Faculty Members To Conferences

Eight Address Groups At Conference For Education This Week

While many members of the College faculty are taking an active part in the Northwest Texas Conference for Education here Friday and Saturday, eight others, authorities in their fields, will address gatherings at similar conferences in other parts of the state.

Dr. R. P. Jarrett, dean of the College, will head a delegation to the District 6 meeting in El Paso which convenes Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Dean Jarrett will address one meeting on "Some Important Factors Involved in New Trends in Social Studies," and another on "The Place of Science and Mathematics in the High School Curriculum Today."

Accompanying him to this conference will be Miss Jean Moore and Miss Novela Goodman. Miss Moore, of the intermediate education department, will be heard at a sectional meeting on "Discipline."

Prof. Herschel Coffee, Dr. A. K. Knott, Miss Ruth Cross, and Prof. W. Holmes Smith are to be speakers at the District 4 conference at Big Spring. Prof. Coffee will appear before the social science section. Dr. Knott will speak to a language arts group and Prof. Smith an industrial arts section. "Modified and Corrective Physical Education in the Public Schools" will be Miss Cross's topic at a sectional meeting.

Going alone to the Wichita Falls meeting of District 7 will be Prof. Lee Johnson, who will speak to teachers and prospective teachers of commercial arts subjects. In Brownwood at the District 11 conference, Miss Ruth Lowes will address the primary education section.

Accompanied by Glen Davis and Jim McCray, who debated in San Antonio and San Marcos, Dr. Conrad W. Freed spoke to a group at the Alamo Conference in San Antonio Saturday.

J. T. Reynolds, a graduate of West Texas State and a member of the staff of El Paso Technical Institute, is chairman of the practical arts section at the El Paso conference.

Condron's Date Book Includes Memphis Program

Prof. S. H. Condron will talk to the Delphian Club and its guests at the anniversary program of the club March 19 in Memphis. In April he will address the Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association in Amarillo on "The Place of the Individual."

"Causes of War" was the topic of a speech Mr. Condron delivered to the Parent-Teachers Association of Carson County in Panhandle Thursday.

Mr. Condron will speak for the fourth consecutive year at the annual program of the Delphian Club in Memphis. At noon of the same day he will speak on "Responsible Citizenship" at the Rotary Club.

Mr. Condron will spend the day in Memphis and in the afternoon he will visit the school and meet the senior class.

Nine students and three teachers attended a Panhandle-Plains sectional meeting of the American Chemical Society in Amarillo Friday.

Dan Hemphill, L. D. Criswell, Bryan Morgan, Marvin Petty, Nell Green, Luther Archer, Ida Martha Plerle, Robert Patterson, and M. L. Simpson were the students present. Mrs. Geraldine Green, Paul Beck, Dr. Klein Alexander and Dr. C. A. Plerle were with the students.

Camera Fans Find Buffalo Band a Colorful Outfit

VERNA GAIL ALLEN

Several extra rolls of film were used Saturday to catch the action of the colorful drum major of the Buffalo Band when the organization helped Borger to celebrate its 15th birthday.

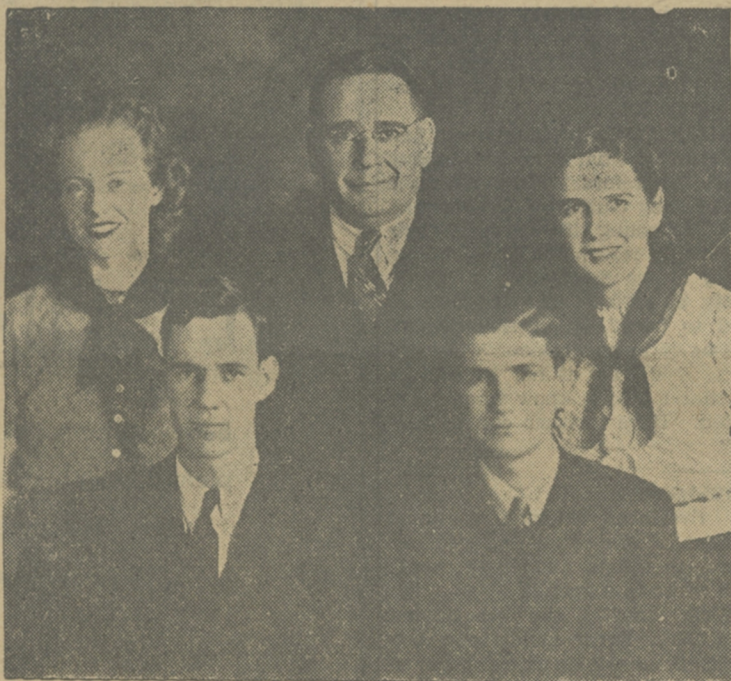

Verna Gail Allen guided the marching outfit through a parade of the morning. She came to West Texas State as an experienced drum major from Spearman, having placed in the first division of two state and two national contests.

Verna Gail heard a wish for "good luck" from her former instructor, J. Gordon Burch of Borger, before the parade started.

As a West Texas student, she is a freshman and is specializing in business subjects. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Allen of Spearman.

Prof. C. E. Strain, Buffalo Band director, accompanied 40 members by bus and car. A concert downtown at 1 o'clock was given by the band. The group returned home Saturday afternoon.

