

The Editor
Speaking

When we get around to the Senior Editions each year, we know that it will not be long until the black-gowned young men and women will be ranged on the platform receiving the long-sought parchment scrolls which proclaim to the world that they have achieved an education. The last days of the Senior year are always filled with an endless round of activities and the Senior Edition is one of these yearly activities.

To all of those who are inclined to be skeptical toward the success of assembly programs presented by student groups, I desire to call attention to the Centennial Pageant given by students of the Spanish department Thursday. If every program presented by students were as well done as this one, there would be no skepticism or prejudice toward them. Evidently, the program Thursday had been carefully rehearsed many times.

Another progressive step in instruction will be realized this week when Coach Baggett's varsity candidates are filmed in action by a motion picture camera. These pictures will be used during the coaching school of the summer session. The gridsters will be able to watch themselves in action and will have the mistakes pointed out to them by nationally known coaches. In this way they will learn to profit by their mistakes. This motion picture idea, or may we call it visual instruction, is truly something new for W. T.

Spring always brings with it an epidemic of picnics. Every organization in school is trying to have an outing now, or has just returned from one. Judging from the general appearance of the Seniors Saturday following the Sneak, their recreational activities seriously interfered with their "beauty sleep." The hard-working members of the Press Club will take a few hours off, an abundance of buns and weiners, and two or three chaparrons, on a picnic to the Canyon Country Club, Wednesday afternoon.

Contrary to popular expectations and wishes, an abundance of "Vitamin K" descended upon us Sunday afternoon. It was hard to believe that such a thing could happen at this time of the year, but seeing is believing, or (in this case not seeing induced belief).

Student Artists to Get Satisfactory
Meals at Canyons

People who are students in the Palo Duro School of Art will have no trouble securing satisfactory meals at Palo Duro Canyon, according to announcement made Friday by Miss Isabel Robinson, director of the school.

Mrs. Leroy Roberts will serve meals at Coronado Lodge. Mrs. Roberts, an ex-student of W. T., majored in home economics. She had experience last year furnishing meals for an art colony, and her services were highly praised. Well-balanced meals will add much to the comfort and happiness of the artists who will be working in the canyon during the first six weeks of the summer session.

NYA NOTICE

The NYA office at Austin has requested that our time report for this last NYA month, ending May 28, be sent in a week before the close of school, in order that NYA checks can be sent here for distribution before students leave the campus. Accordingly, all supervisors will please see that all students' weekly time reports are in Mr. Shaw's office by noon Wednesday, May 20.

No definite announcement has been received to date as to the continuance of the NYA program. It seems practically certain that no financial aid will be provided for summer students. It is assumed that some NYA program, probably similar to the present one, will be devised for helping needy students next year. Students who may wish to apply for NYA places for next year should leave their names and home addresses with any member of the NYA Committee before they leave for home. Application blanks will then be mailed as soon as we have authority to arrange a program for next year.

Signed: C. A. MURRAY,
Chairman, NYA Committee.

Ninety-Four Seniors To Receive Degrees

Motion Pictures
Will Be Made of Gridmen at Work

Before the conclusion of the spring training session, motion pictures of the gridmen in action will be taken. The motion pictures will deal with the fundamentals and offense which will be used in the first annual spring coaching school June 3-10.

The athletes—41—will be dressed in their snazziest uniforms for the photographs.

Marshall May, new line coach, began work yesterday afternoon with the forward wall. He will stress the finer points of the requisites of line play until the coaching school. Coaches Al Baggett and Bob Cox will continue arduous drilling of the secondary to press out some of the shortcomings in hectic battle.

Red Cross Field
Representative Is Assembly Speaker

Roger C. Plaisted, first aid and life saving field representative for the American National Red Cross, was guest speaker in assembly, Tuesday.

Mr. Plaisted states that the reduction of deaths caused by drowning was from five to six persons per thousand in 1935, to 10 to 12 per thousand in 1913. Of the 31,500 persons dying from accidents happening in the home during the past year, 9 per cent were results of falls occurring in the basement and attic, 4 per cent happened in the bathroom, 11 per cent in the kitchen, 16 per cent on the stairs, 21 per cent in the living-room, and 39 per cent in the bedroom.

Miss Ruth Cross related experiences which have occurred in the College swimming pool during the year.

The program was under the direction of the Physical Education Department.

Olympic Theatre
Installs Air-Cooled
System Recently

The Olympic Theater has recently installed a $2,000 air-conditioning system.

Through the washed air system it is possible to eliminate dust and keep the air in the theater pure at all times.

This is another addition which will make the Olympic theater more pleasant for the summer school student.

The system was installed by the United States Air Conditioning Corp., Minneapolis, Minn. Mr. E. C. Wood of the Dallas branch was in charge of installing the machinery.

W. J. Wooten, manager, has extended an invitation for visitors to examine the cooling plant at any time.

appear, has been president of the class for the second semester.

W. T. High Boys and Girls Hold
Tennis Tourney

The W. T. High boys' and girls' tennis tourney was held on the College courts Monday, beginning at 6 o'clock in the morning and ending at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Due to the large number of entries, one set was considered a match.

In the first round of the boys' singles Harvey defeated Smart, E. R. Smith defeated Clark, Richeson defeated McGehee, Hamblen ousted D. Smith, Hodges drew a bye, Thornton defeated Vaughan, Warren whipped Whitley, and Glen Davis put Ed Line out of the tourney. In the second round, E. R. Smith ousted Harvey, Hamblen defeated Richeson, Hodges beat Thornton, and Davis sent Warren to the showers. In the semi-finals Hamblen ousted E. R. Smith and Davis won a berth in the finals by defeating James Hodges. This placed Hamblen and Davis in the finals and Davis continued to win the championship in the boys' singles of their first all-W. T. High tennis tourney.

In the boys' doubles, the combination of Davis and Richeson marched through three straight sets, defeating the Line-McGehee combination in the finals, to carry off first honors.

