Maroon and White
To Battle CentralOklahomans Slated To Be Tough Opponent
For Herd

After balancing the win and loss column of the scorebook by taking two games from the New Mexico Normal University at Las Vegas, the West Texas Buffaloes face a real obstacle to their winning streak when they meet the Central Oklahoma Broncos Friday and Saturday nights.

Central Oklahoma Teachers College of Edmond is pacing the Oklahoma Collegiate Basketball Conference by virtue of its victory over the last year's champions, the East Central Tigers of Ada. The Broncos of Coach Pat Taylor have won six games and lost only two. They have lost no conference games and hold one victory over the strong Oklahoma City University quintet.

Face Goal Shooters

Captain Stroud and his teammates have already had some fair examples of Oklahoma teams, and of some goal shooting ability by Young of Northwestern and Smith of Northwestern. Now they are facing the leaders of the loop who boast of a man as good as either Young or Smith, in Haught, their forward. Haught and Capt. Cornforth led the Edmond team in their crucial victory over Ada by scoring more points than all the rest of their teammates. The Buffaloes had some difficulty in guarding the former high scorers in the Oklahoma conference, and their continued success may depend upon their ability to stop the scoring of Haught.

In Win Column

However the Buffaloes have finally started to clicking after losing their first three games, having won their last three. They could not work together as a team at the beginning of the season, but at Las Vegas, although doped to be the victims of one of the best teams the Normal has had in years, the Tall Buffs hit their stride and won two games. The Buffs have a precedent of winning games which they rather hold as sacred, and this year's squad intends to uphold that tradition. They have served notice in their last three games that they are ready for the best of them, and the games Friday and Saturday will show how they stack up against the best in Oklahoma.

Advantages Of
W. T. S. T. C.

Professor L. F. Sheffy was the principal speaker of the W. T. Broadcast last Wednesday evening at 8:30 over radio station WDAG in Amarillo. The subject of his address was "The Culture of the Plains and Its Preservation," in which he discussed the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, its development and purposes and value.

Dr. Harris M. Cook made several announcements concerning the College, in which he pointed out the low cost of living for students of the West Texas State Teachers College, and the co-operation of both the College and the town in providing part time employment for many of the students. Professor C. W. Batchelder announced the numbers.

Musical numbers on the program were: a violin solo by Louise Shirley, accompanied by Laura V. Bills, and a piano solo by Miss Bills.

A reading by G. W. Batchelder concluded the program.

If you have a poor neighbor what do you suppose he thinks of you?

Society Presents
Play In ChapelCharles Donnell Takes Lead In One-Act
Comedy Tues.

Charles Donnell played the lead in "The Rest Cure," a one-act play presented in chapel last Tuesday by the Antler-Elapheian Literary Society. His role was that of an English writer named Reed.

The part of Mrs. Reed was played by Betty Sternberg. Melva Gamewell and Mary Beth Campbell took the roles of the nurses, while Ernestine Walker interpreted the part of a simple-minded servant girl.

Plot Is Amusing

The plot centered around the writer's coming to an English nursing home for a "rest-cure" of his feigned nervous ailments. Irritated by the general confusion there, the author discovers himself to be well, and is aided in an escape by the simple-minded maid who receives the promise of being permitted to use his typewriter in composing stories analyzing the imagined illness of those she has seen in the hospital.

This play was the first of a series of programs arranged for the chapel period by various college organizations at the invitation of Dean R. P. Jarrett.

Professor Duflet
Meets Extension
Class In Pampa

Professor J. L. Duflet met in opening session yesterday an extension class in Abnormal Psychology which is being conducted at Pampa. Studies will be made of the minor mental abnormalities that are found among the students in grade, high schools and colleges, thus the course is of great benefit to teachers.

Some twenty-five have enrolled for the course, including teachers from Pampa, Skellytown, White Deer, LeFors, and Hopkins school near Pampa. The class meets each Monday afternoon at 4:15.

Wesley Choir

Practice is now under way for the special program which is to be given by the Wesley Choir at the Palo Duro CCC Camp Sunday afternoon, January 28, announces Miss Mattie Mae Swisher, director. Catherine Orr will be the artist of the afternoon, drawing crayon pictures to illustrate the hymns and songs rendered by the choir. Adella Beavers and Malcolm Carr will give a vocal duet.

Bugbee and Mead Named
As Class A Artists
For Work

Two Panhandle artists were designated Wednesday to place two mural paintings in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society museum.

This work is being done as a Public Works of Art project, and Dr. John S. Ankeney, director of the Dallas Public Art Gallery, and director of Region 12, came to Canyon last week to inspect the proposed project and make plans with the artists.

Harold Bugbee of Clarendon and Ben Carlton Mead of Amarillo were designated by him as Class A artists to carry out the project.

Will Paint Panels

On the east wall of Pioneer Hall, Bugbee will place a panel six and one half feet by fourteen feet, depicting the entrance of Col. Charles Goodnight and his herd of cattle into the Palo Duro Canyon. On the west wall opposite, a panel of the same size will be painted by Mead, showing Coronado's entry into the Palo Duro Canyon, 400 years before. The Coronado panel will tell of the coming into use of the horse in the Panhandle of Texas, while the Goodnight panel will suggest the last period in which the horse was supreme.

Mr. Bugbee and Mr. Mead have already planned six more panels for the museum walls. These are a picture of pre-pueblo life which will face the main entrance of the building; a panel depicting the life of plains Indians; one showing the Mexican period; another the buffalo hunters; and a fifth the military occupation of the Panhandle, with the coming of permanent settlers as the last panel.

Complete By February 15
The two panels now being painted.

Education 441
Studies Unusual
Class Projects

Education 441 class has observed several interesting class room projects the past week. Miss Helen White Moore has just completed a unit on the "Origin and Development of the Drama," that proved of unusual interest to the observers.

Prior to this Miss Dennis presented a unit in Home Economics; Mrs. Montfort, a four-day unit in Public Speaking; Mr. Vaughn a unit in history; Miss Ritchie, a unit in composition; Mr. Mateer, in physiology and hygiene, and Mr. T. M. Moore in agriculture.