Debaters From Ouachita

Flying Hours for Student Pilots Limited by Unfavorable Weather

If a student is heard complaining about the high winds, the blowing sand, or low-hanging clouds, it is probable that the ill-natured girl or boy is one of the West Texas students who have begun flight training under the C. A. A.

Actual flight operations were started February 27, but bad weather has slowed progress.

Instructors Otis Williams and Frank Pemberton are teaching students in flight periods of thirty minutes each day that weather permits. As students become more advanced, flying periods will be lengthened to one hour.

On a student's first flight, his instructor tells him how to taxi the airplane and explains the instruments and controls and their uses. Later in the flight, the controls are turned over to the student and he, or she gets a chance to fly the plane.

Flight students service the planes with gas and oil and each student, after his flight, removes all dirt, oil, or mud found on his plane. Each ship is given a thorough check every morning before it is flown. Planes used for training are Taylorcrafts powered with 65-horsepower Lycoming engines.

The quota of thirty students for the C. A. A. course has been filled.

A flight student pays $15, of which $6 is a medical examination fee and $9 is for a $3,000 insurance policy. The course includes 35 hours of flying and provides a private pilot's certificate if the student passes a written test and a flight examination prescribed by the Civil Aeronautics Authority.

Students must furnish their own transportation from the campus to the College airport.

OFFICERS ARE NAMED

New officers of Alpha Chi Scholarship society, will be selected today at 1 o'clock in Room 118.

Outlook Bright For Buildings

President Hill and Group Return from Austin—New Home for President Asked

Far from pessimistic concerning West Texas State's chances to obtain an appropriation for a new science building from the current session of the Texas legislature, President J. A. Hill has returned from Austin to give an encouraging report on the hearings held last Wednesday.

He characterized them as among the best receptions ever given recitals of the College's needs.

Dr. Hill was accompanied by Mrs. Hill, Supt. J. B. Speer of Canyon public schools, and G. H. Jones of Happy, president of the Ex-Students Association. Mr. Speer represented the Canyon Chamber of Commerce.

New President's Home

The College is asking a $260,000 science building, a new water well, and $25,000 to build and equip a new home for its president. The board of regents recently decided to raze the president's home and use the lumber in constructing the Randall hall addition.

Dr. Hill had much praise for the Panhandle legislators, all of whom appeared to be working earnestly to solve the State's financial problems and to relieve the acute needs of West Texas State. If the expected measures to raise new revenues are passed, the chances for the College to get a new building will be good.

Separate Museum Bill

A separate bill has been introduced to provide approximately $48,000 to complete the museum at Texas Tech and $46,000 to complete the Panhandle-Plains museum here.

Dr. Hill appeared before the State Board of Education to point out inequalities in the apportionment law for state institutions.

Famous Brother Visits English Instructor

Admiral James O. Richardson, former Commander in Chief of the U. S. fleet, and brother of Miss M. Moss Richardson of the English department visited in Canyon Wednesday and Thursday.

Admiral Richardson came from Long Beach, California, where he visited his son who works in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Previous to his visit in California he was stationed in Hawaii with his wife. The contrast between the weather in Hawaii, and the belated spring of Canyon was noticeable.

Admiral Richardson is on his way to Washington, D. C., for re-assignment of position.

Campus Buildings Near Completion

One major campus building project was virtually completed yesterday and two others are taking definite steps toward completion.

With the NYA auto mechanics building practically complete, equipment was moved in yesterday for the work. Only a small amount of minor work is left to be done to complete the building.

By the first of next week the cement will be poured for the foundation to the dining hall addition to Randall Hall. This building is scheduled for completion by the first of September.

Located at the north end of the campus is the new NYA dining hall and kitchen which is to be completed by April 15, according to Business Manager Virgil Henson.

Wisconsin Prof. Coming Here

Dr. Alexander Melkjohn of the University of Wisconsin is a lecturer to be presented by the Iycone committee April 24.

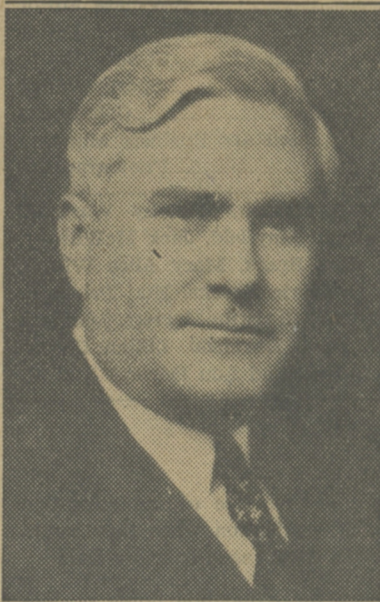

He is professor of philosophy and chairman of experimental college of the University of Wisconsin and director of the center for social studies in San Francisco since 1933.

Classes Dismissed for Friday and Saturday

Classes scheduled for Friday and Saturday of this week will not meet, Dr. R. P. Jarrett, dean of the College, said yesterday.

The Northwest Texas Conference for Education will use classrooms and other facilities.

Theme Concerns World Crisis

Stoddard, Counts, Martin, And Douglass Are Speakers—Registration at 8:30 O'clock

This is the week during which the school folk of the Panhandle have their annual convention.

Called the Northwest Texas Conference for Education, the big meeting will close most of the schools in Panhandle counties and bring 3,000 or more teachers, administrators, trustees, and Parent-Teacher workers to the campus of West Texas State Friday and Saturday. Classes at the college will be suspended to permit instructors and students to participate in the conference.