In the first round of the girls' singles, Mildred Merchant ousted Martha Miller, Sybil Smith defeated Marjory Merchant, and Miller defeated R. Richeson. In the next round, Smith eliminated Miller, and in the finals Mildred Merchant defeated Sybil Smith to cop the championship of the girls' singles.

In the initial rounds of the girls' doubles the Merchant sisters whitewashed the Lockhart-Richeson combination with a count of 6-0. The Miller-Smith tie-up drew a bye, which placed them in the finals. In the championship match Martha Miller and Sybil Smith edged out Marjory and Mildred Merchant to win first place.

The boys' matches were directed by Coach L. T. Barksdale, and the girls' games were played under the direction of Mrs. Bob Cox.

Dr. Hattie M. Anderson, Miss Isabel Robinson and Mrs. T. V. Reeves attended the Texas Centennial Pageant at Amarillo Friday night.

L. W. Blau, '25, is now head of the Geo-physical Research Department of the Humble Oil Company at Houston. He has 60 employees working under his direction.

When in Houston last week-end, President Hill had a short visit with Dr. Alvis Lynch, '23, who is now on the faculty of Rice Institute.

NOTICE SENIORS

The date of the president's reception for the Senior Class has been changed to Monday evening, May 25.

There will also be a class meeting Thursday in Room 211 at 11 o'clock to make plans for Class Day.

F. E. Savage, professor of education who, with Mrs. Savage, has sponsored the present Senior Class since 1932-33.

The undaunted Savages, four years ago, so far forgot themselves as to accept the sponsorship of the gaping and uninitiated freshman class. Probably having held their breath for these four years, they have, nevertheless, graciously accepted the responsibility thrust upon them by a grateful but blundering group.

DR. HILL RECEIVES
HISTORIC FACSIMILE

The Museum of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society now has a facsimile copy of the Texas Declaration of Independence. This gift was made to President J. A. Hill of the College by John Wallace, a member of the Texas State Board of Control. The first words of the document are: "The unanimous declaration of independence made by the delegates of the people of Texas—at the town of Washington on the second day of March 1836."

The document will be put into a case and will be on display at the Museum.

Museum Receives
Old Paper From
Higgins Journalist

A paper giving the story of the founding of the Panhandle Press Association has been given to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society through the kindness of L. P. Shaw, who has been editor of the Higgins News since 1905.

The Panhandle Press Association was organized in June, 1909, at Canadian.

Among other things contained in the paper, which was written at this year's Panhandle-Press Association meeting, is a list of Panhandle papers which lived for a time and were discontinued. Names included are: Monday Morning News, Star, Eagle, Herald, Champion, Bulletin, Monitor, Square Dealer, Socialist, Inspector, Dispatch, Chronicle, Banner Stockman, and Western Pilot.

Clyde W. Warwick, editor of the Canyon News, has been actively identified with the Panhandle Press Association since 1910, and John McCarty of Amarillo, Editor of the Amarillo Daily News, was its president during 1935.

Ira Jenkins and Louise Shanklin Jenkins, '27, and their little daughter, are enjoying their new home which they completed a few months ago at Houston. Ira is employed by the Star Engraving Company, and Louise teaches in the public schools.

Ira Allen, who finished at W. T. when the College was still on the two-year basis, is now a successful lawyer in Houston.

Statistics Show Seniors Are Prominent In School Activities

Seniors are especially prominent in school activities this year, as a perusal of statistics show. Next year the ambitious young person may go to West Texas State as the land of opportunity, since many admirable positions will be vacated by the '36 class.

The band will lose Martin Baze, Broughton Hardin, Carl Spratt and Charles Stratton; the men's chorus, most of the same men, Carl Spratt, Broughton Hardin, Charles Stratton, Ray Vineyard and Horace Hickox. Pauline Thompson leaves the women's chorus.

Officers of the organizations on the campus who are Seniors are: Epsilon Betas, Seth Lindsey, vice-president; Ogden Stroud and John Rankin, prominent members; Pi Omegas, Ruth Stapleton, president; Zua Gae Warner, vice-president; Marion Hill, Prairie reporter, and Mary Louise Mulkey; Alpha Sigma Xi, Dean Fletcher, R. M. Thompson, Raymond Debenport.

The literary societies are also bereft. June Bieler, president; Ethel Howard, vice-president, and Horace Hickox, secretary, leave the Cousins Sesame. Adella Beavers, who among other things is college beauty, leaves the Elapheians as president.

Seniors have been represented in the Student Council by R. M. Thompson, Ruth Stapleton, and Marion Hill. Alpha Chi Seniors include James Divilbiss, president; Woodrow Toone, annual representative; Mabel Hare, Prairie reporter; Imogene Holbert, Christine Warren, Verna Jester, Helen Edwards, Charles Stratton.

Active in publications are Ruth Stapleton, Ethel Rowland, Zua Gae Warner, and Marion Hill.

The International Relations Club has had a complete Senior executive staff, Willie Boedecker, president; Virginia Robey, vice-president; June Bieler, secretary; Deane Fletcher, annual representative; Mabel Hare, reporter.

Kappa Omicron Phi has as vice-president Helen Edwards; secretary, Cleo Heath; Distaff correspondent, June Farnsworth; Home Economics Club, president, Vallie Harrell; vice-president, Betty Hicks.

Frances Rogers has been finance chairman of Y. W. C. A. Woodrow Toone has been president, and Lonnas Fortenberry, secretary of the Swisher County Club. Mary Orton is resigning as president of W. A. A. Student assistants include Verna Jester, secretary to the dean, and Martin Baze, chemistry assistant.

Football loses John Rankin, captain; Frank Van Noy and R. D. Wheelock; basketball, Willie Boedecker, captain.

Student Presents
Piano Recital in Studio 105 Friday

Mrs. LaVerne Cannon, Senior piano student, presented a piano recital Friday afternoon in Miss Pauline Brigham's studio. The studio was crowded with friends of Mrs. Cannon. Her father and mother were members of the audience.

