

Second Semester Drama Is Cast

Double Cast Rehearses For Courtroom Scene By Speech Students

"Night of January 16th," a play by Ayn Rand, will be given early in the spring semester by the College Players under the auspices of the local chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic fraternity.

Most of the parts have been doubly cast and rehearsals have already started. Mogie Routh and La Verne Pollard share the feminine lead but Jim McCray alone is cast in the principal male role. Cast Announced

Butler To Direct

Unique is this play which is directed by Prof. James H. Butler in that twelve members of the cast will not be chosen until the night of the performance. These form a jury who will listen to the evidence and render the verdict on which will depend which of two endings written for the play will be used.

Hellen Keller, Jack Dempsey, James Roosevelt, Ricardo Cortez, and Babe Ruth have been jury members during professional performances of "Night of January 16th."

Japan's Problem With China Is Told By Speaker

Japan has become a dictatorship in an effort to solve its economic problems caused by the Sino-Japanese war. These problems were discussed by the Rev. J. Kenneth Morris in assembly Saturday morning. Rev. Morris is an Episcopal missionary just returned from Japan.

To Japan as a late comer on the expansion program, China has become a dragon according to Rev. Morris. "Japan has hold of this dragon by its tail and cannot let go for fear of being devoured."

This war, begun ten years ago, has brought a scarcity of charcoal for fuel and rice for food. Disease has increased greatly; tuberculosis up to three hundred per cent. To solve this economic problem the totalitarian state has abolished free press, free speech, free assembly, child and women labor laws, political parties, and international organizations. A Japanese Youth Movement is now being established under the direction of the German youth leaders.

Executive missionaries have been asked to resign and turn all lands over to the Japanese churches. Rev. Morris states with conviction that the Japanese Christians, in spite of persecution, determine to remain loyal to the Christian faith.

Heath To Head Midland Schools

Supt. George A. Heath of White Deer, a graduate of West Texas State, has been elected to the superintendency of the Midland public schools. He will take up his new duties July 1.

Supt. Heath will succeed Dr. W. W. Lackey, well known veteran school executive at Midland. Mr. Heath formerly was principal, then superintendent at Friona. At White Deer he made an unusually good record for administration and plant expansion. J. Davis Hill, now principal at Marshall, was associated with him for several years.

Mr. Heath did graduate work at Texas Tech and at present is nearing the Ph. D. degree at Colorado State College of Education. He is a former president of the Ex-Students Association.

Delta Zeta Chi Makes Plans For Founder's Day

Delta Zeta Chi sorority started plans for the Founders Day program for February 18. The speaker is to be an ex-student.

The Founder's Day program will be in honor of the late R. A. Terrill, who came here in 1907 with the Canyon News. Mr. Terrill became a member of the faculty in 1911. He was on the committee that chose the site for the old Normal school.

The sorority has added books to their shelf in the library and plan to add more in the near future.

N. Y. A. Shop Nears Completion

West Texas State's contribution to the national preparedness program is the N. Y. A. Vocational Shop, one wing of which is pictured above. Built to house N. Y. A. pre-vocational classes in auto mechanics, sheetmetal work, and radio (which are now located in other buildings on the campus), the wing shown is 47 by 112 feet; the building also includes a wing 34 by 28 feet and a blacksmith shop 16 by 28 feet. All construction work is being done by the N. Y. A. boys as was the aviation shop under Buffalo stadium.

Regents Order More Speed In Program

Board Committee On Inspection

Highway To Campus Clearing Plan Will Be Accelerated

At a meeting of a Teachers College Board of Regents committee here on an inspection tour Saturday the acceleration of removal of residences between the campus and Highway 87 was ordered.

Most of the residences have been purchased by the College and razing of a number of the structures has been started. Material salvaged will be used in construction of an annex to Randall Hall, cooperative home for girls, work on which has started. All Not Obtainable

A few houses along the highway have not been obtainable, but the regents insisted that the area of more than three blocks be cleared as soon as possible. Part of the razing will be done by NYA pre-vocational students now on the campus.

