

Fifty-Three on Fall Semester Honor List

Sections Represent
Five Per Cent of Enrolled Students

Honor roll for the Fall semester as released by Registrar D. A. Shirley lists 53 students in five groups, which represent approximately five per cent of the student body.

Nine were placed in Group I with 6 or 5 A's. They are Georgia Beluey of Lockney, Jim Bugental of Glendale, California, Horace Gordon of Mobeetie, Nell Green of Canyon, Ruth Kreis of Floydada, Gerald Manzer of Wellington, Allen Patman of Clarendon, Kathryn Phillips of Hale Center, and Mary Stringfellow of Nara Visa, N. M.

In Group II are seven students who qualified for the list with 5 A's and 1 B. They are: Edmund Burgess of Canyon, Ernestine Cundiff of Littlefield, Margaret Dixon of Booker, Mrs. Evelyn Hutto of Canyon, Frank Kelly of Panhandle, Bonnie Nance of Justiceburg and Eddythe Shearer of Pampa.

The following fourteen students in Group III have 4 A's and 1 B. on their records: Viola Archer of Canyon, Ruth Ellene Boyd of Oklahoma, Margaret Britten of Groom, Ben Brotherton of Olton, Mary Byerly of Wink, Glen Davis of Shamrock, Earl Gilmore of Wheeler, Jack Haley of Seligman, Ariz., Frances Hoskins of Spearman, Mary Helen Lindsey of Memphis, Berry McCarter of Canyon, Connie Matthews of Canyon, Rodney Rodgers of Amarillo, La Nelle Scheihagen of Hereford, Mildred Smith of Bryson, Elsie Thompson of Canadian, Josephine Troutman of Floydada, and Lucille West of South Plains.

In Group IV are three with 4 A's and 2 B's. They are Frances Phillips of Hale Center, Allen Stecker of Cisco, and Alta Marie Terrell of Pampa.

In the largest section Group V, were the following twenty students who recorded 3 A's and 2 B's: Nola Margaret Blue of Hereford, Charlotte Buchanan of White Deer, Frances Louise Cheatham of Amarillo, Loretta Cole of Canyon, Gwendolyn Coutts of Pampa, Edgar Frazier of Follett, Mary Hester Glaze of Muleshoe, Carolyn Frances Greenway of Hamlin, Mary Isabelle Hanvey of Memphis, Sam Jolly of Amarillo, Lucille Morris of Gray, Okla., Martha Jo Newlin of Canyon.

Mrs. Betty James Fellow of Amarillo, Mrs. Marjorie Reeve of Canyon, Marjorie Renfro of Dallas, Nydia Joan Reynolds, Elvia Speer of Canyon, Sarah Thompson of Canyon, Brynildie Vaughan of Canyon, and Elizabeth Wood of Borger. Students whose records were not complete when grades were filed were not consider, Mr. Shirley said.

YWCA Recognition Service Is Today

The recognition service of the Y. W. C. A. will take place this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in Cousins Hall. A social hour will follow when the old and new members become acquainted with Miss Fern Babcock, speaker of the afternoon. Miss Babcock, Regional Y. W. C. A. Secretary, will discuss subjects in "Y" work.

"New girls on the campus and those who have not joined in the activities of the club are given a special invitation to come and affiliate with the Young Women's Christian Association in this service," said La Nelle Scheihagen, "Y" president.

The traditional recognition program will be repeated with little variation as the symbolic circle of light is extended to include not only the women who have proved their desire to be Christian leaders but also to those new members who demonstrate by their presence an interest in carrying ideals of the organization onward. The traditional processional, "Father of Light," will be sung as candidates for membership file in to have their individual candles lit from the large circle of light while the symbolism is explained to them by the president. They are then able to sing the Y. W. C. A. song "Follow the Gleam" and understand its significance to the members of the organization.

Regular meetings are held each Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in Room 202 of the Education building. The units of study to be begun February 20 and continue through the semester will include philosophical wisdom, scientific reasoning, and contemporary problems. Membership is always open to new members; students, and visitors at the meetings are welcomed.

The College of Emporia was the first U. S. college to receive a Carnegie library.

Specialists Are Being Selected

Art and Band School
Instructors Return;
Term Begins June 4

Added to the advantages of a revised summer school schedule recently announced will be the instruction of a long list of specialists for the coming session.

Audio-visual instruction will be directed by Nels L. Nelson, head of the department of radio and visual instruction in the public schools of Virginia, Minn. It will be a six-week course beginning June 4, the opening date of the summer session. Prof. Nelson has had 20 years of experience in the use of audio-visual aids in teaching, and is an expert in equipment repair and upkeep. He has an extensive knowledge of classroom methods.

Although absent last summer, Miss Angie Nall of Greenville, Miss., will return to teach in the department of home economics and direct summer nursery school. Miss Nall taught last summer at Cape Girardeau State Teachers College in Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Nutt of Chicago will conduct the third annual summer band school. Both are members of the VanderCook School of Music staff, and they will bring one or two assistants for the ten-day session opening August 5.

Grant Reynard of Leonia, N. J., will be artist-in-residence of the Palo Duro School of Art for the third consecutive summer. He is accepted as one of the nation's outstanding artists. The art school, starting June 4, will offer exceptional favorable living and working conditions through the use of the Buffalo courts and the big recreations hall of the athletic department.

Other courses in health education, safety, conservation, and other timely subjects are being arranged.