The program of selections was as follows:

Prelude No. IX Bach
Sonata Op. 10, No. 1 Beethoven
Allegro molto.
Nocturne Schumann
In the Forest Whelpley
Nocturne Op. 9 No. 2 Chopin
The Girl with the Flaxen Hair Debussy
Juba Dett

Miss Embelle Knight will play a recital tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, in the piano studio, room 105. The public is cordially invited to hear this recital.

Sociology Class
Visits Home For Insane Tuesday

Twenty-seven members of one of Prof. J. L. Dufflot's sociology classes visited the state home for the insane at Wichita Falls, Tuesday. Arrangements for the inspection of the home were made with Charles W. Castener, who is its head.

Leaving Canyon at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning, the party arrived in Wichita Falls shortly after 11 and were guests at the home. The next step of the trip was a lecture by Dr. A. T. Hanretta, the resident psychiatrist. Next, members of the class were shown through several wards.

The trip was considered very profitable and successful. Professor Dufflot commented especially on the helpfulness and courtesy with which the students were treated. Most of them had never visited an institution of this kind before.

Seniors Caught
In Feverish
Whirl

Seniors are having a touch of spots before the eyes and occasional apoplexy over the Commencement rush, already begun. Since the Senior party, Wednesday, at Cousins Hall (if you must be technical, since the Senior play two weeks ago), the poor things have been wishing that they were dead or that they'd worked sooner on those dissertations (camouflaged term themes) so they might enjoy the joys that rain as from heaven (or is it the Junior class?).

Seemingly, the Seniors are trying to crowd enough memories into three weeks to make W. T. appear pleasant to their progeny.

Sneak Day, Friday, which has already depleted one or two strong men, left even the brave smiling palely at the Junior Prom-Party, Saturday evening.

More is to follow! Wednesday the Senior Speech Recital will leave many gasping, with admiration. Friday, the Panhandle Players Production with three plays for a quarter should cause several more scholarships to be lost.

And, there is no Sunday sleep before Commencement Week. Seniors are keeping Commencement calendars to read next July, maybe August. Featured during the week are such events as a chapel program, the president's reception, the band concert, the Commencement concert, graduation exercises, the alumni dinner, and, thereafter nervous breakdowns and deep sleep.

Few of the rushers are making statements for publication; however, one was caught muttering in his beard, "I'd like to write an editorial on professors who don't exempt perfectly honorable people."

Seniors Will Give Speech Recital In
Ed. Auditorium Wed.

The Senior Speech Recital will be given Wednesday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock in the Education auditorium by the Senior students of Miss Mary Morgan Brown.

Arranged as it will be presented, the program follows: "Ashes of Roses," Constance D'Arcy MacKay, by Christine Warren; "Patterns," Amy Lowell, by Sybil Payne; "A Marriage Has Been Arranged," Alfred Sutro, by Ruth Stapleton. Everyone is invited to attend.

Hall To Deliver
Commencement
Address May 28Outstanding As Chairman
Of Committee On Standards

Climaxing Commencement Week, degrees will be conferred upon 94 members of the Senior Class, by Pres. J. A. Hill, during the Commencement exercises, at which Dean Colby D. Hall will speak.

Colby D. Hall, dean of Texas Christian University for a number of years, will deliver the Commencement address Thursday morning, May 28. The exercises, beginning at 10 o'clock, will be held in the auditorium of the Administration Building.

Dean Hall's most outstanding work has been his service as chairman of the Committee on Standards, an important committee of the Association of Texas Colleges. Besides his position as dean of T. C. U., Dean Hall is considered by his associates to be one of the most outstanding educators in Texas.

Below are listed the graduating Seniors, their home address, and their major.

Twenty-two will receive Bachelor of Art degrees:

Avis June Bieler, Farwell, speech major; LaFaye Bieler, Spur, intermediate education; Peggy Caldwell, Hedley, English; Lucy Ewing Clawson, Lockney, Spanish; Mary Carolyn Cox, Canyon, history; Mattie Wave Grammer, Amarillo, English; Mabel Hare, Swearingen, English; Barbara Anne Hawkins, Panhandle, English; Imogene Holbert, Amarillo, English.

Verna Marie Jester, Amarillo, English-history; Nan Johnson, Canyon, English; Ozle Loftis, Spring Lake, English; David John Thomas Martin, Shamrock, history; Ruth Mohon, Kirkland, educational administration; Louise Ramey, Panhandle, primary education; Frances E. Rogers, Pampa, English; Mrs. Emma A. Rose, Tulsa, primary education.

S. Emily Smith, Memphis, primary education; Zula Gae Warner, Amarillo, English-art; Christine Warren, Plainview, speech; Bethline Williams, Amarillo, English; and Helen Faythe Yeats, Spur, Spanish.

Seventy-two will receive Bachelor of Science degrees:

Savage Says
He Is Not
A Sissy

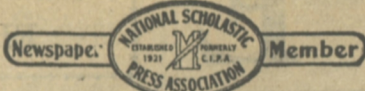

Sponsor Savage ate so much picnic fare, pickles, potato chips, coffee, pop—and sundry things, when he was unrestricted, that he had to leave the Sneakers to their own devices for a while.

He adds this further message to the Senior Class and to anyone with whom the Seniors might have conversed: "—and, furthermore, I am not a 'sissy,' nor a 'frayd cat' even if I did glow up and have to be brought home on a stretcher from 'Senior sneak' at 2:30 in the morning."

FRESHMEN, GREASE, AND THE FLAGPOLE.

After weeks of waiting on those persons who greased the campus flagpole on the night of March 31, we are moved to inquire as to whether or not this unsightly mixture of grease and dust is going to be removed by those persons.

The United States flag is an emblem, a symbol of the greatness of our country. It represents deeds of bravery, heroic sacrifices, and the deaths of countless soldiers who suffered those deaths in defense of their country—in defense of our country.

The pole from which this great flag is flown is no less sacred. Of necessity, it is a part of the flag and all that it stands for.

Probably those who committed this indiscretion failed to consider these things at the time it was done. That does not prevent them from making amends, in a measure, by seeing that the removal of the grease is accomplished before the end of the semester.

Are you who are reading this guilty?

MARCH ON!

Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen, are you still marching?

