

NATIONAL Y. W. SECRETARY TO VISIT CAMPUS

FERN BABCOCK WILL CONFER WITH LOCAL GROUP THIS WEEK.

On Thursday and Friday of this week, Dec. 4th and 5th, the local Y. W. C. A. will have as its guest, Miss Fern Babcock, National Student Secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association.

Miss Babcock, whose headquarters are in St. Louis, serves as an adviser to student organizations in five of the southwestern states, Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, and Oklahoma, and it is in this capacity that she comes to meet with the local organization this week. During her visit here she will have conferences with not only the cabinet and the advisory committee, but with the entire membership of the Y. W. C. A. in an attempt to suggest materials and methods for better carrying out the purpose of the Association.

Miss Babcock's varied relationship with the Young Women's Christian Association during the past few years have served well to fit her for the position which she now holds. After her graduation from the Kansas State Teachers' College of Pittsburg, Kansas, in 1925, she served for three years as the general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the University of Arkansas. She studied at Teachers College, Columbia University, during the winter of 1928-29 and began traveling in the Southwest in September, 1929. As an undergraduate she was sent as a delegate from the National Student Council of the Y. W. C. A. to the general committee meeting of the World Student Christian Federation in High Leigh, England.

Miss Babcock will not be a stranger on the W. T. campus. She was a guest of the local Y. W. C. A. last year, and her return will be welcomed by faculty and students.

Thursday and Friday mornings Miss Babcock will devote to individual conferences with students. On Thursday afternoon at 4:30 she will meet with the Y. W. C. A. Assembly in room 113E. It is possible that on Friday afternoon a social will be arranged in her honor, to which all students and faculty will be invited. Concerning this feature of the two days' program a more definite announcement will be made from the bulletin board later.

State Legislator From Kingsville Verifies Rumors

While on his vacation trip over the state last week, Ed Dunlap, member of the state legislature from Kingsville, visited the college plant here, stating that he had heard so often of it that he was curious to see it for himself.

Mr. Dunlap is closely associated with the teachers college at Kingsville, and is intimately acquainted with its president, R. B. Cousins, who was the first president of W. T.

Leola Hayes spent Thanksgiving week with her parents at Portales, New Mexico.

Mrs. Agnes Smith, matron of Randall Hall, visited in Littlefield, over the Thanksgiving holidays.

1930 Annual Bonfire Pile is Burned To Ground Early Wednesday Afternoon; Foraging Crew Rises to Emergency Call

To the great but temporary consternation of those who had participated in its building and of those who were eagerly looking forward to the annual Thanksgiving bonfire rally, the old lumber gathered by W. T. boys Tuesday night and piled on the vacant block west of the highway and north of Third avenue, was burned to the ground Wednesday afternoon nearly four hours ahead of schedule, set off by the unlawful machinations of unknown persons.

Responding to the call issued by Winston Savage, sophomore class president and chief of the bonfire gang, in chapel last Tuesday morning, a great majority of the men of the college gathered at The Buffalo Tuesday evening to go from there on the annual hunt for wood to build the bonfire, which every year heralds the Thanksgiving football game.

Several hours work resulted in the completion of a large pile of waste wood gathered by the men from the vicinity of Canyon. The erection was witnessed by a large crowd of co-eds, who furnished

Ex-student, Carola Hettler, Sends Mr. Duflo Clipping

Early last week J. L. Duflo, head of the sociology department, received an article entitled "What Will Future Man be Like," clipped from the San Francisco Examiner, and sent to him by Mrs. Clint Faulkner, formerly Miss Carola Hettler, an ex-student and e-yell leader of W. T.

Accompanying the clipping, Mrs. Faulkner has written, in part, the following communication to Mr. Duflo and her W. T. acquaintances: "I am living in San Francisco. This is a fine country. Give my love to my Alma Mater and its workers. I'm still strong for the Buffaloes. Glad they beat Tech again this year. You lead a yell for me in chapel for them."

College To Give Radio Program On Friday Evening

W. T. will be on the air Friday night, December 5 for the first time this fall.

A program featuring the music and speech department of the college has been arranged for 9 to 10 o'clock over KGRS, Amarillo. The college orchestra under the direction of Wallace R. Clark, a short dramatic number under the direction of C. W. Batchelder, and solo numbers by Miss Margaret Justice, violinist, and Robert Berryhill, pianist, will be special features.

Panhandle musicians are especially interested in the first appearance of Mr. Berryhill, whose radio programs are well known and have been exceedingly well received out of Austin, and Phoenix, Arizona.

Resolution of Appreciation Sent by McLean School

The following resolution from the McLean High School classes was recently sent to The Prairie for publication:

In as much as Dr. J. A. Hill has taken his time to come to McLean to speak to the student body and organizations of the town, we the undersigned, in behalf of our classes, wish to express our appreciation to him, as well as to Mr. L. N. George, and the quartette for their kindness.