Initial Rehearsal of "Mr. Pim Passes By" To Be Tonight

Actors, directors, prompters, set designers, paint "slabers" and stage hands will set the machinery of play production in motion tonight at the initial rehearsal of A. A. Milne's three-act comedy, "Mr. Pim Passes By."

The plot of the play traces the confusing effect that the wrong man who always turns up in the right place has upon the normally placid lives of those he contacts, and it catapults into a merry mixup.

Double leads are shared by Nell Stevenson, Ed Line, Gaynelle Douglas, and Wayne Christian. Miss Stevenson and Line play the parts of the young betrothed couple, Dinah Marden and Brian Strange. Christian, as George Marden, is Dinah's uncle and guardian, who is emphatically opposed to Dinah's engagements. Miss Douglas is Mrs. Marden, who's sympathies are with the young couple.

Bob McKenzie enacts the role of blundering Mr. Pim. Loramack Hawkins steps into College productions for the first time as Anne, the maid. Elizabeth Wood portrays Lady Marden.

BLACK IS LAB ASSISTANT
Kenneth Black of Canyon, has been named laboratory assistant in the department of agriculture succeeding Milton Crow, who has accepted a position on the Canyon high school faculty. Black has been employed in the Randall County agriculture office. He recently completed the scout course, and is one of the assistant scoutmasters in Canyon.

TALKS IN PANHANDLE
Registrar D. A. Shirley discussed "Conservation Versus Exploitation" before the Panhandle Rotary Club Friday. In a program sponsored by the Canyon Rotary, George Stokes sang two solos, and the College Men's quartet sang. In the quartet are Ernest Scheihagen, Bob Roberson, James Harrison and Bob McKenzie.

TO TALK OVER KGNC
"Life of Lincoln" is the subject of a broadcast over KGNC Amarillo by Mrs. Geraldine Green, dean of women, this afternoon. It is sponsored by the Esther McCrory Chapter of D. A. R.

New Officers of Student Press Group

Here are the new officers of the Panhandle High School Press Association who were elected at the annual convention in Canyon, February 3. Left to right, they are Nova Gene Furr of Plainview, vice-president; E. W. Woods of Canyon, secretary-treasurer; and Virginia Biggs of Panhandle, president. Twenty-seven schools are members of the Association.

Conference List Speakers Grow

Amarillo Symphony,
College Orchestra
Are To Entertain

Selection of speakers and entertainers for the various sections and general sessions of the Northwest Texas Conference on Education here March 8 and 9 continues.

Dr. J. G. Umstatt of the University of Texas will discuss "The School Trustees as a Policy Forming Body" before the school trustees' section of the conference.

Dr. Umstatt is a graduate of the University of Minnesota. H. M. Wiley, chairman of the Wheeler county school board, will talk on school financing, and C. P. Buckler, secretary of the Pampa school board, will describe the qualifications of a good trustee.

J. E. Sweetson of Tulsa, president of the county board, will discuss the trustee and his community relations.

G. W. Cox, president of the school board of the Canyon Independent School district, will be chairman of the section.

Recently added to the list of organizations which will entertain is the Amarillo Symphony orchestra. The symphony group will be presented Friday evening, March 8. At the opening session, the College orchestra will play under the direction of Prof. Wallace R. Clark, and the College girls' sextet will sing for the second general session.

Entertaining groups on Saturday, March 9, will include the Hereford high school band, directed by Ralph Smith, and the Skellytown grade school choir, which will sing at the administrators' section under the direction of Miss Fredda Charles Bills.

This entertainment was arranged for the Conference by Mrs. T. V. Reeves, head of the College bureau of public service.

Mrs. Reeves also has arranged the following luncheons: Library section luncheon, Home Economics dining room, 75 cents; speech arts luncheon, Cousins Hall, 75 cents; city and county superintendents, principals, and trustee luncheon, Methodist church, 60 cents; classroom teachers luncheon, Randall Hall, 50 cents; vocational teachers luncheon, Presbyterian church, 60 cents; English section luncheon, First Christian church, 60 cents. All of these are to be held on March 8.

Girls You Like To Walk

Beethoven's Movements Are Not So Hot

Some use the high knee-action, some use the backward twist—but there is more movement in a co-ed's walk than in a carton of Bulova watches or a Beethoven concert.

Snooping around before the noon hour, two distinct types of gaits are evident. The first is known as the hungry variety, and is often seen as the sandwich grabber walking hunched over as if a fugitive from two slabs of bread. Second is the not-hungry type who are responsible for the boom in soft-drink profits and are always in too big a hurry going nowhere to hear the latest jokes and gossip.

Following the twelve o'clock period the walkers fit four slots. The healthiest are the slap-happy, laughing, giggly group who exercise by slapping each other on the back, kicking up their heels, and waving at the boys.

Then there is that "student" who uses the running-walking technique. He is usually late to class worried frantic about some minute wasted last month.

The "I love my books" walker is the favorite among the feminine class and consists of those who hug their books and reluctantly give them up to a desk or chair.

Red-Haired Girl Has Smile of '40

Virginia Lee Hussey
Elected From List of Ten; 500 Votes Cast

A pretty red-haired junior rated one-fifth of the "compliments of smiles" Saturday when 500 popular votes were counted.

Virginia Lee Hussey of Hereford is the recipient of the "Smile Girl of 1940" title. She will be entered in the national contest, and will be eligible to compete for a free trip to New York or $150 cash prize. This is the first smile contest ever held at West Texas, and it was sponsored by The Prairie, locally. Ten girls were nominated recently by students, and from these, Miss Hussey was selected at the regular student assembly.