Another order of the committee forbade construction of any buildings on the land being acquired along the highway. Architect Macon O. Carder of Amarillo was asked to study the site from the standpoint of landscaping. A major building or two may be placed on the property in the future, but the regents decided that the view of the college from the highway should be largely unobstructed.

To Raze President's Home

After an inspection, the regents decided to raze the college president's home on the southeast corner of the campus and to use the material in the dormitory annex. A new home for the president will be erected later. Dr. J. A. Hill is completing a new residence near the campus, which will be ready for occupancy soon.

Regents present were John E. Hill of Amarillo, R. A. Stuart of Fort Worth, and Dr. J. G. Ulmer of Tyler.

Le Mirage Will Be Ready May 8

The 1941 Le Mirage will be ready for West Texas students on May 8. This will be two weeks earlier than last year; thus students who are "autograph hounds" may complete the writing before dead week, said Fred Hart, editor.

The cover for this year's edition has been selected and approved. In the opening section of the book Palo Duro Canyon is being featured. Otherwise there is no particular theme except a colorful portrayal of life at W. T. during 1940-41.

The judge's decision of the beauties has been received and the Beauty Queen of this year will be announced on issuance of the book. Approximately 700 pictures have been shipped. All club pictures were mailed yesterday.

Editor Hart wishes to make one request—that students will please refrain from removing snapshots from the files. If they must, please leave a note so the loss will be known.

Mrs. Eleanor Hudspeth, '40, is not teaching this year because of illness in her family, making it necessary for her to remain at home.

Dead Week Rule Starts Wednesday

"Dead Week," as announced by the registrar's office, begins on Wednesday and continues thru Tuesday, January 28.

Social regulations emanating from the dean of women's office are (1) no club meetings, (2) no parties, (3) no late nights, and (4) girls may go to the first show or have other dates providing they return to their dormitory or boarding house before 10:30 p. m.

Exes' Directors Study New Plan At Meeting Here

A study of how the Ex-Students Association may be re-organized along more effective lines was continued here Saturday at a meeting of the board of directors in Dr. J. A. Hill's office.

President G. H. Jones of Happy was absent because of illness. Those present were Raymond Thompson of Vega, first vice-president; Miss Mary Belle Mitchell of Childress, second vice-president; Lee Johnson of Canyon, executive secretary; and Directors Knox Kinard of Hereford, Mrs. Clyde Warwick of Canyon, Mrs. W. D. Word of Amarillo, and County Supt. W. B. Weathered of Pampa, immediate vice-president.

The directors are studying several plans for launching an ex-student quarterly publication. With Dr. Hill they are attempting to work out a plan for giving the College and the Association a field representative. Several directors strongly urged this step as a project long overdue in making possible closer relations with exes, business men, and schools of the Panhandle area.

The membership of the Association has shown an increase this term, but a much greater membership will be sought under plans now taking form.

Business English To Be Offered

Business English will be offered to students of junior and senior standing next semester, announced Dr. D. A. Shirley, registrar, this week. This course will be taught by Dr. A. K. Knott of the English department.

Business letter writing and business English terms will make up this course, which will be of interest to all business administration students.

Student Jobs Will Be Open

Applications Should Be Made By March 1—Four Positions Open

Applications for executive positions on Le Mirage and The Prairie for the summer session and 1941-42 session will be received until March 1.

Written applications are to be made to Olin E. Hinkle, director of journalism. In accordance with the constitution of the Students' Association, the director of journalism and present executives of the two publications will present "select lists" of applicants to the Student Senate about March 15. The Senate is expected to make its recommendations to President J. A. Hill by April 1.

Editors of student publications are paid $30 a month. The business manager of Le Mirage receives $22 a month, but The Prairie manager receives a commission on advertising sales.

Three of the four paid executives will be graduated in June. Students who aspire to the four positions will be urged to interview the director of journalism at once in order that try-out periods may be arranged.

Manzer Reviews Book For I. R. C.

Reviewing "Isolated America" by Raymond Leslie Buell, Gerald Manzer was principal speaker Tuesday evening at the meeting of the International Relations Club. Pictures were taken for Le Mirage.