Officers of the conference, which is district 9 of the Texas State Teachers Association, have chosen as the theme of this meeting "Education and the World Crisis." Speakers will discuss phases of this topic. Dr. J. A. Hill, in welcoming the group, will talk on "America's Main Line of Defense" at 9:30 a. m. Friday morning. Dr. Harl Douglass of Colorado University will tell of "The Job of the Schools Today in Producing Good Citizenship." After an intermission, Supt. A. J. Stoddard of Philadelphia will speak on "The Function of the Schools in National Preparedness."

At 1:15 p. m., Dr. Stoddard will talk on "Democracy and Discipline." The conference then will divide into more than a score of sectional meetings for afternoon programs. A third general session will begin Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Speakers will be Dr. W. B. Irvin, Lubbock, president of the Texas State Teachers Association, and Dr. George S. Counts of Columbia University, who will discuss "The Nature of the Present World Crisis."

A last general session will begin at 9:30 a. m. Saturday morning, when speakers will be Dr. Cora Martin of the University of Texas and Dr. Harl Douglass of the University of Colorado. After an intermission Dr. Counts will talk on "The Responsibility of the School in the Present World Crisis."

Presiding officers will be Mrs. N. N. Whitworth of Amarillo, president, and County Supt. W. B. Weathered of Pampa, vice-president. Other officers are Glen Allison of Hereford, treasurer, and Supt. W. C. Perkins of Shamrock, secretary.

Business of the conference will be conducted by the house of delegates, which will meet at 3:30 o'clock Friday for election of officers and hearing of reports.

Registration will begin at 8:30 a. m. Friday and will be completed, as nearly as possible, by the opening of the first general session at 9:30 a. m.

A substantial part of the value of the Northwest Texas Conference for Education here next Friday and Saturday will be found in the sectional meetings held from 2:15 to 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon.

These gatherings are based on special interests of various groups.

Miss Maude L. Fletcher of Amarillo will be chairman of the art section, and Mrs. Robert Curry of Pampa will be vice-chairman. Prof. F. A. Kleinschmidt of Texas Tech and Prof. Arne W. Randall of Texas University will be the speakers.

Band and orchestra leaders will have a panel discussion directed by Clyde Rowe of Borger.

Senate Postpones Selection of Executives

Selection of student publications executives for the 1941-42 session has been postponed until next week.

No official announcement has come from the Student Senate concerning its progress, but it was learned that action taken in regard to the editorship of The Prairie was rescinded and the whole problem deferred until the return of Senator Dewey Johnson, who is playing basketball in Kansas City's national tournament. Johnson will return Sunday and the Senate will resume deliberations on March 20.

The Senate reportedly devoted most of its time to consideration of candidates for Le Mirage offices, and the action on The Prairie editorship, taken without extended consideration of applicants, was reconsidered at a night session Thursday.

Several questions of constitutional meaning will be referred to the interpretation committee for rulings.

Crushed Violets
Strange, how these violets, crushed within my hand,
Give back to me this sweet and rare perfume
That fills the empty midnight of my room,
As though the breath of angels had been fanned
Into the darkened windows from a land
Upon whose threshold, where rare violets bloom,
That grim spectre of oppressive gloom
Has not, and shall never, never, stand.
And so it is when hearts are smashed and torn,
And lie aghast upon the blood-drenched ground,
For soon they rise again, though bruised and crushed,
And lo, in them, as in a soul reborn,
A sympathetic love for man is found,
Not present ere that heart's own pain was hushed.

Fog
An endless curtain closes softly
O'er the land;
And slowly takes another shape:
A phantom hand . . .

Grasping with greedy fingers,
Clutching with greedy fingers,
The lone ray of sunlight that lingers
Hopefully.

An endless curtain closes softly
O'er the soul;
And icy hands reach out to hide
The distant goal. . .

Grasping with greedy fingers,
Clutching with greedy fingers,
The one ray of hope that lingers
Prayerfully.

Is It a Holiday?
Few students ever know the problems and routine of the education conferences held on the campus until after graduation when they return for one of the annual sessions. They are not encouraged to know them.
When the Northwest Texas Conference for Education holds sessions here Friday and Saturday, it will be a holiday for the greater part of the students. Some will remain to help serve banquets and luncheons, and other groups will act as ushers. A large number will go home. And in many ways College officials are probably glad that they do leave the campus, because it is true that facilities for seating are never more strained than at these large gatherings.
But there are always chairs down front or in the balcony for seniors who seek information about the teacher's profession. And this year's program offers something more than information of interest to teachers. We would consider a lecture by Dr. Stoddard an outstanding one at an assembly program or lyceum number.
Students who are interested in the program should be informed that the officials of the conference will welcome their attendance at the sessions even though they do not register.