For some of you, it is the end of your college career. You are leaving, never to return, and each of you will tread entirely different paths on through life.

More than half of you will never teach school, because when you walk out the door of this institution, you will push the school teaching profession behind.

Seniors, you have attained one goal, and admiration follows for your achievement. You are now cast out into the open fields which challenge you.

Juniors, you are too near your goal to turn back now. Can you hit the top, with the greatest honors ever reached, in your hands?

Sophomores, those two years were your struggle. You are half done. The trail forward is a smoother and wider road than the trail back.

Freshman, you are no longer green. You are wiser, and it is forward, forward to the end. You have the vigorous strength to march on, and power to you.

Classes of '36, no matter what paths you take, there is the stamp of W. T. somewhere on you, and there is the challenge—MARCH ON!

TRITE, AND WORSE

Making a trite subject worse, Senior editions limit themselves in editorial material to "Commencement" or, possibly, if the student body is not too obtuse, to "The Ethiopian Situation." However, since Mae West's latest statement to the effect that no girl with her future in mind ever admits that she knows what Ethiopia is (or is it "was," now, since Mussolini's move?), we find ourselves resorting to "Commencement"—or did I say "Growing Up!"

Consider the case of the college graduate. If he isn't an octogenarian when he graduates, he goes bravely forth to conquer the world or a board of trustees—and the world hides behind a windmill and laughs at his tilting. He rejoices that he no longer rises hurriedly to meet an 8 o'clock class—and finds with sadness that he must rise even more hurriedly in order to start the "home fires burning" before office hours.

He declares his independence of asking pater familias for a measly fifty dollars to pay class dues—and goes forth jauntily to ask a capitalist for a job (that 50 Communists or proletariats, or something, want) that will buy the daily sandwich.

He forswears burning the midnight oil, delving into the age-old question of maintaining the balance of power—and finds himself burning more midnight oil considering the perennially new question of how to maintain a balanced budget.

He boasts that never again will the dean call him upon the carpet for being out late at night—and finds with dismay that the "boss" is even more incensed if he gets in late in the morning.

In short, he letteth the light of his completed education shine generously upon an ignorant world—and the world blinketh its eyes and saith, "How bright!"

Uh, by the way, what do you think of the Ethiopian situation—or have you had a course in thinking?

FROM THE SENIOR PREXY

Seeing Graduation Day slowly but surely draw near, we Seniors realize, with a feeling akin to regret, that we will soon be out of the whirl of college life. We look back on the four happy and eventful years we have spent in preparing ourselves for graduation and realize that they have been filled with a series of momentarily momentous problems which had to be solved. With the solving of each successive problem (How can I pass that English course? Who can I date tonight?) we were strengthened and better fitted to face the problems of the next day. At the time we did not realize that the solving of these problems was a necessary part of our preparation for graduation.

This realization forces us to issue a final bit of friendly advice to the rest of the student body. We have come face to face with the last and greatest problem of our college careers. Keenly feeling the need for more preparation, we offer this parting piece of advice to you. Point all of your future activities in college toward preparation for the solving of this inevitable and perplexing problem—How can I get out of all my final exams?—James Divilbiss.

TO THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1936

You were kind enough to elect us as your sponsors for the school year 1935-1936. We want you to know that we have enjoyed this distinction. While it may be that we have not done so much to help you, our thoughts and efforts have always been for the betterment of your welfare and the promotion of your happiness. Your leaders have always been co-operative, considerate, and responsive. It has been a pleasure to work and associate with a group of people such as the Seniors of 1936 at W. T.

May we wish for all of you a continuation of your success and happiness. You will always find us ready to welcome you on your return visits to our school home. Come back often and stay long.

All Work And No Play Makes Better Grades

All work and no play make Jack a dull boy, but part-time jobs lead to higher grades and better work.

This fact was established after a state-wide poll of the grades of 6,000 NYA students in colleges by Lyndon B. Johnson, Texas NYA director, revealed that 69.2 per cent of students with NYA jobs are making above-the-average grades.

The NYA student aid program is under the direction of school officials in that they select the youths, assign them to socially desirable work, and supervise their activities. College students work an average of 46 hours per month and receive an average wage of $15 per month for their work.

Of the 6,000 college students having part-time NYA work, more than 1,700 have jobs which call for clerical and secretarial work. Campus improvement work is second with approximately 1,350 students assigned under this head.

A total of 1,250 students are acting as teachers' assistants, which includes grading papers, tutoring, and doing laboratory supervision. Eight hundred youths are working in libraries, 180 are serving as recreational assistants, 154 are doing farm experimentation work, and 46 are playing their way through school in bands and orchestras.

Sixty-three youths are aiding on school publications, 89 are being used by civic and public agencies, and 44 are assisting in dining rooms.

Elephant Tusks Excavated; to Be Placed on Exhibit

Two almost perfectly preserved tusks of the extinct species Imperial elephant, the largest elephants known, have been excavated on the Gilbert Ranch, 23 miles southeast of Claude, by C. Stuart Johnston, assistant professor of archaeology and paleontology.

Each of the tusks was 10 feet in length and 10 inches in diameter. In life, the tusks probably weighed 350 pounds each, Mr. Johnston said. The largest known modern elephant tusks weighed 243 pounds. The animal likely measured 14 feet in height at the shoulder, judging from the length of two well-preserved leg bones which were found in the same deposit. A section of vertebrae and some ribs have also been excavated. Work is still in progress, and it is hoped that enough bones will be found to assemble the skeleton.

These fossils are being prepared for exhibit in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum. Considerable time will be required for the work, however. Don Savage and Wayne Miles, students, are assisting in the work of preparation.

Peggy Caldwell, class of '36, has recently won the Critic's prize given by the Texas Poetry Society. This prize was awarded at the May meeting of the society. The subject of the winning poem was "Wind."

Senator Nelson Is Special Lecturer During Summer

Sen. G. H. Nelson of Tahoka, representative of district No. 30, is to be one of the special lecturers in connection with the course on contemporary economic and political problems this summer.

