

The Editor Speaking

Something new in assembly programs was presented Tuesday when the Press Club brought John McCarty here to give his favorite type of program—a discussion of hobbies. Mr. McCarty immediately won a place in the hearts of his audience and held his listeners in suspense as they awaited the next developments in the unusual program. He is one of those persons that make you feel that you have known them always upon the first contact.

The Curtis String Quartet changed the minds of a great many students Friday night in its second appearance here. It is often that we hear young college students express their dislike for classical music. Sometimes they know what they're talking about and sometimes they don't. Some of them have heard someone attempt classical music and were, of course, disgusted with the results. The concert Friday night showed that those present not only liked classical music—they went into ecstasies over it.

Girls of Randall Hall certainly put over a grand party in grand style Saturday evening with their "A Night in Paris." For original decorations, a delicious dinner, and pleasurable dancing afterwards, they are to be given recognition as a group that really knows how to entertain.

Today is the LAST day for submitting material for the TIPA contests. March 1 was formerly set as the deadline, but I am now extending the time one more day. Local judges will eliminate the entries to one in each division. The winning entry will be sent to the state contests and it is necessary that the person to whom it belongs make four typewritten copies of the entry for this purpose. The deadline for the state contests is March 13. Any member of the Press Club will take the entries during the remainder of today.

Students who were here last year became enthusiastic last week when the news leaked out that Paul Weaver, instructor of philosophy at Stevens College at Columbia, Mo., is coming here to give two lectures Thursday. Mr. Weaver captured the admiration and lively interest of everyone who heard him last year. Thank the Y. W. C. A. for bringing him back!

All loyal Texans are swelling out their chests today in observance of Texas Independence Day. One hundred and one years ago today, a group of patriots launched out on a trail of independence from subservience to a hated tyrant and gave to the world a document which makes us what we are now as a State. For today, at least, let's remember those patriots and what they stood for and try to fulfill their hopes for their posterity of a century later.

Red Cross Life Saving Examiner Coming Thursday

Roger C. Plaisted, representative of the Red Cross Midwest Area Headquarters at St. Louis, will conduct examinations of members of the life saving classes and give instruction in first aid here Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, according to Miss Ruth Cross, chairman of the Life Saving Service of the local Red Cross Chapter.

During this visit the swimming expert will qualify new Life Saving examiners and give tests to local swimmers who already have successfully completed the rigid Red Cross examiner's course.

Virginia Robey, '36, is now a member of the staff of the Wellington Leader. She reports that her experience on The Prairie enabled her to get her present position which she likes very much.

String Quartet Is Given Enthusiastic Reception Friday

Recital Here Only One Scheduled For Section

Playing in a chamber music recital before a large crowd at the main auditorium Friday evening, the Curtis String Quartet, classed as the outstanding musical organization of its kind in the world, scored another triumph in their second engagement here within the last two years.

The noted quartet was presented in the recital on the current lyceum bill, their appearance having been arranged by Wallace R. Clark, chairman, and members of the lyceum committee. The organization had appeared here two years ago.

The string quartet, sent out by the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia ten years ago, have played at command performances before royal courts of England and Europe, having included in their successful tours a recital before President and Mrs. Roosevelt at the White House in Washington in 1934.

Recently returned from a tour of England and the continent, the quartet was brought to the College for its only scheduled appearance in this section, offering an unusual treat to Panhandle music lovers.

Featuring four individual artists with one of the finest collection of stringed instruments in the world, the quartet was received with great enthusiasm.

Senior of W. T. Gets Article In Amarillo Paper

Miss Ruby Dutton, a senior student in W. T., had a feature article published in the Friday morning edition of the Amarillo Daily News.

The article is a biographical sketch of a Tulla pioneer, John Lemmons.

Miss Dutton first wrote the article as a term project in History 421, a study of the history of the Great Plains under Prof. L. F. Sheffy. Another article concerning Mr. Lemmons will appear in the News this week.

Ten Students To Attend IRC Meet At Texas Tech

Members of Local Group To Participate In Program

Ten students and faculty members have announced plans to attend the New Mexico-West Texas International Relationship Conference held on the Texas Tech campus at Lubbock Friday and Saturday.

Five other member colleges have definitely indicated that they would send delegates to the conference, and delegations from three others are expected to be present, according to Don Henry, Tech student and president of the organization.

Leading speakers of the two-day program includes Donald Grant of Edinburgh, Scotland, who is an internationally known champion of world peace and social reform; Amy Hemingway Jones, division assistant of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace; and Mrs. Burton Musser, a Utah state senator who was a delegate to the last Pan-American conference held in Buenos Aires.