Tuesday afternoon Dr. Jarrett will make an address to the Education 442 class on "Ethics in the Teaching Profession."

FIVE PERIODS SHOWN

Songs, Dances, and Skits
Are Clever and Well Acted

(By Kathryn Brown)

"Seeing is believing," seemed to be the verdict of the capacity crowd which viewed the Y. W. C. A. stunt program of the year in the auditorium of the Administration building last evening at 8:15 o'clock, for the spirit of the period, from the Gay Nineties thru the depression, was traced thru a gamut of forty-five numbers. Although some of the songs might not have been so familiar to the younger people present, they were well received.

Directing the various phases of the presentation were:

Faculty member of the standing committee of Alumni Activities, Miss Ruth Lowe.

General Chairman of the program committee, Dorothy McKenzie.

Director of Music, Elizabeth Faulkner.

Accompanist, Lilla Beth Burroughs.

Director of dramatizations and pantomimes, Mary Jo Foote.

Quartet Furnishes Background

The well-balanced voices of the double quartet, composed of Elizabeth Faulkner, Florene Bowman, Marion Hill, Laura Virginia Bills, Broughton Hardin, Lex Alexander, Malcolm Carr, and Prentice Williams, furnished the background for the five periods of music: The Gay Nineties, Dawn of the Century, Post War Songs, Ye Olde Prosperity, and Depression, In and Out.

As a group, the songs presented by the Palo Duro American Legion were the most outstanding. Pleasing dramatic effects, reproductions of vital experiences of these men, were secured, especially in the bombing scene and the scene in the French cafe. Mr. J. B. Fowler, (Continued on page two)

Twenty-five politically-minded students of W. T. perfected last Wednesday the organization of a Randall County Young Democrats' Society. Plans were made to send delegates to the West Texas Convention of Young Democrats to be held at Lubbock February 3.

The Young Democrats' Society is a national organization sponsored by the executive committee of that party for the purpose of training those who are about to assume the control of government. Major emphasis is placed on study as a means of understanding the machinery of government.

To Spread Society

Special significance attaches to the Randall County Organization in its aim of spreading the Society throughout the Panhandle by the efforts of students of W. T. when they return to their home counties.

Mrs. Alberta H. Bones was chosen to serve as County Chairman. Other officers are, president, Howard Williams; secretary, G. L. Stanley; treasurer, Kenneth Kendrick; sergeant-at-arms, Cagle Teague. Gerald Brown, John D. Davidson, Bob Rowan, John Walker, Ethel Brasel, Connie Wayland, Myrtle McGowan, Ethel Rowland, and James Stone are members of the executive committee.

Students from the various counties of the Panhandle are urged to join the club soon so that they may become acquainted with its aims and preparation of initiating chapters in their home counties.

Dr. and Mrs. Hill,
Miss Richardson,
Visit In Lockney

President and Mrs. J. A. Hill and Miss Mary Moss Richardson visited in Lockney Friday where Dr. Hill appeared before the Lockney Rotary club as principal speaker at their luncheon meeting.

Mrs. Hill and Miss Richardson visited classes in the Lockney Public Schools, where during the afternoon, Dr. Hill spoke to the grade children about the Byrd Antarctic Expedition.

While in Lockney the visitors talked with Harriet Dickinson, a graduate of W. T., and with Leo Cooper and Delmer Ashworth, also ex-students, who are teaching there.

ed For Literary Divisions

Local chairmen have been appointed to the various divisions of the Texas Intercollegiate Press Association literary contests, the preliminary contests of which are now open to the students of the West Texas State Teachers College. Any student in the college is eligible to submit material to the local chairman, who will turn it over to local faculty judges, who, in turn, will select one representative article from each division to be entered in the state-wide contests of the T. I. P. A.

These chairmen are:
Serious or Humorous Short Story, Bill Pittman.

Formal or Familiar Essay, Ruby Lee McMillen.

Poetry or One-Act Play, Pollyanna Pitts.

Material submitted must be typewritten, double spaced, and written on one side of sheet only. The articles must be in the hands of the local judges within the next few weeks and it is urged that student entrants get their articles into the hands of the above chairmen at an early date.

Mrs. Avery Turner
Presents Picture
To P-P. Museum

Mrs. Avery Turner, of Amarillo, recently presented a portrait of her husband, the late Mr. Turner, to the Museum. She also donated important historical papers to the Panhandle - Plains Historical Society.

Mrs. Ed Harrell, of Canyon also recently presented a portrait of her late husband to the Museum.

Both Mr. Turner and Mr. Harrell were interested in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society from its beginning, and contributed liberally to the Museum fund. It is fitting, therefore, that their portraits will hang in Pioneer Hall.

Dean Green Will Address Voters

Dean Geraldine Green will be principal speaker at the meeting of the Public Forum at the Municipal Auditorium in Amarillo Friday evening. The subject of her address will be "Ideals of Citizenship for Women."

The meeting, which is designed as an initiation service for young voters, is planned especially for the benefit of the young women who will vote this year for the first time.

Connie Roberson spent the week end in Amarillo with friends.

Judge D. E. Colp Praises
State Park To Students

W. T. may get a college lodge in the Palo Duro State Park, students were informed by State Park Board Chairman D. E. Colp, of San Antonio, at the assembly hour Saturday morning. Judge Colp has been actively engaged in the furthering of a State Park program in Texas for the past twenty-two years and was enthusiastic about the values of the Palo Duro Canyon park. The suggestion that the school have a lodge in the canyon was made by President J. A. Hill to Judge Colp, who secured the State Park Board's approval of the proposal.

Mrs. Hill Heads Committee

Judge Colp during his short talk to the student body made announcement that Mrs. J. A. Hill has been appointed head of a Naming Committee which is to have the responsibility of naming points of interest in the park. She will be assisted by Miss Margaret Seaward, of Amarillo, Dr. Kenneth Chapman, of Santa Fe, J. Everts Haley, of Austin, Floyd Stiller and T. E. Johnson, of Amarillo, and C. W. Warwick, of Canyon.

