholastic basketball for girls has been abandoned in favor of intramural activities. Superintendents and coaches expressed a desire to be able to get women officials for girls' games, however.

The mintage of wisdom is to know that rest is rust, and that real life is in laughter and work.

Should be on your must-see list.

Mrs. J. A. Hill And Anna I. Hibbets Are Honored at Floydada

Mrs. J. A. Hill, federated clubs state chairman of Texas folk lore, and Miss Anna I. Hibbets were honored with a tea and reception given by members of the Floydada study clubs at the home of Mrs. J. M. Willson in Floydada Tuesday evening.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Willson, Mrs. Lon V. Smith, Mrs. O. P. Rutledge, Mrs. G. L. Kirk, Miss Mildred Olson and the honor guests.

The reception rooms were decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and pink chrysanthemums with lighted white candles decorated the dining room where tea was served from a silver tea service from the table laid with a rice linen cloth from China. Mrs. Kenneth Bain served, assisted by Mrs. Terrell Loran, Mrs. Virgie Shaw, Misses Fannie Mae Rees, Jean Bain and Maurine Hay.

Miss Mildred Olson presided for the program as follows: Violin solo, "Kashmiri Song," Mrs. A. D. Cummings accompanied by Mrs. E. E. Thomas at the piano; reading, "Between Two Loves," by T. A. Daily, Miss Bobbie Wolfe; songs, "Love, Here Is My Heart" and "I'll You Remember," Mrs. Ed Bond, accompanied by Mrs. Cummings and Mrs. Thomas.

Miss Hibbets spoke to the group on "Influence of clubs on the new trend in primary education." Mrs. Hill spoke on the subject, "Why a Club Woman," in which she discussed the nine departments of the Federated Clubs.

FLOYD COUNTY EX-STUDENTS ORGANIZE WEDNESDAY

Floyd County exes of W. T. organized a permanent ex-student organization Wednesday night.

Walter Travis, superintendent of Floydada schools, who took his degree here last summer, was elected president. J. W. Jones was elected vice-president, and Clem McDonald secretary-treasurer.

President Hill, who was visiting the schools at Floydada, met with them and later addressed the club.

Junior Class Entertained at Amarillo Country Club

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hill of Amarillo and Miss Florence McMurry, entertained the Junior class with a reception and dance, Tuesday at the Amarillo Country Club. One hundred and fifty members out of the 190 in the class attended. The class is the largest in the history of the institution.

In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hill, Miss Florence McMurry, sponsor of the class; George Wright, class president; Mrs. Geraldine Green, dean of women; and Dean and Mrs. R. P. Jarrett. Mr. Hill is member of the board of regents of the college.

Several types of entertainment were available to all students present. One group danced in the beautifully decorated ball room and others participated in games and folk-dancing in the reception room. Refreshments were served following the dance.

Members of the class presented bouquets of fall flowers to Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Jarrett, and Miss McMurry in appreciation for the arranging of the entertainment and the decorations.

PEP SQUAD PASSES RULE TO IMPROVE ATTENDANCE

Any member who is absent from regular meetings of the Pep Squad for three successive times without excuse will be dropped from the rolls of the organization.

This was adopted at the last meeting of the group last Wednesday in Burton Gym. At that time, sweaters were collected in order to be returned for the letters to be sewed on. Tabulations were completed in the recent tag drive, and the losers, headed by Durwood Knowles, are planning an entertainment.

Plans were also discussed for the Pep Squad Barn Dance which will be held December 9.

MISS ISABEL ROBINSON IS ALPHA CHI SPEAKER

Miss Isabel Robinson spoke on the subject, "Sifting the Work to the Medium," at a meeting of Alpha Chi at the home of Dr. B. F. Fronbarger, head of the English Department, Nov. 1.

Following her lecture Miss Robinson exhibited different media which were used correctly and incorrectly. A novel told entirely through the medium of woodcuts excited most interest among the group.

Approximately twenty members and the sponsors were at the meeting.