Claude Farley of the W. T. organization will serve as chairman of one of the round table discussion groups on "Democracy vs. Dictatorship." Herschel Coffee, professor in the government and economics department here, will act as faculty advisor for another round table group.

Robert Dillard will present a paper on "President Roosevelt's Defense of Democracy," and Clarence Hamilton, president of the local club is to present a paper on "Future of the League of Nations," at round table discussions.

Those planning to attend from W. T. are Ernest Ragle, Robert Dillard, Claude Farley, Kenneth Walters, Clarence Hamilton, Helen Lyles, Bill Cone, Prof. and Mrs. S. H. Condon, Prof. Coffee, and Dr. A. M. Meyer.

Two Orders of Senior Rings Now In Book Store

The first two orders of senior rings have arrived and are now available at the Bookstore. The third order should be available by the last of the month. Twenty-six rings, including three 1936 rings, have been ordered.

An order is sent when six people order rings.

There are three types of rings: solid gold at $14 and $19.75 for medium and heavy weights respectively; gold-case at $12.45 and $16.50 for medium and heavyweight respectively; and gold overlaid at $10.50 and $14.

Prof. S. H. Condon spoke at a meeting of Moore County teachers at Dumas Thursday night.

Press Club Program Proves Popular With Student Body

To avoid the accusation that the Press Club used its influence over the news writeups of the assembly programs, a feature writer was assigned to the story of Tuesday's assembly program to gather a person-to-person opinion of the type of entertainment offered. It was the duty of this enterprising young writer to gather data, material, and opinion, resulting from this assembly.

The impression that was found to be on the minds of most of the enforced attendants of assembly are summed up in the following excerpts from talks of the persons interviewed: "It was one of the best programs of the year, I believe," from a junior who is in the habit of sleeping most of the time, but who stayed awake this time because of the fact that his next door neighbor snored too loudly.

"A most entertaining and diverting program, far from the ordinary type of deadening monologue that is shoveled into our laps," from a senior who says he has seen and heard almost every type of program offered since he first was compelled to attend chapel twice a week.

"It would have been excellent if it hadn't been presented in assembly,

Panhandle Players To Give Two Presentations of Drama

W. T. Graduate Writes Article For Music Magazine

Travis B. Shaw, Jr., graduate of 1929 and band director of the Hobbs, N. M. High School Band, is author of "Modern Trends in the Organization and Direction of Public School Bands," which appeared in the January issue of The School Musician.

"The first important step in the organization of a public school band is the selling of the music idea to those concerned, and, when I say those concerned, I mean the director, the child, the community, and the school," the author said. Further in the article he added that the director was the first person to whom the idea must be sold.

The article was based on material gathered for Mr. Shaw's M. A. degree.

Material in the article was first presented to the Music Teachers Association of New Mexico in an address by Mr. Shaw.

Charles L. Rose, an ex-student, has been elected superintendent of schools at Tucuman, N. M., to succeed R. J. Mullins, resigned.

Author Writes Long Letter Showing Interest In Plans

"Moor Born" by Dan Totheroh will be presented Thursday and Friday evenings by the Panhandle Players in the auditorium of the Education Building at 8 o'clock.

Plans for the production of this five-act drama were so interesting to Totheroh, author of the play, that he wrote a long letter to a member of the cast. In this letter he said, "You asked me if it is my favorite piece of work—well, I suppose it is."

Another interesting excerpt from Mr. Totheroh's letter follows:

"I had a very thrilling experience this summer. After dreaming about it for years, I had the opportunity of going to England and motoring into the Bronte country and into Haworth itself. There, in the Bronte parsonage I stumbled upon copies of my play and many photographs of the New York production, enshrined forever in the room where the Brontes spent so much of their eager lives. It was doubly thrilling because I knew nothing about this honor accorded to me and stumbled upon it out of a clear sky."

The drama deals with the tragic life of the remarkable Bronte family as they lived in the vicarage in Haworth. In 1845 Charlotte returned from Europe to find the family greatly distressed over the behavior of their son and brother, Branwell. Genius as he was, he so completely permitted liquor and opiate to weaken his mind and unsteady his nerves that he became little more than a tarnished frame of his former self. His only support and sympathy came from

Cook Speaks at Meeting of WPA Adult Teachers

Dr. Harris M. Cook, Dean of Men, was the principal speaker at a meeting Saturday morning of the teachers who are serving in the WPA Emergency Adult Education division at Amarillo.

All teachers in this division were present. These teachers meet every two weeks for talks from various educators and social workers. An all-day session is held with open forum discussions following the addresses.

"I think that some form of adult education will be carried on after this relief education program is discontinued," Dr. Cook asserted.