An associate committee is composed of L. F. Sheffy, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Shaw, Mrs. T. V. Reeves, Burl Elliston, and Col. Edward R. Coppock, all of Canyon.

Interests Students

Judge Colp spoke of the difficulty to interest the local people in beautifying adjacent works of nature, such as the Palo Duro Canyon. He also told of many other park projects in the state and gave information of the park at our back door. The students were urged to circulate information in their home towns about the beauties of the state park, and especially to help in advertising the Formal Opening which will be featured by a three day celebration in June and to which it is expected that some 25,000 people will come. G. E. Naason, representing the National Park Service, accompanied Judge Colp.

Such a lodge as is planned will be of inestimable value to students, especially through the warm season of the year, offering an ideal spot for outings of all sorts. Plans are to be begun immediately and Judge Colp expressed the hope that actual construction could be started by the CCC workers early in April, though no definite date has been set. Dr. Hill stated that suggestions for possible plans were now in order and that suggestions from the student body would be appreciated.

Music Clubs To Enter FestivalMadrigal Club and Orchestra Already In Training

In preparation for the annual Tri-State Music Festival held in Amarillo April 5, 6, and 7, in which Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico are represented, the Madrigal Club is working hard on a program to present on the evening of the 6th.

The Orchestra is also preparing their program that is to be given on the evening of April 7. The Orchestra will not play alone but will form a part of what is known as the Tri-State Festival Orchestra composed of players from the three states. The combined total will number approximately eighty pieces.

Work For Contest

The Men's Chorus Club are working in preparation for a contest to be held May 5 and 6 at Fort Worth sponsored by the Mosleh Shrine Temple. In all probability the Club will render a program here prior to making the trip to Fort Worth to participate in the contest.

All three of the musical organizations of W. T. in charge of Wallace R. Clark, head of the Music Department, are doing splendid work which Mr. Clark attributes to the fact that they have had some definite objective to work toward.

Histories of Literary Societies Show Influence They Have Exerted In Character Building At W. T. S. T. C.Cousins-Sesames Organize As Brother-Sister Societies

West Texas State Normal College opened its doors for registration on September 20, 1910. The literary societies were not long in organizing. The four societies organized were the Palo Duro and Cousins for boys, Barrett-Browning and Sesame for girls. Almost every student in school was enrolled in one of them. The societies conceived the idea of brother-sister organizations, and thus the Sesames were invited by the Cousins for a sister society. It has since been known as Cousins-Sesame Literary Society, while the other societies have changed names.

Among the first forms of programs in the society were debates, oratorical events, current events, parliamentary procedure and law, and musical programs. There was held each year inter-scholastic debates and oratorical contests. These always aroused the support of the student body and townspeople. The townspeople were very deeply interested in the societies, and were rooters and boosters for one of the organizations.

Miss Hibbets, the present sponsor of the Sesames, was a member of the first student body of W. T. S. N. C., and is a charter member of the literary society.

The literary societies were foremost among student activities, sponsoring all-college activities, recommending and almost wholly governing the election of class officers, and publications' editors and (Continued on last page)

Girls

The Elapheian Literary Society was founded in the fall of 1919. It was founded by seven girls, five of whom are Elise Hall, Lizzie Kate Smith, Eris Gustavus, Pauline Rice, and Ruby Lattimore.

The organization was named and given its motto by the late B. F. Stafford, head of the Latin Department, formerly of West Texas State Teachers College. The purpose of this society was to develop the cultural and social life of girls on the campus through group activities. It is a Greek letter Society. Its motto being symbolized by the Greek letters Phi, Chi, Delta, Theta. The club obtained and made for itself a password, creed, song, symbols, etc.

Membership in the organization has always been limited, no students being admitted without first being invited by the club to pledge. The annual initiation is one of the outstanding social campus activities, and the society sponsors many other important school socials. Among the many activities carried on by the club have been song contests, study of fine arts, various literary contests including play-writing, poetry writing, oratorical and declamation contests.

The personnel of women that have been Elapheians, now ex-Elapheians are among the outstanding women of the nation. One of the charter members is a National Executive of Girl Scouts, many are college teachers, others are famous, well known musicians and artists. Many are engaged in profitable private businesses, the remainder are school teachers and thrifty housewives.

The saying for every Elapheian girl is "Once an Elapheian, always an Elapheian." Every Elapheian after she has become a full-fledged member has a goal set which she wishes to reach. The success of the society is due partially to the wonderful service of their different sponsors, club officers, and the members. Elapheians are very carefully selected for the society according to their refinement and culture. Each girl feels it an honor to be an Elapheian "Once and Always!"

NATURAL EDUCATION

The human intellect is said to be so constituted that GENERAL IDEAS arise by abstraction from PARTICULAR OBSERVATIONS, and therefore come after them in point of time. If this is what actually occurs, as happens in the case of a man who has to depend solely upon his own experience for what he learns—who has no teacher and no book,—such a man knows quite well which of his particular observations belong to and are represented by each of his general ideas. He has a perfect acquaintance with both sides of his experience, and accordingly, he treats everything that comes in his way from a right standpoint. This might be called the NATURAL method of education.

Contrarily, the ARTIFICIAL method is to hear what other people say, to learn and to read, and so to get your head crammed full of general ideas before you have any sort of extended acquaintance with the world as it is, and as you may see it for yourself. You will be told that the particular observations which go to make experience; but until that time arrives, you apply your general ideas wrongly, you judge men and things from a wrong standpoint, you see them in a wrong light and treat them in a wrong way. So it is that education perverts the mind.

This explains why it so frequently happens that, after a long course of learning and reading, we enter upon the world in our youth, partly with an artless ignorance of things, partly with wrong notions about them; so that our demeanor savors at one moment of a nervous anxiety; at another of a mistake of confidence. The reason of this is simply that our head is full of general ideas which we are now trying to turn to some use, but which we hardly ever apply rightly. This is the result of acting in direct opposition to the natural development of the mind by obtaining general ideas first, and particular observations last; it is putting the cart before the horse.