MEYER AND SPEER INSPECT LUBBOCK HIGH SCHOOL

Dr. A. M. Meyer of the education department and J. B. Speer, deputy state superintendent of District One, participated in an inspection of the Lubbock High School Tuesday with Dr. Frank C. Jenkins, coordinator of the Commission on Curricula and Experimentation of the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges.

The commission has been recently created to affect certain experiments concerning high school programs of study.

Dr. Meyer also represented the College at the Panhandle-Plains Superintendents' Association meeting held in Amarillo Saturday.

Mrs. Edna Eastwood Honored With Dinner At Cousins Hall

Honoring Mrs. Edna Eastwood of New York City, the Daughters of the King, women's auxiliary of the Episcopal Church entertained guests Thursday with a dinner at Cousins Hall.

Following the dinner, Mrs. Eastwood led the devotional service at the regular meeting of Y. W. C. A. speaking on the subject of prayer.

Guests besides the honoree included Mrs. E. C. Seaman of Amarillo, Mrs. Geraldine Green, Mrs. Charlotte Word, Mrs. Marion Hughes, Miss Helen Hickman, Miss Ocie Sanders, Miss Edna Graham, Mrs. Bob Cox, and Miss Helen Lyle.

RUSSELL TAYLOR NAMED AGRICULTURE ASSISTANT

Russell Taylor, senior from Gatesville, was recently appointed laboratory assistant in the agricultural department by President J. A. Hill. Taylor was transferred here last year from Daniel Baker College at Brownwood as a junior agriculture student.

Because of the increase and new high standard of agriculture work an assistant was needed here. He is now teaching an agriculture class in the demonstration school, and is supervising practice teaching in this work.

DRAMATICS CLUB PRESENTS ONE-ACT COMEDY

"Their First Anniversary," a one-act comedy directed by Nell McNeely, was presented last Wednesday afternoon at dramatics club.

The role of Henry, the husband, was played by Hasty Sisson; that of Millicent, the wife, by Mogie Routh; that of Mrs. Tucker, the maid-of-all-work by Leota Lightfoot. The play concerned the first quarrel, interrupted by cries from the baby, of the couple on their first wedding anniversary.

Iris Bender acted as assistant director to Miss McNeely, and Forrest Fry as makeup artist.

WOMAN'S BOOK CLUB HOLDS INTERESTING STUDY

The Woman's Book Club met Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 27th, in the Education Building of West Texas State. The theme chosen for this year's program is "Art and Life Through the Ages." The subject of Ancient Euro-Asian Cultures was discussed in three parts.

Mrs. McCarter discussed "Early Babylonian, Assyrian, and Chaldean; Mrs. Campbell discussed Early Greek Art and the Transitional Period," and Miss McMurry discussed "Comparison of Religious and Social Ideals."

Gamma Phi Celebrates First Anniversary With Dinner Party

Gamma Phi entertained Saturday night with a 6 o'clock birthday dinner party in the dining room of the Blackstone Hotel in Amarillo.

The table was attractively decorated in the club colors, blue and white.

After the four course dinner, a large birthday cake with "Happy Birthday Gamma Phi" written in pink was brought in. A toast led by Mrs. Wofford, the sponsor, marked the end of one year since Gamma Phi was organized.

After the dinner, members and pledges attended the Paramount theater for the remainder of the evening.

Those attending were: Ann Nell McDaniel, Gaynelle Douglas, Ruth Williams, Ann Palmeyer, Virginia Edmondson, Margaret Deal, Margetta Ewing, Marjory Merchant, Maridora Blair, Marjory Billingsley, Marie Billingsley, Kathleen McManigal, Adele Hayes, Sarah McGowan, and the sponsor, Mrs. Anne Wofford.

STUDENTS IN EDUCATION OBSERVE ENGLISH CLASS

Members of the class of Education 262, taught by Miss Florence McMurry, observed a class taught by Miss Jennie C. Ritchie last Thursday morning at eleven o'clock.

Miss Ritchie taught eighth grade English, and after finishing her demonstration, she remained to discuss with the observers any point about which they wished to talk. Miss McMurry's class was studying methods of instruction and observed in order to see the method of socialized procedure used by a teacher in the high school.

Social Swing . . . . .

