Representative of Episcopal Church Speaks of Life of Christ and His Ability to Impart His Characteristics to Others.

Life's certainties and his sincere belief in them were the things Bishop C. S. Quin of the Protestant Episcopal Church chose to speak to the college people at assembly hour Thursday.

With a personality that wins, a frankness that was admirable, an attitude of deep thinking which provoked thought, Bishop Quin made these statements about those things in life of which one may be absolutely sure: The life of Jesus Christ is the best and most evenly balanced life ever lived; everybody who is normally well-balanced wants life; Jesus can impart his kind of life to people. He summed up Jesus' kind of life as one of courage, loyalty, love, and sacrifice.

India's Gandhi was given as the person whose life bears the closest inspection in comparison to that of Christ's. Then the speaker showed how personal interest in this man's life were not typical of the Christ-like spirit. People have always been taught that self-preservation is the first principle of life, said Quin, and Jesus did the impossible thing in that he reversed this and made self-sacrifice first.

A few thoughts about worrying was perhaps particularly adapted to college people. That man is the only animal that worries was not such a startling fact but one leads into interesting fields of thought. Bishop Quin says that most people worry three times: in anticipation of an event, while it is happening, and regret it afterwards.

"In regard to prayer Bishop Quin said: 'There is an inner urge on the inside of every person that has ever lived that cries out to some kind of a higher concept that I call God.' Defining prayer as God's conversation with his children the speaker gave two reasons that many prayers go unanswered: the one who is praying talks so loud, he cannot hear God's voice or he will not wait for an answer.

Other guests at the chapel assembly were Bishop and Mrs. E. C. Seaman, the Rev. Chas. Harris, Jr. of Plainview. Bishop Seaman conducted devotional services preceding the address.

Spanish Words and Spanish Tunes To Be at Banquet Soon

People at the first annual banquet of El Circulo Espanol may not know exactly what they are eating all of the time as the menus are written entirely in Spanish but they will no doubt be able to say "bueno" at any rate. The banquet will be held in the home economics dining room Friday evening, May 10.

Other ideas typical of the club will be featured in the colorful Spanish decorations and the numbers on the program. Readings in Spanish and several musical numbers are to be given by members of the club.

Besides the members of the club several faculty members are to be invited, and out of town guests who are ex-students will attend the banquet.

Montie Draper To Give High School Chapel Thursday

A lecture recital on Longfellow's "Song of Hiawatha" will be given at the eleven o'clock hour Thursday at the high school chapel assembly by Miss Montie Draper, senior in the college.

Miss Draper has done intensive work on portions of Hiawatha and according to Mary Morgan Brown has developed a nice appreciation and sympathetic attitude toward the classic. Miss Brown especially urges that all speech students be present.

Misses Oris and Edna Cleavinger visited in Amarillo over the weekend.

MUSIC RECITAL

Miss Maetha Griffin of the music department will be presented in a piano recital tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the education building auditorium. She will be assisted by Miss Besse Perkins.

GRUSENDORF IS ELECTED PRES. TEXAS COLLEGE

TO TAKE POSITION AT BRENNHAM METHODIST COLLEGE JUNE 1.

One more will be added to the list of college presidents that West Texas State Teachers College faculty has furnished to the state of Texas when Professor A. A. Grusendorf leaves here in June to take up his duties as President of Blinn Memorial College at Brenham, Texas.

Mr. Grusendorf was elected to this position Tuesday, April 30, while he was in that part of the state in the interests of W. T. He attended the meeting of the Association of Texas Colleges held in Dallas Friday and Saturday of last week, and went from there to Brenham where he was notified of his election.

Mr. Grusendorf is at present head of the department of sociology and economics of this college. He is the successor of J. L. Dufflo who is now studying in Chicago. Mr. Grusendorf is a graduate of North Texas State Teachers College and Baylor University. He has served in several capacities in this institution since his arrival here in 1926. During that term he was Professor of Spanish. The next term he was made Associate Professor of History and at the beginning of this year became head of the department of sociology.

The college at Brenham is a denominational school owned by the Northern Methodists of Texas. It has been in operation for forty-seven years. It was a denominational academy until two years ago when it was converted into a junior college.

Mr. Grusendorf will also deliver the commencement address for the senior class of the college in June of this year.

When June comes this college faculty will have sent four college presidents out into the institutions of the state. R. L. Marquis, former head of the biology department here, is now President of North Texas State Teachers College at Denton. R. B. Cousins, former president of this institution is now President of the College of Arts and Industry at Kingsville. President H. W. Morelock of Alpine Teachers College was former head of the English department here.

Senior Girls of Pampa Hear Miss Anderson Thursday

Speaking to high school senior girls at a banquet in their honor at Pampa, Miss Hattie M. Anderson Thursday evening brought a message of the opportunities of usefulness, service, and profit for women and the value of a college education to them. The banquet was given by the Pampa branch of the A. A. U. W. and the college club.

Following Miss Anderson's address she answered numbers of questions which the girls had submitted to a question box throughout the week in anticipation of the event. Miss Anderson states that the questions pertained to college courses, registration, sororities, and almost every subject which high school girls are interested in.

Miss Anderson was guest of honor at an informal tea given in the afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hunkeppeler who is president-elect of the A. A. U. W. She was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Huey during her stay in Pampa.

Noted Biographies Are Now Added to Rent Collection

Branching out into new fields this month the Rent Collection managers have seen fit to put on the shelf four copies each of Ludwig's "Napoleon, the Man of Destiny," and "Bismarck." These purchases were made at the request of L. F. Sheffy.

Other new books now to be found on the shelf are: Warwick Deeping's "Old Phylus," Joan Lowell's "Crade of the Deep," Milton M. Propper's "Strange Discovery of Mary Young."