Miss Hussey is a resident of Randall Hall, and has been employed in the office of the registrar for three years. She is secretary-treasurer of the Students' Association, and member of the Baptist Student Union.

Helen Eoff of Shamrock, was second with 84 votes, and Gaynelle Douglas received 60 votes.

Legislature Book Given Library By Jack Little

Representative Jack Little of Amarillo has presented a copy of "Members of the Legislature of the State of Texas from 1846 to 1939" to the W. T. Library.

Inscribed and autographed, the book is presented: "To Miss Tennessee Malone, Librarian, West Texas State College, for the splendid work you are doing at the College."

The work is limited in number and is expected soon to be out of print. Until it was published, there was no reference book which showed the membership of early legislatures. Officers of the House and Senate are listed.

The book shows that in 1883, the Panhandle's senator was A. L. Matlock of Montague. And Montague was a ride of 1 1/4 days by horseback from Wichita Falls.

The research on the volume was done by Tommy Yett of Austin, working under the authority of a House resolution introduced by Mr. Little.

Bugental Is Elected Type High President

Jim Bugental, associate editor of The Prairie, was selected by Type High members to guide the press club during the year.

A senior, Bugental transferred here from Glendale Junior College, Glendale, California. Bill Harris, business manager of The Prairie, was elected vice-president, and Nell Stevenson, society editor of The Prairie, is the new secretary-treasurer. Type High is one of the oldest clubs on the campus. It was organized in 1924. The club sponsored an all-college dance Friday night.

One of the first projects of the club will be to sponsor a contest in which entries for the Texas Inter-collegiate Press will be selected. Prizes will be given locally for the best poem, serious short story, humorous short story, familiar essay, and one-act play.

W. T. WINGS OUT

A third issue of volume one of West Texas Wings is on the way to high school seniors and teachers. It is the January issue of the new publication edited by Mrs. T. V. Reeves, Director of the Bureau of Public Service. "Careers Through Home Economics" and "Can You Really Attend to Your Own Business" are two articles in the high school senior edition.

Down The Street Behind

The "Step 'n Fetchit" is adopted by the person with the slow, lazy walk who is not encumbered by books, and little else.

Proper line of walk is in a straight line, toes pointing straight ahead, and arms swinging at a relaxed angle. Shoulders should be fairly even and straight, without evidence of shoulder blades poking through sweaters. Chin up and back is a good rule to follow for that graceful look.

Some of this is adopted from a survey conducted at Los Angeles City College, but easily applicable to W. T.

Three Offices To Be Filled

Interest in Student Center Question
Rolls High in Recent Class Meetings

Cracking the student union question and filling three student offices will be the objective of members of the Students' Association who vote at a special election Thursday called by the Student Senate. A representative to the Senate from the sophomore class and vice-presidents of the senior and freshman classes will be selected.

I approve (or disapprove) the addition of a fee of $1 to the activity ticket to be used only for the building and maintenance of a student union building. Students will indicate a preference of these two statements.

Deadline for filing petitions was yesterday at 11:30 a. m. The following nominees were accepted after eligibility checks:

Nominations for senate positions requires 25 names on petitions, whereas, nominations for class officers calls for only 10. Polls will open at 8 a. m., and close at 5 p. m.

Formal discussions last week included class meeting forums. Saturday following a scheduled meeting of the Association. Unanimous approval was given the plan to add a $1 fee for a student union building by the Senior class. The annual present of the Senior class will go to the union, it was indicated.

At a forum in the Junior class, Nell Stevenson and Bill Longbine pointed out objections to the plan, and Dan Hemphill and Hollis Bledsoe mentioned advantages.

A recommendation by the Senate will be based on a decision of the student vote. The recommendation will be addressed to President J. A. Hill. If favorable Dr. Hill's report to the Board will likely be made at an early meeting. He has indicated that the Board will be interested in whether or not the students favor building the union, and that the approval of the Board will be necessary before any action is taken.

Photo Salon Exhibit Will Open Today For 2-Week Display

Sunday brought the last of the entries in the second annual Panhandle-Plains Salon of Photography and the display opens today. One hundred and sixty were submitted.

Directors of the salon, which is sponsored by the department of art and division of journalism and publications were at the museum here from 2 to 6 p. m. Sunday to receive prints. Other shipments came by mail and express.

The exhibit will be open to the public at the museum for two weeks. It will include pictures by camera enthusiasts in nearly a score of Plains towns.

Indications are that the competition will be even keener than last year. Several camera clubs, including those at Amarillo, Plainview, and Lubbock, have assembled the best work of their members, some of whom are expert and exceptionally well equipped.

There are twenty million camera fans in the United States, and the Panhandle-Plains area has its share. Their purpose is the creation of beautiful pictures and the salon is the show window of their hobby-art. Nearly two score persons are taking Journalism 211, or news-pictorial photography, this term.

ULANE ZEECK

Ulane Zeeck Is "Student of Week"

W. T.'s "Student of the Week" is the title dropped on Ulane Zeeck, who has gained recognition as one of the most efficient officers since student government has been introduced here.

She has gained much prominence through her projects as president of the Students' Association, the position to which she was promoted last spring from secretary-treasurer.