DANCING'S THE THING—

There's the minuet, the Virginia reel, the Boston, the Charleston, the two-step, the waltz, the fox-trot, swing, truck'n, shag and the Big Apple. Right now Truck'n and Swing lead the march in W. T., but since homecoming this western dancing is taking its place near the top, for we hear Stafford is staging its "formal" in western style. Girls this means you'd better brush up, on the Virginia reel, the square dance, the heel-toe polka, the two-step, the Schottish, and the old-fashioned waltz; get out your divided skirts, chaps, Stetson hats, lariar ropes, boots, spurs, and bandana handkerchiefs.—And pray for an invite to the Stafford Formal.

When, if ever, the Big Apple makes its debut on the campus that marks the end of my dancing career, and probably several others, unless its arranged so only one couple will have the floor at a time.

There's a new type of letter organization on the campus, this time it's Sigh-Sigh-Sigh; as to purpose, we have a feeling it's a plain publicity stunt. Just the same the five "Sighs" and their sponsor, "Goob" Hoover meet when they feel like it in the press box at Buffalo Stadium. Charter members of Sigh Sigh Sigh are Jam McClendon, Corsicana; Marcelle Reid, Dumas, (possibly a sister to one of the Ding-Dong Daddys); Mogie Routh, Amarillo; "Big-as-a-Minute" Lockhart, Plainview; and Doris Davis, Amarillo. "Goob" Hoover wants to make a statement, quote, "By the grace of Congress, Sigh Sigh Sigh is making arrangements for a sorority house. Gene Whitman will act as house mother," unquote.

Blue, the svelte, sophisticated color has almost complete reign over the fashion world at present. Adding to its smartness we find that along with it ranks burgandy. This season hats are high; coiffures smooth and swirled; dresses, wide skirted; and shoes high-vamped. "SWANK" IN FULL FORCE—

The Junior Class reception at the Amarillo Country Club last week was really a "swanky" little get-together; we nominate Roberta Turner as the miss wearing the smartest attire of the evening.

LATEST NUMBERS—

Delta Zeta Chi members should really feel their importance. We offer congratulations to them for choosing such good-looking new uniforms and pins. Chic and Smart, I'd say!

HINT OF THE WEEK—

Girls, even a freshman can't get by wearing a veiled hat with sport clothes. Emily Post, Fifth Avenue, Hollywood and W. T. won't permit it.

A QUESTION PEOPLE OFTEN ASK:

Is Camel justified in Spending Extra Millions for Costlier Tobaccos?

THE ANSWER IS THIS:

CAMELS ARE THE LARGEST-SELLING CIGARETTE IN AMERICA

"ON OUR CAMPUS, it's Camels," says John Gale (right), college junior. "I've never found a milder cigarette. Even smoking as much as I do, Camels never get on my nerves or tire my taste. 'I'd walk a mile for a Camel.'"

GIRL RODEO CHAMPION, Rose Davis (left), says: "Camels always appeal to me, but I think the Camels at mealtimes are the most enjoyable of all."

DOROTHY MALONE, food editor (right), says: "Comments show my women readers find smoking Camels a pleasant way to encourage good digestion. I myself smoke Camels."

B. C. SIMPSON (left), Texas oil-well shooter: "Handling explosives makes me careful not to have frazzled nerves. I'm all for Camels. They couldn't be better if they were made to order."

ACTIVE IN SOCIETY. Mrs. Ogden Hammond, Jr. (right) says: "No matter where I am—you'll always find me with Camels. They don't tire my taste."

It is homespun fact that nothing man does to tobacco can take the place of what Nature does. Camels are made of finer tobaccos into which Nature put extra goodness.

THERE'S only one way to get the best tobaccos. That's to pay more for them.

It has been a well-known fact for years that Camel pays millions more for finer tobaccos. It's the natural way to put more enjoyment into smoking.

People have confidence in the finer tobaccos in Camels. They find that Camels are naturally milder and that the full, natural flavor of the costlier tobaccos in Camels is brought to perfection in the Camel blend. If you are not smoking Camels, try them now. And see if you, too, don't find that Camels mean unflinching pleasure!