Nell Hurley, who was a student here last year, visited Miss Jewell Cowan here the first part of the week. Miss Hurley has been enrolled in Texas University all winter. She expects to receive her degree from there in June, 1930.

Lucille Middleton was employed last Saturday to teach the third and fourth grades in the Claude schools.

Tactless Tex Says Things About Clark

Wallace R. Clark has a perfect right to consider himself one of the "upper crust" in W. T. now for he has broken into print in the well known column of Col. Erasmus Tack.

Old Tack has this to say about Mr. Clark—his musical ability plus his golfing ability:

"Wallace R. Clark of Canyon, and Old Tack had a tight golf match yesterday afternoon. He beat me one up on the last hole. Mr. Clark has charge of the music at the college at Canyon and probably knows more about music and common sense in music than any other individual in the plains district. Lubbock Tech not excepted. He didn't attend 'Thais.' I couldn't get much out of him as to the reason except I got the idea, which may be erroneous, that he didn't believe any traveling grand opera troupe sent out on tour was worth $10 a seat and that 'Thais' was about the last opera that should have been selected. He also said that I was a 'debunker.' I don't know just what he meant but anyway it didn't sound none too encouraging.

But we had a fine golf game even if I did get walloped. But I would have Mr. Clark know that's no honor to beat Erasmus Tack at golf. There isn't anyone in the Panhandle who plays golf who hasn't taken me to a trimming."

JOHN McCARTY NOW TO EDIT DALHART TEXAN

FORMER SPORTS EDITOR OF PRAIRIE MAKES RAPID ADVANCE IN JOURNALISTIC WORK.

John L. McCarty, former sports editor of The Prairie and a student here in 1919, 1921, 1922 and for six months in 1923, has received another big promotion in the newspaper field. A member of The News-Globe, The Globe, The News and The Tribune staffs at various times in Amarillo since 1923, announcement was made this week of his appointment as editor and general manager of The Dalhart Texan, effective June 1.

Mr. McCarty purchased an interest in The Texan along with his present employers, The News-Globe Publishing company in Amarillo and will be president of the publishing company which will issue The Dalhart Texan and The Channing News.

In addition to his newspaper work this ex-student manages to find time to write and sell numerous news and magazine feature articles and his first short story was recently published in The A. B. C. magazine. His record last year showed a sale of 52 sizeable features or one a week.

He is one of several former staff members of The Prairie that are making good in the newspaper field. Edward Gerald, a former editor, is editor of The Canyon News; Olin E. Hinkle, another former editor is editor of The Pampa News, a daily paper; Frank Hill, another Prairie editor, is editor of The Tahoka News; Deskins Wells, a former staff member is publisher of The Wellington Leader; and many others are reporters or hold other positions on newspapers over the country.

Mrs. McCarty is also an ex-student of the West Texas State Teachers College. She will be remembered as Miss Susie Baird who first enrolled at Canyon in 1918.

Tactless Tex Will Be Honor Guest At Publications Banquet Tomorrow

"Poke salad" will not be served although Tactless Tex likes it so well; he says he prefers not to have it tomorrow evening at the annual Publications banquet when he is to be the chief speaker of the evening. The staff members feel that they have been extremely fortunate in securing the original Texan to participate in this annual affair.

Tomorrow evening at the eight o'clock hour those with journalistic inclinations and their "annexes" along with a large number of the faculty members will be wending their way to the home economics dining room where The Prairie and Le Mirage will renew the custom of a union banquet. It is desired that this renewal will establish a tradition that will be continued by later publication workers in W. T.

All plans are practically complete and the committees report that success is assured. Judging from a meeting of the program committee the affair promises to be

NACOGDOCHES DEBATERS WIN OVER BUFFALOES

BARNES AND EUBANKS UP-HOLD AFFIRMATIVE OF JURY QUESTION.

Tuesday evening, April 30, Wayne Eubanks and Frank Barnes closed the home debate season when they lost to the Stephen F. Austin Teachers by a two-to-one decision. The W. T. men were defending the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved, That a substitute for a trial by jury should be adopted."

Wayne Eubanks was the first speaker of the evening. He attacked the jury system, pointing out its deficiencies and the fact that it is not qualified to meet the needs of the modern era of specialization, being an untrained body of laymen.

The first speaker of the negative showed that the jury is a constitutional right and a time honored institution, and that it is so embedded in the hearts and minds of the people that it cannot be dispensed with.

Barnes, the second speaker for the affirmative, showed the need of adopting a substitution for this time-worn as well as time-honored institution. He proposed a tentative substitute and advocated the eventual adoption by experimentation of a substitute for the jury system that would replace awe with understanding, eloquence with efficiency and ignorance with intelligence.

The second man of the negative followed up by pointing out the fact that the jury is the last stronghold of government in which the common people have a direct voice and influence, and that is abolishment would mean a backward step in the annals of civilization.

The body of judges was composed of three eminent attorneys from Amarillo. The largest and most enthusiastic audience of the season was present at this last appearance of the W. T. debaters on the home platform this year. Barnes made the last speech of his intercollegiate debating career.

Junior-Seniors To Have Annual Prom Saturday Evening

A unique setting, the six mile crossing, has been selected for the junior-senior prom which will be held Saturday evening. This makes it more than ever possible for all members of each class to find entertainment to suit their special tastes.

Transportation will be furnished all who wish to attend, and the group will meet on the open lawn in front of the administration building. They will leave at six o'clock and have a picnic supper in the canyons. A short, snappy program will be given immediately following the supper, after which dancing and games will be in order.

Miss Mary Sue Sears, chairman of the entertainment committee, says that those who do not dance are being provided for so that none need not enjoy the evening. All juniors and seniors are urged to go.