"The totalitarian systems are doomed to fail because their systems are based on slavery. But if the democracies are to take their part in world reconstruction, they will have to do away with "Parochial nationalism" which they have promulgated to the destruction of the world, and offer a permanent and just plan for peace," stated the speaker.

He continued, "Any thought of partitioning Germany must be abandoned, as well as the Nazi concept of a Master Race, as a preliminary condition of European reconstruction. Trade barriers must be reduced. A fifty per cent reduction in democratic tariffs would be worth more to the axis than the annexation of the whole of continental Africa."

"America today is confronted with the choice of either travelling a solitary independent road, ending possibly in dictatorship and war, or of using its vast powers to assist in bringing this war to an end, culminating in a peace based on justice and some new and realistic form of international organization," concluded Manzer.

No entry fee is charged, but exhibitors must pay transportation both ways. Entries from individuals and camera club groups throughout the plains area are expected to send in some of their best work. Similar salons are held each year in Amarillo, Lubbock, and other cities. About one hundred prints are shown in the museum exhibit each year. A steady improvement in the quality of advanced amateur photography in this section has been noted in the exhibits here.

The salon will be open to the public at the museum from 9 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 6 p. m. daily except Sundays, when the museum is open from 2 to 6 p. m. The exhibit is sponsored by the instructors in art and journalism.

Science Building On Budget List

Recondition of Board Of Control Shows Increase In Colleges Expenditures

In the biennial budget recommendation of the board of control to the Texas legislature is included a $260,000 science building for West Texas State.

The board majority recommended major buildings and improvements at the various state colleges totaling $3,577,618. This represents an increase over the expenditure of the last two years.

"The increase in the budget for the biennium for the institutions of higher learning is between 9 and 10 million dollars," said board member Tom Deberry. "I believe that this is too large an increase, and that an increase of two or three million dollars per year would be adequate."

The board of control also recommended that the state immediately pay all money it owes to the teachers' retirement fund.

Brief sessions of the legislature were scheduled for yesterday preceding the inaugural ceremonies today. There has been no announcement indicating when the board's recommendations will be considered.

An Attractive New Plan Shortens Summer Session

More vacation time without cutting into study and a new high in economy will be the result of a new summer session plan which has been announced by Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the College.

The summer session will be ten weeks long, instead of twelve, and classes will be held on six days each week instead of five. The number of lectures will remain the same. Offerings will be on a five-week basis, with two such terms making up the summer session. Most classes will be one hour in length.

June 4 to August 14

The first half-session will open June 4 and close July 9. The second half will open July 10 and close August 14. Credits which may be earned will be the same as in previous twelve-week terms. The Demonstration School will open June 4 and close August 7.

Students will pay a minimum of ten dollars for registration, plus activity fees. Those who take more than one credit course will pay fifteen dollars a term plus the activity fees. Dr. Hill and his staff are now selecting summer school features and the summer faculty is being selected.

The change in summer school administration does not change the amount of study and class work but it concentrates these activities in ten weeks instead of twelve. Faculty and students will have longer vacations and teachers whose schools open in August will be much less rushed.

Junior Student In Piano Recital

Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the College auditorium, Mary Jane Turrentine, a junior music student from Tahoka, will be presented in a piano recital. Miss Turrentine will be assisted by Arvo Goddard, bass.

Y. W. C. A. Program Based On Dr. Popenoe's Visit

Dr. Paul Popenoe's coming visit was discussed at the last meeting of the Y. W. C. A. and plans for his visit to W. T. were made.

In discussing Dr. Popenoe's visit, Mrs. T. V. Reeves said: "Much of the success of the undertaking to bring Dr. Popenoe to the campus will depend upon the interest stimulated before he arrives." The committee, Prof. J. L. Duflet, Dr. Knott, and Mrs. Reeves, felt that the Y. W. C. A., Y. M. C. A., and Home Economics clubs were three organizations which could well lead in the development of this interest.

HOME ECONOMICS MEETING

The College Home Economics Club will hold its regular meeting Thursday at 11:00 in the dining room of the College. The theme will be thrift and consumer buying in relation to home economics. All interested students are invited.