Prof. S. H. Condon spoke to the group two weeks ago.

A number of W. T. ex-students are teaching in this field at Amarillo.

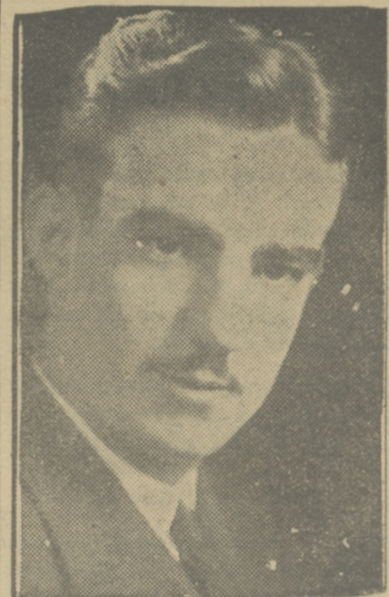

Speaker Is Author of Famed Washburne Plan of Education

Paul Weaver To Give Two Talks Here Thursday

Paul Weaver, professor of philosophy at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., will appear here for two lectures Thursday.

The first lecture will be delivered at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, and the other at 3:30 that afternoon.

Mr. Weaver was a speaker here on a similar program last year.

He is being brought back by the Y. W. C. A., the group responsible for his former appearance.

Weaver has been the Director of Summer Education for the Congregational Board of Education in Utah, and was active in young people's leadership work in North Dakota for one summer. He went to Stephens College in 1934 where he teaches philosophy and religion and directs the religious education program. Burrall Class, which Mr. Weaver teaches, has had an average attendance of 1300 this year.

Last year Weaver lectured at the University of Oklahoma, Drury College, Texas Tech, Texas Christian College, Texas College for Women, Sam Houston State Teachers College, Oklahoma City University, Iowa State College, and Missouri State Teachers College.

Toby Waggoner Chosen President Buffalo T Club

Toby Waggoner, two year letterman at an end post, was elected president of the Buffalo T Club at a meeting of varsity lettermen Thursday.

This meeting marked the resumption of the T Club which has not operated for two years. Those athletes who have lettered in any West Texas varsity athletics are eligible for membership. The club was reorganized for the purpose of stimulating a stronger feeling of friendliness among members of today's athletes and those of former years.

Other officers of the organization elected at the meeting were: vice-president, Leo Jackson; secretary, Joe Hayes; sergeant-at-arms, George Caviness. Present members of the club exclusive of the officers are Ezell Champion, Vernon Johnson, Darrell Hemphill, Lawrence Clark and Glyndon Riley. Coach Al Baggett, an honorary member, is the sponsor.

PROFESSORS JUDGE PLAYS

Dr. B. F. Fronabarger, Prof. J. M. Logue, and J. C. Baker judged one-act plays at Vega High School Thursday night. The Vega play, directed by Fern Landers, a former student, won in the contest.

The group visited in the Wildorado schools Thursday afternoon.

W. D. Mateer, who is on leave of absence from the Demonstration School, visited here this week end. He is doing graduate work at the University of Oklahoma. Mrs. Mateer has recently been elected to a position teaching physical education in the Oklahoma City Schools.

Miss Hellen Hickman together with H. G. Moore of the Canyon Public Schools, and Ben Guill of Pampa, judged a play contest between Amarillo Junior College and Wayland Junior College at Amarillo Friday night.

Schools of Region To Be Dismissed Friday For Meet

Foremost among the speakers for the Annual convention of the Northwest Texas Conference for Education held here March 12-13, is Dr. Carleton Washburne, nationally-known educator who has made remarkable progress in re-organization of schools to allow for adaptation to individual differences in pupils.

Dr. Washburne has conducted extensive research in school administration, curriculum, and teaching methods, and has applied his discoveries to the schools of Winnetka, Ill. public schools where he is superintendent.

Indications are that more than 3,000 educators, trustees, and school patrons will attend the convention. Schools over the entire section will be dismissed Friday in order to permit teachers to attend the first day of the convention.

The largest and most varied program in the history of the organization has been arranged. Special features have been arranged for school trustees and laymen as well as for the educators.

Six new special section meetings have been planned to care for the interests and problems of virtually every group concerned with education. New section meetings include gatherings for teachers of science, speech, English, foreign languages, mathematics and commercial subjects as well as sectional discussions for school principals, school administrators and trustees.

Musical features of an unusual quality will be given throughout the program. Musical organizations having a part in the two-day meeting will play at the opening

Senate Slashes Emergency Fund Appropriation

Joint Committee Must Consider Amount Next

The Senate Committee on Appropriations scaled an emergency appropriation fund for W. T. down to approximately $27,000 last week. The House Committee had approved a fund of $33,866 a short time before.