"I've been in the paper so much this year I blush when I see my name in print," she said with a modest grin. She insists that her work with the Association has been a liberal education, although she is a member of Alpha Chi, national scholarship society. She mentions her work with the B. S. U. council occasionally, but never that she is a member of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

She likes bright nail polish, salads and desserts, and tall blonde men along with two songs, "My Prayer" and "Blue Orchids." Miss Zeeck, whose home is in Lamesa, dislikes corny cowboy music and persons who misspell her name.

"I always work to satisfy myself and I try to do things thoroughly" is a quote which tells why she likes dependable persons as associates. She is hoping to teach Latin-American history after graduation in June.

Ex-Students Are Flying Cadets

Two ex-West Texans are now Flying Cadets in Class 40-B, and are scheduled to be transferred from Randolph to Kelly Field, the advanced flying school, for a final three months of light instruction before receiving their wings and being commissioned as second lieutenants in the Air Corps Reserve.

Kenneth H. Hohlaus, '39 and Craig E. Walling, '38, are the student pilots. Hohlaus is a former president of Alpha Sigma Xi and Buffalo Band. He was a BBA major from Lockney. Walling, who was from Farwell, lettered in football and basketball, and was a member of the T Club.

Boy Scouts of Troop 1 of Hereford, visited the College Friday night swimming an hour and a half in the College pool. Twenty-four Scouts and the Scoutmaster, U. Streu, and Bud Bradley, a Red Cross Water Safety and lifesaving instructor, had their first swim since early in September, according to Mr. Streu.

Four Scouts passed tests in swimming for the rank of First Class, and others worked on the swimming merit badge. This is the first time since Mr. Streu has been Scoutmaster that the troop has used the pool. Some of the Scouts have been here previously.

About Canyon's Pure Water

There was some varied comment aroused by the "Drinking" editorial appearing in the last issue of The Prairie. Evidently it is unusual for a college paper to take a temperance stand, inasmuch as the editor is supposed to have a bottle in his pocket and a jug on the copy desk.

Some persons were alarmed about the significance of the words. Surprised were we, in the beginning, by the small amount of consuming which goes on here. At the same time, this good record seemed one which could be perfected.

Earlier, an attempt to publicize the purity of local water did not help, and we're out now to reveal the impurities of the drink discussed recently.

Invoking Carlyle's Spirit

"Put some wisdom in those vacuous, cavernous craniums of yours while you may, or else you'll rattle on with your fatuous do-nothing philosophy until the end of your useless lives."

It was not to an audience of college students that Thomas Carlyle spoke these words, but how appropriately we can repeat it to such an audience. And we don't need a survey to know that the do-nothing philosophy describes the level of many student conversations. There is a time for the personal talk about clubs, roommates and the like, but not all of the time. We need a time for thinking and talking about topics outside of campus circles.

The recommendation of Carlyle's spirit is to begin by storing some facts; and an interest in affairs of society, government, economics, education and other significant subjects will change idle prattle to worthwhile discussions. It isn't necessary to await organization of clubs for these conversations. Get in on a few of the big brothers' talks, and stimulate your interest in the meantime by following current and under current reports.

Teachers Overworked

It is universally agreed that persons who instruct the young should be healthy mentally and physically and imbued with a vigorous, optimistic outlook. Such attributes come from well-ordered lives. But what about the also generally accepted truth that most teachers are overworked? How much leisure should a teacher have? Should he have and use some daytime leisure for recreation? And what of teachers who have so many laboratory periods or so much extra-curricular direction that they have no daytime leisure?

A survey made by the research division of the National Education Association shows that teachers do not blame any single item for their overload. Each item seems reasonable in its isolation, but taken together in the course of a typical week the whole is staggering.

Teachers complain of "class interruptions," use of promotion standards to meet a "no failure" ideal, overcrowded classrooms, and unnecessary clerical work. Most of them said, "It is not teaching, but a thousand other things that wear us out. Give us more time to teach, with fewer distractions."

In a majority of instances, teachers said they were given constantly increasing duties without being consulted by their superiors about their teaching and activity loads. Executive mandates without cooperative procedures will of course continue to aggravate the problem.

The complexity of the problem and the variety of the sources of the teacher's burden are clearly brought out by the report. And the major burden, strangely, is not teaching. Many schools need to re-define their aims and restrict their curriculum and activities to more reasonable bounds, in order that teachers may . . . TEACH!

A longer period of ringing the victory bell might be appropriate Friday night if the Buffs beat St. Mary's for the Alamo Conference title, which can be cinched with a victory.

ALABAMA

Armistice is not the only thing that students of the University of Alabama connect with the number eleven. Elmo Israel, a senior, was born on the day the Armistice was signed to end World War No. 1. He weighed 11 pounds at birth on the 11th hour, 11th day, 11th month of the year. He now weighs 211 pounds, wears size 11 shoe and has an active interest in 11 organizations on the campus. He lives in West Blocton which has 11 letters in it. He has 11 aunts and uncles who were very proud of him when he graduated from grammar school as valedictorian at the age of—you guessed it—11. In high school he won four letters in football, three in basketball, and four in tennis—a total of one less than a dozen—11. He received 11 other prep school awards, one of them being the valedictorian award and two four-year scholarships. He contends that 11 is and always has been his lucky number—well, shouldn't it be?—The Crimson-White.