Library Receives Fifty Books On Democracy

The College is one of 50 libraries in the United States selected to receive a gift of books from the Women's Division of the American Jewish Congress in New York City. Mrs. Stephen S. Wise, president, says that the Congress believes that a "balance" be maintained in libraries—that is, for every book on nazism, fascism, or communism placed on the shelves, there should be at least one book extolling the virtues of democracy. Because of this, their committee on Education has raised a sum of money to be extended in the purchase of books for library distribution.

The following books were selected and sent to the library: George Britt, The Fifth Column is Here; Lyman Bripson, Which Way America?; Samuel Grafton, All Out; Thomas Mann, This War; Lewis Mumford, Faith for Living; Francis J. Oppenheimer, Ezekiel to Einstein; Eleanor Roosevelt, The Moral Basis of Democracy; Paul B. Sears, Who are These Americans?; James H. Shotwell, What Germany Forgot; Edmond Taylor, The Strategy of Terror; Otto D. Tolischus, They Wanted War; M. E. Tracy, Our Country, Our People, and Theirs; James Waterman Wise, Mr. Smith Meets Mr. Cohen; and Carl Witke, We Who Build America.

Regent Was a Friend

Few students and not too many faculty members realize, perhaps, the importance attached to the item in The Prairie recently entitled, "Regent of Texas Colleges Dies."

A. H. Eubanks of McKinney, member of the Board of Regents for Texas Teachers Colleges and a member of the advisory committee to President Hill, died at his home after a short illness. Mr. Eubanks was a man of large business experience and rich public spirit, having served as president of a bank in McKinney, president of the Chamber of Commerce there, and president of the Rotary Club. This experience and his naturally wholesome attitude toward everything about him made his work on our governing board highly valuable. His quick intelligence, his humane interest, and his deep sense of official responsibilities gave color and vitality to his large public service. It is not too much to say that the splendid progress of the seven colleges under his board during the hard years just passed is due in no small measure to the fine idealism and practical common sense of this sturdy, typical American—this unflinching friend of West Texas State.

"He had unusual vision for a hard-headed business man, and was very valuable to me and to this institution as a member of the Advisory Committee," President Hill stated.

Mr. Eubanks was 55 years of age, was an active member of the Baptist Church, and is survived by his widow and five sons. His services and interest in the progress of this institution will be missed by all, and all extend genuine sympathy to his splendid family.

College Students Would Wait For Draft In Case War Spreads Here

College students, exempted from the draft at least until next June and told by President Roosevelt that they are more useful in the classroom than in the army, face today a world plagued with ever-spreading war.

With the election over, increased aid to Britain appears certain, and whether from circumstances or from blundering, the possibility exists of armed conflict against the axis powers. If war were declared, how many men now in college would volunteer, how many would wait until called?

That was the question scores of interviewers for Student Opinion Surveys of America presented to a cross section representing the entire male enrollment of U. S. colleges and universities. Nearly one-fourth of the men are ready now to join the army in case of war. The rest, a majority of 76.5 per cent, say they would wait until drafted.

These national weekly polls of college thought are sponsored by 150 campus newspapers. The Prairie among them. Personal interviewing is the method used in gathering opinions from a proportionate sample that contains correct ratios of men and women, lowerclassmen and upperclassmen, and all types of colleges, distributed over six geographical sections of the country.

This was the question used: "If the U. S. went to war against Germany, Italy, or Japan, would you leave school and volunteer or wait until your turn came in the draft?" These were the returns, section by section:

	Vol	Wait
Men only:
New England	36%	64%
Middle Atlantic	20	80
East Central	21	79
West Central	16	84
South	28	72
Far West	28	72

ALL MEN STUDENTS 23.5 76.5
From the South and West, selective service officials have stated, are coming the greatest number of volunteers for a year of military training. These two sections, with the exception of New England, contain the largest number of students who at this time believe they would join the army if war broke out. Only 7 per cent were undecided on the problem, and the percentages above have been adjusted to eliminate this "no opinion" element. One year ago last month Student

Crown Prexy, Cap a Doc, An Honest Shot, Swei, Bye

"Two chocolate malts," said the man who is eventually going to have to foot the bill. Then the curb hop yells to the soda jerk to "dust a pair o' choc." Then all you have to do is wait to see what you are going to get. But, somehow, he gets out with just what you ordered.