Dr. J. A. Hill had requested an emergency fund to complete unfinished WPA projects on the campus, for general maintenance of the College plant, and for salaries of College employees paid from the local fund. He originally asked for $42,944, but this was not approved in the House.

The emergency fund appropriation will be referred to joint committee for final consideration.

The House Committee on Appropriations has approved an appropriation of $19,740 for the coming session. "This sum is approximately $5,000 more than the amount which we had last summer," Dr. Hill commented.

The regular budget for the next biennium will be taken up about the middle of March, according to Dr. Hill.

Dr. and Mrs. Hill attended the convention of the American Association of Teachers Colleges, a branch of the National Education Association, at New Orleans February 19 and 20. This convention was composed of representatives from all over the United States and the program was national in scope.

President and Mrs. C. E. Evans of Southwest Texas State Teachers College at San Marcos accompanied Dr. and Mrs. Hill to New Orleans.

Dr. Hill left Sunday for Austin where he will appear before the Education Committee of the House in the matter of graduate work offered here.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Dodgen have announced the birth of a daughter, Rose Carolyn, on February 21.

"IF YOU DRIVE, DON'T DRINK—"

Signs recently posted by the Texas Highway Department should call to the attention of every motorist, the dangers of driving an automobile while intoxicated.

Most drivers are, figuratively speaking, taking their lives in their own hands when they slide under the wheel, drive out on the highway, and start for their destination. With the high death toll resulting each year from auto accidents, it has reached the point that the average autoist cannot be at all assured that he will reach that destination, even under the most auspicious circumstances. Add to this a certain amount of alcoholic drink and the chance is considerably decreased.

It is not as though the intoxicated driver had only his personal safety to consider. The occupants of every car he meets are potential victims of his carelessness and may be picked up from the roadside or extricated from the smashed remains of their own machine and rushed away to the hospital to spend weeks of useless suffering—if they survive.

Just north of the viaduct on the Canyon-Amarillo highway stands one of these signs put up by the Highway Department: "If you drive, don't drink—If you drink, don't drive."

Remember this next time.

Hairbrained Headline: FAMOUS MAGICIAN TO PERFORM ON CAMPUS FRIDAY NIGHT. We wonder what he is going to do to it—make it disappear? If he could take it and put it in his hat with the rabbits, that would be a good thing; or better still, if he could say "Hocus pocus, rotten tomatoes," and transfer it to some place about 20,000 feet beneath the sea.

POME

There's a song in my heart,
But a lump in my throat
Makes each word, when I start,
Become oddly remote.
Fine, says us; the remoter, the better.

"The difference in the old time doctor and the modern educated medico," growls some squaw in the McMurtry War Whoop, "is that it cost more to be told in Latin that you had the belly-ache."

The Round-Up tells us that a fella rushed into the Military Ball of the college late one Saturday night with a sheepish look and a face all besmirched with red. Upon questioning, he vehemently denied that the stain came from what the general trend of thought would suggest. He tried to cover up his shame with a statement that the red came from indulging in "red-hot," but it seems that the boys didn't believe him. In our opinion, however, they're a bunch of saps, because the chances are that the guy really had been indulging in er—ah—redhots.

Famous last words: "You do a lot of talking, fella, for somebody who's got so much to keep quiet about—"

"As near as we can figure it out," confides the Trinitonian, "debaters are somewhat akin to professors—the more hot air they spill, the better off they are. However, as one of our staff members remarked, to be a debater one usually has to know what he is talking about."

What would you do about it? Your press correspondent has heard of and forgiven applications for lost articles from brass buttons to stolen cattle, but have you ever lost your wife?

Rev. Gordon MacInnis of White Deer has.

This is not a springtime fancy, neither is it an advertisement of a wrestling match. It is stark tragedy.

Mr. MacInnis honestly has lost his better half and is now working heroically to get her back.

Maybe I should explain. Here are the exasperating, aggravating, frustrating facts:

Mrs. MacInnis was born in Canada; she is not a naturalized citizen of the United States. Mr. MacInnis is. Or did you know that under our touted Constitution one doesn't become a citizen of the United States by marriage?

A short time ago, Mrs. MacInnis returned to Canada for a visit, but here's the catch: she lost her visa—passport to you. Now she can neither remain in Canada nor can

"The funny thing about it," Mr. MacInnis says, "is I can have the baby—yes, there is an heir—but I can't get my wife back."

For Digestion's Sake—Smoke Camels

Smoking Camels, you enjoy a sense of greater ease while you're eating, and afterwards too!