Senator Nelson will appear on June 12 and will discuss needed reforms in organization of the state legislature. He believes that one small legislative body will attend to the state's business more expeditiously and skillfully than two houses, one of which is extremely large.

Dr. Harris M. Cook delivered the commencement address at Clarendon Junior College Thursday night and at the Oklaunion High School Friday.

Registrar D. A. Shirley delivered the graduation address to the 29 graduates of McKinley School in Amarillo Wednesday night.

—for Digestion's sake...smoke Camels

SPRING FEVER makes digging into studies all the harder—mental tension increases. But Camels help. They add much to the enjoyment of life. Camels give you a "lift"—and never get on your nerves.

One of life's most enjoyable experiences is the pleasure Camels add to eating

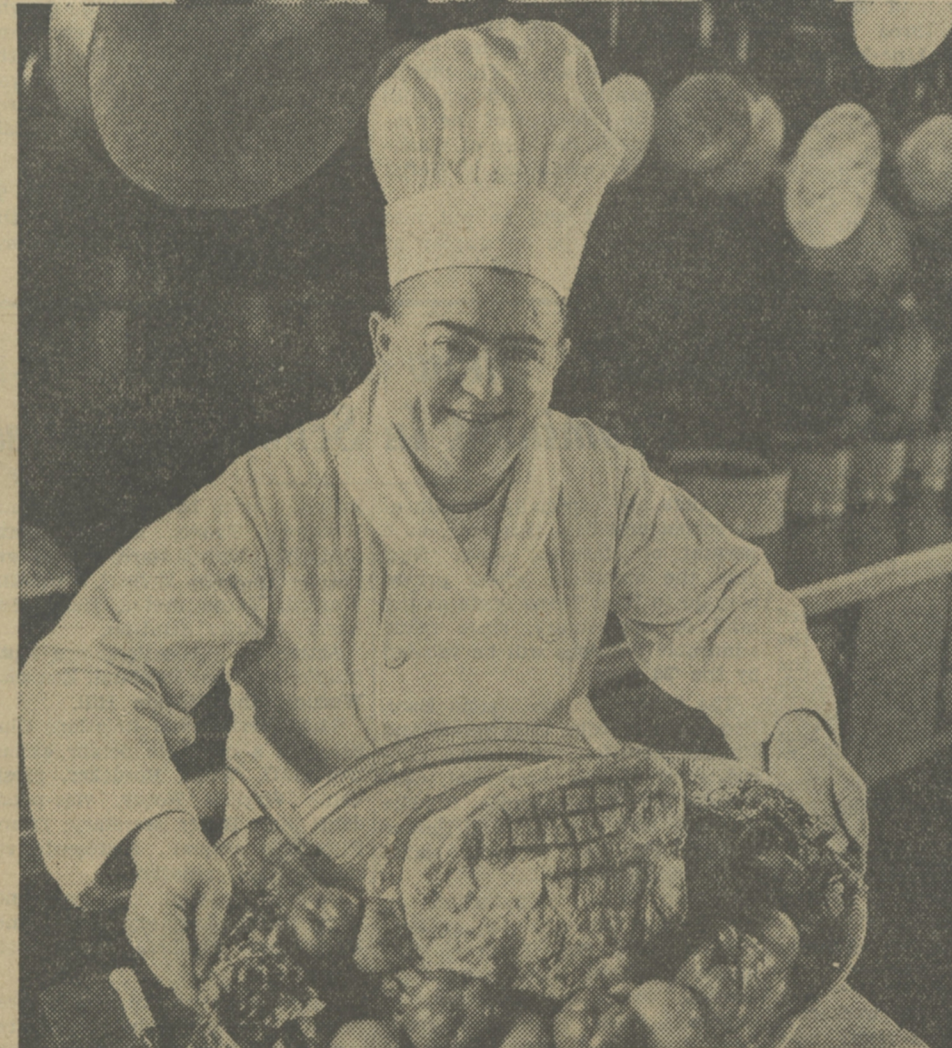

You have surely noticed how much more you enjoy eating when your mind is free from care. No mental strain or hurry slows down the natural flow of digestive fluids.

Much of this same enjoyment is yours when you smoke Camels. Smoking Camels increases the supply of alkaline digestive fluids...so necessary for zest while you eat and for digestive well-being afterward.

In Camels, you find tobacco at once rich, mild, and perfect in taste. Camels set you right! They give you a cheery "lift." And never jangle your nerves or tire your taste.

THE CHEF PRESENTS a Planked Sirloin Steak à la Parker, named, like the renowned rolls, for the famous Parker House in Boston. Martin J. Lavin, banquet manager, is impressed with the great number of people who smoke Camels. He says: "Camels are a favorite with those who love good food. At the Parker House, Camels are outstandingly popular."

Bride-To-Be Receives Miscellaneous Gift Shower Friday Afternoon

Miss Marion Hill, whose engagement to Lemore Hill of Amarillo was announced last week, was honored with a lovely miscellaneous shower Friday afternoon with Mrs. F. E. Savage, Mrs. J. S. Humphreys, Mrs. D. A. Shirley, Mrs. R. P. Jarrett and Miss Florence McMurtry as hostesses.

A profusion of spring flowers added beauty and fragrance to the spacious reception room of Cousins Hall, where the party was held.

After the guests had assembled, Houston Bright and Nell McNeely sang "Indian Love Call" and "I Love You Truly." The musicians were concealed so that the music seemed to come from a distance. Miss Novella Goodman, friend and teacher of the bride-to-be, gave a short tribute to her. Next Miss Alta Vaughan, and Miss Louise Noe, dressed as heralds, entered, carrying a throne-chair decked with syringa, bridal wreath and white maline, which Miss Hill was invited to occupy. Her mother, Mrs. J. A. Hill, and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. J. E. Hill, were seated at her right and left. The beautiful gifts were then brought to the bride, and as she unwrapped them one by one, they were listed by Miss Edna Graham and then passed to the guests.

At 5 o'clock, tea was served, Mrs. J. A. Hill and Mrs. J. E. Hill pouring at a lace-covered table which was decorated with blue cornflowers and yellow candles.