Likewise, when a hopper calls for a "kiss" he has no reason to be bashful as all he wants is an orangeade.

The whole point is that it is supposed to save time in getting the orders filled. In reality, it is a constant source of curiosity as far as the customers are concerned.

"Crown a Prexy" simply means a white house cream cone.

A call for a cherry Dr. Pepper will finish up in something like this: Cap an honest Doc and cut the hail. Interpreted, this simply means, one bottled Dr. Pepper with little or no ice. The "Honest" (probably taken from Washington cherry tree) is for cherry. Other flavor calls are "van" for vanilla, "choc" or "mud" for chocolate, "straw" for strawberry, "apple" for pineapple, and "saw" for lime.

You can order a grape lime by asking for "Saw in a vineyard." To get it in a cup, you will want it in a "bucket" or "Bye."

And so the lingo goes on. "Draw one" for a cup of coffee, "stack" or "crown" for ice cream, "shanghi" for tea. But don't forget the most famous of them all, the all-economical, "eighty" for one glass of water and "eighty-two," which means one for your date, too.

Student Builds Clock In Motor

A clock in an airplane motor is the latest accomplishment of the manual arts department. It was built by W. J. House, and was on display recently in the trophy case of the College.

"Big" House is a tackle on the football team but is majoring in Industrial Arts. He conceived the idea of a clock inside a plane motor when he was on the football field looking up at the sun to determine the time of day and saw a plane fly over. So what could be more natural?

Clock on Nose

The wooden motor was turned out entirely on a lathe. It has six cylinders, rotary type arrangement, with spark plugs and ignition wires. The clock is located on the nose of the motor in the place where the propeller is usually attached. The entire affair stands eighteen inches high and weighs about ten pounds. House intends to build a radio inside a football as his next project. He has completed the plans and one of the features will be a WTSC scroll on the lacing which will be the speaker.

Is Publicity Photographer

House has been acting as publicity photographer for the Buffaloes during the two years that he has been in college. He specializes in woodwork and is considered one of the most promising athletes on the Buffalo squad. His ambition is to become a draftsman in some large industrial plant.

There are 66 students enrolled in the department which is headed by Prof. John A. Gillis. Of the 66, only four are girls, three freshmen and one sophomore.

TWO-TIME EDITOR OF STRATFORD HIGH HERE

When Miss Tommie Bryan received her diploma at Stratford in 1938, the school probably learned the meaning of the indispensable man. Miss Bryan was valedictorian of her senior class, played basketball for four years, captained the team for two years, was editor of the school paper two years, feature editor of the annual for one, and took parts in the class plays.

Miss Bryan received two gold basketballs, one for sportsmanship, and one for excellent playing. Tommie collects salt and pepper shakers for pastime. She claims the distinction of having been called to the superintendent's office for a one-hour conference during each of the four years she attended high school. Miss Bryan lives at Randall Hall, and is majoring in Business Administration.

Mrs. Russell M. Babcock, nee Roberta Cook, a former student of this institution, was on the campus last week inspecting the Indian drawings exhibited in the Museum. Mrs. Babcock, whose former home was in Chillicothe, Texas, now lives in Webster Groves, Missouri, and has been visiting friends in Amarillo.

Mrs. Dollie Robinson is now living at 2315-15th Street, Lubbock. Kathryn Robinson, '37, who has been with the American Airways for more than a year has received a substantial promotion. She is located in New York City.

Opinion Surveys found 42 per cent declared they would volunteer if "England and France were in danger of defeat and the U. S. declared war on their enemies." The Surveys measure the tenor of student opinion for the present. What college youth will do if war actually breaks out no poll can predict.

That certain persons' feelings were hurt when we casually mentioned that there was a riff in their romance. How could it be that I would deliberately hurt the feelings of such a lovely young lady as Miss Joan Gurley or such a big, strong man as Ira Brock? . . . That Raussia Lee Cantrell didn't accidentally get the wrong phone number and ask Sam Thomas to the Randall Hall party instead of "Curley" Wiley. . . . The Rev. ### DREAMS, OR COULD IT HAPPEN TO YOU

Tom Langston, the efficient secretary to Prexy, dreamed that Dr. Fronabarger, head of the English department, resigned and accepted a position as coach at Floydada High School, and that Dr. Fronabarger beamed as his team won the basketball tournament that was held at Warwick's Printing Shop.