D. A. Shirley is already scheduled to make two commencement addresses to high school senior classes this month. He will make one at Spring Lake May 17 and at W. T. high school May 25.

N. M. M. I. Cadets Win 25 Point Victory Over W. T. Buffaloes In Track Affair At Roswell

Buffaloes Win Discus, Pole Vault, Low Hurdles, Distance Races, Relays, and Four Out of Six Tennis Matches Saturday.

Harding Elected W. A. A. Prexy For Term 1929-1930

Officers for the coming year were elected at the regular meeting of the W. A. A. last Wednesday afternoon. Charlie Mae Harding, a sophomore, was chosen president. Ethel Bourland will be vice-president for the coming year.

Other officers are, corresponding secretary, Doris Louder; treasurer, Thelma Cook; publicity manager, Lurline Bowman; annual representative, Estelle Bourland.

Miss Harding, the president elect, is one of the most prominent members of the W. A. A. Her responsible attitude in the past caused her to receive the election. Miss Bourland is president of the organization this year.

Oma Wilson, a sophomore, is to lead the Texas Outing Club which is a branch organization of W. A. A. members in which they may make points the awards made by W. A. A.

Due to the fact that the ninth annual convention of the Woman's Athletic Association will meet at this college during the fall term the organization considered the election of officers an important one.

Frank R. Phillips Is Judge in Fine Dairy Cattle Show

The judges for the Dairy Show at Farwell-Texico, County Agent W. F. Upchurch of Randall County and Frank R. Phillips, Professor of Agriculture at West Texas State Teachers College, spoke in the highest terms of the show.

Professor Phillips, who judged the show there last year, expressed surprise at the large number of animals on exhibit. In speaking about the show he said, "when that there would be about 60 or 75 animals at the show, I felt that if there were 40 or 50 animals it would justify the effort that the Lions Club and other business organizations of Texico and Farwell are putting forth. You can imagine my surprise on arriving and found 90 superior Jerseys in the show."

Music Department Has Commencement Recital Thursday

The regular commencement open recital for the music department of W. T. was given Thursday afternoon at four o'clock in the auditorium of the Education Building with a large group of the music lovers of the school and of Canyon in attendance.

The commencement recital is always looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure by all who have ever attended such a one. The program consisted of piano, violin, voice, and trombone numbers. The accompaniments for all the violin numbers were played by Miss Thelma McMinn, for the voice numbers by Mr. Wallace R. Clark, and for the trombone, by Miss Martha Strain. The entire program was rendered in a most acceptable manner.

After the program, Mr. Clark gave a brief summary of the year's work in this department, stating that this year had surpassed all expectations for work done. He complimented the efficient faculty, and made especial mention of the fact that in the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Coffee their work had been able to continue without inconvenience to anyone. Mr. Coffee's work is being carried on by Miss Canfield of Amarillo, and he remarked at this good fortune to obtain such a teacher. Mrs. Coffee's work is being carried on by the rest of the piano teachers on the faculty without inconvenience. Mr. Clark closed these remarks by extending an invitation to all present to come to the studio rooms in the main building for a reception.

Miss Jennie C. Ritchie spent Sunday in Amarillo as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gibson.

In one of the best track meets of the spring, the N. M. M. I. Cadets beat the Buffaloes by a score of 75 2-3 to 50 1-3 points. The weather was ideal for a track affair.

McCoomis beat "Red" Keith in the 100 yard dashes Saturday; however the time was not as fast as the time made at the Great Plains Meet. N. M. M. I. piled up the greatest number of their points in the field events.

Miller of Canyon threw the discus 124 feet and eight inches for first place. Lowes pole vaulted 11 feet six inches, thus winning first place. Bennett won first in the low hurdles. The thrill of the afternoon came when Daddy Gee ran the high hurdles. He would hurdle in his lane for a hurdle or two, then he would get crooked and hurdle in someone else's lane.

The Buffalo distance men won several honors. They took first and second in all the distance races except the two mile. Penick was crowned with laurels by the Cadets when he ran the last lap of his two mile race just like Red Keith runs the quarter mile.

The best race of the afternoon was the relay. Barrett, Carter, Lee, and Keith ran the relay in 3 minutes 33 seconds. The Institute relay team was only a few feet behind when Keith took the baton and took an easy stride to step off and leave Hill, the Institute anchor man.

W. T. men won four out of six tennis matches. Judge Landers won his match with a 6-2, 6-2 score. Bonner McCarty won his with a 6-0, 6-2 score. Wayne Eubanks lost his singles match with the following score: 6-4, 2-6, 6-2. Hal Hartwick also lost his match—4-6, 6-4, 6-3. Both doubles teams won their matches. The teams were composed of Judge Landers and Bonner McCarty and Wayne Eubanks and Hal Hartwick.

Walters To Read In Senior Recital Thursday at 4:15

Appearing for her senior speech recital in West Texas State Teachers College, Miss Marjorie Walters will be presented by the speech arts department in the education building auditorium at 4:15 Thursday afternoon. She will be assisted by her sister, Nell, violinist.

Among the selections to be read by Miss Walters are: "The Nightingale and the Rose," by Oscar Wilde; "Bud's Fairy Tale," by James Whitcomb Riley; the Potpourri Scene from Romeo and Juliet; and "Confessions," by Arthur Conan Doyle.

Miss Walters has been one of the most popular readers in the college since she entered school here in the summer of '26. It is expected that a large group of friends will be present at her senior recital.

Children's Theatre Work Explained By Batchelder Thurs.