Instead of developing the child's own faculties of discernment, and teaching it to judge and think for itself, the teacher uses all his energies to stuff its head full of the ready-made thoughts of other people. The mistaken views of life, which spring from a false application of general ideas, has afterwards to be corrected by long years of experience; and it is seldom that they are wholly corrected. This is why so few men of learning are possessed of common-sense, such as often to be met with in people who have had no instruction at all.—Schopenhauer.

At the conference here last week there were, besides Dr. John S. director of the Legion's performance, was the humorous character with the unlimited supply of liquified good time. The voice which maintained the thread of the story back stage was that of Professor C. W. Batchelder. Les defix femmes of the French cafe and the Red Cross nurse were well portrayed.

The Canyon Novelty Orchestra, popular musical organization of the community, furnished music during intermission.

Last Act Is Clever

The last act of the program, the Depression, In and Out, was composed of some especially brilliant skits. "Harlem Moon," sung by the double quartet of mixed voices, was an example of their excellent harmony.

The only possible way to describe Horace Hickox in his presentation of "Goofus" is to say, "It's a gift." A chorus of girls directed by Mrs. Wallace O'Keefe dramatized colorfully in a tap dance the "Love Song of the Nile." Costumes for this dance were designed by Mrs. O'Keefe.

Low and melodious, much like the negro songs of the delta, was "Lazy Bones," sung by Vera Tiner who accompanied herself on the guitar. "Red" Holston was Lazy Bones, sleeping his life away, to whom the song was sung.

"Three Little Pigs" is Finale The grand finale of the program was "Three Little Pigs." This song was presented as a burlesque of a well-known phase of school life, that is, the ever-present controversy between students and the Dean of Women or the Dean of Men. One of the pigs, representing the students, finally overcame the big bad wolf, the Dean of Women or the Dean of Men. Some students, no doubt, wonder if they will be as successful as the little pig, Brownie.

In the interpretation of the songs of the other groups, some of the best talent of the schools was represented.

Misses Lela Loudder and Pearl Mayben, cleverly dressed in rustic costumes, sang "Under the Old Umbrella." Pantomimes in the group "The Gay Nineties" were "Two Little Girls in Blue," by Charles Donnell and Dick Smith; "Silver Threads Among the Gold," by Lorene Robbins and Charles Donnell. Helen Boswell dramatized "Sweet Bunch of Daisies." In the interpretation of "Bicycle Built for Two" were Helen Boswell and A. J. Reeve.

Todd Brothers Sing

Besides the chorus of rollicking tunes in the second group, Dawn of the Century, the Todd Brothers, Bill and Edd, sang "Sweet Adeline," accompanied by the guitar. They later sang two other duets, "Let the Rest of the World Go By" in the Post War Songs, and "The Last Roundup" in the Depression, In and Out songs. Charles Taylor and Adella Beavers dramatized "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," Charles singing the solo, the double quartet singing the chorus. An old fashion square dance to the nimble tune of "Turkey in the Straw" finished this group. Music was furnished by Ted Clark and Vera Tiner.

In the two groups of songs, Post War Songs, and Ye Olde Prosperity, unusually well presented numbers were:

"I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles," in which colorful balloons were released, by Lorene Bowman; Lucy Jo Loudder and Frances Alice Clark sang a duet, "Three O'clock in the Morning;" "Missouri Waltz" pantomimed by Dixie Foster, the negro mammy; "Saint Louis Blues," saxophone solo by M. D. Shepherd, and a vocal solo in which he accompanied himself on the banjo; a tap dance by Melva Gamewell and Dorothy Faye Rusk; and "Tip Toe Through the Tulips" pantomimed by "Red" McInnis.

Coach Milton Morris reports that thirty-three high school girls are reporting for basketball practice. Intramural teams will be organized and games matched.

By JOHN DANIEL

The University of New Mexico "Lobo" gives the events in all activities for the coming week in a most clear and concise manner by boxing and setting out divisions for each day.

We find a statement in the editorial column of the "Simmons Brand" to the effect that if athletics are cut out there is a wedge driven into the heart of the school.

"Obviously the 'every man for himself' policy is responsible for the unequal distribution of the world's goods and therefore for all the maladies of mankind: ignorance, poverty, misery"—Excerpt from Sul Ross "Skyline."

Coming from a college newspaper this does our heart good.

We see in many college sheets news stories of debate activities. We students here, interested in debate, are most unfortunate in having no sponsor.

C. I. A. is to offer culture courses next semester. No examinations will be required and one-third of a semester hour will be given as credit for each course.

We notice in the "Optimist" that the men have to have character to rate with the A. C. C. coeds. What would we men do if the W. T. coeds required the same?

N. T. S. T. C. is installing a printing press for its publications and we hear rumor that Texas Tech is to do the same.

T. C. A. L. "South Texan" carries a long story of our President's son's trek to the South Pole with Byrd.

We have to hand it to Dick Baker of the "Amarillo College Ranger" for writing one of the best joke columns we have seen. He organizes his gags into a setting.

The words "Unfettered Thought" appearing on the seal of E. T. S. T. C. makes us hope that there really is such an animal as unfettered thought.

Here is a cute little ditty from the Alabama Teachers College "Flor-Ala":

Poor little fly on the wall
Him ain't got no cloths at all
Him ain't got no panty-skirt
Him ain't got no shimmy-shirty
Him ain't got no part in his hair
Taint because his ma don't care
It's 'cause he ain't got no hair.

Two things were common to all the college papers: announcements of semester examinations and the beautiful lady of the Chesterfield Ad.

Wranglers Study Indian History

The Wranglers are enjoying a series of instructive meetings. The first of these was on January 9 in the museum where Dr. Debo gave interesting bits of history concerning the Indians of the Plains and demonstrated her lecture with relics.

At the second of these meetings Miss Walker gave a very interesting talk on clouds and cloud formations. Wranglers enjoyed the charts and pictures, especially those pertaining to this section of the country.