Signed,
FRED DURHAM,
Senior Class President.
M. H. KINARD,
Junior Class President.
SARAH ELLEN FOSTER,
Sophomore Class President.
CHRISTAL CHRISTIAN,
Freshman Class President.

Such communications as this are evidences of the great work being done by the workers in W. T. in the wide fields offered by the many high schools throughout the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Day of Plainview, and their two daughters visited with Miss Jennie C. Ritchie, Sunday, Nov. 16. Mr. Day, who is an ex-student of the college here, is a lawyer in Plainview.

Mrs. Minnie Bonds, W. T. High School graduate with the class of '30, visited the campus Saturday. She is teaching in District No. 10 of Randall County this year.

BUFFALOES DEFEAT McMURRY INDIANS FOR FIRST TIME IN FOOTBALL HISTORY OF W. T.

W. T. CAPTURES SECOND PLACE IN T. I. A. A.

VICTORY OVER McMURRY WINS RUNNER-UP TITLE FOR BUFFALOES.

Results of Thanksgiving games in the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association served only to definitely decide several disputed positions in the final standings column of games won and lost. The principal position disputed was second place and the West Texas Teachers by virtue of their 6 to 3 victory over McMurry in Canyon Thursday, took undisputed possession of the runner-up place of Sam Houston, the 1930 champions, who closed their season last Monday with a 20 to 0 victory over Stephen F. Austin at Huntsville.

The Canyon victory enabled the Buffaloes to finish the current grid campaign with a record of four games won, no defeats and only one tie game to mar their record. North Texas with four victories and one defeat takes third place, while the Southwest Texas Bobcats unofficial 929 champions, grab fourth place with a record of three victories, one defeat and one tie.

Daniel Baker and Abilene Christian College staged their annual battle Thanksgiving in Abilene with nothing in particular at stake other than the desire to defeat an old enemy. The Hill Billies copped the decision, 7 to 6 and finished the season with a record of two victories, two defeats and two tie games.

Final Standing in T.I.A.A.:

C. W. Batchelder Is To Take Role In Club Production

Due to the intervention of the Thanksgiving holidays, the regular Dramatics Club program was not held last week, but will be held this Thursday with a play under the direction of Hatcher Brown, "The Flattering Word," being presented. A leading role in this play is taken by C. W. Batchelder of the dramatic department faculty.

"The Flattering Word" may be familiar to some of those now in W. T., having been given several years ago by the members of the faculty in open production. The version to be given Thursday is a cutting of the original play, and is only about thirty minutes long, while the entire play is forty-five or fifty minutes in length.

Others who are in the cast for the production Thursday are Robert Jarrett, Ruth Dellis, Mildred Dadds, and Beth Pitts.

"The Flattering Word" was written by George Kelly, who is a popular writer of comedies. It is a play in one act.

Many Randall Hall Girls Go Home On Thanksgiving Day

Most of the girls from Randall Hall, according to the following list, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at their homes or visiting elsewhere.

Those out of Canyon during the time were Mildred Pepple, Zena Gierhart, Pearl Bice, Mary Jo Gates, Reba Woods, Rowena Ewing, Glenna Collins, Irene Halle, Bertha Paltenghe, Frances Trammell, Greta Mae Cayton, Louise Douglas, Toot Atkinson, Mildred Dadds, Mildred Cloyd, Clem Embry, Hazel McClure, Mattie Mae McMaster, Syble McMaster, Lillian Cook, Frances Lester, Lela Phillips, Jewell Abernathy, Florence Throckmorton, Mary Martin, Ruth Watson, Inez Allen, Celeste Watson, Lottie Eva Clay, Ima Merle Cooper.

Mrs. Smith and Dick spent the holidays in Littlefield visiting her daughter, Mrs. Everett Whicker.

Miss Jennie C. Ritchie, dean of the training school, spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Plainview with the Frank R. Day family. Miss Jean Day accompanied her.

For the first time in the history of football between W. T. and McMurry the Thundering Herd defeated the Indians by the slender margin of 6-3 after getting off to a tardy start at Buffalo Stadium in the Thanksgiving classic. McMurry made her lone score early in the first quarter after pushing a lethargic squad of Buffs all over the field and maneuvering into proper place to kick a field goal. In the second quarter the Buffaloes woke up to the fact that a football game was in progress and began an attack that increased steadily until the final gun. The Buffs' big moment came just as the first half ended but they failed to grasp the opportunity. The ball lacked a meagre six inches of being over the goal line just as the gun fired closing the half. Penick had, just a few minutes before, completed a beautiful pass over the goal line only to have the play called back because of an off side.

First Half

The Buffaloes kicked to McMurry's twenty and the Indians, led by Fulkerson, plunged and side-stepped down the field to the Buffs eight yard line, where Fulkerson kicked a field goal. On the next kickoff the Indians continued their aggressive play, but the Buffaloes managed to prevent their scoring and upon the opening of the second half opened their attack. McClendon intercepted an Indian pass on the Buffaloes' 20, and "Rusty" O'Donald started the fire works by breaking through the Indian line for 33 yards. The Buffs then fumbled and McMurry punted to Powell on his 30 and a 15 yard penalty increased their handicap considerably; but on the first play, Clark passed to Powell for first down. An intercepted pass halted their march for a moment but the Indians fumbled on their 23 yard line and the Herd recovered. On the next play Clark started around the end zone but changed his mind and threw a beautiful pass to Penick, who was over the line at the northeast corner but the play was called back because of an off side.