WHAT Fred McDaniel (below) says about Camels is backed up 100% by baseball's "Iron Man," Lou Gehrig—by Frank Buck, of "Bring 'Em Back Alive" fame—by Eleanor Tennant, the outstanding woman tennis coach of the U.S.—and by millions of other Camel smokers in all walks of life. Enjoy Camels at every meal. They speed up the flow of digestive fluids. Increase alkalinity. Help you enjoy food. Camels set you right! They're the cigarette for steady smoking. Light up a Camel and get a "lift."

"AFTER RIDING HERD from sun-up to sun-down, the chuck-wagon looks mighty good to me," says Fred McDaniel (above, also right). "But I'm sure I wouldn't enjoy my 'chuck' half as much without the pleasure I get from smoking Camels with my meals and afterwards. After a good meal and Camels I feel plenty O.K. Camels set me right! They're throat-easy, and they never get on my nerves."

Copyright, 1937, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.

TEDIOUS STUDIES tend to drag on the nerves, often penalizing digestion. But Camels help in two specific ways: You get a "lift" in energy with a Camel. Again, smoking Camels with your meals and afterwards helps digestion run along smoothly. And Camels don't get on your nerves or tire your taste. Camels are mild!

BUSY SECRETARY. "I smoke Camels—nothing else!" says Josephine Libby. "Camels put more fun into eating and smoking too. So many girls feel the same way that I do—so they smoke Camels."

Randall Hall Entertains With Dinner Dance

Transfer 180 college students to the streets of Gay Paree and what do you have?—adventure and romance galore! That's what happened Saturday night when Randall Hall entertained with a dinner dance and theatre party.

Dinner was served under the silver and blue of a Parisian night. Blue tapers in silver holders lighted each table. The only other illumination was the street lights with their silver columns and blue skyline. Place cards showed a silver pent house garden overlooking a blue skyline. White sweet peas in blue vases formed the centerpiece of each table. Lighted windows along the streets showed the French signs and Parisian wares of a dress shop, a perfume store, and an art shop. Slow, soft music was played during the dinner hour.

Mrs. Nancy McCaslin introduced Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Jarrett, Mr. and Mrs. Harris M. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Shaw, and Miss Edna Graham who were special guests.

Miss Lelia Cooper, president of the Hall, welcomed the guests to Paris.

Later in the evening Miss Inez Storey, vice-president of the Hall, congratulated Randall's fourteen seniors on their accomplishments and presented them to the group. Miss Helen Helton gave the response for the Seniors.

After dinner those who preferred the theatre to dancing went to the Olympic Theatre to see "Dangerous Number." The others remained to spend the evening dancing beneath the starry Parisian sky surrounded by the glittering blue and silver crests of the fleur de lis.

DELTA KAPPA GAMMA MEETS IN AMARILLO

The Delta Kappa Gamma met Friday evening for a banquet in the Red Room of the Amarillo Hotel in Amarillo. The spirit of Texas Independence Day was emphasized in the T-shaped table decorated with a center piece of Texas bluebonnets and red, white, and blue candles. Favors were tiny blue bonnets.

Miss Bertie Warren of Amarillo presided over a short business meeting followed by talks by Mrs. W. S. Fahrner and Dr. Ruth Ward. Mrs. Fahrner's talk on "Teacher Tenure" gave definite reasons why Texas should adopt tenure laws comparable to other states.

Dr. Ward spoke on "Equal Opportunity for Women," calling attention to the various fields now open to women in comparison to those of previous years.

Members attending were: Misses Bertie Warren, Ethel Jackson, Maggie Arent, Helen Worley, Annie

McDonald, Anna Mae Klapproth, Una Brooks, Ola Boyles, Orlene Clinkscales, Irene Bourland, Margaret Boulware, Elizabeth Nixon, Blanche Davidson, Maude Fletcher, Gladys Armstrong, Cella Jenkins, Ruth Boaz, Edna Graham, Anna I. Hibbets, Darthula Walker, Ada V. Clark, Hattie M. Anderson, Tennessee Malone.

Mesdames Laura B. Saunders, Agnes Smith, Carroll Souther, Daisy Person, Frances Craig, Geris Taylor, Ruth Delzell, Ruth Ward, W. S. Fahrner, and Amy M. Jackson.

MRS. HALES IS HONOREE OF VARIOUS SHOWERS

Honoring Mrs. R. P. Hales, formerly Miss Phyllis Bryant of Canyon, an ex-student of 1933, a bridal shower was given Saturday night of last week by Mrs. Lawrence Shuman, assisted by her daughter, Mildred.