There is a profusion of rare material in the college and the Wranglers are taking advantage of their opportunity to learn of nature from those who have studied it deeply.

Separate patrol meetings and song assembly will feature the next meeting. All Wranglers are requested to attend.

About The Dance

WHAT A DANCE! What a compliment the chaperones passed on the crowd! Of course we were eaves-dropping and heard, "This is one of the prettiest and best all-around dances I have attended." That's enough to give us the big-head; and, fellow students who did not attend, you have our sympathy for missing the most sublime dance of the year. Music was furnished by the "Rhythm Boys," colored orchestra of Amarillo. The girls, what a bunch of beauties; and the boys, what gentlemen. . . . Now is your chance to make up for this loss—be at the ALL-COLLEGE DANCE February 2 (after the Tech game) in the Burton Gymnasium from 9:30 to 12:00 sponsored by the Pi Omegas, the proceeds of which are to pay for the coronation.

Sophomore Assembly Program

The Sophomores, directed by their president, Mary McCaslin, presented an interesting program Friday at assembly. The first number consisted of Hawaiian guitar numbers played by Carl Neighbors and John McNeil. Lavada Charles read "Laska"; and Sam D. Burton, assisted by Cato Merchant proved that his new hobby "Magician-ism" was quite useful, when he performed several of his tricks. A review of the most prominent Americans of the day was made in "Who's Who of 1933" in which J. L. Norman represented Thomas A. Edison; Cato Merchant, Henry Ford; Henry Hamblen, Charles Lindbergh; June Guinn, Anne Lindbergh; Carmel Lee Guinn, Amelia Earhart; Gerald Noble, Richard E. Byrd; Joe D. Whittenberg, President Roosevelt, and Sam D. Burton, Will Rogers.

The program was closed with a clarinet duet by Meredith Warren and L. E. Thomas.

Calves Have Busy Week

Saturday afternoon, January 13, the Calves ended a two-game series with Hartley by dropping the last game to them 18-16. Calf subs played part of the game.

Tuesday evening, Jan. 16, the Calves played Hatcher Brown's Happy Jacks in Burton Gym. The Jacks are one of the most talked-of teams in the Panhandle. However, they left Barnard, their star player and captain, at home on account of illness; and, with their leader out, the Jacks were unable to stop the onrushing Calves, who by the end of the game, had accumulated 24 points to the Jacks' 17. Penick, Calf forward, went out of the game in the last period, on personal fouls. Following the main game, the Calves' second team played Happy's second team. The Calf subs lost, 18-6.

Senior Play Cast Is Chosen

The cast for the Senior play, "Aunt Betty of Butte," has been selected. Those chosen are: Agnes Smith, Virginia Murray, Jewell Alma Glass, Madelyn Bull, Don Savage, J. T. Sykes, and Wayne McNeil.

VAUGHN AND SAVAGE CHOSEN SCHOOL FAVORITES

Alpha Vaughn and Don Savage carried off the victory in the finals of the all-high school popularity contest Saturday.

Vaughn

Alpha is one-half of the well-known Vaughn Duo who have attracted so much attention in W. T. She and her sister, Alta, are from Wellington, where their father has a position in one of the schools. The twins are completing their senior year. Small, graceful, and smartly dressed, the sunny-haired Alpha is considered one of the most beautiful girls on the campus. She enters enthusiastically into all school activities, being interested in sports as well as in her studies. Her good disposition and courteous manners have made her the chosen favorite of her school mates.

Savage

Don Savage—Don the debonaire—with his deep brown eyes and winning ways, has been chosen the favorite boy of W. T. High. Despite having been spotlighted so often, being at present president of most everything on the campus, he remains surprisingly unspoiled. He loves sports, especially basketball in which he frequently stars, and is fond of social activities. Don, who is the younger son of Superintendent F. E. Savage, has lived in Canyon the greater part of his life. Don is one of the most versatile of the students in High School, and we believe he rightfully deserves the honor of being our "most popular boy."

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Coffee and Miss Ada Clark gave a program Friday evening in the Pan-tex and Fritch schools.

Virginia Bruton, a senior, was visited by her husband, Major Bruton, last week-end. Mr. Bruton, who is teaching and ranching in New Mexico, is a former student of W. T.

Pi Omegas Shout, Whatta Hangover!

We guess you all remember we had a coronation not long before Christmas. Well, that coronation cost money, and we still lack two payments before the lumbermen, printers, cleaners, etc. quit claiming our queen. Now, you see this event might be termed a hangover to get the mortgage off our beauty house, but don't begin turning up your noses—hangovers are generally like that but this one is different. You're going to love it. Here's the low down—you'd better sit down so you can take it. On February 2 after the basketball game with Tech the Pi Omegas are sponsoring a dance. But that ain't nothing yet—it's going to be in the Burton gymnasium. Now hold your breath—lasting from 9:30 until 12:00, and those colored Rhythm Boys that played Saturday night for the college dance will furnish the music. That makes everything just swell, so put on your sport clothes and come in full force. The best people won't miss it. Stags 75c—Couples 50c.

Those liking invitations sent please leave name and address with Connie Wayland in the Registrar's Office.

Attend Services Held In Amarillo

A number of Canyon people were present Thursday morning at the services in the Episcopal church in Amarillo which made Rev. Walter Henckell a member of the priesthood of that denomination. Rev. Henckell spent several summers in Canyon as student pastor of the local church.

Following the services he was honored with a luncheon at the Parish House in Amarillo. Among the guests were: Mrs. Geraldine Green, and daughter, Nell, Mrs. Elizabeth Fry Page, and Miss Helen Hickman.

er and club colors. The flower chosen was the pansy, and the colors, purple and gold. Plans were made for a Valentine party.

Louise Ashby left Tuesday, with her parents, for Portales, New Mexico, where she will make her home. Students of the high school regret Louise's leaving, as she was one of the best-liked and most scholarly students of W. T. and had spent almost all her school life in the demonstration school. Louise was a member of the "Tumbleweed" staff and was vice president of the Latin Club.