The Indians having lost their mainstay in the shape of Fulkerson who went out on account of injuries in the first quarter, could not develop enough steam to stop the Buffs, and O'Donald, Clark and Powell pushed the ball to the Indians' six inch line only to have the gun cheat them out of a cinch touchdown, and the half ended with the score 3-0 in the Indians' favor, having made 100 yards and 7 first downs to the Buffs' 45 yards and three first downs in the first round.

Second Half

The Buffaloes continued their aggressiveness and scored their

Christmas Cantata by Student Choir Will Be Dec. 14

Coming just before the beginning of the Christmas holidays, the Methodist Student choir, assisted by all others who wish to sing, are to present a short cantata entitled "Holy Night," at the Methodist Church, December 14, at 7:15 o'clock.

This cantata is an annual program sponsored by the Methodist Student choir. It has been given heretofore as an opportunity for those students who wish experience in singing, and for the pleasure of those who wish to get into the Christmas spirit through the medium of music. "Holy Night" to be given this year is a collection of Christmas anthems, arranged by a number of good composers, some of whom are listed among the old masters.

During the program, a few Biblical scenes will be enacted in tableau and pantomime, accompanied by certain Bible readings given by a special reader.

Students of all denominations are invited to partake in the singing of this cantata, which is in charge of Miss Mattie Mae Swisher, as leader of the Methodist Student Choir. Miss Swisher says that she will have space for approximately fifty voices in this year's production. Local soloists will be used.

The initial rehearsal of the entire choir was held a week ago at the Methodist Church.

The Prairie is back of everything and everybody in W. T. It appreciates those that are back of it.

Did you hear about the cat that was electrocuted? He sat down on a fruit cake and a current ran up his tail.

BUFF BASKET MEN BEGIN PRACTICE FOR '31 MONDAY

BURTON HAS RECORD OF 160 WINS IN 190 STARTS WITH BUFFALOES

Monday, December 1, Coach S. D. Burton started training his 1931 edition of Buffalo basketball.

To the uninitiated the above statement means little, but to those in the "know" it means that out of a mass of raw material, a lot of it untied high school stuff, the premier basketball coach of the southwest will, within the next three months, mold into shape a perfectly co-ordinating quintet of basketball artists that will, if precedent is worth anything, be the peer of Texas in collegiate basketball.

In the T.I.A.A. circuit Coach Burton has turned out teams that have always been the dread of the rest of the pennant contenders. In the past seven years, Burton has turned in four T. I. A. A. championships, and has been the runner-up on three other occasions. But the greatest bid to fame that the "Wonder" Coach has is the fact that out of 190 games played in the last nine years, the Buffaloes have won 160 games, an all-time national record in collegiate basketball. Furthermore, it might be of interest to the general public to know that this "Wonder" coach never played a game of basketball in his life.

But the path of glory will not be so rosy for this year's aggregation and the Buffalo mentor. Last year, five letter men finished their basketball careers. "Red" Keith, Pat Gerald, "Heck" Ward, "Dumb" Newman, and Cleve Jones. To recuperate from their loss with the material now on hand will be a tough assignment but Coach Burton thrives on adversity and it is too early in the season for pre-

Friday Night Is Date Set For "No Trespassing," Play

Those in charge of the play to be presented by the Cousins-Sesame Literary Societies, entitled "No Trespassing," report that the rehearsals which were held thru-out the Thanksgiving holidays have proved most successful, and that the play, a three-act comedy, will come off in great style Friday night of this week in the Education building auditorium.

Gordon Beck, director, and Edna Lawlis, assistant director of "No Trespassing" have expressed thorough satisfaction with the work being done by the members of the cast. According to them, some unusual character acting is being done by several in the play. Edwin Boedeker, as the Yankee farmer, Jean Herndon, in the role of a hoydenish child, D. V. Biggers, as the lead playing opposite Dorris Lynn Louder, who plays the part of the golden-haired Lisle in the story, are a few of those mentioned from among the eleven characters in the production.

Tickets to the play will be on sale this week by members of the two societies.

Hill and George Will Attend Many Exes Meeting

President J. A. Hill and L. N. George, secretary of the W. T. ex-student association, will be busy this week attending ex-student banquets.

Monday, Dec. 1st, the ex-students of Hall county met at Memphis with J. L. Gillmore of Turkey in charge of the program. President Hill and the college quartet, composed of Noel Gollehon, Eurith Compton, Emmitt Smith and Alfred Jameson, provided most of the program.

Tuesday night the Childress county exes, with Ross Buckner in charge, will have their annual get-together. The college will furnish the same program there.