Decorations were done in crepe paper and a two-tier wedding cake. Six hidden alarm clocks going off at 5 minute intervals led the bride to the various groups of gifts.

A refreshment plate of pink ice cream, angel food cake, and pink and white mints were served by the hostesses.

Another affair was given Wednesday evening; Misses Robble and Ruby Foster acted as hostesses for a bridal shower given for Mrs. Hales by a group of her friends.

The honoree found her gifts as a reward for a correctly answered question. An arrangement of cords led her to the gifts.

A color scheme of yellow and green was carried out in the decorations and refreshments.

Those attending were Mrs. Hales, honoree, and Misses Clea Cope, Thelma Bryant, Kathleen Wright, Beulah Brasuel, Lorene Bessire, Rena Johnson, Edith Berry, Helen Elizabeth Bowman, Mildred Shuman, and the hostesses.

Mrs. Carl Hales of Amarillo, aunt of the groom, also entertained Mrs. Hales with a shower given in her honor in Amarillo last Friday night.

UNIVERSITY EXES WILL BANQUET AT ROSE BOWL

The annual banquet of the ex-students of the University of Texas will be held at the Rose Bowl Tea Room tonight at 7 o'clock. March 2 is Texas Independence Day and also University of Texas Day.

Plans have been made for an excellent dinner, an entertaining program, and no speakers. Banquets of the University of Texas are held all over the world on March 2 wherever there are as many as two ex-students.

Those planning to attend from Canyon are: Misses Agnes Charlton, Mary Moss Richardson, Helen Lyles, Mrs. Travis Shaw, Mrs. Tommie Montfort, B. F. Fronbarger, J. M. Logue, Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Carroll, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Neblett, L. G. Allen, Larry Holman, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hazlewood.

SEAY, BYERS NUPTIALS READ IN AMARILLO

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Margaret Seay, daughter of Mrs. T. Seay, and an ex-student of 1936, to Wayne E. Byers of Amarillo.

The nuptial vows were read Tuesday evening in the parsonage of the Polk Street Methodist Church with Dr. C. C. Grimes officiating.

The couple was accompanied by the bride's mother and Wilbur Spann, fraternity brother of the bridegroom.

The bride wore a beige costume suit with brown accessories. Mrs. Byers attended the Training School and majored in primary education here. She was a member of the Elaphean Society and is now employed at the Ladies Store in Amarillo.

Mr. Byers attended Hardin-Simmons University and is now associated with the Elliott-Greer Office Supply Co. He is a member of Theta Chi Theta fraternity.

The couple is at home at 1018 Fillmore Street.

SHIRLEY SPEAKS TO BUFFONEERS

The Stafford Hall Buffoneers met in their regular bi-monthly meeting Wednesday evening. After a short business meeting, President Thomas Newell presented D. A. Shirley, registrar of the college, who spoke on "Culture and its Development."

By illustrations of nature Mr. Shirley explained how man has developed plants through culture. In reference to the culture of man himself it was said that a cultured man may indulge in smoking and chewing gum provided that these acts are not objected to by society, for as Mr. Shirley said, "A refined man has had taken out of him those things that are offensive to a group." He further defined his theme by stating that "Culture is connected with morality."

A. A. U. W. MEET AT COUSINS HALL

Members of the American Association of University Women met Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Cousins Hall for their regular meeting.

The Canyon branch of the A. A. U. W. has received a call to the 10th National Convention of the Association on March 15-18, which will be held in Savannah, Ga., with the Georgia division and the Savannah branch as hostess groups.

The convention will focus its attention on the theme of Education: "The Foundation for Social Organization." The program committee has secured a list of distinguished speakers for the convention.

TRI-TAU PRESENTS NEW MEMBERS

Formal presentation was held Friday afternoon for the new members of Tri-Tau, boys' social organization, at a tea in Cousins Hall.

Those present were: Fred Balderston, Dean Story, Meredith Warren, Leo Duflo, J. B. Dotson, W. J. Hill, Key Dunlap, Herbert Boardman, Darrell Hemphill, Raymond Raillard, and John Sims.

Jack Pate, a new member, was recently injured in an automobile accident and was unable to attend.

Mrs. L. F. Sheffy and Mrs. J. M. Logue presided at the tea table. J. M. Logue and Leon Lassars are faculty sponsors of the organization.

CLARK AND JARRETT HONOR REAMS AT TEA

An afternoon tea, attractive in detail, was given yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wallace R. Clark, with Mrs. C. H. Jarrett and Mrs. Clark acting as hostesses.

Mrs. M. J. Reams of Pittsburgh, Pa., who is visiting here, was honor guest for the occasion. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Terrill and is an ex-student of West Texas.