Mr. York was absent from his math classes for several days last week. He accompanied the Buffs to New Mexico for a series of games.

The Snoop

Why all the moaning and groaning, girls? Don't be a bunch of "lily-whites" and let a little basketball get you down.

Glum were the faces of the Pep Squad girls when they found that they couldn't get into the basketball game on their looks Tuesday.

If you hear a loud smacking and popping, don't get excited—it's only the freshmen chewing gum. Although she is one of the chief "chewers" Pearl Mayben says she never buys any gum. Won't somebody please explain?

The "eternal feminine" insists on breaking out in Gebo Clark. Did you notice his ear bobs?

Personally, we won't care a bit when the new flooring in the college is completed; the material used in constructing it is being used for less worthy purposes at ball games and such.

Think nothing of it if Cato Merchant's head seems a trifle swelled. He got a compliment the other night! Honest Injun—we heard it with our own little ears.

We admit nothing. But not being Walter Winchell (with accompanying keyhole-peeping and crawling-under-the-bed facilities) we can't collect all the spicy gossip. And so, folks, to make a long story short, we're going to grant you the privilege of furthering a good cause. A box will be placed near the Tumbleweed basket in Room 316, in which you may get even with your favorite enemy by writing some good, clean dirt about him and dropping it into the "fire box."

Jewell Alma Glass felt like the "donkey" Tuesday night when she suddenly discovered that she was the only member of the Pep Squad that was yelling.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Announcement is made that students who are leaving at the end of this semester may enroll for correspondence courses at the Bureau of Public Service before they go home.

Over At MOORE'S CO-OP

(By Wm. Hawkins)

Some people are always making unusual decisions; one can judge for himself whether they are wise. A bet was made among the group that a certain man couldn't to such and such a thing, though he maintained he could. Anyway, Robert Farley closed the deal by contributing, "Why you guys are crazy; one of you is bound to lose." Of course, another gentleman had to come forth to match his wits with those shown above. The time selected was immediately after an unsuccessful attempt at mouse slaughter when Charles Townes opened up with, "It's no use, cook, it's useless for you to try matching brains with a mouse."

These "Bargain Night" shows have quite an effect on the Co-Op. Wednesday night, after all was quiet, it turned out that the entire bunch had seen the show in one manner or another.

Last Saturday morning a tragic thing happened. You have all heard the tragedy of Romeo and Juliet. Well, it happened to two occupants of our Co-Op. Two mice were gleefully chasing around during the wee hours of the morning. One accidentally stepped in a trap and passed out. The next morning the other mouse was found dead on the floor beside the trap in which his mate had perished.

When any of you boys are in need of a date just come around and ask about the "Alton Harrell" system. Jody Boston can also give you a few hints on the subject.

We have a very bold bunch, indeed, here at the Co-Op. Why just the other night "Hefty" Mc-Minn crept around the house with a huge weapon. It seems to have been a duke's mixture of a rifle, cannon, and a machine gun. The point is that not even one little freshman left the house in a big hurry—they were asleep and did not see it.

What is this new game that so fascinates Smith, Todd, and Street? They play it quite often and are not tiring of it, as it has its advantages. It toughens you considerably as it involves beans, or matches and a belt. The game was introduced to the eager freshmen by the upperclassmen.

We have one constant fear and that is that we are afraid Charles Taylor will get in a hurry some day. However, we are on the look-out and will be prepared for the worst.

Dufлот To Speak

Professor J. L. Dufлот will speak to the Young Democrats Club in Pampa Monday evening, January 29, at 7:30. The subject of his address will be "Distributive Justice and the New Deal."

Miss Mary M. Richardson had as her guests Saturday Misses Mattie Devin and Betty Rose Kerr, who are teaching this year in Olton. Miss Richardson reports that they took Jokko, her celebrated pet "monkey," home with them for a visit.

Dr. Meyer and Mr. Condron were representatives of Canyon at a Chamber of Commerce banquet in Plainview last Tuesday night.

NEW EDUCATION CLASS

A new class in Education, listed as Education 332, Child Psychology, is being offered for the next nine weeks term. The class will be taught by Miss Anna I. Hibbets and will meet at 10 o'clock each morning.

WESLEY BANQUET

Plans are being made, announces Miss Mattie Mae Swisher, for the Tenth Annual Wesley Student Banquet which is to be given soon. Definite date has not yet been set.

The affair is expected to bring numbers of ex-students and former pastors of the local Methodist church to the campus for the affair which is the main social event of the winter season of the Wesley Foundation.

Reception Is Lovely Affair

Among the lovely affairs of the past week was the reception given Wednesday evening by the Methodist church in honor of the faculty members of the College and the Canyon High School.

Guests were received by Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Quattlebaum, G. G. Foster, Miss Mattie Mae Swisher, Ray McEntire, Mrs. R. McGee, Mrs. C. M. Dowlen and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shook. During the receiving hour music was furnished by La Trice Quattlebaum and M. D. Shepherd.

The spacious social hall was attractively lighted by means of shaded ceiling and floor lamps, and was marked at intervals by pot plants.

The program of the evening opened with two vocal solos, "Trees" and "Sweetest Lil' Feller," by Mrs. L. F. Sheffy, following which Miss Swisher sang "The Swallow," and "Like Barley Bending." Both singers were accompanied by Miss Quattlebaum.

Herschel Coffee gave a violin solo, "Nobody Knows the Troubles I've Seen," accompanied by Miss Pauline Brigham.

Words of welcome were given by Rev. Quattlebaum, which were answered by Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the College, and Superintendent Irby Carruth, of the Canyon High School. J. H. Stroud, Chairman of the Board of Stewards, made a short talk to the assembly.

Refreshments were served by a committee of the ladies of the Methodist church to approximately 135 guests.

EL CIRCULO ESPANOL PLANS SPECIAL PROGRAM

El Circulo Espanol Menedez Pidal has arranged a very interesting program for its next meeting, Wednesday, Jan. 24. Modern Spanish artists and painters will be the chief topics discussed, in both Spanish and English. Special talks will be given about the tapestries and art museums of Spain.