At the meeting of the Dramatic Club Thursday afternoon a profitable talk concerning the Children's Theatre organization was made by C. W. Batchelder. It is the hope of Mr. Batchelder to have a Children's Theatre established in every town in Texas with a population of 3,000. Many of these could be started by the graduates of W. T. Mr. Batchelder stated that the operation of the Children's Theatre could be handled successfully if it were made a town proposition. An advisory board should be appointed by the director, so as to take part of the responsibility. The director must know what plays will be given and the cost of the productions ahead of time.

REFORMS SUGGESTED
IN COLLEGE TEACHING

Four means for the improvement of college teaching are given in the Journal of the National Education Association by Dr. Frank D. Boynton, superintendent of schools at Ithaca, New York, and first vice president of the Department of Superintendence of the National Education Association.

"College teaching may be improved," says Dr. Boynton, "first, by a thorough and comprehensive knowledge of the subject matter taught kept down to date; second, by professional training, thorough and comprehensive study of how to put the thing over; third, by supervised instruction; fourth, by an agreement of full and associate professors that each will teach one or more divisions or sections of freshmen."

"There is no substitute for professional training. It is just as essential for the would-be teacher to study the development of his job and those who have been successful in bringing it to its present state of perfection as it is for the lawyer, the architect, the physician, or the minister."

"The day for the 'trial and error' method of selecting teachers has passed. Teaching is the one profession where this method receives any encouragement. Industry and the crafts are turning to the school for their supply of help, having very largely scrapped the 'trial and error' method generally spoken of as the 'apprentice system' as too wasteful in this age."

SOCIAL EXPERIENCE IS NEEDED IN EDUCATION

"All study and no social experience make even the valedictorian a dull freak," writes Dr. Daniel Wolford La Rue, professor of psychology at the Pennsylvania State Teachers College at East Stroudsburg, in the April Journal of the National Education Association.

"A mental frailty," continues Dr. LaRue, "not infrequently brings on social scorn, and social scorn is mental poison. Here is the mental thief, sipping unearned elation thru fantasy or 'big talk,' or bluff; the chronically suspicious, whose swollen and sensitive ego feels itself the object of diverse forms of evil intent; the hare-hearted, too shy to be happy; the grouchy in his barbed-wire entanglement; the clan-minded, creating division rather than union; the sentimental, whose feeling cannot bridge the way to deeds; the ever-injured, fluttering his weak wings; the rebellious, fortified and armed against all authority; the much depressed, deserving of all pity; the domineering, deserving of none; and even the verbal egotist, the machine-gun talker who forsakes conversation for monolog."

"Society approves most one who earnestly identifies himself with a great cause; who is cheerfully kind, a good fellow everywhere, but without the good fellow's bad habits; who is orderly; and who is progressive."

"In dealing with your public remember that you are not compromising your personality if you aim to please. Why not take pleasure in pleasing? Fitting into the interstices and intricacies of other people's natures is a real art and good exercise."

A BIT OF RAMBLING THOUGHT

By Ouida Campbell.

It does not seem as if we have so much work to do especially, when the end of the quarter comes and we are so far behind in some work but:

"We are not here to play, to dream, to drift; We have hard work to do, and loads to lift; Shun not the struggle—face it; 'tis God's gift."

While sketching through a book, I find:

"If you have hard work to do, do it now."

Today the skies are clear and blue,

Tomorrow clouds may come in view,

Yesterday is not for you; Do it now."

This puts me to work a little faster. I once heard of an old lady who was never known to speak an unkind word of anyone, was exhorting her grandchildren, when one of them said:

"But Grandma, you never speak a good word about the devil."

The old lady thought a minute and replied: "If we were only half as industrious as he, it would be well for us."

Well, it is true the devil is never idle and works anywhere. "An idle mind is the devil's workshop"—another reason for staying busy.

Most of the unhappiness in the world is caused by having nothing to do. People with much to do are rarely in trouble (grown ups and children). It is the vacant minds that cause unhappiness to themselves and others. A mind that is full of beautiful thoughts will not have room to harbor and injure.

When we do not have work to do for ourselves, we can do things for others. We are bound to do some thinking along with this. Again while rambling through the book, I find:

"We live in deeds, not years, in thoughts, not breaths; In feelings, not in figures on a dial. We should count time by heart throbs. He most lives Who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best. And he whose heart beats quick and longest; Lives in one hour more than years do some. Whose fat blood sleeps as it slips along their veins. Life is but a means to an end—that end—Beginning means an end to all things—God."

"I'M GLAD I'M DUMB"

When anyone makes the statement, "I'm glad I'm dumb," we—anyone who thinks as deeply as I—think of Aesop's old fable concerning the sour grapes. I always have; my dumbness was a thorn in my side, and in trying to ease the pain, I quite often said, "I'm glad I'm dumb." Recently, however, I became reconciled to my seemingly unavoidable state of being, so I now write this with a clear conscience.

I don't mind being a dumb-bell, and I have perfectly sane reasons for not minding it. In the first place it is my opinion that anyone, in any condition or phase of life, can very easily be nonchalant when surrounded by, or at the head of it, a huge majority. The spirit of chumminess I derive from being hailed as "Dumb-bell," by a first class dumb-bell, is soul satisfying. Such expressions of intimacy, though, coming from a doddering dumb-bell, arouse my ire, stir into flame, high ambitions, and I immediately pray to the heavens above for strength; strength to become, if not the biggest, one of the biggest dumb-bells on earth. Due to that one thing, if nothing else, I have retained my pride and a wholesome desire for all the bigger and better things of life.

The world offers her midgets a large and varied assortment of accomplishments for their attainment. The individual may have his choice of tasks. If he is unusually wise he will choose according to his ability. He may perform this task so well, develop it to such a high degree of perfection that he becomes a genius. He is pointed out as a man among men, and is loved, and praised, by all men. However, I realize the futility of my trying to win the love of men; all I ask for, now, is the love of women, and little children.