"Tips" for Success In College
Habits and motives that are required in the home play an important part in success or failure in college. This is one of the main conclusions of What It Takes to Make Good in College, a pamphlet which will be published on March 3rd by the Public Affairs Committee, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York.
It finds that College "success," as distinguished from the mere getting of grades, is dependent chiefly on four characteristics—Purpose, Social Adjustment, Ability to Make Decisions, and Sensitivity. Students having these four characteristics made the grade without difficulty. Those lacking in all four were, as a rule, flunked out by the middle of their first year.
Although these characteristics were found to be affected by many things, home influences were seen as particularly important. Good relationships with parents, brothers, and sisters were found to be important for success. Those who found that their parents were moderately interested in their affairs, rather than indifferent or oversolicitous, were the best-adjusted group in college.
"A curious indication of good home adjustment," the pamphlet points out, "is a liking for the subject of English. Narrow reading interests seemed to go with poor home adjustment, whether reading was limited to newspapers only, to books and magazines only, or to newspapers and magazines only."
High achievement in personality also seemed usually to carry with it high achievement in other areas. In light of this it is interesting to note that "frequency of attendance at movies—seven or more times a month—was a sign of poor personality, as was also frequency of indulgence in card games. 'Bull sessions' were again a kind of thermometer, the better-adjusted boys being the ones who participated in the large session and the less well adjusted in sessions with very small groups. Continued association with parents, relatives, and friends was a good sign, as was the keeping up of former friends especially through occasional dances and parties." A few of the other "tips" to success shown in the study are listed. For example, "The student has a better chance to make good if he:
Safeguards his health;
Participates in athletics, even if he never makes a varsity team;
Has occasional 'dates';
Keeps up a satisfactory religious worship not inconsistent with his science and philosophy;
Lives on the campus;
Studies as many hours daily as are required to finish assignments;
Learns how to make and keep a schedule of work, reading, recreation, exercise, and rest;
Makes his own decisions promptly;
Seeks competent advice without becoming overdependent upon it;
Keeps track of his money;
Enlarges his reading interests, particularly in books;
Rides a hobby without letting it ride him;
Concerns himself with the larger community outside the campus."

Survey Shows 20,890 Of Students Plan To Leave College

Colleges and universities over the nation will lose 11 per cent of their male students to Uncle Sam's defense program this summer, if these student's today accurately prognosticate their future, Student Opinion Surveys of America disclosed in the results of a national sampling. Projected against the total enrollment in colleges today, this figure suggests that more than 80,000 college men believe they will either be called by their local draft boards or else they will volunteer for their year's service instead of returning to school in the fall.
Because of the Selective Service Act provision permitting deferment until June 1 for all men 21 or over enrolled in school, very few undergraduates have already entered into their year of military training.
Besides the 11 per cent above, nearly 10 per cent are not planning to return to school next year, but do not believe they will be drafted or will volunteer. Nearly four-fifths of the students now in school believe they will return for at least one more year's study. This study should not be interpreted to mean that college enrollments will be depleted by 11 per cent. This figure is merely an indication as to how much the defense program is liable to affect the college male.
The exact percentages, as found by the Surveys through interviews taken on the scores of campuses participating in the poll are as follows:
Will volunteer or be drafted 11.2%
Will Return to College 79.2%
Will Do Neither 9.6%

American Students Admit Drinking, Survey Shows

Although college students are as a whole not teetotalers and a majority may be classed as liberals on the question of drinking, there exists today on the campuses of America a good amount of conservatism regarding liquor.
Two years ago this March, Student Opinion Surveys of America conducted a nationwide poll that for the first time provided a complete picture of drinking habits and sentiment among colleges. The survey has been repeated, and besides producing a new set of figures on the topic, the study brings proof that the sampling procedure used by Student Opinion Surveys is of such stability that its results may be interpreted as an accurate barometer of college thought from coast to coast.
In summary, these were the results of the survey, taken through the cooperation of the college press, including The Prairie:
1. Six out of every ten believe that college students do not drink too much.
2. Nearly seven out of every ten men, and nearly five out of every ten co-eds, admit they drink alcoholic beverages.
3. Eight out of every ten are opposed to the return of prohibition.
The 1939 survey and the present one, taken in identical manner, reveal figures that are almost parallel in every respect, giving new basis to the fact that by means of sampling it is possible for the Surveys to gauge what the total enrollment of nearly 1,500,000 thinks. Prohibition and drinking in general are rather static questions on which sentiment is not expected to vary considerably for long periods of time, and that is what this comparison shows:
1939 1941
Believe students don't drink too much 65% 61%
Admit they drink (both men and women) 60 61
Opposed to prohibition 87 81

"Words are things . . ."—Byron.
"Even as one heat another heat expells,
Or as one nail by strength drives out another,
So the remembrance of my former love
Is by a newer object quite forgotten."

(As usual, Mr. Shakespeare had the right idea. When trying to be off with the old love and on with the new, it is said to be a very effective aid in forgetting if you remember the ex-flame's bad points and faults. Perhaps we will have our Horse and Woman research department compile a little pamphlet titled: "How to avoid carrying the torch in twelve easy lessons.")

An increasing number of females are experting in telling men what to wear. And very condescendingly, too. Extremely presumptuous, we call it.

Let the women solve their own what-to-wear problems before extending their sartorial advice activities. Not one woman in 10,000 has the slightest idea of the right thing to wear to conform with her face and figure and good taste.

Do you ever see a round-faced man with a little hat which makes his face seem twice as round and fat. Well, hardly ever. But how many moon-faced females do you see wearing it'sy-bitsy, ducky-wucky hats? At least ten in every block.

Note the number of long girls wearing too-short skirts. And have you ever seen a dream walking around wearing a fur coat and slacks? Well, we have.