Spanish students! This is a worthwhile program which you can't afford to miss. Come to Miss Hudspeth's at 7:15 tomorrow evening prepared to enjoy a short, but very entertaining program. All Spanish students are urged to attend. Visitors are welcome.

LONIE BETH WEAVER WEDS IN AUSTIN

Announcement was received here this week of the marriage of Miss Lonie Beth Weaver, formerly of Canyon, and Mr. Joe C. Rawlins, of Austin, on January 12. Dr. Lawrence Wharton, minister of the University Presbyterian Church, officiated at the quiet ceremony in one of the small parlors of that church. Those attending the service were: Miss Mary Alice Weaver, Miss Eva Jeves, Miss Elizabeth Allen, Miss Oliva Le Sueur, and Mr. Harde Le Sueur, all of Austin.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Weaver of Canyon and was a student of W. T. before going to Austin in 1931. She was editor of The Prairie during her last year at W. T., and was identified prominently with many of the student activities. She received her B. A. degree from the University of Texas in June 1933. Since her graduation, she has been employed in the book department of E. M. Scarborough & Sons Department Store at Austin.

Mr. Rawlins is the son of Dr. and Mrs. E. V. Rawlins of McCombs, Texas. He is a student in the engineering school of the University of Texas. From 1929 to 1931 he was employed by the State Highway Department in Upton County.

The young couple will be at home at 604½ West 19th Street, Austin.

LE MIRAGE Previews

Dear Fishy Wishy:

Well, ol' thing, I'm sure glad to see that you survived the few days vacation from the establishment of learning or whatever you want to call it. Of course you had a rather large time, did you not? Really I think everyone on this staff had too large a time.

From what I hear, those two freshmen, MARY GARDNER, and HELEN BOSWELL, really had one hilarious time down there in that big town of Memphis. All the former has been talking about since she came back is someone by the name of ROY. The latter hasn't much to say. I don't know whether she's trying to keep it a secret or whether she just didn't do anything. But I can't imagine that, can you?

And then of course you know that ol' SNOZZLE PETE WILLIAMS just slept away his two weeks, or rather that is what he says (?) Well, anyway he had better catch up on a lot of sleep, because when the annual comes out, he'll be busy dodging teachers, students, beer bottles, etc. My, My, but he really has ideas of his very own, on how some people look in cartoon style.

YVONNE THOMAS informs me that just one big time was had by all up there in that wide place in the road, Pampa. Just one big happy family is all.

But ZUA GAY WARNER wins the crocheted piece of work. Tsk, ts. She went up to her old stamping grounds, none other than Lincoln, Nebr. From what I hear from a grapevine, she had a "Simply Gorgeous Time." Well more power to her.

And of course you know the sad but happy news (to her) about our old EDITOR MARTHY. I haven't got the heart to tell, but FRANK MONROE is the other person in the picture. Guess for yourself what happened. They are engaged. Who'd a thunk it!

The last shipment of the material for the annual is gone. I left last Saturday. I guess that about finishes up the work around the office for a little while at least. The first shipment of copy came back from the engravers a few days ago. Everything was in first class shape. Well, it won't be long now until the fountain pens will be in use again, and I suppose for the first time by some people.

KENNETH KENDRICK turned

Faculty Continue To Visit Schools

Members of the faculty are still visiting schools, although some of them have been forced to change slightly from the original schedule. Among those who have made trips to schools in the Texas Panhandle during the past two weeks are: Miss Darthula Walker, head of the Geography Department of W. T. went to Tulla on January 12, to visit the geography department of the high school there and to observe their progress in nature study.

Prof. Wallace R. Clark, head of the music department visited the music classes in Pampa on Thursday, January 11. Prof. J. L. Duflet, head of the Sociology Department made a trip to White Deer Saturday visiting the social science classes.

Dean Geraldine Green and Miss Helen Hickman plan to visit the public schools in Floydada on February 8.

Talks To Classes

Colonel Edward R. Coppock, commander of the Palo Duro CCC Camp, spoke to the members of Professor Anderson's American History class and members of the International Relations Club in Room 17, at 3:30 Monday afternoon. Col. Coppock chose as his subject, "The Organization of the United States for National Defense."

Mrs. T. V. Reeves and Miss Ethel Murrell attended a social meeting of the Pampa branch of the A. A. U. W. in Pampa Thursday.

to "KNIGHT OF THE ROAD" to get home for the holidays. He hasn't said anything about it so I guess he got there oke. At least he got back.

Well, ol' thing, that's about all the dope I could find on the members of this high and mighty company of young studs who are trying to give the college something to be proud about, or what have you. I think I must toodle along. I hope to hear more and sooner from you. It won't be long now before you will have to get to work, will it?

Love,

Willy Billy.

P. S. Oh yes, I forgot to tell you what I did during my off time. Well, I'm not going to tell, but I did have a mighty fine time New Year's Eve!

T-Anchor Farm News

(By Howard Weatherby)

My, my, just bubbling over with news, scandal and occurrences.

Last summer Wilburn Spauld became acquainted with a girl named Adoline. He doesn't know her last name nor does he care. He wants to know her address, but he feels confident that if he knew whether her name began with a Q or a W he could get in touch with her. If anyone can, will you please help Spauld? He is worried.

Ole Cucy Clement is in the lime-light again. He has special advice to all household or commercial cooks with regards to cooking sugar cured hams. Please write to him immediately if you are interested and get this latest secret on "How hams should be cooked." Once you get a taste of this fiery, briny, fresh boiled meat, he is sure you will always be its slave.

The case of John Blaine is just another case of an old score being settled in a painful way.

Last year, Sybil (that's the gentleman cow at the T-Anchor) gave John a nice race. John sped about with Sybil at his heels insisting that John stop and fight it out. Which John didn't. John, however finally made a place of safety. As the months rolled by this act kept John peeved and with a grudge in his heart. Then to absolutely get even with Sybil, yesterday John hit Sybil, Jr. on the nose and said, "Now go tell your papa who hit you."