After visiting at Turkey and Quitaque, the college party will attend the Briscoe county ex-student affair at Silverton Wednesday night, after which they will return to Canyon.

F. Eric Ming, popular student and track favorite of W. T., a few years ago, is superintendent of the Richland Consolidated School, Rogers, New Mexico.

Request For W. T. Catalogue Comes From Moscow

Covered with illegible Russian writing, postmarked at Moscow, and addressed merely to West Texas State Teachers College, West Texas, U. S. A., the following interesting letter was recently received by President J. A. Hill of the college:

"Dear Sir: The High Pedagogical Institute of Moscow, being interested in your work in training teachers for commercial schools, would be very thankful would you be so kind to forward us with reports and materials concerning this work.

Thanking you in anticipation,
We remain, dear sir,

W. T. Enjoys Three Day Vacation at Thanksgiving

Coming at a time most convenient to give everyone in the institution a nice breathing spell before the last intensive weeks before the Christmas vacation, and the fall quarter examinations, W. T. closed its doors from Wednesday evening until yesterday morning for Thanksgiving celebration.

The Thanksgiving recess has become an established thing in W. T., welcomed by all connected with the school. During the holidays last week many of the students and teachers went home or to the homes of friends to visit, leaving Canyon Wednesday evening and returning Sunday.

Ada V. Clark Gives Song Program for Small Children

Given Wednesday afternoon in the kindergarten room for the children of the kindergarten, and the first, second and third grades, and their teachers and practice teachers, the following vocal music program was presented by Miss Ada V. Clark, accompanied by Miss Hazel Allen at the piano. Miss Clark is head of the music department of the W. T. training school.

The first group sung by Miss Clark Wednesday consisted of the following eleven songs, the music to all of which is by Gaynor: "The Little Shoemaker," "The Sailor," "Song of the Kitchen Clock," "The Brommies," "The Giants," "Pit-a-Pat," "Blowing Bubbles," "The Froggies' Swimming School," "The Bumble Bee," "Harvest of the Squirrel and Honey Bee," and "The Land of Nod."

The concluding song, "The Cuckoo Clock" is written by Schaefer.

Miss Edna Graham, dean of women, was a guest in at the home of Ruth Watson on Thanksgiving.

Miss Ruth Cross and Mrs. Laura Saunders spent the Thanksgiving recess at their cabin "Lau Ru Ann" on the Methodist encampment grounds.

Miss Mattie Swayne spent the holidays at Grow with her parents.

"Subsidize Athletics," is Advice of Local Professor in Interview With Interested Prairie Reporter Recently

By Sally Mary Campbell
A reporter for the Prairie ventured to quiz one of our college professors on his views about college athletics. "What do you consider to be the outstanding issue regarding college sports?" asked the inquiring reporter.

Without a moment's reflection, he replied, "It is the issue of subsidizing college athletics. Judging from press reports and general discussions in academic circles, there is revealed a growing tendency to regard with suspicion the academic interests and motives of our college athletes. This question has been raised for a number of years but it was not until last year that it was given its first formal answer. It will be recalled that the Carnegie Foundation published its celebrated Bulletin 23 in which it was shown that professionalism was practiced in college sports and that among other things one out of every seven athletes was subsidized. This stimulated a more intense interest in the subject. All sorts of questions are raised about this now. Are athletes really seeking an education or do they go to college to play football? How are football boys judged in the light of the primary objectives of the college? Is it by their academic or

DRAMA GROUP PRESENTS TWO ONE-ACT PLAYS

PANHANDLE PLAYERS ARE PRAISED ON QUALITY OF PRODUCTION.

Last Tuesday evening, the Panhandle Players, the professional group of the Speech Arts Department of the College, opened its season with the production of two one-act plays, "Cash—$2000," and "The Pros and Cons", given in open program in the auditorium of the Education building. The Players are under the direction of Mary Morgan Brown, head of the speech department.

The first of the two plays presented, "Cash—$2000," concerns an impoverished couple, Bertie and Mamie Smithers, and a pair of lovers, Jennie and her fiancé, Harry Collins, the later of whom has inherited a sizeable fortune. In the course of the story, Bertie finds Harry's wallet containing two thousand dollars and is strongly tempted to keep it, but his wife prevents it, much to the joy of both, when Harry and Jennie return, married, and make their friends a present of the two thousand dollars.

In this play, Naoma Malone played the leading role, that of Mamie Smithers. Howard Batchelder, as her husband Bertie, played opposite. The roles of the lovers, Jennie and Harry, were played by Frances Lester and Gordon Beck. According to several faculty members who were in the audience, including those from the dramatic department, all the parts in "Cash—$2000" were extremely well cast, and the work done by the actors was very skillful.

Because of its comedy and its clever, compact dialogue, "Pros and Cons" seemed to be favored by the audience. To Freddie, a poet, and Brenda, his wife, married life is a path of thorns all because of the telephone, whose constant ringing plays havoc with the peace and quiet which is necessary to Freddie's poetry-writing. Mrs. Christie, Brenda's mother, and her cousin, Evangeline, also interfere, and Brenda decides to divorce Freddie. All ends happily, however. The two are reconciled and ease their minds by blaming it all on the mother and cousin, Evangeline—and the telephone.