The guest list included Misses Anna I. Hibbets, Darthula Walker, Ruth Cross, Ima Barlow, Edna Graham, Helen Hickman, Ruth Lowes, Jean Moore, Novella Goodman, Agnes Charlton, Hattie M. Anderson, Isabel Robinson, Tennessee Malone, Mary Morgan Brown, M. Moss Richardson, Pauline Brigham, Linnie Babston, Helen White Moore, Ada V. Clark, Jennie C. Ritchie, Mary E. Hudspeeth, Elizabeth Cox, and Orpa Dennis.

Mmes. B. F. Fronabarger, A. M. Meyer, Florence Fulton, Joe Hill, Jr., J. A. Hill, Mary R. Silgar, T. M. Moore, Travis Shaw, S. H. Condon, L. P. Sheffy, Al Baggett, Mitchell Jones, J. A. Gillis, R. A. Terrill, L. S. Baker, T. V. Reeves, Robert Hunt, C. A. Murry, T. B. McCarter, Frank R. Phillips, Lee Johnson, Stuart Johnston, W. R. Clark, C. A. Pierle, Bob Cox, Tommie Montfort, H. M. Cook, Herschel Coffee, Herschel Jennings, Nancy McCaslin, and W. E. Lockhart, all of Canyon.

Mmes. J. W. Hill, Davis Hill, and John E. Hill of Amarillo.

JUNIORS ENTERTAIN SENIORS

The Junior Class and their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Condon, entertained the Senior Class with a spring prom in Cousins Hall Saturday evening. The hall was softly lighted where the ladies and their escorts danced until 11 o'clock to the music of the Kampus Kats.

Food punch and cookies were served throughout the evening and guests who did not dance enjoyed ping-pong, dominoes, and bridge.

Chaperons for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Condon, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley, Dr. and Mrs. Jarrett, Miss Graham, and Mrs. Savage.

WARWICK'S

SCIENCE CLUB HOLDS LAST MEETING

The Science Club held its last meeting of the year Wednesday evening in the Education Building.

Prof. C. A. Murray talked to the group on the relationship between mathematics and science. He classified sciences into "exact" and "descriptive" sciences on the basis of the application of mathematics to their problems. Then he pointed out the efforts of the so-called descriptive sciences to become exact by the use of mathematics.

Malcolm Wyatt gave a report on the American Chemical Society convention in Kansas City which he and Dr. Pierle attended recently. He described the sessions attended, from a student's point of view, and was successful in injecting a great deal of human interest into his report.

The club was pleased with the program, it being considered representative of the good work done throughout the year. Last fall, the organization adopted the policy of having at least one student report on each program. The members agreed that the policy had been followed without sacrificing the quality or variety of the programs.

MISS LENNA FOSTER AND OTIS PARKER TO WED

At a beautifully appointed bridge party Saturday, May 9, formal announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Lenna Foster to Mr. James Otis Parker of Gallup, N. M., was made at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Foster.

Many bowls of pink and white sweet peas, roses and spirea were attractively arranged in the entertaining rooms.

The tallies of white and silver, each with a soft, tinkling wedding bell attached to the inside, carried the message of the important event with the inscription "Lenna-Otis-May 30."

High score award won by Mrs. Clyde Davis and consolation prize received by Miss Olive Schramm were presented to the honoree, who had previously won the traveling prize.

Molded wedding bells of ice cream, individual iced cakes, punch and mints were served, completing the color scheme of pink and silver introduced earlier in the evening.

Those present were Misses Gwendolyn Black, Ethel Ruth Collins, Helen White Moore, Pearl Black, Lillian Chambers, Hattie M. Anderson, Virginia Jarrett, Ann Smith, Frances Usery, Gladys McClanahan, Frances Grimes, Ruth Greenfield, Pauline Brigham, Irene Angel, Elva Fronabarger, and Olive Schramm. Mrs. Robert Hunt, Mrs. Irbay Carruth, Mrs. R. E. Ball, Mrs. G. G. Foster, Mrs. Clyde Davis, Mrs. Jack Foster, Mrs. Donald Trolinger, Mrs. Paul Foster of Hereford, and Mrs. Isabel Cousins.

Miss Foster is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Foster of this city.

MISS LENNA FOSTER HAS HANDKERCHIEF SHOWER

Miss Lenna Foster, whose coming marriage to Otis Parker of Gallup, N. M., on May 30, was announced last week, was honored with a handkerchief shower and bridge party Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Robert Hunt of Canyon.

The room was decorated with pink roses, bridal wreath and mock orange blossoms.

Dainty gay handkerchiefs tied in unique packages and arranged on a silver tray were presented to Miss Foster as a surprise after four held second high score. Miss Pauline Brigham held high score.

Tuna fish salad, cucumber sandwiches cut in heart shape, ripe olives, Russian tea, and coffee were served to the seven guests including Misses Helen White Moore, Pauline Brigham, Frances Usery, Frances Grimes, Ruth Greenfield, Mrs. Frances Foster, Miss Lenna Foster, the honoree, and the hostess, Mrs. Robert Hunt.

WILEY GRANTED DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Another member of the West Texas State Teachers College faculty has been granted the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. This is Miss Margaret Wiley of the English department. Miss Wiley's degree will be formally conferred on June 9 by the University of Virginia. For the last two years Miss Wiley has been doing part time teaching in the English department of the University of Texas, and working upon her dissertation.

Faculty guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Savage, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill, Dean and Mrs. Jarrett, and Miss Graham.

SENIORS ENTERTAIN GUESTS WITH PARTY

Seniors entertained guests with a dance Wednesday evening at Cousins Hall from 8 until 11 o'clock to the music of Houston Bright's Kampus Kats.

Faculty guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Savage, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill, Dean and Mrs. Jarrett, and Miss Graham.

W. T. HIGH HOLDS ANNUAL JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The annual W. T. H. S. Junior-Senior banquet was held last Friday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock, in the dining room of Cousins Hall.

Meredith Warren, Senior Class president, served as toastmaster, and gave the welcome.