Between forty-five and fifty invited guests called during the afternoon to visit Mrs. Reams.

MISS COX ENTERTAINS WITH MONOPOLY PARTY

Miss Elizabeth Cox entertained the members and pledges of Kappa Omicron Phi with a monopoly party at her home Tuesday evening.

Those present were Misses Dorothy Maples, Louise Evans, Faye Cook, Edith Berry, Sybil Gidden, Carolyn Dixon, Mamie Carol Smith, Pauline Matthews, Sophie Smith, Joyce Womble, Evelyn Vise, Mary Strain, Anna Mohler, and Mrs. Jim Mae Coy, Mrs. Mary Alice Weed, and Miss Orpa Dennis, Miss Fern Bowman, and the hostess.

MISS LOWES REVIEWS "WAKE UP AND LIVE"

Miss Ruth Lowes gave the "Y" girls a "stimulant for spring," when she reviewed Dorothea Brandt's book, "Wake Up and Live," at their last meeting.

The relation of "Wake Up and Live" to religion, the current Y. W. C. A. study unit, was discussed by the girls following the book review.

ALL COLLEGE DANCE HELD AT COUSINS

With the co-eds of West Texas making their dates and entertaining their escorts for a change, the all-college dance of last week was held as a girls' tag. The group met from 8 o'clock until 11 o'clock in the ball-room of Cousins Hall.

Music was provided by the nickelodeon, and punch was served at dance intermissions.

Hilliard Fatheree, an ex-student of the pre-war period has just been elected assistant superintendent of the Abilene Public Schools.

says: "Luckies are considerate of my throat"

"Two Southern traditions are oratory — and good tobacco. Lucky Strike shows me how to indulge in both. For this light smoke not only pleases my taste but leaves my throat in condition. Last fall in North Carolina—when I made over 100 speeches—I visited the Lucky Strike factory. I believe I discovered, in the Lucky Strike 'Toasting' process, the secret of what makes this cigarette so considerate of my throat. I have been more than ever an advocate of a light smoke since seeing the extra care and expense devoted to making Luckies easy on the throat."

Coach Baggett has slightly revised his cage squad since their disastrous tour of south Texas two weeks ago. Ben Arthur, 6 ft. 7 in. hoopster, has been removed from sub-center to a forward slot, and apparently he has won a starting post from Joe Hayes and Craig Walling, who have been dividing time at the position. Arthur, who has been a victim of inertia most of the season, was given a chance to illustrate his abilities against the Sul Ross Lobos and he came through in grand style.

This change in positions will give the Buffs a trio of sophomore giant running mates working under their offensive goal. Raymond Shackelford, 6 ft. 8½ inches, and Lother Stephenson, 6 ft. 6½ inches, are the other two "men mountains," and they have monopolized their positions during the entire year.

If the above combination clicks with the precision that I think it will, the Baggettmen will add both games of this final series of the year in Burton Gym to their home court record.

Catfish Smith's Cardinals from Carey are probably the cockiest squad of high school cagers that ever ventured onto a maple floor. Whether or not this quality had any influence in their bowling over all competition Friday and Saturday in Burton Gym to win the Region No. 1, cannot be definitely ascertained, but in the opinion of this writer, the superiority confidence, that was illustrated in the tourney by them was doubtless one of deciding factors between triumph and defeat.

I cannot help but admire the sincerity they showed in confi-

Bufs Trounce Hillbillies In Game Here Last Night

Baggettmen Play Last Home Engagement Tonight

West Texas' last two-game series was started last night in a free-for-all conflict that saw the Buffaloes shell out a clean 40-29 win over the Daniel Baker Hillbillies last night. Shackelford, stellar center for the Buffaloes, placed activities in the scoring column with 17 markers.

Gene Taylor's crew of Hillbillies have been knocking at the port of entry for the top rung in the Texas Conference circuit. Doped to emerge as one of the lower division clubs at the beginning of the year, Taylor has steered his hoopsters through a successful year with a fast offense built around center Davenport and forward McCurdy.

Captain Lawrence Clark, three-year letterman at a guard post, is playing his last Buffalo game in tonight's game. His determination and hustle has been one of the most compelling elements in the Buffs' success this year.

The last of the series is slated to commence tonight at 8 o'clock. Admission will be by the student activity ticket or 40c and 25c for others. Julian Masters, Arkansas, will officiate.

dence of their teammates. They believed in Foust, their star and leading scorer, and evidently he already knew he was good.

These cagers will be strong contenders for the state school boy crown March 5 and 6, and they may come back with the trophy.