The cast of "The Pros and Cons" consisted of Wilmouth Gamble, who played the lead, Brenda; Bob Rowan, her husband, Fred—

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION

At first thought there is a long, long gap literally and physically between a Chicago gunman and West Texas State Teachers College, but, since the United States has declared war against Chicago we have been thinking that there might be quite a bit of room for comparative thinking on the relationship between Chicago "Heisters" and college students (taken collectively, of course). If there is anything that takes the bandit complex out of the average man it is that four year course in "Watchful Waiting" so popular in all colleges. What we mean by that is, that a college course has a leveling influence on the average person, and we believe that the best remedy in the world against banditry such as exists in the "Windy City" would be sending every jack of them to college. If, after four years steady grind at various and sundry courses, that urge to go out and put somebody—usually it is anybody and nobody in particular—on the spot has not been thoroughly squelched, then they should be sent back to Chicago, where they will probably become mayor or police commissioner.—C. B. S.

TIME KILLERS IN COLLEGE

Not so very long ago we asked a certain student in W. T. just what courses he was taking and what he intended to do after he got out of college. His reply was, that he was taking "a general course" (whatever that is) "and didn't know what he wanted to do after he got his diploma." We take it that this was a very laudable reason for getting a college education, but somewhat vague. However, we know for a fact that this bewildered person was not lonesome by any means; in fact he has a lot of company. What a pity it is that so many people go through college in that same indefinite, wandering condition, and what a waste of good and valuable time that might be applied in "hewing wood and drawing water," at the same time relieving some of the congestion in the halls of learning!—C. B. S.

MUMBLES

BY THE MUMBLER

Thank Heavens, we've got Turkey Day out of the way! Now if we only had Christmas off our hands we could settle down to a life of ease and comfort. But—vipers! Then there would be the Fourth of July to make a fuss over . . . and by that time the rising passion of your young life has to up and have a birthday—so it's futile, futile, futile! Anyway, it was Thanksgiving and we presumably ate as much turkey as anybody—probably more since we horned in on two big turkey dinners instead of our customary one and as much cranberry sauce and as much pumpkin pie and as much etcetera. And we liked it all too—just as much as when we were ten or twelve, or twenty. Also by closing our eyes and refusing to think we had sentiments and forgot that our room rent was due just three days later.

Now that the pork-tissue season is over it might be well to give a brief history of luminaries of the T. I. A. A. runners-up, namely, the Buffaloes. This the Mumbler will attempt to do, covering in each issue of the Prairie for the next two weeks several of these heroic figures.

First we have Weldon Logan, beloved captain and ferocious tackle. Like Alexander Hamilton this young man has ever had consuming ambitions to lead he-men, strong men, fighting men, to great victories. As a youth his teachers were puzzled and vexed by his neglecting the primer to sit gazing into space, little reckoning that his dreams were paving the way for heights of glory far superior to the commonplaceness of "the dog jumped over the cat." It was Weldon who always captained the "Dirty Dozen" in its wars against the Gas House gang, planned its campaigns, designed its swords and costumes. And this same boy it was who captained the fightin' Buffaloes of 1930 through an undefeated season in their chosen field to find the sports writers calling his army the pick of W. T.'s fighting men!

Next we will uncover the background of that immortal character Quarterback "Sissy" Powell. On the date of his birth, Mr. Powell, Sr., an ardent fan, gave up seeing his Alma Mammy defeat dear old Rutgers just to be present at that auspicious occasion. The day following Mr. Powell approached the baby's cradle with these words of paternal advice: "Son" he said, "I want you to play football before tackling the plays of that game of chance, the biggest game of all, Life. Play hard and play fast. Skirt the ends when you can gain that way, but hit the line when you think best." Little Raymond threw his arms around his father's neck, exclaiming earnestly, "Father, I will!" Exactly six weeks and two days later this precocious child was dominating the scene on the corner lot where the neighborhood children gathered for the purpose of booting a lop-sided football thru the windows of admiring townspeople. And Time, no later than the past season, found the boy, now fondly called "Sissy" because he insisted on wearing both pieces of his pyjamas while sleeping, manfully directing and executing the plays of a great football team, the Buffaloes!

WRITERS AND SCRIBBLERS

Tomorrow night the Writers Club and the Scribblers Club hold their bi-weekly meetings, the former at the home of Dr. McColley, the latter at the home of Mrs. Travis Shaw.

All members are urged to be present. The meeting tomorrow night will be the first of the Scribblers, with the exception of the one with the Writer's Club two weeks ago, at which induction services were held.

Leaves to Attend
Education Meets

Dean R. P. Jarrett left Wednesday for Houston where he will represent the West Texas State Teachers College at the meetings of the State Teachers Association. A meeting of the Teachers College Section, a meeting of extension workers, and a breakfast to be attended by the ex-students and former faculty members of the college will be among the meetings which Dr. Jarrett will attend in Houston.