COFFEE FOR YOU
"You should drink more tea and less coffee," said the girl friend as I was sipping my fourth cup. "And why?" I asked. "Tea is less harmful," said she.
Said I, "Young woman you just don't know what you are talking about. Therefore, I must relate the tale of King Gustav of Sweden who gave two young life prisoners their freedom in return for one drinking plenty of tea daily, and the other, plenty of coffee. The tea drinker lived to be 83, the coffee drinker died at 97 in an accident." My girl friend said, "Let it not be said of me that I do not know when I am beaten. Have another cup of coffee."

SIDELIGHTS
A five-foot, ten-inch feminine resident of Aliquippa, Pa., went on a trip to Texas and three weeks later wrote to a friend:
"Well, sugar, I sho' am having me a time. Never could find a boy in Aliquippa tall enough for me to see eye to eye with, but down here I met up with a lot of tall fellows—one so tall he calls me kitten. Honey, Texas is the tall girl's heaven."

West Texas State Seeded No. 1 at K. C. Tournament

Bufs Battle Iowa Team

Shirley, Curtice Accompany Team To Kansas City

After a rousing student send-off here Friday and an enthusiastic welcome in Kansas City, the West Texas Cagers are seeded No. 1 in the Intercollegiate Tournament opening last night.

Last night at 10:15 o'clock, the Bufs were scheduled to play the University of Dubuque of Dubuque, Iowa. By way of comparison, the Buff opponent holds an edge on the West Texans, having defeated Simpson College for the Iowa championship title. Simpson overpowered West Texas 65 to 48 in an early game this season.

The Buffaloes have backers in the tournament other than home folks. For the residents of Kansas City have taken these Tall Texans into their hearts, and are behind them to win the cage meet.

Saturday night, after the Bufs had checked in at their hotel, they attended an ice hockey game. During intermission, they were called out on the playing floor and introduced to the crowd, and there was an audible gasp through the vast Pla-Mor Palace because of the Buff's height. As the Star Dusters left the building, the crowd shouted, "Yea, West Texas," and sang "The Eyes of Texas."

The Bufs are in tip-top shape, and Coach Al Baggett announced at noon Sunday that all the hullabaloo was over, and it is down to basketball concentration the rest of the way. Dr. D. A. Shirley, Jack C. Curtice, and Jerry Malin, Amarillo News sports editor, accompanied the Buffaloes.

The following schedule was released by the tournament officials for Monday's play.

Afternoon:
12:15—Alma College of Alma, Michigan, vs. Panhandle A. & M. of Goodwell, Okla.

1:30—Culver-Stockton of Canton, Mo., vs. Texas College of Mines, El Paso.

2:45—Mississippi Delta College, Cleveland, Miss., vs. Sioux Falls College, Sioux Falls, S. D.

4:00—Texas Wesleyan College of Ft. Worth, vs. Evansville College, Evansville, Ind.

Night:
6:15—Baker University of Baldwin, Kansas, vs. North Carolina State Teachers College, Boone, N. C.
7:30—Tarkio College, Tarkio, Mo. vs. St. Mary's College, Winona, Minn.

9:00—Northwest Missouri State Teachers College vs. Dakota Wesleyan University of Mitchell, S. D.

Buffalo Courts Called Finest Home For Athletes in Article in Magazine "First Aider"

An article in the "First Aider," magazine published by the Cramer Chemical Company of Gardner, Kansas, describes Buffalo Courts as one of the finest athletic-housing facilities in the country. This article is the third in a series of four about unique methods of housing athletes. The Cramer brothers were on the W. T. campus last year, and took technicolor pictures of the athletic plant here. These pictures are being shown over the United States, before coaches' meetings, at tournaments, and groups interested in sports. The athletic department has received several letters from coaches and others commenting on the quarters.

The Buffalo T-Club has been instrumental in building this unit. Under the direction of Coach Al Baggett, who traveled thousands of miles in search of the petrified wood that was used in building this structure, this group has completed living quarters valued at over forty thousand dollars.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Van Meter live in an apartment off the Recreation. Mr. Van Meter is line coach of the Bufs' football team.

Popular For Socials

A popular place on the campus for socials is the Recreation Hall.

Since the T-Club has taken over the furnishing the hall, more than $500 have been spent for venetian blinds, electric light fixtures, and other furniture. This money has been obtained by sponsoring picture shows, open houses, concessions at athletic games, and by donations.

The upper part of the Hall, when completed, will resemble the lobby of a modern hotel, or a reception room in a dormitory. There will be four pictures on the west wall—one of Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the College, one of Coach Al Baggett, one of Cliff Jarrett, mayor of Canyon, and a painting of Buffalo Courts by Mrs. J. A. Hill. On the east wall will be a huge map of the United States, with arrows pointing to distant places visited by the Bufs for athletic games.

The lower floor will be equipped with ping-pong tables and other games. The walls of this section will be covered with pictures, including squad pictures of the football and basketball teams each year, members of the T-Club, individual pictures of the captains of each sport and of those athletes who gain special recognition by high scholastic standing, making all-conference teams and other honorable mentions.

Cousins, Yupon Tied For Second Place In Intramural Play-off

Leading in the girls' basketball intramural contest, the Free Shots have a perfect average so far this season to lead their opponents. Next in line are Cousins and Yupon, who have one defeat each.

Last Wednesday Yupon beat the team from Mesquite, 15-3. The Free Shots tied with Cousins, thus throwing a wrench in the tournament machinery.