OKLAHOMA

There is a technique to studying for final exams. Just before the inevitable finals, the daily newspaper of the University of Oklahoma came out with a big front page story on "How to Study," with advice from a non-cram advocate, a psychology professor, and a member of Phi Beta Kappa. The non-cram advocate declared that the "final-ave" should be spent either in listening to a favorite orchestra, via radio, or in seeing a movie. The psychologist's advice was to keep physically fit, not to worry, and to maintain confidence. The Phi Beta Kappa suggested studying alone, in a quiet room, and staying wide-awake either by coffee or by interspersed short naps.

Sounds like a pretty good prescription, Doc, wrap me up a big dose, will you.—The Oklahoma Daily.

CALIFORNIA

The prodigal son has at last come home. Hal Silverman, an ex-drama major of Los Angeles City College, has just returned from Europe and even more recently from Broadway in New York City. He relates that the English government will issue no certificates to foreigners and for this reason the foreigners can not possibly get a job at anything in England, especially a movie or stage contract. And Hollywood is a cinch compared to Broadway for getting a theatrical job. He plans to return to Europe as soon as Adolf Hitler and a few others get through playing war and throwing mud balls everywhere.—Los Angeles Collegian.

HIC JACET: NAPOLEON BONEPARTE FOR GOD'S SAKE, DESIST

WE HEAR WITH ALARM: The hush-hush campaign.

Scarcely a day passes in which we sit through a class recitation without being surprised. Some, otherwise apparently well and healthy, individual when called upon to recite speaks out in a voice so shy and confidential that the class strains its ears in vain to capture the answer thus spoken.

We used to think it was only the students who had failed to study who adopted this guise of shyness to avoid embarrassing results. But now that we've been watching, we've noticed some mighty smart people who's voices wouldn't arouse a dozing mouse.

We can't help but feel sorry for the classes who some day will have that shy voice in a teacher. But then, perhaps our sorrow is wasted. Can't recall a teacher we couldn't hear—usually only too well.

The city hospital was sorry but all ambulances were in service; however if she would call the mortuary. . . . She called the mortuary and a big black hearse backed to the door shortly thereafter.

The doctor, meanwhile, had managed to relieve Durling's immediate pain and danger so that as he rode along he began to take interest in his surroundings once more. The hearse stopped at a red light. A roadster pulled alongside and stopped too. The two young things who had been laughing and chatting gaily assumed more solemn expressions in respect to the hearse.

Then Durling rolled his head toward them slowly and winked very solemnly. The light changed. The hearse went on. But the roadster stayed where it was.

Letter to . . .
All in the Family
. . . the Editor

One of the good results of the present campaign to get new buildings on the campus is the increase of student interest in the problems of the student body. As long as it was planned to finance the buildings by state appropriations the students took a let-it-happen-as-it-will attitude.

The students would be unwise to endorse a proposal to increase the tuition without first making sure that the extra expenditure would pay dividends in better education for all of the student body. On no other grounds would an increase in tuition be justified. It is on this basis alone that I want to urge that we increase the tuition and put up new buildings.

I think that little needs to be said regarding the desirability of having a new library building. Every day we are all painfully aware of the fact that the present library is pitifully insufficient to provide room for the library staff to work efficiently, and for students to study well. We know too that there is a great need by other departments for the space now occupied by the library.

Perhaps the need for a student union building is as well known as is the need for a new library. Also known generally are the purposes and services of a union. Because of these advantages and because of the low cost per student, I believe that the plan deserves the support of every student.

However, in devising a method to pay for the new buildings we should not subtract from other fees which serve a more vital purpose than does any building on the campus. The plan of diverting money from the book fee to apply on the new buildings would undoubtedly make the new addition to the tuition smaller, but the loss to the students would in the long run be much greater than the small gain. The only conceivable condition under which a cut in the book fee would be justified is that a surplus in the book fee might exist. That such a surplus does not exist may be seen in the age of many of the texts. Not only the texts but the supplementary materials are in many cases woefully inadequate. In view of this condition, how could we afford to cut the book fee in order to pay for new buildings? I think that the plan is a good one and should be financed by a small addition to the tuition, rather than by reducing the vital necessities of the school.

At W. T., we have no colored slaves, but we do have some three hundred loyal students who twice yearly stream into the Education building auditorium to see the semi-annual production of the College Players.

Theoretically, these are supposed to be highlights of the dramatic work of the College for the semester. Yet, they have simply become the emotional outlet for a select membership. Of course it is to be expected that the College Players adopt a select membership, but it does seem possible that in the last three years more than a dozen capable entertainers could have been

St. Mary's Rattlers Will Seek Revenge From W. T. Hardwooders Friday Night

West Texans Ready For Attack of Coach Simms Reptile-Team

"One more game is all that we need!" This has become the cry of the West Texas Buffaloes since their consecutive victories from Texas A. & I. and St. Mary's University at San Antonio.

The victory minded Buffs didn't "let up" on their road trip, and as a result, one more conference victory will bring the Buffs their first Alamo Conference Championship in Basketball in as many starts.

St. Mary's University Rattlers will invade Burton Gym Friday and Saturday nights to attempt to stop the Buffaloes and gain partial foothold in the conference. The Rattlers have one of the best teams that the Baggettmen have played this season, and the Buffs are preparing for a gala affair Friday night.

The starting five—Captain Ernest Schur, Price Brookfield, Dewey Johnson, Frank Stockman, and Charlie Halbert—are expected to be in top form for this invasion of the Rattlers, and they have said, "we are ready for them."

Starting time for the game will be at 8 o'clock Friday evening in Burton Gym.