Following the Houston meeting Dean Jarrett will go to Atlanta, Georgia, to represent the local college at the annual meeting of the Association of Colleges and Secondary schools of the Southern States, of which the college here is a member.

While in Georgia Dr. Jarrett will be able to meet many members of his family who still live in the locality in which he was born.

MRS. SHEFFY IS HOSTESS AT BRIDGE PARTY TUESDAY

Last Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock Mrs. L. F. Sheffy was hostess to a number of her friends at a bridge party of five tables.

The Thanksgiving theme was carried out in the decorations. Refreshments of ice cream and cake, with candy and favors of bitter-sweet were served to the guests.

Those present were Mrs. J. W. Kleinschmidt, Mrs. J. L. Duflo, Mrs. T. M. Moore, Mrs. Tom Knighton, Mrs. L. Angel, Miss Irene Angel, Mrs. John Gillis, Mrs. Arthur Goodman, Mrs. C. W. Batchelder, Mrs. M. E. Moses, Mrs. W. C. Black, Mrs. Ray Campbell, Mrs. J. L. McCarty, Mrs. Allen Farlow, Mrs. Dan K. Uesery, Mrs. Burt Newlin, Mrs. Travis Shaw and Mrs. John Fry.

ESTHER MAE SMITH GIVES DINNER PARTY SATURDAY

Another of the many delightful holiday affairs which mark the week's social calendar was the two-course Thanksgiving dinner given Saturday evening by Miss Esther Mae Smith for several of her friends.

Card games and dancing were enjoyed after the meal.

Those seated at the dinner table were Mrs. H. D. Smith, mother of the hostess, Miss Mary Alice Weaver, Miss Martha Nell Lang, Miss Edna Irene Bandy, Miss Lonie Beth Weaver, Miss Orlena Bandy, Miss Alma Lynn Bean, and Miss Esther Mae Smith, hostess.

MR. AND MRS. SHEFFY GIVE "42" PARTY FOR FRIENDS

Adding another to the series of holiday parties given at their home during the past week, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Sheffy entertained several of their friends with an informal four-table forty-two party Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Refreshments consisting of a salad course and coffee were served to the sixteen guests, who were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Duflo, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Humphreys.

LANG AND WEAVER ARE GUESTS IN VOGELE HOME

Miss Martha Nell Lang and Miss Lonie Beth Weaver were house guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Vogele in Hereford from Thursday to Saturday during last week's holidays.

While in Hereford Miss Lang and Miss Weaver were guests of honor at 7 o'clock dinner served by Mrs. Vogele Friday evening.

STRAIN ENTERTAINS FOR BUFFALO BAND MEMBERS

On Friday evening of last week, Professor C. E. Strain, band-master, entertained the members of the Buffalo Band with an informal forty-two party at his home. Several of the band members were out of Canyon for the holidays, and were therefore unable to attend.

Mrs. Strain served refreshments of chicken salad, bread and butter sandwiches, pumpkin pie and whip-cream, hot chocolate, and mints to the following:

Misses Nancy Strain, Virginia King, Margaret Strain, Adeline Strain, Grace Mater, and Martha Strain; and Messrs. Ernest Cabe, Joe Hill, Jr., Charlie Kiker, P. M. Gerald, Malcolm Hunt, Robert Newton, Reece Hough, Bill Chambers Ray Robbins, Robert Jarrett, Marion Higdon, William Strain, Charles Strain, and the host, C. E. Strain.

SHEFFY AND HOLMES ARE HOSTESSES TO PARTY

Following the bridge party given by Mrs. Sheffy that afternoon, Mrs. Sheffy and Miss Cleo Holmes were hostesses Tuesday evening at 7:30, at Mrs. Sheffy's home, entertaining with a six-table bridge party.

Guests of the evening were Misses Mattie Swayne, Bessie Engle, Hazel Allen, Alice Daves, Jean Moore, Helen White Moore, Novella Goodman, Ruth Loves, Miltia Hill, Stella Rusk, Jennie C. Ritchie, Gladys Beavers, Ima C. Barlow, Dalma Fry, Josephine Duflo, Laura Scott, Correlia Nuzum, Elizabeth Cox, and Mesdames L. G. Allen, Dan Sanders, Lee Foster, Bob Donald, and Irby Carruth.

KERR HOUSE LADIES ARE DINNER GUESTS MONDAY

The ladies of the Kerr House were entertained Monday evening, November 24, at 7:30 o'clock by Mrs. L. F. Sheffy and Miss Cleo Holmes with a three-course dinner at the home of Mrs. Sheffy.

Miss Margaret Boulware and Miss Una Brooks, of Amarillo, and Miss Edna Graham of Canyon were special guests. The ladies who attended from the Kerr House were Misses Hattie M. Anderson, Ruth Cross, Marian Normington, Anna I. Hibbets and Mrs. Laura Saunders.