BLACKSMITH, Ed Deal, likes man-size meals and Camels with them. "For digestion's sake, smoke Camels' is my rule," says Ed. "Camels add a lot to my meals."

FLIGHT DISPATCHER, H.G. Andrews, often contacts 8 planes at once. He says: "One of the advantages I find in Camels is I smoke plenty, and Camels don't frazzle my nerves."

"I'VE GOT TO have a mild cigarette," says Uva Kimmey, girl parachute jumper. "So I'm a Camel smoker. I've found I can smoke as much as I wish without jangled nerves."

Costlier Tobaccos in a Matchless Blend

Camels are a matchless blend of finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic. The skillful blending brings out the full, delicate flavor and mildness of these choice tobaccos.

Bufs Favored Over Cadets in Last Home Game

Round nine on the local chart will bring the New Mexico Military Institute Bronchos of Roswell, N. M. to Buffalo Stadium Saturday afternoon to battle with the Buffaloes.

Fired by three straight wins, the Buffs will be top-heavy favorites to avenge the scoreless 0-0 tie to which the Bronchos held a superior Bison herd last year. The Cadets lived by the term of "a team that won't be beat can't be beat" as their opponents slammed for first down after first down to no avail.

The Bronchos were dead set on clinching the New Mexico Inter-collegiate Conference two weeks ago when a mite of a Portales Junior College Greyhound pounced on them to win. The week before they stepped into the lead with a 20-0 win over the Panhandle Aggies of Goodwell, Okla.

The Roswell cause is paced by the flying feet of Quarterback MacGillivray. In addition to his deceptive broken field running, the pass combination of MacGillivray to Halfback Wolverton, has created favorable comment over the New Mexico area. The forward wall features the experienced Klett, Jenkins and Koury.

This last home game finds the Buffaloes in the pink of condition with only one hard luck story. Edwin Williams, afflicted with a spinal column abrasion since the St. Benedict's game, bequeathes his place to substitute Jack Edmondson, who put up a plucky performance against the Sul Ross Lobos. Coach Baggett has experienced considerable trouble at the pivot post all year. Captain Si Marchbanks went first and then Williams was sent to the sidelines and inexperienced Edmondson fell heir to the post.

Six Seniors Finish Home Careers Sat.

Fish Trek to Rocky Mountains For Trinidad Game

"We're not going just for the trip."

In this manner Freshman Coach Bob Cox regarded the coming game with Trinidad Junior College. The Frosh trek to the Rocky Mountains Wednesday for their third tussle of the season, against a tough Trinidad Junior College crew.

The Yearlings suffered a stinging defeat two weeks ago at the hands of Altus Junior College. However, the clash carried more punch than the 33-7 score would indicate. The Yearlings furnished a host of offensive drives that came dangerously close to pay-off territory on numerous occasions.

This week the Yearlings have been sharpening an offense that fizzled out at opportune times in the Altus fray. Passing has been stressed, but from a welter of confusing statistics emerges the very definite fact that the Yearlings will leap out with an offense not completely restricted to aerial maneuvers.

Except for Raymond Crowell, tackle, the same team that lined up against Altus will take the field. Thursday, against the Trinidads. The post of the injured Crowell will probably be filled by Ernest Kelly, 180 pound tackle.

To date Epsilon Beta and Alpha Sigs hold one victory each. If you would have seen last year's "eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth" imbroglio your supposition that our social clubs are a bunch of parlor pinks would certainly have altered. These Beau Gestes can work out the kinks when they take a notion.

Great thuds that characterize the churning steps of Lwood Dow, Craig Walling, Oscar Hinger, Bill Harp, Tom Slack and Conway Butler will become history Saturday afternoon when these six senior Buffaloes take their last home stand for West Texas against the N. M. I. Bronchos.

Acclaimed as one of the greatest fullbacks ever to climb into a W. T. uniform, Lwood Dow completes three years of service. Dow has piled up more yardage than any other back in his three years as a varsity back. In this tenure he has been a starter in every game except this year when a hand fracture sent him to the sidelines.