As to the Todd brothers. I'm afraid that the student body has them a bit mixed up. Now this, we think, will straighten them out for you. Edd composes songs and Bill exposes them.

You know Ross Paine. Well, someone threw a rock in his face, and he came out with a dusty spot on his upper lip, but it has some disadvantages. The growth is slow because each sprout gets "plucked" so often. That's a case where artificial methods work out of harmony with nature.

Barn dance, goodness yes! Ernest Corbin, John Rankin, Bill Todd and Jake Hibbs are barn dancers, judging from the way they go lumbering about.

And there is a story about freshmen Andrews and Browning which I shall save for future use.

Among the ex-students observed on the campus Saturday were J. C. Knowles, Roger George, Gwendolyn Black, and Nancy Graham.

Evening their results of games played this season, the West Texas Buffaloes downed the New Mexico Normal University quintet in a two game series on the Cowboys' court by the scores of 32-21 and 25-23.

As the score indicates, the Buffs had a tough job on hand during the second game, but easily kept the lead in the first game after a good start.

However, at the end of the first period, the going looked rough with the Herd holding only a one point lead in the score of 10-9. But Stroud got on with one handed shots in the last half and ran up a lopsided score. He was ably helped by Walker, who chalked up 8 points during the game. Stroud was high point man with 12 points. The Cowboys scattered their scoring, Dunbar leading with 6 points.

During the second contest, the lead seesawed from team to team, the game belonging to anyone until the last shot. Hutchinson and scoring with 7 and 8 points, respectfully. McMinn and Richards of West Texas followed closely with 6 points each. Phillips and Walker turned in a good game.

The Trio*Good-Bye Nudists

If you are undecided to join or not to join a nudist colony, listen to what Dr. Arthur Loeb, Chicago, says:

"The direct rays of the sun have the same effect on the body that it has on a car-top; peels, cracks, and ages it. What woman wants to be peeled, cracked, and aged? And what nudist camp will flourish without the gentler sex?"

Heard This?

Dr. Cook relayed a swell joke to us from Dr. Pierle, but the other Texas columnist, Tack, beat us to it, so here's another. A small boy was fishing on posted property, when the game warden came up.

G. W.—Say, kid, can't you read? That says, "No fishing."

Kid—Why, I ain't fishin', I'm just givin' this worm a bath.

G. W.—Well, it says, "No bathing without suits," also, and your worm isn't wearing one, so you're out of luck.

The other third of the Trio is helping us give you a break this week. When Squint Phillips spread this B. B. stuff back in the old days, it was a powerful column. Everyone believed in him. If Squint said that son'nso were considering matrimony, and so'nso didn't even know each other, why they would get together and put it over, just cause they thought Squint was a prophet er sumpin'.

Are You Vulgar?

Modern Etiquette says that speaking of the fiancé as the boy friend is vulgar, ill-bred, etc. Do you know a W. T. co-ed who is that way? Or one who isn't? Another vulgar word 'round this joint is courtin'. When we first heard it this fall, we thought the speaker was from some hick town where necking (a 1930 word) had not reached, but as days passed, we noticed that everyone, even the teachers, used the word. If you want to open a conversation, just ask, "Who you courtin' now?"

Comments on Nothings

Ruth Palmer must have been mixed up the other morn when she mistook the front steps of the Ad. Building, for the gym and did a little tumbling act. Walter Cummings tells us that he got that black eye when he bumped into a building. Nasty remarks about Winged Victory: Bill Pitman says, "I'm glad she's gone. She has cracked my head more than once." Mike Stewart, "Now, where will I hang my hat?"

Caller: "Oh, that's all right, just tell her that I'm glad I didn't come."

The West Texas Freshmen opened their basketball season Saturday night in a fast tilt with the Wayland Jackrabbits, trouncing them by the score of 35 to 23.

Williams of Wayland, tied with Smith, Fish forward, for high point honors with 13 points. Davis, Yearling forward and former all district man in high school, was second with 11 points.

For Dual Meet

Intramural wrestling and boxing is now in full swing, announces Professor Herschel Jennings, who predicts that a number of those out for these sports give indication of being future winners for W. T. Some 16 boxers and wrestlers are in full time training for the Dual Meet which is to be held at Lubbock February 12, and for the return meet here on March 9.

Plans are being made to attend the Southwest Boxing and Wrestling Tournament which is to be held at Lubbock on March 2 and 3, states Mr. Jennings.

She: "Oh, I don't know. There's the young fool who marries an old fool."

Another sign of jangled nerves...

Door banging, teeth gritting, foot tapping, arguing over trifles—or the old favorite—telephone slamming... Just little ways which prove nerves are getting out of hand... Danger signals... If you're guilty of such gestures, check up—

Watch your nerves... Get your full amount of sleep every night. Eat regularly and sensibly. Find time for recreation.

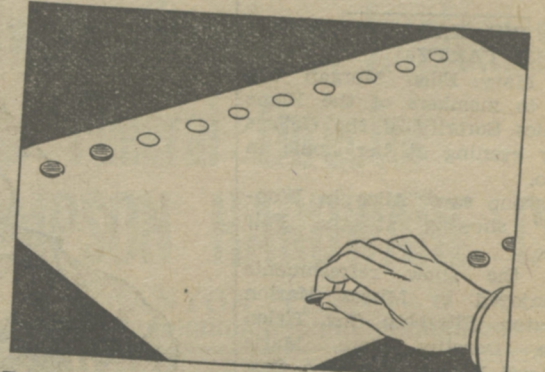

And smoke Camels—for Camel's costlier tobaccos never get on your nerves.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS than any other popular brand of cigarettes!

How are YOUR nerves?

TEST No. 13

Take a large sheet of paper, approximately 20" wide by 12" deep. Along the top draw ten circles, each the size of a penny. Along the bottom put ten real pennies... Now pick up the pennies one by one with your right hand and place them as quickly as you can exactly inside the circles at the top of the page, beginning at the left. Have someone time you. Average time is 12 seconds.

Wm. T. Tilden 2nd (Camel smoker), tennis champion, did it in 8 seconds.