Cabe Resigns As Council Executive; Compton Elected

At a meeting of the Student Council held last Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 Ernest Cabe, Jr., tendered his resignation as president. His resignation was accepted, and Eulith Compton was elected to fill the office.

President Hill, who attended the meeting for the first time this year, gave an interesting talk on the purpose and aims of the Student Council. Several problems were brought before the Council and discussed.

Miss Mary Morgan Brown and her niece Miss Helen White Moore spent the holidays visiting in Amarillo.

LAS TEJANITAS

Las Tejanitas met Tuesday of last week instead of on the regular day for club meeting. Miss Mary E. Hudspeth, head of the Spanish Department, gave a very interesting talk about "La Semana Santa," (the saint's week) in Toledo, Spain. She showed the club a number of interesting pictures of Holy Week festivities and a picture of the home of El Greco, a famous Spanish artist. At the close of the meeting stuffed dates were served.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEETING

Members of the Student Council assemble in an informal meeting Saturday, in room 304. The minutes of the last assembly were read and approved, and during the business session, the style for the Student Council page in the coming annual was submitted and accepted by the Council. After discussing several important problems, the meeting adjourned.

INTER NOS SODALITAS

The Inter Nos Club of W. T. High held its last meeting November 17, in room 318, when the following program was given: Latin songs by the club; the plan of a "Roman House," by Jennie Lee Noble; "Roman Furniture," by Hazel Kirby; "Charades on Latin Words," by Marion Hill; a reading, "Roman Words" by Lowell Windsor. At the conclusion of the program, plans were made for financing the Latin Club page in the annual.

Hazel Kirby spent the Thanksgiving vacation at her home near White Deer.

Miss Jennie C. Ritchie spent Thursday and Friday in Plainview visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Day.

Miss Helen White Moore spent Thursday in Amarillo, visiting Dr. and Mrs. McMeans.

LE PETITE MIRAGE

Editor Edna Irene Bandy announces that Le Petite Mirage is ready for the press, and that it promises to portray, rather racy, various phases of school life characteristic of the W. T. H. campus. Every organization in the school is represented. In behalf of her staff, Miss Bandy expresses her appreciation for the splendid co-operation which she has received from the classes and other student organizations. Both pictures and money came in promptly, so that the staff was enabled to turn in all the material by December 1, as it had hoped to do. The freshman and senior classes are represented 100 per cent in the yearbook; the sophomores and juniors are also well represented, and

DANCE! DANCE!

The Thanksgiving college dance, which was postponed from Nov. 27, will take place next Saturday night, Dec. 6. This was the date scheduled for the last dance of the quarter. According to Wallace O'Keefe, chairman of the committee, the date decided upon for the last event will be announced later.

practically all the clubs have attractive pages, originally designed.

Edna Irene Bandy is unable to decide which is harder to corral for a snapshot, the baby buffaloes, Wellwinna and Joberta, or Mr. Savage. Up to date she has not succeeded in getting a "shot" at either. If you have a good picture of either of the above mentioned "wild creatures," you will be doing a favor by donating the picture to Edna Irene, to help her out of her dilemma.

Maurice Warren spent Thanksgiving with her father, Mr. G. B. Warren, at Hereford.

Frances Holman and Athalie and Maurine Wilder spent the holidays at their homes near Hereford.

Alvin Ream visited his home at Alameda over the week-end.

Royall Pitts spent Thanksgiving visiting relatives at Lockney.

Bertha Gardner visited her home in Vigo Park from Thursday till Monday.

Battle Hymn of the Buffaloes

(Found on the bulletin board before the Indian-Buffalo game. Author unknown).
The Indians will come whooping and calling,
But we'll send them home weeping and quailing.
They'll bring along their tomahawks and hatchets,
But they'll need a cannon and two dozen matchetes.

A mighty good quarter-back is little Micky Pool,
But our Raymond Powell will make him look like a fool.
He can punt and he can pass, and make a good run,
When he gets started Thanksgiving we'll have lots o' fun.

With a bone in their teeth and blood in their eye,
They'll make those Indians eat o' humble pie.

Maroon and White are our colors so true;

The M'Murry Indians will furnish the blue.

dictions of this year's Buffalo quintet's struggle for another pennant.

For a foundation for the 1931 team Coach Burton will have "Preach" Fuller, captain-elect back at his old place. Around him will be gathered "Hatch" Brown of Canyon; "Eddie" Comer, Clovis;
Lloyd Harris, Follette; Bob Clark,
Turkey; Bob Fitzgerald, lanky forward from Borger; Morris, Perryton; "Rusty" O'Donald; Tim Daugherty, Olton; Burk and Keith, Ralls; Bill McClendon, Clovis, and Troutman of Dumas, all of whom are former Buffalo basketball men though all are not letter men.