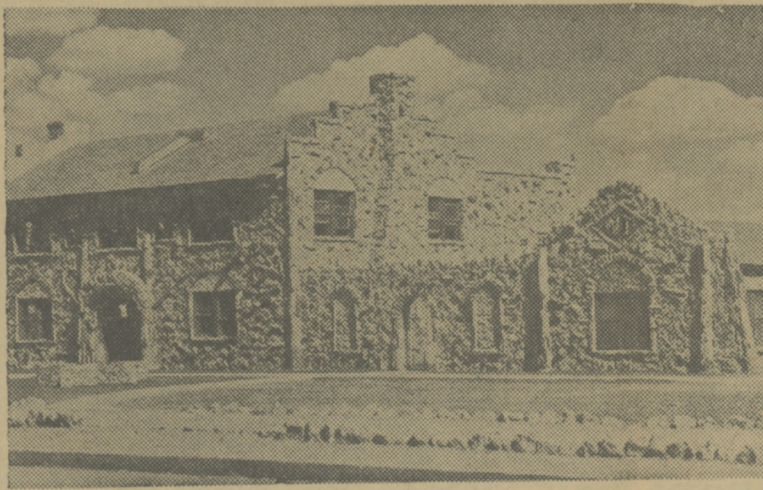

Randall forfeited to Cousins, 1-0, on Thursday night, and the Free Shots defeated Mesquite, 19-15. The Free Shots were behind for the first three quarters, and came up in the last minute of play to win a thriller from Mesquite.

On Wednesday night, the tie game between the Free Shots and Cousins will be played off, and any of several conditions may result. If the Free Shots win, they will have a perfect record, something that is unprecedented in the history of girls' intramurals at W. T. This will give Cousins two defeats for the season, and as Yupon has only one, it will place these three teams one-two-three in the tournament. However, if Cousins should win, these three teams will each have been defeated once, and the playoff will be locked in a three-way tie.

Banquet Coming

When this tournament has been finished, plans will be started for the annual all-college sports banquet. This banquet, at which awards will be made to the team winners and individual players of the sports that have been played, is open to any girl who has participated in any intramural sport this term. The team award will be made to McGehee, who won the volleyball contest during the first semester.

Freshmen Win Last Game

Jaycee League Title Here For Second Year After Gassers Lose

Champions of the Amarillo Jaycee League by virtue of a win over the Canadian River Gassers, with the score at 52-41, the West Texas Freshmen chalked up their 59th victory out of 60 games played last night in Amarillo.

Closing a highly successful season, the freshmen will hang up their uniforms with an unusually high average for the season. Most of the games played this year were in the Amarillo Jaycee League, but the junior Star Dusters changed their pastures long enough to defeat a team from Wayland College of Plainview in three contests.

These first-year men were the defending champions of the League in Amarillo, having won it easily last year with the help of Jack Maddox, now a high-scoring member of the varsity.

A beautiful trophy furnished by an Amarillo hardware concern that sponsors the league, has been in possession of the West Texas team. In order to keep this trophy, however, it had to be won two years in succession by a team. This award will be added to the swelling collection in the trophy case in the hall of the Administration Building, a proud possession and remembrance of this fast and capable ball club that lost only one game during its season.

Playing on the first "string" of the freshman club were: Clark Johnson and Charles Johnson, brothers from Turkey, Louis Conroy of Owensboro, Kentucky, Ledru Jacobs of Spearman, and Harry Davidson of Childress.

Members of the "Wrecking Squad" include: Paul House, Roswell, N. M.; Leo Steinkoenig of Wichita Falls, Lou Doyle of Washington, D. C.; Virgil Kelly of Lockney, and A. C. Miller of Pampa.

Usually after the first quarter of a game has passed, Coach Jack Curtice substituted the "wrecking squad" whose duty it is to take the fight out of their opponents by playing a scrapping, fast, and furious ball game. Then the first crew goes back on the floor to mop up. The first team is smoother and faster than the wrecker team, with more accurate passers and shots, but they lack the aggressiveness and fight that shows up in the second string.

'Crackers Win Volleyball Meet

Defeat Bachelor Team in Finals In 3 Close Sets

Intramural volleyball champions of the season are the Firecrackers, after having defeated Bachelors Hall in a thrill-packed contest Friday night.

Taking the floor at 7 o'clock in the opener, the Firecrackers lost to the single boys, 15-4. In the next game, however, the Bachelors were over-confident and lost to the powder men, 15-2. The "sugar" game was close from start to finish, with both sides in the lead during the fray. With the score standing at 12-9 in the 'Crackers' favor, the Bachelors desperately tried to rally, but to no avail. Hillory Aven, playing on the Firecracker squad, lived up to his team's name and went off with a bang.

Single Elimination

Starting on Wednesday night, the volleyball tournament was a single elimination affair, with six teams entered. In the first tilt, the T-Anchor Aggies defeated the Wilf-cats in two straight wins, 15-4 and 15-5. The NYA team forfeited to Bachelors Hall by failing to appear at game time. The Firecrackers then trounced the Gravediggers, 15-12 and 15-9.

After drawing a bye in the first night's contest, the FFA squad lost to the Firecrackers Thursday night, 15-9 and 15-7. In three hotly contested games that renewed a feud, the two teams under the guidance of the agriculture department locked horns. Moore's house bachelors and the T-Anchor Aggies, always striving to outdo one another on the athletic field, made this no exception.