Father (to young son sucking his thumb): Hey, boy, don't bite that thumb off. You may need it when you get old enough to travel.

On The Amusements Side

BY LAND AND BY SEA

The screening of "Dr. Ehrlich's Magic Bullet," starring Edward G. Robinson and soon to be released by Warner Brothers, brings to light an interesting fact. One hundred world famous scientists, all Nobel prize winners, were called upon to present their respective choices as to the "magic bullet" of science that had aided humanity most in the fight for life and health. Robinson's fineness as the scientist in this picture has capped the role of Ben Franklin a coming production.

MAGNA CUM LAUDE . . .

Howard University is considering awarding an honorary degree to Duke Ellington as the foremost exponent of jazz music. The Boston Symphony orchestra will present Duke's "Reminiscing in Tempo" in an early pop concert.

By way of variety, Ellington plays the University of Wisconsin junior prom on February 1, and he's to appear at the Wayne University prom in Detroit on February 16.

Because of his prominence as a columnist, Jimmie Fidler receives more pony tips than he can profitably use. To date, if he had followed those he's received since the New Year, Jimmie says he would already have lost $107.40.

ROMEO'S A PAPA . . .

Hanley Stafford, known over the airways as "Daddy Snooks" and "Mr. Dithers," made his first stage appearance as Romeo.

HOW WOULD YOU DO IT?

Jack Benny is a stickler for realism even when it comes to Trudy the ostrich. The NBC comedian made his sound effects man spend three afternoons at the Pasadena ostrich farm recently learning the sounds Trudy should make. What we'd like to know is how he reproduced them.

CONNIE CLOWNS . . .

A piece of black-jack gum broke up Meredith Wilson's 35-piece orchestra during the "Good News" rehearsal last week. It was Connie Boswell who did the dirty work. The young songstress, chewing the licorice tid-bit, insisted on covering her dentals and giving herself a toothless appearance.

"THERE AIN'T NO FLIES ON ME . . ."

Recognition to the Buffaloes as the "Tallest Team on Earth" was given in The Wichtan in an article written by Yevette Holt of Hardin Junior College. Information about height and weight of team and some of the Buffs' opponents was reported.

DID YOU KNOW

That college football teams play before an audience of 18,000,000 people annually . . . that any army of 21,000 players make up 700 college teams . . . that Uncle Sam collects around $2,000,000 in football taxes each year . . . the average salary of the football player has not been computed . . . the longest forward pass on record was made by Bradley Robinson. He passed 87 yards to John Schneider in a St. Louis-Kansas game of 1906 . . . that Ray Kercheval former U. of Kentucky star, punted 91 yards without roll or wind in an exhibition . . . that there were 112 one-point victories last season in football . . . that homecoming originated at the University of Illinois in 1910.

GRID GOSSIP

Going back to the football situation of this last season, some of the interesting facts and figures of the gridiron are picked up.

Field-goals and points after touchdown provided the margin of victory in 209 intercollegiate pigskin battles. This is sixty more than last year. There were 184 tie games in the season. Attendance at college games rose one per cent over the last season. The greatest gains were in the south (11 per cent) and in the Rocky Mountains (19 per cent).

With a record of more than 400,000 home-game admissions, U. C. L. A. had the largest "gate" in the nation. There was a drop of 25 per cent in football fatalities since last year.

This is the sentiment of the students of West Texas State toward the victory bell which has recently been presented by the Santa Fe Railroad. Thus far the bell has rung four times, making its average 100% for each game that the Buffaloes have played. The Buffs dropped A. & I. Monday and Tuesday nights, and St. Mary's University Wednesday and Thursday nights. The Baggettmen are riding on a crest of consecutive victories. We can hope for a record of consecutive wins inspired by the love of the sound of the bell.

It's okay for you to play football
It is an okay sport.
But why, oh why do you have to do it
On a basketball court?

Recreation Hall of Buffalo Courts in Natural Rock

Shown above is a portion of the Buffalo Courts and the entire recreation hall. These courts have become famous as a home for the athletes of W. T. and are constructed of natural rock, and each room is completely furnished. Athletic Director Al Baggett supervised the construction and is largely responsible for the arrangements.

Bufs in Alamo Conference Lead

W. T. Cagers Gain Decisive Victories Over Member-Teams

West Texas' Wandering Buffs, returning from a two game win from A. & I. stopped long enough in San Antonio to gain a strong foothold in the Alamo Conference by downing St. Mary's University 77 to 43 and 44 to 41.

Playing superb basketball, the Baggettmen put on the pressure and drew away from the Rattlers in the first game of the two game series in the Alamo town. Leading the Buffaloes in this first game was Sophomore Price Brookfield who swished a total of 22 points through the hoop. Captain Ernest Schur of Vernon and lanky Charles Halbert of House, N. M., also stood out for the Buffaloes with 14 and 13 points respectively. The score at the half time was 37 to 23.

Playing a rejuvenated and inspired Rattler team in the second encounter of the series the Buffs won a thriller 44 to 41. St. Mary's powerful cagers played their best basketball, but the Buffs managed to stall the Alamo cagers off to win by three points. It was the defensive play of the Buffaloes and the ability of the plainsmen to take the ball off the backboard that beat the Rattlers in this important Alamo Conference game.

Charlie Halbert, the tall boy from the Plains, led the point makers for the night with 14 points. Price Brookfield was close behind Halbert with 12 points. Half time score was 24 to 22 in favor of the Buffs.