Mat Teams Win First Meet From Roswell Cadets

West Texas State's boxing and wrestling teams initiated the year's ring hostilities by dumping the Cadets of New Mexico Military Institute 24-16 in Cahoon Armory in Roswell, last Monday.

In the wrestling division, the locals collected all of their points when they lost only one bout by a time decision and another by a default. All of the boxing bouts were decided in favor of the Institute.

Leo Jackson and Monroe Horton supplied the fireworks of the evening, subsequent to their triumphs in wrestling, by fighting in the heavyweight and 175 pound classes to fill the boxing card. In his loss to Hebenstreit, Horton's seconds were urged to pitch in the towel in the second round. Jackson sustained the bombardment of rights from the fiery mitts of Koury, Institute slugger, for a round.

as it appeared during those three dreadful years.

In the cast are: Emily Bronte, Sarah Ellen Foster, McLean; Charlotte Bronte, Linnett Cain, Canyon; Anne Bronte, Helen Boswell, Memphis; Branwell Bronte, Lawrence McBee, Pampa; Rev. Patrick Bronte, Thomas H. Newell, Canyon; Tabby, Audrey Price, Bellview, N. M.; Martha, Ione Potter, White Deer.

The costumes are being designed and made by Mrs. E. A. Rowley of Amarillo Little Theatre; Forest stage and property managers, while Wilhelmina Cleek and Laura Pul-Fry and Weldon Dodson are the len are the assistants to Miss Brown in the directing. Leon Lassers, of the Speech department, and Miss Isabel Robinson of the Art department are also assisting in an advisory capacity.

Admission to the play is 25c.

Intramural Cage Finals Slated To Commence Friday

Finals in the intramural cage tourney are slated to begin Friday night between the four top ranking teams, and according to intramural director, Mitchell Jones, the concluding contest will be double elimination, and the final victor will be selected Monday.

The Hillbillies, Farm A, and Epsilon Beta are assured of berths in the final classics. The winner of the last tussle in the preliminary tourney between Alpha Sigma Xi and the Ex-Eagles will be the fourth entry.

The only game played last week was a big upset when Bomar Brown's Hillbillies triumphed over the Alpha Sigma Xi 22-20. This victory and two forfeits places the Hillbillies into the deciding tourney undefeated.

Carey Is Victor In Regional Cage Elimination Meet

Carey's "tallying twins," Foust and Redwine, were partially checked by the rushing defense of the vigilant Meadow cagers in Burton Gymnasium Saturday night, but not enough as the Carey hoopsters reappeared as champions of this region by a 26-23 win.

By virtue of the triumph, the Cardinals will represent this territory in the state schoolboy cage meet in College Station, March 5 and 6. Last year, the Redberds pranced into the semi-finals where they were halted by Cushing, the champions.

In the final fray, Foust and Finley, the tournament's high scorers gave way to "Sleepy" Redwine in the scoring column. Redwine hit the mesh for nine markers, followed by the leaders who hit for eight each.

Canyon High, one of the favored clubs, was ousted from the meet by respective losses of 29-27, 36-27 to Meadow. Perryton, representative of the Pampa district, was defeated by Carey and Canyon to be the first team eliminated.

An all-tournament team selected by officials placed Hunt, Foust, Gresham of Carey and Finley and Murphy of Meadow in the honorary positions. Finley led the scoring with 37 points. Gresham of Carey was chosen as the most valuable player to his team.

SPEAKER—

(Continued from first page) of the general sessions in the following order, Amarillo High School Band, W. T. Band, Pampa High School Band, Amarillo Philharmonic Orchestra, and a choral concert will be given by 200 high school boys and girls at the opening of the final session.

Luncheons for the following groups will be held Friday at noon; instructors of commercial subjects at Cousins Hall; Parent-Teachers, at Randall Hall, and administrators at the Home Economics dining room.

A dance for all conference visitors will be given in the recreation room of Cousins Hall from 6 to 7:15 o'clock Friday evening, March 12. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Pampa Orchestra.

I. B. Carruth, president of the organization, received word yesterday from Ghent Sanderford, president of the state board of education, who was scheduled to speak on the program, that he would be unable to attend the meeting. James O. Guleke of Amarillo, a member of the state board, will replace Sanderford on the program.

Other noted speakers are Dr. Harold C. Hand, professor of education in Leland Stanford University, W. A. Stigler, co-director of curriculum in the state department of education; Miss Edgar Ellen Wilson, assistant state superintendent of Education; and Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, president of the 8th District Texas Congress of Parent-Teachers.

Dr. Washburne will give one of the principal addresses of the opening session of "Adjusting the School to the Child." He is the author of a book on this subject.