Tables Turned

In the first game, the Farm boys won, 15-12. Again that feeling of over-confidence crept in, however, and the single men defeated their opponents in the second game, 15-11. In the final game, the Bachelors nosed out a slight margin and won, 15-13.

Playing on the championship Firecracker squad were: Brown, Walker, Aven, Valverde, Smith, Kilpatrick, and Imke.

Judge: Rastus, do you realize that by leaving your wife you are a deserter?

Rastus: Jedge, Ef you knowed dat woman lak Ah does, yo' wouldn't call me no deserter. Ah's a refugee.

Buffalo Wallow

"THERE AIN'T NO FLIES ON ME . . ."

Another champion at West Texas State is Coach Jack Curtice's rangy crew of Freshmen who captured their second consecutive Amarillo Jaycee Basketball tournament by turning back the fiery Canadian River Gassers at Amarillo last night. The Frosh gained the finals by a first round win over the Gassers and last night's game clinched the title for them. The handsome basketball trophy is now theirs for keeps. In order for complete possession of the trophy one must win the title twice.

Al Baggett and his tall Texans are causing quite a bit of comment at the National Tournament in Kansas City. People stand and gasp when big Charley Halbert (who incidentally stands 6 feet, 10 inches without his cowboy boots and 10-gallon hat on) walks into the hotel lobby. Of course little Teeter Schupbach who is only 6 feet, 7 inches and weighs only 260 pounds is also getting quite a bit of publicity. The Buffaloes were seeded the number 1 team out of the 32 teams that are entered in the tournament. From this, I would say that the K. C. Folks think quite a lot of the tall Texans' ability to hit the basket.

Spring football training is on its way and it will not be very long until Jack Curtice and his husky bunch of gridiron players will be out on Buffalo field tearing up the turf. West Texas is hoping for the greatest team in the history of the school.

TO SERVE LUNCHEONS
During the educational conference, Kappa Omicron Phi will serve the librarians' luncheon Friday noon, and the Phi Delta Kappa breakfast Saturday morning.

and from the attitude of the coaches, players, and everyone in general, we are going to have that team. The fourth highest scorer in the nation is back again next fall and with him are many lettermen and college transfers who are out to not only win the Alamo Conference again but not to lose a ball game.

With this attitude, West Texas is surely to have that great football team that we have always wanted and I believe next year is the year.

All-College Dancers Are Tagged "Irish"

Shamrock tags were given to dancers as they entered the ballroom for the Kappa Tau Phi-sponsored St. Patrick's all-college dance Friday evening in Cousins Hall.

Green shamrock bedecked top hats and white pipes indicated the nature of the pre-Saint's-day activities and brought a touch of Ireland to the campus.

Weldon Bright's Swing Four furnished the music for the Irish hop which was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Savage and Miss Florence McMurtry, Kappa Tau Phi sponsor.

Kappa Omicron Phi Add 15 New Members

The Zeta chapter of Kappa Omicron Phi, national honorary professional home economics fraternity, held an informal pledge service for second semester pledges Tuesday evening in the home economics dining room. The pledges honored were Anna Sue Williams, Twitty; Marcella Fryar, Amarillo; and Mrs. Dena Evans, Sunray, all seniors.

These girls, together with last semester pledges, will become members at the initiation service which is to be held March 18. First semester pledges include Kathryn Phillips, sophomore, Hale Center; Mary Isabelle Hanvey, sophomore, Memphis; Merle Myers, sophomore, Lockney; Helen Smith, sophomore, Tulla; Louise Novak, sophomore, Spearman; Madeline Russell, sophomore, Tahoka; Mildred Conover, freshman, Amarillo; Lois Meek, sophomore, Gageby; Zellica Holgate, sophomore, Canyon; Kathleen Dixon, sophomore, Booker; Joy Bill Riley, senior, Briscoe; and Pauline Matthews, senior from Hereford.

Kappa Omicron Phi, one of the oldest clubs on the campus, was organized in May, 1927. The purpose of this professional fraternity is to further the best interests of home economics in four-year colleges. Membership is based upon scholarship, leadership, initiative, and personality. Members must be home economics majors.

Among the activities which the club sponsors are a Founder's Day program and dinner honoring its organizers, held each year on December 11; an annual senior dinner in honor of graduating home economics majors; and an annual tea for all students of home economics. The organization sends two representatives to the national convocation which is held every two years. Last year's delegates to the convocation at William and Mary College at Williamsburg, Va., were Allyne Gates, and Mary Zimmer. The next national meeting will be held in 1941 at the Southeastern Missouri State Teachers College at Cape Girardeau.

Kappa Phi officers are: President, Allyne Gates, of O'Donnell; first vice-president, Gwendolyn Couts of Pampa; second vice-president, Mary Zimmer of Canyon; recording secretary, Euba Faye Hills of Lakeview; and treasurer, Coystal Tabor of Canyon. Other members are Katie Smith, Helen Eoff, and Beulah Brasel. Miss Elizabeth Cox and Miss Margaret Barrett sponsor the club.

Dean Green to Attend I. A. W. S. at Lubbock

Mrs. Geraldine Green, dean of women, and probably several students will attend a meeting of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students in Lubbock, April 2-5. It is a national meeting of women's government associations.

The local group will be guests, inasmuch as West Texas has a co-educational form of student government and is not eligible to join the Association.