After winning the first game of a two game series at Kingsville with Texas A. & I. last Monday night, the Buffaloes again stopped the Javelinas on Tuesday night to sweep a two game series with scores of 69-20 and 62-28.

Tuesday's game was only a repetition of the game the night before, because the Baggettmen easily out-classed their opponents with their superior floor work and ability to hit the basket.

Price Brookfield, sophomore forward from Friona, and Captain Ernest Schur led the Buffaloes with 16 points each, with big Charlie Halbert close behind the two with 14 points. Lawrence and Stokes carried the brunt of the attack for the Javelinas with 11 points each. Half time score was 38 to 15.

"So you met your wife at a night club? Wasn't it romantic?"
"Naw, it was disastrous. I thought she was at home taking care of the kids."

It's a funny world. If a man gets money, he's a grafter. If he keeps it, he's an economic royalist. If he spends it, he's a playboy. If he doesn't try to get it, he's a ne'er-do-well. If he gets it without working for it, he's a parasite. And if he accumulates it after a life-time of hard work, he's a sucker.

A duty dodged is like a debt unpaid.

SHE will remember, so don't YOU forget!

U.S. ANTARCTIC EXPEDITION OFF FOR YEAR'S SURVEY

SLED DOGS...YEAR'S SUPPLY OF SLOW-BURNING CAMEL CIGARETTES ACCOMPANY ADMIRAL BYRD TO ANTARCTIC

"MORE PLEASURE PER PUFF... MORE PUFFS PER PACK"...

That's how these three members of the U. S. Antarctic expedition tell of the advantages of their favorite cigarette...slow-burning Camels. Richard Moulton, senior dog-driver (center), sums up when he says: "Slow burning is my measure of a milder, cooler, more flavorful smoke. I'd sledge a mile for a Camel." Nothing destroys a cigarette's delicate elements of flavor and fragrance like the excess heat of too-fast burning. Cigarettes that burn fast also burn hot. Camels are slower-burning...milder, mellower, and—naturally—cooler! Try Camels. Find out for yourself how slow-burning Camels give you more pleasure per puff...and more puffs per pack—more actual smoking (see right).

CAMELS

FOR MILDNESS, COOLNESS, AND FLAVOR
—SLOW-BURNING COSTLIER TOBACCOS

OFF TO VOLUNTARY EXILE: Right now if you had to choose the one and only brand of cigarette you would smoke through a whole year—you'd make sure you picked the right brand. The men on the Antarctic expedition were in a situation like that. The expedition took Camels! Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd explained: "Slow-burning Camels are a great favorite with us." You, yourself, may never go near the South Pole, but the right cigarette is important to you, too. Camels give you extra mildness, extra coolness, and extra flavor—plus extra smoking in every pack. (See below.)

In recent laboratory tests, CAMELS burned 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them. That means, on the average, a smoking plus equal to

Diversified Scenes Add Thrills to Rush Week

Sorority rush parties last week carried rushees away on a magic carpet to many varied countries and atmospheres. A great deal of ingenuity was manifested by the girls' clubs in representing carnivals, cowboy chuck suppers, Mexican dinners, and a world tour. Besides these variegated forms of entertainment, each sorority had one formal affair.

Gamma Phi: Old West

A little of the atmosphere of the old west was recaptured in the recreation hall of Buffalo Courts Tuesday afternoon when Gamma Phi sorority gave their first rush party of the spring semester.

Indian blankets and vividly colored Mexican tapestries with bows and arrows looked at home on the natural rock walls. Two large, open fire places at each end of the room were used to roast weiners and marshmallows. The guests were served in true ranch style at a long table covered with red gingham which reflected the glow of rustic lanterns. Checked gingham and brown paper cacti attached to small guns were place cards.

In the receiving line were Adele Hayes, Ann Palmeyer, and Mrs. Anne Wofford and Miss Edna Graham, co-sponsors.

Rushees were: Jayne McDade, Dorothy Nell Dean, Jo Troutman, Ruth Kreis, Elaine Murphy, Lucille Weast, Jerri Dromgoole, Lodena Tooley, Muriel Faye Phegley, Dorothy Jane Day, Sue Davis, DeAlyse Eddins, Bette Eddins, Vera Beth Hoskins, Louise McDougal, Betty McManigold, Edna Graham, Ruth Barnes, Athlee Goffinett, Winifred Hodge, Lulu Stapleton, Christine Jarrett, Merrie Elizabeth Duflo, Marion Evans, Margaret Stone, Rena Beth Bellah, La Nelle Simms, Louise Roach.

Members present were: Adele Hayes, Ann Palmeyer, Gaynelle Douglas, Lynn Edwards, Helen Eoff, Anna Sue Williams, Jerry Daniels, Frances Hoskins, Mary Coker Kerr, Lena Snicker, Wynona Bomar, Ruth McCullen, Grace Margaret White.

Another novelty in rush parties was the breakfast travalgue given by Gamma Phi Sunday morning in the home of Miss Edna Graham from 9 to 11 o'clock.

Guests were accompanied by members on visits to South America, Japan, and Mexico in miniature forms at all tables where they received favors typical of each country.

Travel guests were: Winifred Hodges, DeAlyse Eddins, Bette Eddins, Jerri Dromgoole, Lucille Weast, Dorothy Jane Day, Lodena Tooley, Muriel Faye Phegley, Edna Graham, Sue Davis, Elaine Murphy, Ruth Kreis, Jo Troutman, Vera Beth Hoskins, Ruth Barnes, Athlee Goffinett, Dorothy Nell Dean, and Lulu Stapleton.