It occurred to me, some time ago, that the brain must have a psychological structure similar to the physiological structure of the abdomen. In an effort to prove my theory (I did prove it to myself, beyond a doubt), I ate a certain amount—the exact amount is immaterial—of rhubarb pipe. I then spent a restless night; I suffer severely from pains amidship. Several days elapsed before I was in proper condition to continue with the experiment, but I was determined to go through with it no matter what the cost. The result was to be, or prove, a point of the gravest importance to me; my future, such as it might be, rested entirely upon the conclusions I must draw from the procedure. So, realizing all this, I drew my easy chair to the fireplace; I picked up the first volume of Livingston's correct-fiction name, "The Necessity of Cannibalism as an Aid to Our Immigration Law," and began to read. For exactly thirteen minutes and forty seven seconds, I read steadily. I then laid the book down, and with my every sense alert, I waited the result.

Ah! Slowly, but surely, it came to me. I had a headache! My experiment was a success; I had proven that, should I devour too much of any one thing, or should I concentrate too much on any one thing, I must suffer!

Therefore, I'm glad I'm dumb.

Therefore, I'm glad I'm dumb.

Therefore, I'm glad I'm dumb.

J. Evetts Haley, field secretary for the Panhandle Plains Historical Society, returned late last week from San Saba, Tex., where he had been in search of additional material for the society museum. Mr. Haley was accompanied by C. H. Park and R. C. Burns of Lubbock.

An Indian treaty rock, in which had been chiseled the Indians' interpretation of a treaty with government officials, was found not to be available, but several fine specimens of guns, branding irons and typical pioneer household utensils were secured. These relics were given by Wiley Puckett of Lubbock.

Pearl Gray visited relatives in Dalhart last Sunday.

Viola Dauer attended a picnic of the Y. W. C. A. at the Methodist Encampment Saturday.

Mary Gamble visited Mayrene Gamble at her home in Plainview last week-end.

Ina Mae Hastings was hostess to the following girls at her home in Hereford over the week-end: Dorothy Staley, Bertha Zimmerman, Margaret Sheers, Virginia Wester, Margaret Love.

Miss Kayo Malone was honor guest at a surprise birthday party given at Cousins Hall last Thursday evening. Hostesses for the evening were Alyce Green, Ruth Stapleton, Mittie Lee Royal, and Geraldine Angel. Bridge and dancing were enjoyed during the evening.

The guests were Miss Kayo Malone, honor guest, Misses Marion Jones, Jeanne Price, Rosalie Smith, Ione Ball, Margaret Love, Daisy Tackett, Virginia Wester, Pearl Gray, Mary T. Hartrick, and the hostesses.

Haley Is Elected
Fellow In Texas
Historical Ass'n.

J. Evetts Haley has recently been elected a fellow of the Texas State Historical Association with headquarters at Austin. The election was at the annual meeting of the association.

When it is known that there are now only thirty-eight fellows in the entire southwest, the significance of the election is realized. This is a distinction which comes as a result of having done research work of note in the historical field.

When R. A. Terrill spoke to the Wheeler County Exes at their annual banquet about a month ago, he evidently made a success as he was asked again to speak to the group at a chicken roasting which was held near Wheeler last Friday evening.

Mr. Terrill says some twenty-five W. T. exes were present at this final meeting of the year. Further facts about the talk Mr. Terrill made were unobtainable as each time the reporter would broach the subject of the line of thought which he carried out in his speech, Mr. Terrill would renew his eloquent outburst about the palatable food barbecued chicken is.

Mrs. C. Kessie of Hartley was the guest of Misses Olga and Maggie Crawford Sunday and Monday.

Library Staff Gives Farewell Reception For Miss Mary Hill Yesterday P. M.

Miss Mary Hill was guest of honor at a farewell reception given for her in the home economics dining room yesterday afternoon from 4:00 to 6:00 o'clock with members of the college library staff as hostess and hostesses.

Simple decorations of pot plants, May baskets, and lighted candles made the already impressive room even more beautiful.

One hundred fifty guests were present. Members of the faculty and special friends of the honoree were invited.

Miss Hill leaves June 1 for Alpine where she will be assistant librarian in the Teachers College there throughout the summer. Miss Hill has been a member of the library force here for practically ten years.

BATCHELDERS GIVE PARTY FOR DEBATORS

Last Wednesday night the debaters of W. T. were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Batchelder at their home on Sixth Avenue. It was more or less of a stag party as all of the debaters this year were men.

Those present were Frank Barnes, Seth Rollins, J. D. Gamble, John Bookout, Wayne Eubanks, and Minard Stevens.

Bunco, bridge, and other card games were entered with as much rivalry and enthusiasm as has been typical of the debate contests this year.

Two pictures of Coach Batchelder were offered as prizes to winners of some of the games. These prizes were won by Minard Stevens and Wayne Eubanks. Frank Barnes and J. D. Gamble who will not have another year under Mr. Batchelder, maintained the pictures should rightfully belong to them. A clash ensued in which Barnes and Gamble got a picture and a few bruises. Being conscientious boys, however, the pictures were returned but the bruises were kept.

Sandwiches, coffee and cake, prepared by Mrs. Batchelder, were greatly enjoyed.

MANY COUPLES ATTEND CO-ED DANCE SATURDAY

The co-ed dances are proving to be quite popular in W. T. and the one sponsored Saturday evening by the Home Economics club and W. A. A. was quite unusually well attended.

The doors of the gym were opened at 7:20, and shortly afterwards the co-eds began arriving with their pseudo-ed escorts.