In addition to these former Buffaloes and Yearlings, Burton has a whole flock of former high school stars upon which to draw. "Cow" Williams, "Sheik" McDaniels and Ralph Cabe, all Canyon Eagle stars; Portenberry of Happy; Dyer and Lovelace of Farwell; McLauren of O'Donnell; Layne of Hereford; Jameson of Canyon; Richards of Ralls; and Rudolph. It is more than likely that other men will be added to the list during the next few weeks since all prospects have not as yet signified their intentions of coming out. Much interest is being manifested in the 1931 basketball team and enthusiasts are looking forward with eagerness to the opening game in January.

Coach Burton intends to try the mettle of the prospective Buff quintet early in the season for he recently signed a contract with the Phillips "66" team of former college basketball stars, this game to be played early in January. The Phillips outfit is a husky assignment for any team at any time and the inference is that Burton thinks pretty well of his prospects for 1931 to have picked a fuss with this husky team so early in the season.

The Buffalo schedule for 1931 has not yet been made, but will be compiled at the conference meeting in Dallas, beginning December 11. Two games with Baylor, in Canyon, will open the season on January 2 and 3, marking the first time a Southwest Conference team has come here for an athletic contest of any sort.

In the past the Buffs have met Baylor and Texas on numerous occasions, holding a comfortable margin of victories over the schools in the larger loop.

die; Gerta Mae Cayton, her mother; Mrs. Christie; and Dorris Lynn Loudler, her cousin, Evalgeline.
A large number of Amarillo people, consisting principally of members of the Panhandle Speech Arts Association attended the production Tuesday night, and expressed themselves as well pleased with the performance.

Due to three conflicting events, including a faculty party, the benefit picture show of the Scholarship society, and the building of the Thanksgiving bonfire, the audience which witnessed the Panhandle Players was cut down seriously.

Miss Ethleen Murrell of Plainview spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Stella Murrell, of this city.

Final Game

touchdown immediately after the second half opened. Powell had run back an Indian punt to the 50, Williams passed to Clark on the Indians' 31 and Clark passed to Powell on their 15. On the next three plays, O'Donald plunged the line for the Buffs' winning score, the kick for the extra point going wide. The Buffs spent the rest of the quarter in the Indians' territory, one time being held on Mc-Murry's 2 yard line.

Fourth Quarter

After a pass, Clark to Powell, and an eight yard plunge by O'- Donald, the Buffs were held on the Indians' 12. Again the march was repeated after Isaacs had punted 71 yards. In midfield, Smith of the Indians heaved a pass 45 yards to Young who had a clear field and only ten yards to go for a touchdown but he very accomodatingly "muffed" the pass and Mc-Murry's scoring threat was over.
A beautiful exchange of offensive play continued from this point till the end of the game, Smith and Pool for the visitors chunking long passes to no place in particular, and Powell, O'Donald and Williams and Clark plunging, passing and skirting the ends for pretty gains only to have the breaks cheat them out of well earned touchdowns. The game ended with the ball on the 6 yard line, the score being 6-5 in favor of W. T.

"Among Those Present"

For the lack of more scores the Buffs have to thank three husky Redskins, Johnson, end, Edwards, guard, and Fulkerson, fullback. The first two smeared more Buffalo plays than the other nine men put together, and Fulkerson kept the ball well within Buffs territory until he was removed from the play on account of injuries. The Buffaloes same crew, Williams, Powell Clark and O'Donald, played heads up football after they had thraved out, O'Donald showing up especially well with his desperate line plunges. The Indians laid for Powell, but as usual he was just too hard to catch when he got loose, especially on returning punts; in fact he returned one long Indian punt to within two yards of the point from which it was kicked, shaking off seven tacklers before being brought down. Mc-Clendon, Logan and Jameson in the line played inspired football, especially Logan, who sang his swan song Thursday. Gillham, who always plays great football, did not start but was put back in his position at guard to plug up that hole the Indians had found and he fitted like a rubber cork.
To do the Herd Justice, it must be said that had they played on Butler Field against Simmons as they did in this finale of the season about 14 of the 26 points Simmons amassed would have been lopped off.

Ex-Student Notes

BY L. N. GEORGE

The Exstudent Association now has three hundred fifty members.
Pass your Prairie to some W. T. ex-student who is not a member and ask him to help us raise our membership to five hundred by January first.

We have some big jobs to do and we need every W. T. Ex in our association.

Mr. Hill, the College male quartet and I are spending two days speaking, singing and visiting in Childress and Briscoe counties.
This is an ex-student experiment.
If it gets results we shall repeat it in other counties.

There are several counties in which we do not yet have our list of ex-students complete. Will you please see your superintendent and send us a list of your teachers with the W. T. exes checked?

ber of efficient business students.

Miss Mary Slover is teaching the Lakeside School. This school is six miles from Canyon on the Amarillo road.

Miss Montye Rockwell is teaching the Burch School. It is about si miles southeast of Amarillo. Miss Rockwell has a large variety of house plants in her room. She also has a new Brunswick and a choice selection of records.

Mrs. J. J. Shires is teaching the Brady School. It is seven miles from Amarillo on the Claude road.

Ruth Reeds is now teaching on