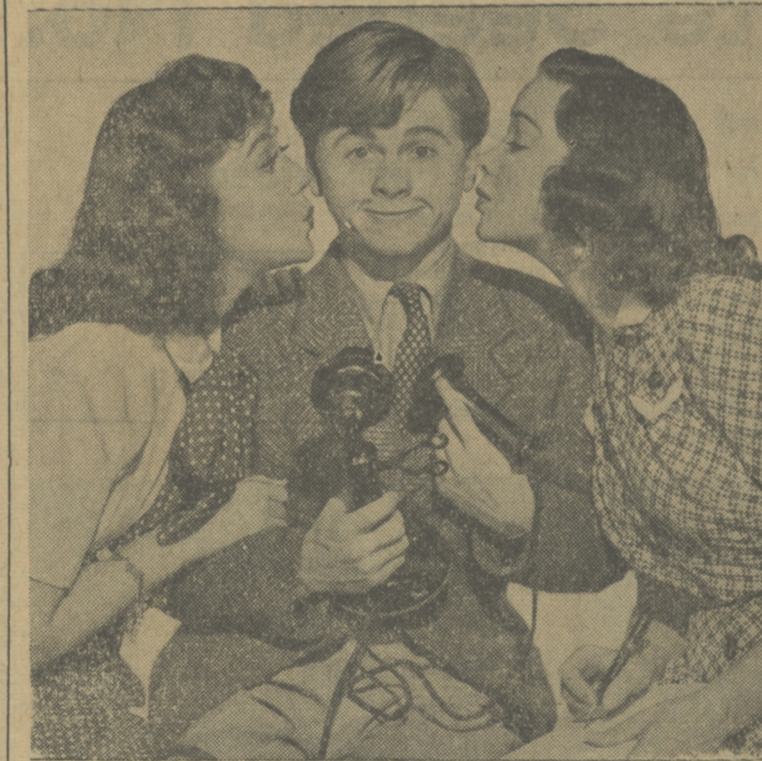

Ex Directs Winning F. F. A. Chapter

Clarendon's F. F. A. team, coached by J. R. Gillham, won a gold medal chapter award by ranking as one of the top four chapters in the United States.

Gillham is an ex-student of W. T. and served as business manager of The Prairie while here. In addition to teaching vocational agriculture in Clarendon, he served as secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce there.

An article about the club and its excellent cooperation, by Gillham, was published in the January issue of the "Agricultural Leaders Digest," farm magazine. In order to win this national honor, it was necessary for the entire chapter membership to cooperate fully, he stated.

Knives Fall Often—But Not At This "Test of Manners" Banquet

"They all laughed when I began to play, but . . ."

And it was a similar situation when 21 college men sat down to eat a formal luncheon in the Home Economics dining room recently. A few spectators who gathered to see a confusion of silverware were disappointed. The meal was carried out with an ease which demonstrated the value of the course in etiquette being taught by Mrs. Geraldine Green, dean of women. The course is open to co-eds, but no college girls have appeared. Membership is on a voluntary basis.

Home economics girls who prepared and served the formal meal under the direction of Miss Margaret Barrett did not overlook any essential detail in the first practical test of the men's table manners. The array of silverware was formidable, but by concentrating on remembering rules learned in the class and—it was noticed—making a few cautious glances at Mrs. Green and Dr. D. A. Shirley, who were at the head table, the group proceeded with considerable confidence to enjoy the five-course meal.

The first test came with arrival of the shrimp cocktail. Unerringly, the men reached for the right fork. The second course, the bouillion, caused a few anxious moments of doubt, but the hostess confirmed the majority opinion as to the proper implement, and there were no errors. As the meal continued, removal of some of the silverware diminished possibilities of error and an early tenseness disappeared.

Toastmaster Sidney Johnson introduced Dr. Shirley, who discussed fundamentals of etiquette and explained the correct procedure for the meal just served.

The luncheon was sponsored and financed by the Student Senate as a public service feature.

Special Mention Given Pictures In Exhibit of 85

Eighty-five pictures representative of the best work of advanced photographers in West Texas are being displayed in the third annual exhibition at the Panhandle-Plains Museum.

The exhibit will continue through March 16.

Honorable mention has been granted thirteen pictures in addition of the six major awards previously announced. These pictures are "Nani of Hawaii" and "Dream Stuff," by Philip L. Carter, Borger; "Bessie" by J. T. Fountain, Lubbock; "Desert Trail" by D. W. Donsey, Amarillo; "Entrance" by C. Don Hughes, Amarillo; "Neighborhood Pet" by E. E. Kral, Amarillo; "Tommy Prim" and "Yucca in Bloom," by Gene Ohm, San Antonio; "Nature's Mirror" by H. D. Ohm, San Antonio; "Back Lighting" and "The Scouts" by H. C. Pipkin, Amarillo; "Kittens" by Jesse Q. Sealey, Lubbock; "Joe" by O. Dale Smith, Amarillo; and "Windwept" by Edwin Snook, Amarillo.

This year's exhibit appears to have as wide an appeal as any ever shown here. Ernest Dillon of Canyon won the grand prize with "Hell Cat," a big enlargement of the head of an enraged kitten. Other top places were won by Cy Clemmons, Amarillo; J. T. Fountain, Lubbock; O. Dale Smith, Amarillo; and H. D. Ohm, San Antonio.

The prints cover a wide range of subjects but include many pictures of animals this year.