The gym was an attractive place with its smooth floor and canopy of rainbow-colored ribbons.

Music was furnished by the Moonlight Masqueraders. Until a late hour many happy couples rotated about the floor, and after the last strains of Home Sweet Home had died away, went lingeringly home.

CO-EDS AND MRS SMITH FORM PARTY TO CARLSBAD

Last Friday morning saw a Packard full of girls chaperoned by Mrs. Agnes Smith leaving for Carlsbad Cavern. The return trip was made Sunday. The group stopped Saturday evening in Roswell to visit friends. A trip was made to the Bottomless Lakes Sunday morning.

Those who went to the cavern were Mrs. Agnes Smith, Misses Maurine Wallingford, Elizabeth Goats, Robbie Anderson, Elizabeth Easley, Mary Lou Beckham, Verna Forbes, and Lottie Eva Clay.

Marie Crone, who is now in Cuba, plans to return to the United States in a short time and has already made plans to visit friends in Canyon.

SENIORS HAVE BUFFET LUNCHEON AT COUSINS

Some fifty or sixty seniors were present at the buffet luncheon given at Cousins Hall Monday evening, April 29, with President T. H. McDonald, presiding.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart H. Condon, who were guests of honor, were presented with a silver tea set at the close of the luncheon.

ANTLER-ELAPHEIAN BANQUET IS SUCCESS

Shasta daisies from the sunny fields of California upon snowy banquet cloths greeted members of the Elapheian and Antler herds when they assembled in Randall Hall Thursday evening for the annual festival banquet.

With Uncle Tommy Clark as master of ceremonies the evening's "duty," in the way of eats, and pleasure in the way of a program was spiced with a cleverness and wit that is characteristic of Uncle Tommy.

A four course banquet was served to some sixty society members. This was intermingled with fine arts numbers given by members of the two organizations. Nell Walters' violin solo was received with the usual enthusiasm. She was accompanied by her sister, Marjorie Walters. "Where the Shy Little Violets Grow," by Edgar Pickett on his xylophone won a hearty encore. He and his accompanist, Miss Beth Pitts returned for the encore amidst much applause. The formal program closed with the reading of a one act play by Greta Mae Cayton.

Then the merriment began with renewed vigor. Puns on the name of practically every person present afforded much table to table competition and rivalry, even though the lusty voices raised in song might not have been the most carefully tuned. If one table saw fit to melodiously inquire just why Pearl is Gray, another would speedily kanto to know why Durwood is Brown or how old is Edith Young or who opened Hester's Gates.

Gold colored place cards with the letters A and E in the corners symbolized the two societies which were banqueting, their colors and their initials. Attractive programs further carried out the societies' emblems.

Faculty guests were Mrs. Tommie Montfort, sponsor of the Elapheians, Mr. T. M. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Shaw, and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Batchelder, sponsors of the Antlers.

Senior Play Work Progressing Well

The senior class is combining its talent and forces for an adequate production of the senior play, "Nancy Ann," which will be presented on the evening of May 23. Committees have been appointed to take care of the advertising, sale of tickets, and stage carpentry.

The work of the cast is being directed by Mary Morgan Brown, assisted by Montie Draper and Dorothy Thomas. Rehearsals began about two weeks ago and are rapidly progressing toward finished work.

The price of the tickets will be fifty cents for everyone; and those who are working in rehearsals think it will be one of the best entertainments given on the campus this year.

Misses Ruth Strain and Marie Stalcup gave a musical program at the Canyon high school chapel hour Thursday afternoon. Their accompanists were Mrs. Tate Fry and Miss Addaline Strain.

Miss Edna Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Hazlewood spent Saturday evening in Amarillo as the guest of Miss Margaret Boulware. Miss Boulware is the former secretary of President Hill.

YESTERDAY EVE MARKS OPENING OF CHAUTAUQUA

COMPANY AGREES TO COME WITHOUT GUARANTEE.

Music To Be Feature of Six Day Program Starting Here May 6.

For the first time in its history Canyon is to have a Chautauqua which makes its bid for patronage on the excellence of its program rather than upon the necessity of saving citizens-guarantors from making up a deficit. The Redpath-Horner company opens in Canyon today for a week's stay with what is described as one of the best programs ever to be brought to this section.

Music is to be the big feature of the chautauqua program, which opens today and continues thru 6 days. The 1929 Review, combining music and pageantry, Flechtels Yodelling Tyroleans, the Vienna Cymbalon Symphony orchestra and a male quartette make up the musical features of the 6-day program. William Rainey Bennett, and Chester M. Sanford are to be the inspirational lecturers. Jess Pugh, described as an original entertainer with a show all his own, completes the program.

Ground Is Broken For New Episcopal Student Home Here

Ground was broken Wednesday for a new student center of the Protestant Episcopal Church here. The new center, to be located directly north of All Saints' Mission, will retain the name of "The Little House of Fellowship."

Bishop E. Cecil Seaman of the north Texas diocese, and Bishop C. S. Quin of the south Texas diocese, were present for the ceremony.

Bishop Seaman told of the history of the Little House of Fellowship and of the hopes the church entertains for its growth and usefulness to the people of the Panhandle, at a short meeting which preceded the formal breaking of ground. Bishop Quin also made a short talk in which he pointed out that the student center would be made as important a unit in student life here as its patrons willed.

Those who participated in the ground breaking ceremony were: Mrs. Elizabeth Fry Page, hostess at the Little House of Fellowship, who succeeded Mrs. E. H. J. Andrews; David Thomas, for All Saints' Chapel; Miss Virginia Elliott, for the student body of the College; Dean R. P. Jarrett, Miss Mary Moss Richardson, Dr. C. A. Pierle, for the faculty and administration of the College; T. C. Thompson, representing the mayor and city commission of Canyon.