GRIEFTRIAL

Dark ages? London fog? Black Duster? No, it's just the usual class room. Can you see the black-board by the gleam in the prof's eye, or the light from that beautiful blonde that sits next to you? No, and neither can we. Do you bring a flash-light to school with you? Maybe a kerosene lamp? Can you always see clearly in the class room? It has been suggested that a light meter be taken and the amount of light be tested in the various class rooms, and it would probably be found that it would be safe to milk a cow by or feed the chickens.

Seniors Sleep More Than Fish

Parents who worry about their college sons and daughters not getting enough sleep will find comfort in the figures compiled by the Student Opinion Survey which was conducted throughout the nation.

It was found, by their own admission, that women sleep more than men do. Lower-classmen spend more time between the sheets than do upper-classmen. Upper-classmen include juniors, seniors, and graduates.

It can be noted in the following breakdown how the percentages tend to decrease in the column for men:

Sleep per night:	All	Men	Women
5 or less hours	4%	4%	3%
6 hours	17	19	15
7 hours	37	38	35
8 hours	33	31	36
9 hours	7	6	10
10 hours or more	2	2	1

This is how the sleeping hours are divided according to classification:

Sleep per night	Lower-classmen	Upper-classmen
5 hours or less	4%	5%
6 hours	16	19
7 hours	34	41
8 hours	35	30
9 hours	9	5
10 hours	2	1

Banquet Reviews Football Season

Ben Collins Is Most Valuable Man—Kuehler And Hill Are Captains

West Texas State rightfully honored her Alamo Conference football team Friday night at Cousins Hall. Little Ben Collins was cheered again—this time not on the playing field but for winning two awards for being the most valuable player on the football squad.

The Buffaloes who made West Texas history by upsetting two of the strongest "Little Teams" in the state by large scores were honored by a banquet such as they had never seen before. It was very elaborate and more fans attended than ever before.

Pampa Dentist Speaks

Dr. H. H. Hicks, well known dentist of Pampa, was guest speaker to the group and kept his audience roaring with laughter throughout his entire speech. Head Coach Jack Curtice paid the whole team a fine compliment when he said:

"No coach has ever been prouder of his players than I am of you fellows for the manner in which you came back after that humiliating defeat from Hardin-Simmons." (The Buffs were beaten by "Simmons" and then came back to win the remaining three games by large scores.)

Co-Captains Selected

Captains elected by the Buffalo squad for next season are Cletus (Goob) Kuehler from Groom and little Fairy Hill, pint-sized blocking back from Canyon. Kuehler has been playing tackle for the last three years up until the last three games of the season when he was shifted to an end position and did so well that he was nominated on an all-conference team. Hill, one of the smallest men on the entire team has won the respect of his teammates and followers alike and received due honor when he was elected one of next year's captains.

Collins stole the entire show as far as the awards went when he was chosen the most valuable man on the team and received the Lloyd Shackleford trophy, which was a gold wrist watch, and the Kleinschmidt trophy, an elaborate trophy given each year by a Canyon business man to the most valuable player on the squad.

D. A. Shirley, registrar was toastmaster as he has been for many years at Buffalo football banquets.

Freshman Set Record

Forty-Second Victory Gives New Scoring Mark To League

Last Wednesday, the West Texas freshmen team defeated McClellan's team of Amarillo, and set a new scoring record in the Amarillo Jaycee League. The score was 77 to 38, and is more impressive because the defeated team was seeded as the best team in the league. This victory was the 42nd consecutive one for the freshmen.

The tilt was closely contested until the middle of the first quarter, when the junior star-dusters drew ahead rapidly and proceeded to hang up a new mark. The Amarillo team was no match for W. T.'s frosh, whose passing was deadly accurate, and who made a startling percentage of their shots.

The freshmen squad was scheduled to play the Wayland College quintet here last night, and will journey to Amarillo tonight for another game in the Jaycee League.