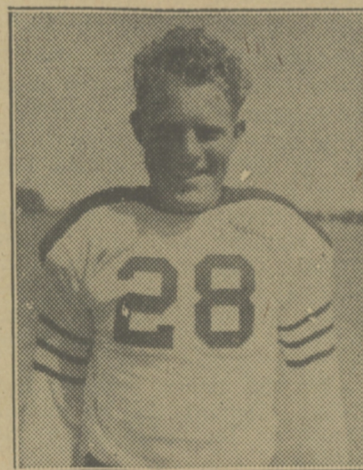

Sorrel-topped Craig Walling steps out this year with three varsity letters, two at tackle and one at end. He was shifted to the wing post when the supply of ends was cut down by graduation. On numerous occasions this year, Walling has risen to the occasion and found a place in the hearts of West Texas fans.

Stubby Oscar Hinger came to W. T. in 1933 with little previous experience but he fitted right in at guard with Al Baggett's version of Notre Dame tactics. His superior blocking and rugged defensive play distinguished him as a truly great lineman.

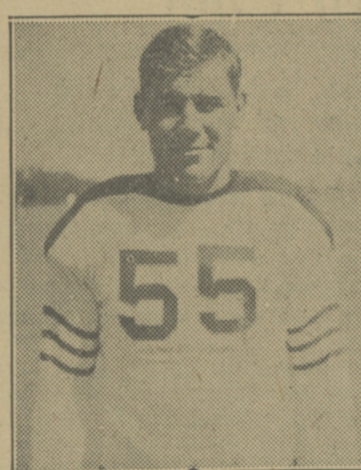

Bill Harp transferred from Altus Junior College, and when he passed through Canyon it was not his intention to go here but the favorable impression created by the spirit of the school cajoled him to hang over. Almost immediately, he located a regular berth at tackle, and captained the club to a 19-9 win over his home town, the Daniel Baker Hillbillies of Brownwood.

Tom Slack climaxed an otherwise mediocre football career with a 90

Taste
of Sports

By Glyn Riley

A weary but jubilant Buffalo squad pulled into the Buffalo Courts region early Monday morning after being detained in Odessa for eight hours because of bus trouble. Reports indicate that the Buffs romped over the Lobos almost at random and then "mother destiny" came in to tear down their hopes when a score seemed certain.

Two years ago stutter footed "little-boy blue" that sent the fans into a frenzy with his eely jaunts returned Saturday with that same old zip. It's none other than shiftty Floyd Murry who piloted the locals to a counter in the final quarter which featured a relentless drive from mid-field.

Thoughts of N. M. M. I. and that nightmare last year carry with it the desperate battle of end Toby Waggoner for his life in a Roswell hospital after playing one of the greatest games on his calendar.

This year, the Cadets bring virtually the same club, a punt, a pass, and a prayer outfit; that knocked the Buffs off their pedestal with a scoreless tie. Again, the Buffs take the field as "sure-shots" if their offense is hitting on all eleven.

Six seniors strut for the last time Saturday before Panhandle grid fanatics. Three of these, Walling, Slack and Hinger have given four years of faithful service to their Alma Mater. The trio attracted much recognition with the Frosh corps, and since then have earned three varsity letters. Lwood Dow enrolled at a mid-term, and has toted the mail as no Buffalo has done before. For three seasons he has been at the top rung of the scoring column. And then last year, Wee Willie Harp came along with his stalwart frame headed in the direction of El Paso to attend the School of Mines when he became impressed with the little rock set-up at Canyon. As he expresses it, "I'm really glad that I didn't get any farther." The one remaining, Butler, will be heard of on a large scale when the Cagers don the thin-clad uniforms.

Year before last, ping-pong and handball stood out in the minor sports setup. Already, pingpong is on the comeback, and many specialists at the game have appeared. Enthusiasts have indicated that a tourney be held to determine the outstanding of this flourishing aggregation.

F. A. Thomas must have thought he was in a dice game when he shot for the "Coffin Corner" Saturday. He sailed one kick out on the 7 and then booted one out on the 11.

Very little has been said about the annual tug-of-war between the social organizations on the campus.