The theme of the program was "The Texas Centennial." Programs, place cards, and the arrangement of the tables also carried out the Centennial theme.

Lela Louder sang two French songs, "On the Bridge of Avignon," and "Mignonne." Pearl Mayben and Anita Cleland did the Mexican dance, "La Cucaracha"; Junior Class prophecies were given by Glen Davis; two cowboy songs and an original number, "W. T. High Won't Be What It Used to Be After the Seniors Are Gone," were sung by Owen Harvey and Gebo Clark. Senior prophecies were presented by Ruth Campbell. Mary Frances Douglas, Lyman York McGee, Billy Czermer, and Lawrence Hodges danced the minuet. Other class prophecies were read by Brynild Vaughan. Two humorous negro readings, "A Marriage License," and "What's the Bride Worth?" were given by J. D. Roberts. Two Spanish songs by Marjorie Merchant closed the program.

LOYD GREEN ALLEN CHAPTER HAS SUNRISE BREAKFAST

The Lloyd Green Allen Chapter of Alpha Chi combined its last meeting of the year with a sunrise breakfast, Sunday morning at the Country Club.

After breakfast, officers for next year were elected. They are: President, Otis Harman; vice-president, Ray McEntire; secretary, Mildred Lindsey; treasurer, Georgene Henson; social chairman, J. C. Baker and Kathryn Robinson.

All of the new officers were present except Ray McEntire. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson, Sam Johnson, D. A. Shirley, Dr. Ford Fronabarger, Dr. Hattie M. Anderson, Miss Edna Graham, Helen Edwards, James Divilbiss, Mabel Hare, and Margaret Meyer.

WATKINS HOUSE GIRLS GIVE SHOWER FOR BRIDE

Miss Ada Marie Harbert and Mrs. E. T. Watkins entertained with a shower Thursday afternoon at 5:30 for Mrs. Kit Taylor, formerly Charlotte Hunt, who was married March 8 to Kit Taylor of Dumas.

Tables were decorated in purple and white and the bride received a number of lovely gifts.

HOME EC. BANQUET HONORS SENIOR GIRLS

A formal Home Economics banquet was given in honor of the Senior Home Economics girls Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Colorful pastel maypoles were used as center-pieces and lighted candles decorated the tables, where 45 guests were seated. Corsages of sweet peas were presents to guests of honor. Programs were hand-made in the shape of gates with baskets of flowers on the latches and as the gate opened, the menu and program were disclosed.

Mrs. Word entertained with a number of her piano compositions. Refreshments were served to the following: Betty Jones, Troyce Carmichael, Marjory Day, June Day, Darrell Hemphill, Jim Kirby, Georgia Clark, L. O. Speer, Ruth Cantrell, W. B. Persons, Charlotte Alice Tubb, Norton Curry.

SENIORS HOLD ANNUAL SNEAK DAY

The Senior Class members motored to Harding's Ranch Friday afternoon and returned Saturday, after celebrating the annual Senior Sneak Day. Picnic lunches, beds rolled out under the open sky, and kid games, made the affair one of enjoyment and one not soon to be forgotten by the Seniors.

Life-Saving Tests Create Merriment

"Ouch, my hair!" and "Keep my head up," are expressions typical of the scenes during the life-saving tests Tuesday. Poor victims, if they weren't already drowning, they might soon be!

Roger C. Plaisted, first-aid and life-saving field representative for the midwestern branch of the American Red Cross, talked in assembly Tuesday morning on phases of first aid and life-saving. That afternoon he gave the tests. The tests consisted of approaches, carries, breaking holds, and treading water.

Wayne Miles, Mrs. Bob Cox, and Mitchell Jones received renewals for their life-saving certificates. Mary Helen Bybee, Ivey Howard, and Landon Terry passed the tests and fulfilled all requirements for temporary appointments for certificates. Since they are not of age for the two-year appointment, it will last only for this summer.

Those students who passed examinations for senior life-saving badges under Mitchell Jones and Mrs. Bob Cox are Gertrude Reed, Marjory Day, Bill Miles, Roger Townsend, E. Ray Smith, Landon Terry, and Ivey Howard.

Jacqueline Tabor and John Gillespie passed the same tests, but because of the age limit, they will receive junior badges.

Mr. Plaisted visits schools once a year to give the tests. Anyone who passes them is eligible for teaching junior and senior life-saving.

JUNIOR HOME MAKERS ENTERTAIN 7TH GRADE

The Home Makers Club entertained the Seventh Grade Girls with a hike and picnic at South Creek Friday afternoon.

After a game of baseball, refreshments of hot dogs, lemonade, marshmallows, cookies and candy were served.

The group was entertained by Miss Orpa Dennis, sponsor of the club.

MUSEUM TO BE OPEN FOR LONGER PERIOD

For the convenience of tourists en route to the Texas Centennial this summer, the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum will be open from 9 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

This schedule will remain in force during the summer term.

Panhandle-Wide Centennial Fete To Be in Pampa

A Panhandle-wide Centennial celebration will be held in Pampa June 2 to 5, inclusive. It will be the only Panhandle-wide celebration of its kind this year and Pioneers of this section from far and wide are expected.

The entire program is being dedicated to the "sustained courage" of Panhandle Pioneers. Three big pageants depicting the struggles of early-day settlers, and the first great scouts of the Panhandle will be staged during the celebration, along with a big parade each day, two or more dances each evening, rodeo each afternoon except the first, when baseball will be on the card. Other entertaining features include a polo game, a horse show and a relic auto race.

Governor James V. Allred speaks June 2, Boy Scout Day, June 3 is Oil Men's Reunion Day; June 4 is Old-Timers' Day, and June 5 is Governor's Day, with Governor Clyde Tingley of New Mexico billed to make the principal address.

Old relics are being hunted in every town to be entered in the old relic contest. Special invitations are extended to all old-timers who will be entertained with a free barbecue, dances, and other entertainment features.

Pampa citizens have donned cowboy boots and hats to give the proper setting for the celebration, and are using wooden money as legal tender. The wooden money carries the pictures of two outstanding Panhandle Pioneers, Col. Charles Goodnight and T. D. Hobart.