Cowboys Defeated

H.-S. U. Slips In Local Series

Brookfield and Stockman, Are Leading Scorers— Scores: 76-40 and 67-37

Brilliant Price Brookfield and fiery Frank Stockman who turned the trick this time in West Texas State's shellacking of the Hardin-Simmons University Cowboys here Tuesday and Wednesday nights, 74-40 and 67-37.

Although the Cowpunchers tried gallantly in both encounters, it was simply a case of being outclassed.

In the first contest, "Simmons" jumped out to a quick lead only to have it rubbed out mid-way of the first period. Brookfield, junior forward, hit the basket from every angle of the court to take scoring honors for the night with 22 points. Jackson, Cowboy forward, was close behind "Brooky" with 19 points.

Groom Is Injured

One Buffalo casualty resulted from the affray when Douglas Groom, Buff guard, fell heavily on the floor and dislocated his shoulder. He was taken from the game

Curtice, After Dinner Speaker, In Demand

No thicker book is filled in the athletic offices than the speaking engagement book of Jack Curtice.

The busy little man will speak at a football banquet tomorrow night in Groom. He will go to Perryton Friday night for the same assignment and to Lamesa on Monday night. The date has not been set for the Turkey banquet but he will address the high school group there.

but returned in the third quarter only to have the casualty repeated. He probably will not see service for two or three weeks.

The second contest was a rough and tough battle, and when the game ended "Simmons" had only three men on the court. The rest had left the game on personal fouls.

Stockman Is High

Coach Al Baggett obligingly removed two players so the Cowboys would not be seriously handicapped. Frank Stockman led the Buffaloes with 13 points, followed closely by Halbert, giant center, with 10. Ratton with 11 and Osborne with 10 points led the Cowboys under the basket.

Buffalo Wallow

"THERE AIN'T NO
FLIES ON ME . . ."

We were planning to devote this entire column to the annual football banquet, but because of unforeseen circumstances (probably unavoidable) we are unable to report any part of it.

Reports from Texas Tech on the vacancy left by Pete Cawthon show that more than 70 coaches have already applied for the position; may the best man get the job. Cawthon has also been offered positions at other schools including Tulsa, Detroit, and a professional league football team—the Philadelphia Eagles.

Coach Al Baggett has indicated that the Buffaloes are unable to obtain basketball games on their home court because almost every other team worth playing is busy in conference play. I don't suppose the strength of the Baggettmen

Games Start Wednesday

Round-Robin of Cage Games To Be Completed In Week's Schedule

Teams were idle last week in the mural race, because other activities were scheduled for presentation on the campus. Games will be resumed on Wednesday and Thursday nights, however, to complete the schedule of round-robin games.

After these games are played, the four top teams in the bracket will pair off for a double-elimination tournament. Five teams are definitely in the race, and extra games may be necessary to determine the top four. Tied for first and second position are the F. F. A. and T-Anchor Aggie teams. Also tied for third, fourth and fifth places are the Bachelors, N. Y. A., and Firecracker teams.

The five high point men of the season are:

Woodard, N. Y. A.	75
Brown, Firecrackers	43
Marler, Wildcats	42
Shuttleworth, Firecrackers	40
Birdsong, N. Y. A.	38

Wednesday night will see the Wildcats swing into action against the T-Anchor Aggies in the first game, starting at 7 o'clock. At 8 o'clock the N. Y. A. squad will tackle the Future Farmers. On Thursday night the Firecrackers will play the Bachelors in the first tilt, to be followed by the Termites and Gravediggers.

have anything to do with it though? Reckon?

Hank Greenberg, Detroit player who is one of the highest paid players in the American League, is getting a contract that he won't be able to hold out on. Yea, it's Uncle Sam a'calling, and Hank will be on his way to an army camp—and not to hit a baseball.

West Texas State has greatly strengthened her football schedule by adding the Texas School of Mines to it . . . the game is to be played at El Paso on Nov. 15 . . . it may be another step toward getting into the Border Conference.

The Star Dusters are getting their share of the publicity these days, this time from Felix McKnight of the Associated Press who praised them highly for their success thus far this season.