Miss Sadie Anderson representing Canyon public schools; Marie Dodgen, representing the Y. W. C. A. and other student religious organizations at the College; Mattie Mae Swisher, for other church student secretaries; Rev. Chas. Harris, Jr., for district department of religious education; Bishop E. Cecil Seaman, representing the district of north Texas, and Bishop C. S. Quin representing the national organization of the church.

Hill Returns From Austin Sunday Eve

President J. A. Hill returned Sunday evening from Austin where he had been in the interests of the College. While gone on this trip he conferred with the College Board of Regents who were having their annual meeting for the purpose of the election of faculties for the Teachers College.

Thursday Hr. Hill attended the dedication of the library building of the college at Kingsville.

Reeves and Hill Make Austin Trip With Leaguers

Variety constituted Mrs. T. V. Reeves and Mrs. J. A. Hill's trip to Austin the past week end when they accompanied the Interscholastic Leaguers from this district. They left here Wednesday morning and returned Sunday evening.

Mrs. Hill visited her son, Davis, and his wife. Mrs. Reeves made a trip to San Antonio while there. Mrs. Clyde W. Warwick entertained Saturday morning with a luncheon for Mrs. Reeves and Mrs. Hill.

ELECTRICITY— the modern prospector

A STOUT heart; a burro laden with pick, shovel, and the bare necessities of life; and the prospector was ready for the gold rush—Sutter's Mill, the Pike's Peak country, Cripple Creek, Klondyke. A scattered trail of half-worked claims marked his sacrifices.

To-day mining is a business, with electricity replacing wasteful brawn in mine and mill.

The deep mine, with electric lights, hoists and locomotives; the surface mine with huge electric shovels scooping up tons of ore in a single bite; the concentrating mill with batteries of electrically driven machines; the steel mill with its constant electric heat—here are but a few of electricity's contributions to the mineral industries.

So in every industry, electricity increases production and cuts costs. It is the modern prospector, leading the way into wider fields and tapping undeveloped resources—that we may enjoy a finer civilization and a richer, fuller life.

You will find this monogram on powerful motors that drive heavy mining machinery and on tiny motors that drive sewing machines. Both in industry and in the home, it is the mark of an organization that is dedicated to electrical progress.

Week's Chautauqua Program Scheduled For Canyon Now

Jay Tobias, "the Prince of Comedians" and his company will serve clean, sparkling comedy in his famous Spice Cake Revue Wednesday afternoon and night only at the big tent on Fourth avenue. Many local fans who have seen him in "Oh! Percy! Revue will want to see his "New Stunts for Collegians." Tobias is said to be "More Collegiate than Collegians." Clever make ups, colorful costumes, Jay and his giant accordion, the saxophone and other instruments make up the comedy ensemble.

The Jackson Jubes, "colored song-birds" appearing Thursday have never failed to draw capacity crowds to those who enjoy the old negro chants, steamboat and cotton plantation songs.

In spite of school commencement activities, students and young business men will plan to hear Chester M. Sanford, vocational guidance expert, who has probably assisted more young people in choosing their life work wisely than any man in the country today.

What vocations pay the most? What new ones are developing? Which are overcrowded and dying out? What vocations are open to women? These and hundreds of other questions which will help young people to avoid or correct mistakes, will be answered by Sanford.

Skidding Latest Hit
Canyon will no doubt have the novel experience of first hearing the presentation of a popular play in Canyon and later if they wish seeing its production in larger cities. "Skidding" is still showing on Broadway, New York. It recently opened in San Francisco and Portland. Only through the guarantee of royalties on hundreds of productions made possible through contract with the chautauqua talent bureau is it possible for local play lovers to enjoy the advantage over their less fortunate friends in the larger cities where it has not yet been released.

Canyon with its host of attractions this week takes on a metropolitan air and it can safely be said that "The Best Place to hear outside attractions is in Canyon." Reserved seats may be obtained at Jarrett's Drug Store beginning now.

Dean R. P. Jarrett has four commencement addresses booked for him for this month. They are to be given at Matador, Silverton, Stratford, and Rogers, New Mexico.

Ann Ruth Snow was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Bryant Jobe of Amarillo the past week end.

Shirley Is Elected Vice-President Of Association Of Texas Colleges

More honors in the collegiate world were bestowed upon West Texas State Teachers College last week when Registrar D. A. Shirley was elected vice president of the Association of Texas Colleges. The election was made while Mr. Shirley was in attendance at the spring meeting of this organization in conjunction with the annual meeting of the Texas Branch of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars which were held in Dallas April 26 and 27.

Much time was spent in discussion of the new law which pertains to obtaining certificates in the state of Texas at the Friday meeting. This law, which states that each person who receives a certificate must either pass an examination or take a three hours course in federal and state constitution, will be fully explained by Mr. Shirley in chapel May 14. The law becomes effective June 1.

Forty-five colleges were represented at the meeting of the Texas Branch of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars. Officials elected for the coming year were T. J. Howell of John Tarleton, President; Frank M. Allen of Baylor University, Vice-President. While at the meeting Mr. Shirley was one of the members of the nominating committee and assisted in the preparation of a paper on junior college registrars.

The meeting of the Association of Texas Colleges opened Friday evening with a banquet at the Baker Hotel. Mr. Shirley reports that this was the most successful meeting ever held by the organization; there being sixty-five colleges represented.

Changes in correspondence and extension work were fully discussed and all standing commissions on athletics, placement tests, high school scholarships, and standards made important reports. President L. H. Hubbard of the College of Industrial Arts was elected President of this group. D. A. Shirley of W. T. S. T. C. was chosen Vice-President and Dean W. S. Allen of Baylor University was made Secretary-Treasurer.