John Gillham, a graduate of Canyon High School and West Texas State Teachers College, has been elected to teach vocational agriculture in the Miami High School. He is now attending school at Texas Tech at Lubbock.

Edited by Marion Hill

Since the Seniors think they are rather important around here, Editor Bill thought he'd feed their vanity a bit and give them a special edition of "The Prairie"—and here it is. . . . So we suppose it quite fitting for this column to be principally devoted to their doings. At any rate, we understand that the following was observed by one of our snoopers out at the Senior sneak:

Seth Lindsey, the shoe snatcher, leaving four beautiful co-eds with their feet exposed to nature in the raw.

Wendell Cain playing, as usual, the good sport.

Doc Turner proving he has a mighty physique as well as a mighty brain.

Ralph Poe striving to keep his pants up by benefit of a piece of twine string. . . . He just did make it!

Dignified Seniors (?) playing "One and Over."

Gene Whitman showing up Dizzy Dean (not Fletcher).

Pop Savage showing his marvelous showing on K. P. duty.

Mom Savage, Georgia Crutchfield, Mrs. Goodman and June Bieler absorbed in playing "berge"!

A. B. Reese acting like a he-man.

Ruth Stapleton and Christine Warren perched on the rail with 10 boys at their feet!

Prexy Divilbiss humbly playing hindcatcher, without a murmur.

Malcolm Wyatt and Frances Grimes taking a stroll.

How did you enjoy the bus ride, La Rue?

Carl Spratt being, as usual, a swell fellow. Incidentally, old Mahatma really made a swell umpire.

Louise Ramey and Myles McGeehe shouldering their responsibility.

Wayne Miles running off a cliff after the base ball.

Wilbur Spaugh with a sheepish grin.

Dean Fletcher strutting his stuff.

Willie Boedecker winding up to fan out Wayne Miles.

Ruby Williams running hither and yon.

Ruth Stapleton acting as Senior nurse.

Joyce Gilbert cooking grub.

R. D. Wheelock and his perpetual grin.

Alta Atkinson being generally useful.

So much for the Seniors!

R. M. Thompson giving undivided attention to Bobby McGaugh.

It seems that diamonds are still flourishing around here. We see

A TEAM CONCLUDES SEASON WITH 7-6 VICTORY OVER B's

Record Shows Eight First Downs For A's Five For B's

By exhibiting a determined brand of football, the A team finished the spring training session by holding the B team charges of Coach Al Baggett to a 7-6 score, Friday night.

The B team, paced by Horton and Marchbanks in the line and Butler and Thomas in the backfield, clearly demonstrated a spark of running and blocking equal to that of the regular bunch. Statistics indicate eight first downs for the A's and five for the B's.

Conway Butler, stubborn 170-pound B fullback, furnished the headline of the game when he intercepted Murry's pass and trotted 50 yards for pay dirt. Lyde's place-kick was wide. Score: A, 0; B, 6.

Murry and Dow took matters over at this point to manufacture the margin of triumph. Dow returned Cain's kickoff from the 15 to the 40. Murry followed with a 25-yard pickup on a lateral. Their offense faltered in shadow of the goal posts. Murry took Thomas' kick back to the 35-yard stripe. Two plays later he angled a forward to Dow, who scored standing up. Dow nonchalantly kicked the deciding point. Score, 7-6.

Perturbed by numerous penalties, the A defense was wobbly in the second canto. Thomas and Butler pounded at their door, but could never gain entrance.

The closing half materialized into a punting duel between Murry and Thomas. The B's relinquished an excellent scoring chance in the third quarter when Faulkner recovered Watkins' fumble on the A 32. Walling stopped the leak when he sifted through to set Lyde back 15 yards.

A recovery of Thomas' fumble on the B 47 evened the breaks. Dow, Murry, and Gibson combined, to place the ball on the eight-yard line. A series of passes failed and the hapless first-stringers took the defensive. Slack was injured on final play.

Starting lineup:

A Team	Position	B Team
Waggoner	LE	Speer
C. Meek	LT	Meek
Champion	LG	Faulkner
Jackson (C.)	C	Marchbanks
Hinger	RG	Caviness
Walling	RT	Murray

Texas Tech Wins Tennis Meet Over W T Racquetteers

Presenting an unorthodox chopping game, the Texas Tech tennis squad shelled the West Texas State tennis team, 7 to 5, Saturday on the College court. The Mators won six of the nine matches. The singles matches were valued at one point each, and the doubles counted two points.

This is the second meeting of the two squads, Tech having victored in the fall by 6-0.

George Smalley, rangy Buff netter, was hitting with customary abandon in his most impressive performance of the year. He pulled out the lone W. T. singles match, and then doubled with Riley to capture the number 1 doubles de-

Riley wilted before the flawless stroking of Gordon, Tech, winner of the Border Conference meet in Arizona last week. Bothered by the chop strokes of Jordon, Tech, Curry surrendered by a score of 2-6, 6-3, 6-2. Smalley sparked a 6-3, 6-0 win over Bozeman, Tech. Allison's powerful game was solved by McCarty of Tech by 2-6, 6-2, 6-2. Lance defeated Howard, W. T., in straight sets, 6-4, 6-2. Parker of Tech took advantage of Hemphill's errors to victor, 6-4, 6-3.

Smalley and Riley flashed an effective volleying attack to pull out a victory of 6-4, 6-2, in the number 1 doubles.

Curry and Allison played a long and sternly-fought match before they were victorious over Bozeman and Parker of Tech, 6-2, 7-9, 6-4. Lance and McCarty stored the meet away when they barely beat Hemphill and Howard, 6-3, 7-9, 6-3.

NOTICE

The Senior Class will meet at 4:30 o'clock, Saturday, May 23, in the Administration Building auditorium, to practice the professional for the Baccalaureate services and the graduation exercises, as announced by Registrar D. A. Shirley.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Farnsworth, '35, were campus visitors Saturday. Their school at Highland Park has just closed.

Marian O'Brian has accepted a position as art teacher in the Miami schools.