The coach of the week is: Paul Brown who stepped from a high school coaching job right in as head coach of Ohio State University. Brown, at 32, is one of the youngest big-time college coaches in the business.

of Camel's slower burning: Less nicotine in the smoke. Less than any of the four other largest-selling brands tested—28% less than the average!

And when independent laboratory tests reveal such a distinct advantage for one brand of cigarettes over all the others tested—that's worth your looking into—right now!

Winter Party For Guests At Randall

Randall Hall greeted guests on the threshold of a "winter wonderland" last Saturday evening when the residents held an annual winter entertainment.

Dim blue lights cast a mystic glow on the silvery falling snow. The bouncer was a snowman holding a broom stick. Couples danced around a frozen pond in the midst of green cedars and snow drifts. Other couples played games of dominoes and cards under the direction of the social chairman, Jerry Dromgoole.

The girls and their guests then attended the theater where they saw "Christmas in July." After the show, many returned and danced until twelve o'clock.

Also included in activities was the annual page. The club will have a page designed entirely by the members. Social events during the semester included meetings in various homes, and a Christmas party given by Miss Robinson.

Many field trips are planned for the next semester, including a trip to Palo Duro Canyon and visits in Amarillo to the engraving and printing shops.

Social events during the spring will be several picnics and a party.

Nell Green's Foreign Doll Collection Is Unique Hobby

By MARY LEMONS

Many hobbies are being exhibited in the Panhandle-Plains Museum, but a most interesting hobby is now on display in the inner office of Mrs. Geraldine Green, dean of women. Here in a large antique cabinet may be seen Nell Green's collection of foreign dolls. These now number approximately one hundred fifty, and come from all over the world.

Collected For Twelve Years

The collection started twelve years ago with a little ballet dancer, bought in a Paris novelty store; much to the purchaser's disappointment a little examination disclosed that the little doll had been made in Japan, and named "Lucky Boots" for an American audience. Thru the years Lucky's little leaden boots enabled her to land on her feet when dropped, but recently the elastic cords which held her together have weakened, and her posture are no longer those of a graceful ballet dancer. The remains, however, is a treasured little "international" figure.

Nell's favorite doll is a hand-carved Swiss priest, who stands with solemn face looking at his open Bible. There are other dolls from thirty or more different countries including: Hawaii, Alaska, Peru, Bolivia, Bahamas, Switzerland, France, England, Scotland, Ireland, Italy, Ecuador, Mexico, Bermuda, Cuba, Russia, Fiji Islands, Hungary, Spain, Portugal, Jerusalem, Guatemala, Bali, Czechoslovakia, Finland, Germany, United States, Chile, Argentina, and Brazil.

Many Materials Used

The dolls are made of different and unusual materials. Among those are a monkey made of a peach seed, a doll made of sponges, and a pair of dolls made of bottle nipples. Other materials included are soap, ivory, pottery, orange wood, redwood, caribou, leather, clay, banana leaves, shells, thread and wire, yarn flannel, nuts, clothes pins, rayon, Spanish moss and pine cone, straw, and corn husks.

A few American dolls are included. One of particular interest is Agnes, the Dixie Bride. She looks very lovely in her bridal finery, and holds a Confederate battle flag in her hand. Hers is an interesting story. A Yankee soldier lay wounded in a Southern hospital; he fell in love with a young Southern girl who nursed him back to health. He proposed to her; she said, "I'll send you your answer." Through the line he soon received a white satin box with the original Agnes. A note accompanying her read: "This is as near as you will ever come to having a Dixie Bride, and I hope the road between here and Richmond whitens with the bones of every Yankee soldier except yours."

"Helen" Most Attractive

A tall stately doll named Helen, much used for modeling clothes is one of the most attractive units of the collection, and is pleasing to those who like "pretty" rather than interesting dolls.

Dean Green brought several of the dolls from Europe, and additions have been made to the collections by many friends. Of particular value are dolls added by Misses Graham, McMurtry, Richardson, Hudspeth and Charlton.

Any students interested in the collection are invited to visit it; arrangements will gladly be made for interested groups, or individuals.