Following the close of the meeting Mr. Shirley spent two days in McKinney, returning to Canyon last Tuesday.

Wrestling Match Draws Crowd

Perhaps among the most outstanding events in the social (or would it be social—ye editor wonders) world of the college faculty last week transpired (important events should always transpire) when Messrs. D. A. Shirley, C. W. Batchelder, F. E. Savage, R. Donand, Wallace R. Clark, and Travis Shaw motored to Amarillo when the shades of evening were falling to be among the chief spectators at the highly advertised wrestling match, the match between Cal Farley and Bylund. To make a long story short the evening was enjoyed by all.

Amarillo H. S. Band Plays Here Tuesday

Amarillo's Golden Sandstorm high school band entertained the college students and faculty Tuesday morning at the chapel hour in the college auditorium. The band is composed of forty-eight members and is directed by Oscar Wise.

"Calif of Bagdad," the national musical contest number was featured. Lloyd Fletcher gave a baritone solo, "Cavatine de Beatrice Ditenda."

Tschakowski's "March Slave," the other national contest number completed the program. The band was the guest of the college at a luncheon given at the college cafeteria immediately following the program. Mr. C. E. Strain acted as host of the occasion.

Musical Program Features Rotary Meeting Tuesday

Miss Miriam Canfield, teacher of violin at the College, Miss Pauline Brigham, head of the department of piano at the school, and Miss Marie Stalcup, soprano, gave a highly appreciated program at the weekly luncheon of the Canyon Rotary Club Tuesday. Miss Brigham played accompaniments for both Miss Stalcup and Miss Canfield.

Noted Artists to Make Up Festival Program, May 8-9-10

The annual Panhandle Music Festival will be held in Amarillo May 8, 9, and 10, according to Emil F. Myers, of the Amarillo College of Music, who is again sponsoring the event.

Rosalinda Morini, coloratura soprano "who doesn't totter and is only 26," will start the three-day program. Miss Morini has created a sensation in New York circles, and has been heralded in Europe as possessing a voice of power and beauty unequalled since the days of Patti and Jenny Lind.

Otto H. Kahn, chairman of the board of directors of Metropolitan, with whom Miss Morini now is under contract, describes her voice as "one of the most beautiful I have ever heard."

Don Jose Mojica, a favorite of Panhandle music lovers during many festival seasons, returns for another costume recital. The "serenading cavalier" will appear May 10.

Francis MacMillen, foremost American violinist is to give an afternoon and evening concert during the second day of the festival, May 9. MacMillen's matinee appearance will be particularly for school children and music memory selections will be featured. He appeared during the 1926 festival and his reappearance will be received with pleasure.

The usual contests under the auspices of the Panhandle Music Teachers Association will be held during the festival. Miss Mattie Mae Swisher of Canyon, president of the association, and Miss Gladys Marsalis Glenn, Amarillo, are in charge of these student contests and information may be secured from either.

Exceptionally low prices have been announced by Mr. Myers for the three day festival. Ticket reservations may be made by mail by addressing Mr. Myers at 1104 Polk Street.

Despite the fact that the Co-Ed Inn is found daily by a large number of students it cannot be definitely located by its owner. Of course he knows what door to go in but he does not know definitely what lot that door is located on. Two groups of surveyors have been summoned but they seem to disagree on the matter.

Maggie Crawford has been employed at the Deal School which is near Borger.

GIRL RESERVES ELECT OFFICERS FOR NEXT YEAR

A group of girls met in room 113 Tuesday at 4:30 to elect officers for the coming year. Those elected were as follows:

President—Helen Johnson.
Vice-President—Eleanor Pierle.
Secretary—Lois McCaslin.
Treasurer—Frances Hancock.
Program Chairman—Mary Alice Weaver.
Finance Chairman—Opal Smith.
Music Chairman—Lucy Jo Loudner.

The group expects to carry on its work this summer and for this purpose elected Rosemary Lewis, President, and Mildred Wheat, program chairman. Girl Reserves have not been able to accomplish all they hoped to accomplish this year, but now that the work is well begun, next year stands a good chance to be a red letter year for the organization.

HONOR SOCIETY TAKES IN 7 NEW MEMBERS

Several new members were initiated into the R. P. Jarrett Chapter of the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools last Saturday evening at the annual initiation services which precede the banquet. Official keys were given to the following new members: Dorothy Harris, Mildred Wheat, Joe Cason, Elizabeth Moore, Roy Whittenburg, Alton Phelps, and Mary Alice Weaver.

Following the initiation old and new members and faculty guests were ushered into the banquet room. Ideals of the society formed the subject for the evening's program. Dr. Jarrett, for whom the society was named, was the principal speaker. Other speakers were representatives of the Amarillo and Carlsbad Chapters.

Those present from Amarillo were Miss Nugent, Mr. Woodward, and Mr. and Mrs. Truitt. Members of the Carlsbad Chapter who spoke were Misses Juanita Beard and Amy Williams, both of whom are in W. T. now. Only four students from Carlsbad have come here to school and each of the four is a member of the high school honor society.

During the four years of its existence the society of W. T. High has admitted forty-four members into its ranks based on the qualification of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Miss Angie Debo is faculty sponsor of the local organization.

Estelline Harris and Alfred Jameson sang two solos as a part of the program given by the Canyon high school band Friday evening in the high school auditorium. Miss Addaline Strain is the director of the band.

Miss Ruby Kendrick Cherry, a student of the college last year, was the guest of her sister, Miss Elizabeth Cherry, Saturday and Sunday.

Grace Wigman, a former student, plans to return to W. T. for the coming fall term.