Delta Zeta: Carnival

The festive air of the carnival reigned at the last affair of Delta Zeta Chi sorority for spring rushees. The setting was the home of Mrs. L. F. Sheffy, sponsor of the sorority. Feature of the evening was Bingo.

Alpha Psi Omega Climaxes Pledge Week Saturday

Sleep-eyed Alpha Psi Omega members and pledges attended a waffle breakfast at 6:45 Wednesday morning at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Baxter M. Geeting. This was one of the events of pledge week for the honorary dramatics fraternity.

Formal initiation for the group took place at 6 o'clock last Saturday evening also at the Geetings. The pledges took their pledge tests and initiation vows to the fraternity. After the initiation, the group went to Amarillo for a dinner at the Blackstone Coffee Shop, at 8:30 o'clock.

New members of the club are: Ruth Reeve, Joan Reynolds, Virginia Good, Lannie Line, and Jim Bugental.

Members of Alpha Psi Omega are: Mogie Routh, Elizabeth Wood, Wayne Christian, Gaynelle Douglas, Glen Davis, Bomar Brown, Nell Stevenson.

Guests at the affair were: Dr. and Mrs. Geeting; Dr. Helen Ogg; Linnette Harter, Tulia, and Jack Pate and Lawrence McBee, Amarillo, ex-members of the club; and Mary Edith Bugental.

Miss Anna Dell Sligar Becomes the Bride of Carl Bean Sunday

Miss Anna Dell Sligar of Canyon was married to Mr. Carl Bean of Borger, Sunday morning, at 9:30 o'clock in the parlor rooms of Randall Hall.

The vows were read by the Rev. Alfred M. Dorsett, Presbyterian minister, before an improvised altar of banked jonquil and stock flowers, softly lighted by candles in floor candelabra.

As a prelude to the ceremony Miss Ada V. Clark sang "The Rosary." Miss Frances Usery, pianist, played "The Wedding March" (Loh-engrin) as the bridal party entered, and softly played "Schubert's Prelude" during the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a gray suit with black and white accessories. The bridal corsage was composed of jonquils. The maid of honor, Miss Evangeline Baker, wore a teal-blue tailored suit with dusky rose accessories.

Mrs. Bean is a graduate of West Texas State High School and was a sophomore in W. T. The groom is engaged in business at Borger where the young couple will make their home.

Fashion Forecast: Your Spring Suit Should Suit You

Gay young Spring seems reluctant in leaving his calling card, but here and there we see signs which tell us that he is here.

The most interesting of these signs are those smart, alluring spring suits in current window displays.

You simply couldn't think of planning that spring wardrobe without a suit to base it on, and this is a season in which you can choose your suit to suit you.

They are available in every type, and you can do things with them. Dramatize your suit with fragile blouses and trim sweaters. The suit most adaptable to the campus is the tailored, or three-piece suit. These suits are as versatile as they are practical.

With every change of accessories a girl can change her entire personality. With a soft frilly blouse, she's as feminine as grandmother was back in the horse and buggy days. Then in a tailored blouse or sweater, she looks as mannish as a page from "Esquire."

Try a smart little navy type. You will find yourself leading the parade, the "Cynosure" of the crowd. Navy blue can be smartly combined with a soft frilly white blouse and a large softly folded bow of red. Have a skirt with a little motion in it.

And now, a word about hats and hair-do's. Leah Barnes, who creates Ann Sheridan's hats for her Warner Brother's productions tells us that turbans should be intricately wrapped, and berets, on the up and up, tucked or shered.

And here's the latest note direct from Hollywood! Adrian advises you to take the bow off your hair. (Use it as a bustle if you're really attached to it.)

PRESBYTERIAN GUILD WITH MRS. NANCY McCASLIN

Mrs. Nancy McCaslin was hostess to the members of the Presbyterian Women's Guild and Auxiliary at Randall Hall Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Harvey Cash led the discussion of National Missions.

With Mrs. J. D. Barker at the piano, the meeting opened with a worship and praise service. Mrs. Alfred Dorsett reviewed "The Melting Pot" by Zangwell, and Miss Elizabeth McCaslin gave a costume reading. Map talks covering all sections and nationalities included in the home mission work were given by Mrs. C. R. Burrow, Mrs. Joe Black, Mrs. A. L. Tarleton, Mrs. E. D. Harrell, Mrs. M. E. Cleavinger, Mrs. Linna Wilkinson, Mrs. S. L. Ingham, and Mrs. Nancy McCaslin.

During the social hour refreshments of cake and spiced tea were served to Mrs. J. D. Barker, Mrs. John Burgess, Mrs. Black, Mrs. Tarleton, Mrs. Dorsett, Mrs. Lee Foster, Mrs. B. T. Bell, Mrs. L. L.

Monroe, Mrs. Clarence Thompson, Mrs. J. R. Sharp, Mrs. Luther Floyd, Mrs. C. N. Wiley, Mrs. M. A. Biggers, Mrs. W. E. Miller, Mrs. Mary L. Sligar, Mrs. Harrell, Mrs. Ingham, Mrs. Cash, Mrs. Cleavinger, Mrs. Burrow, Mrs. Wilkinson, Miss Cora Miller, and Mrs. McCaslin.

Al: The way Mary kisses is something to be remembered.

Sol: Yeah, she sure leaves her mark!
